Barbara Ferrer • BOTH SIDES NOW
Diversion Books/June '15

Comparable to Jodi Picoult, Rita Award winning author, Ferrer's BOTH SIDES NOW follows the engrossing and thought provoking story of two unlikely lovers with nothing in common except both have spouses fighting for their lives, as they begin to battle their complicated feelings for one another.

Translation: NYLA/Adrienne Rosado

Lindsay Marcott • THE PRODUCER'S DAUGHTER
Crooked Lane Books/November '15

"An exciting and engaging story from a Hollywood insider. You'll find yourself rooting for the good guys, booing the bad guys, and thanking your lucky stars the film industry hasn't come calling for you." -- SJ Rozan, Edgar Award-winning author

A west coast wild child risks danger as she tries to uncover the truth behind her glamorous mother's tragic death in a compelling, suspenseful novel that explores the allure of celebrity and its dark side; old family secrets, and an unlikely love story combine in a tantalizing mix.

Debra Ginsberg • WHAT THE HEART REMEMBERS
NAL/ September '12

From critically acclaimed NY Times Notable writer Debra Ginsberg – author of Blind Submission and Waiting: True Confessions of a Waitress among others – a thoughtful, provocative suspense tale.

Does the heart carry its own memories? This suspenseful novel centers on the unlikely--and dangerous--friendship between two women; a wealthy young widow and the recent recipient of an organ transplant, whose new heart may have given her more than a second chance. Drawn together by forces they don't understand, neither woman is who she appears on the surface; and as their complicated friendship deepens so too do their secrets and lies.

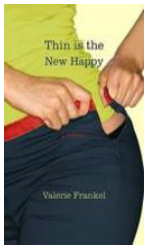
Valerie Frankel
IT'S HARD NOT TO HATE YOU
St. Martin's / September '11

In her distinct and insightful way, Frankel explores all the byways of our constant companion, Hate; using as roadmap her personal experiences (disastrous and empowering) and augmenting with advice and research from experts, to arrive at a better understanding of the uses of our inner bitch.



THIN IS THE NEW HAPPY (now in its 7th printing)
St. Martin's / September '08

A universally relevant, hilarious, inspiring and insightful memoir chronicling her life-long battle with her body image. The New York Times said*: "The rueful, zestful, surprisingly funny story of Ms. Frankel's battle reads like a sequel to the adventures of the chubby heroine of Judy Blume's young-adult novel Blubber,"* and Kirkus gave it a starred review, calling it "a self aware, witty exploration of a woman's body issues."

Frankel is the acclaimed author of lively, edgy fiction, and a frequent contributor to Vanity Fair, Redbook, Cosmopolitan, Outside, New Woman and Self.

Dr. Jim Levine
Author of the International Bestseller The Blue Notebook

GET UP!
St. Martin's Griffin/July '14

In Get Up! , health expert James A. Levine's original scientific research shows that today's chair-based world, where we no longer use our bodies as they evolved to be used, is having negative consequences on our health, and is a leading cause of diabetes, cancer, and heart disease. Levine shows how to throw off the shackles of inertia and reverse these negative trends through simple changes in our daily lives.
