ARENA PUBLISHING

Arena Publishing was founded in 1949 and is today one of the most important publishers of books for children and young adults in Germany. We publish a broad range of titles in our fiction and non-fiction lists; our programme includes titles for all age groups – from toddlers up to young adults. Arena was the first German children’s book publisher to start a paperback programme in 1958. Books from Arena already won numerous awards and are translated into many languages. We are also honored to be the German home of internationally well-known authors like Cassandra Clare, Roderick Gordon and Brian Williams, Tove Jansson, Jo Nesbø, Unni Lindell or Neil Gaiman.

WELCOME TO OUR YOUNG ADULTS CATALOGUE!

- STIGMATA is an exciting mystery thriller by Beatrix Gurian that goes under your skin: Emma’s mother dies in a car accident. In order to learn more about her mother’s past, Emma takes part in a youth camp that takes place in an old château. Hints pile up that this is where Emma’s mother had been living as a young woman and that dark things had happened there.
- Lukas Erler’s YA thriller debut BURNING WATER picks up a hot topic: Fracking. The plot shows the international interdependency of this issue with parallel stories set in the US and Germany. Teenagers witness the dangers of fracking on both sides of the Atlantic while they get in the way of a multinational drilling company.
- Time for a change: Christoph Marzi, our fantasy specialist, tries something new. FIVE DAYS IN APRIL is a heart-melting romantic/ family mystery set in New England. Jack retraces his dead mother’s lost love and unravels the tragedy that chased her away from her hometown while finding first love and a new home for himself.

BURNING WATER

Josh, Caro and Speedy can't believe what they're seeing: When they sneak up to Old Matthis' house to watch him, they see fire coming out of his water faucet. Soon after, there's an explosion and the whole house collapses. Just a terrible accident? While the youngsters in Northern Germany are still wondering about the incident, the explosion causes great excitement for a Canadian energy company: It has conducted test drillings in the area around Matthis' home. The three eye witnesses could break a million-dollar deal. Somebody will have to silence them a.s.a.p...

MEMOIRS

This series presents extraordinary contemporary and true stories told by juveniles for juveniles, noted down written by professional ghost-writers. The books focus on the individuals whose lives are being described, his or her current situation, fears, wishes, past as well as visions for the future. The young person's biography becomes alive in an honest, direct and comprehensible way. The individual titles inform and sensitise the reader; they are intended to provide food for thought and facts to the target group. They question and differentiate the personal point of view – and they offer a contrast to the reader's own life.
