The Little Dragon Coconut – Find the Fire Dragon

A hide-and-see-book

12 pages

format: 24,0 x 32,0 cm

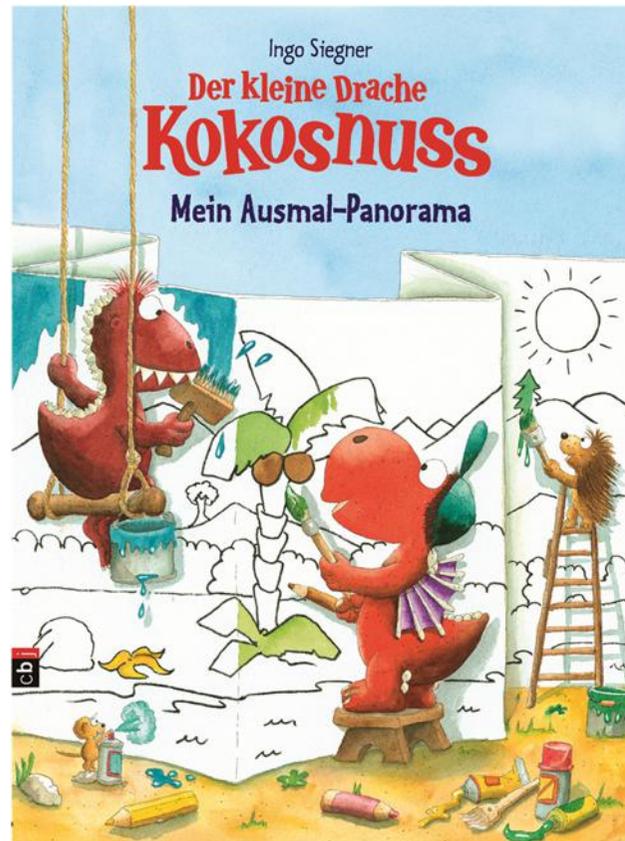

Illustrated in colour

November 2015

Target group: 4+

In a colourful double-page look-and-find picture even the youngest Coconut fans can help find the red fire dragon. On the following page, porcupine Matilda has hidden between the trees in the jungle. And greedy guts Oskar would like to go diving and visit moray eel Muriel. But her hiding place is in the coral reef and well camouflaged ... Six double pages packed with look-and-find pictures and activities from Coconut's world give children loads of fun.

Here comes the longest Coconut colouring book in the world

Activity Book

The Little Dragon Coconut – My Colouring Panorama

16 pages

format: 24,0 x 32,0 cm

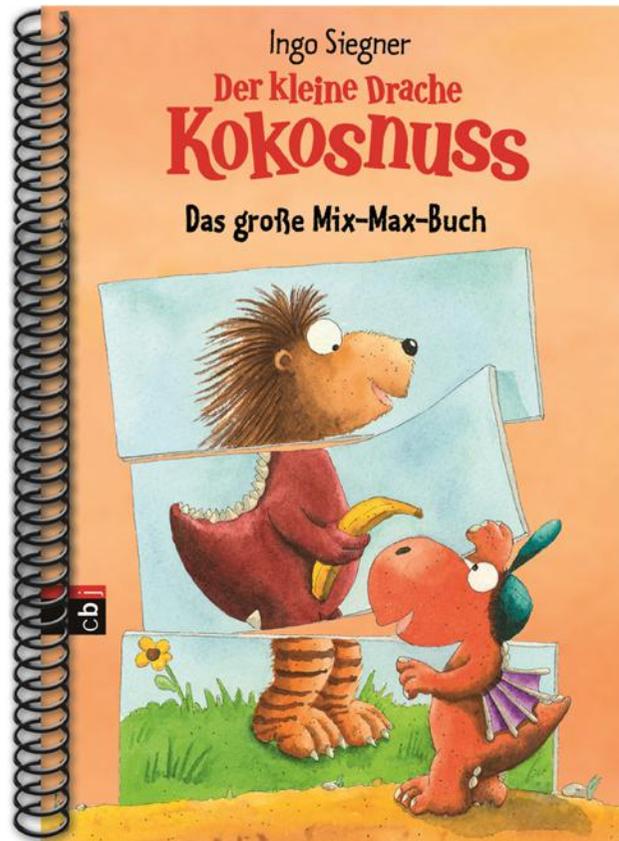

Illustrated in colour and b/w

November 2015

Target group: 4+

Page by page, the dragon island opens out until it is 160 centimetres long, with scenes from the Coconut stories, all waiting to be coloured. It starts off at Fire Rock and then carries on to Dragon Bay. From there Coconut, Oskar and Matilda walk through the big jungle, over Colourful Mound, into the Witch's Woods to Cliff Stone Palace ... The result is a huge wall frieze children can hang up after colouring.

Strixi – An Owl on Thin Ice

Volume 2
144 pages
format: 15,5 x 21,0 cm
With colour illustrations
October 2015

Target group: 8+

Emilia's class is planning to go to the ice rink. Emilia already has visions of herself doing pirouettes on the ice. She can't understand why her best friend Jakob keeps on ranting and raging at the very idea and refuses to go with them. What an idiot – why has he got to spoil everything? Luckily, however, she has her owl Strixi, who with her owl's eyes can see into other people's hearts. Strixi thinks that Jakob, whose father has just lost his job, feels he can't pay the entrance fee. When Emilia hears about this she immediately has an idea: she and Jakob do the shopping for elderly people, which is fun and earns them enough money to pay for Jakob to get into the ice rink. Thank you, Strixi.

Something to help Christmas come more quickly

Hans Jürgen Press (1926-2002), with his picture-puzzle stories for young sleuths, nature observation books, his thought games and his "Game for Learning Science" has created classics that are unique. His son Julian Press, born in 1960 and the author of the Liquorice Gang books, has taken on the task of taking care of this legacy and passing it on to later generations of readers.

October 2015

Target group: 9+

Fanni and Finn are positively itching with excitement, for that very weekend the traditional meeting of ghost hunters is taking place in Monsterland. The highlight is going to be the ceremonial renewal of the ghost hunters' oath in the Neander Valley at midnight. Especially for the occasion, ghost hunter Buh-Futsch from China has brought a Golden Horn which keeps away evil curses and gives ghost hunters power over evil spirits.

The following morning, however, there is a nasty surprise awaiting them – the Golden Horn has been stolen. And suspicion immediately falls on Fanni's beloved servant Mister Mummy ...

God-Cow Polly

208 pages · format: 15,5 x 21,0 cm
With b/w illustrations
August 2015

Target group: 9+

Polly is to go? Johann is ten, his parents are divorced – and he is horrified. After all, Polly is his god-cow and of course he must at all costs save her from ending up as steak at the butcher's. Johann gets unexpected help from his otherwise usually absent father who loves India and thinks cows are sacred.

Without further ado, father Armin buys Polly from the farmer, puts her in a trailer pulled by his ancient Benz and takes her to an animal sanctuary. Samantha, Armin's stepdaughter-to-be, is sitting next to Johann in the car, but she has "PDHCD" – Pessimism Deficiency and Hyper-Cheerfulness Disorder. It goes without saying that this crazy bunch have the most incredible adventure on their journey ... A funny and warm-hearted family road movie.

Family Trip – No Thanks! – Your Polly's secret notes

Volume 3

192 pages · format: 15,5 x 21,0 cm

With b/w illustrations

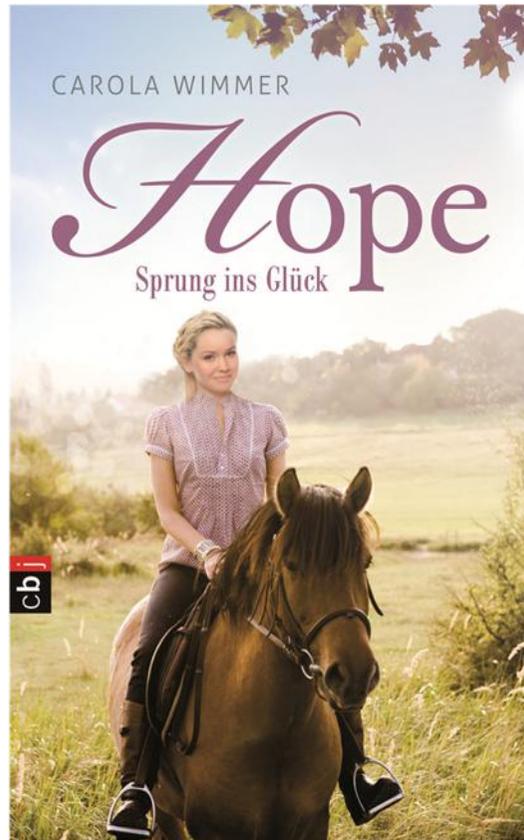

September 2015

Target group: 9+

Things are not easy for Polly: in order to try out Papa's latest invention, the Blume family has to go camping. The tents for "camp to go" are meant to be self-inflatable, the mobile bathroom contain every conceivable luxury and the universal kitchen takes the place of a campfire.

Trying to be nice to Polly, Mummy invites a few of her classmates to go along with them. The trip looks like it will be a success after all. But then it turns out that neither is there any mobile phone signal in the woods nor hot chocolate at bedtime. And when some wild animals appear on the scene and the tents don't work as they should chaos is the name of the game...

Finja & Franzi – Black Cat Two Times Over

Volume 3
208 pages
format: 13,5 x 21,5 cm
With b/w illustrations
July 2015

Target group: 10+

There is stormy weather brewing between Finja and Franzi at the Bumble Bee Mill boarding school: Franzi is at a loss how she is to cope with the sailing regatta, while Finja is worried about the school's donkey Pietro, who has become ill from loneliness. Because Franzi won't listen to Finja (and vice versa) the twins are not on speaking terms. But when one night Franzi has to be covered up for because of a clandestine practice sailing session, Finja is at hand. And Franzi obviously stands by her sister when Finja is caught sending emails in the name of the head teacher to find a lady donkey friend for Pietro. All's well that ends well: Finja gets the school's sailing club onto the winners' rostrum and Franzi's biology club will soon have to take care of two donkeys.

Perfect for the bedtime ritual

I'm Nele 3-Minute Stories. Favourites for cuddling and dreaming

96 pages · format: 19,5 x 24,0 cm
Illustrated in colour
November 2015

Target group: 3+

Nele loves cuddling with her Auntie in the evening and listening to a story before going to sleep. What is even better is when she can choose her very own special Nele story. For example the story in which Nele is a princess. Or the one in which Nele goes on a kindergarten trip to the zoo and meets a very nice tiger there. Or the one in which Nele rides on a magic pony.

A wonderful story-time book with short stories on a wide range of topics, stories in which every child can find his or her favourite.

Say "No" to strangers

I'm Nele - Nele says: No, I Don't Go With Strangers

Volume 10

26 pages · format: 20,0 x 20,0 cm

Illustrated in colour

October 2015

Target group: 3+

Today Daddy is going to fetch Nele from kindergarten. Nele is waiting impatiently by the gate for him. Most of the other children have already gone. Then a friendly man bends down to Nele and speaks to her. He shows her a picture of a cute little dog. Nele does not know the man. And from Mummy she knows that she must not speak to strangers. Loudly she says, "I don't know you" and runs back into the kindergarten. Mrs Beesting comes towards her. Nele helps her a little with the tidying up. But it is not long before Daddy arrives. He was just held up a little.

This book gives children the courage to loudly say "No!" when they feel uncomfortable. It demonstrates how clear rules and arrangements help to protect our children. Usch Luhn writes with sensitivity without giving rise to fear and with Nele's story has provided a good opportunity for discussions at home and at kindergarten.

Where the wild forest animals are

Just Ask the Mouse – First Facts: Forest Animals

Volume 20
 16 pages · format: 19,2 x 19,0 cm
 With colour illustrations
 August 2015

Target group: 3+

There are all sorts of animals living in the forest. The Mouse has been having a look round and now knows where the squirrels live, why wild boar just love rolling about in the mud and how young foxes learn to hunt. But why is the beaver building a damn? And why is the woodpecker knocking on the bark of the tree? The Mouse knows the answers. Colour stickers featuring animals to be found in the forest allow children to have the animals in their own room at home.
