MARIE BENEDICT

THE OTHER EINSTEIN

Sourcebooks
October, 2016

- A fascinating novel of Albert Einstein’s wife in the vein of Loving Frank, The Paris Wife, and Z

Mileva Maric, known as Mitza, was the only woman in the elite Zurich Polytechnic Institute studying physics in 1896. She caught the eye of her fellow student, Albert Einstein, who courted Mitza and eventually convinced her to marry him.

The challenges of their unique “Bohemian” partnership came quickly and from all quarters: the anti-Semitism of the time, prejudices against a girl in the elite world of science, loss, grief, deception; and just as they were finding forgiveness and renewed commitment, the couple had to adjust to the ascent of Einstein as a world-renowned genius.

There is no doubt among historians that Mitza Einstein remained a supportive wife and devoted mother to the three children they would have together. What is hotly debated is the role Mitza played in Einstein’s groundbreaking work, including the 1905 special theory of relativity. Was Mitza simply an informed sounding board? Did she do the complex math that underpins it? Or was her contribution far more essential, inspired by her own profound insight and experience?

THE OTHER EINSTEIN is a rigorously researched novel that tells the story of a brilliant and fascinating woman whose light was lost in Einstein’s enormous shadow.

“Could the theory of relativity actually have been conceived by “the other Einstein?” In this fascinating and thoughtful novel, we learn that this is more than possible.”

GOODBYE FOREVER

Severn House
June, 2016

- Crime blogger and radio host Kit Doyle goes undercover – and into danger – in the second of this intriguing crime series.
- The sequel to IF ANYTHING SHOULD HAPPEN

17-year-old Jessica is missing. There are no clues as to why she disappeared, apart from the note she left behind: I love you. Goodbye forever. Jessica is not the first teenager to have gone missing, leaving behind exactly the same note.

With a family connection to the missing girl, crime blogger and radio host Kit Doyle is determined to find out what happened to her. To do so, she must go undercover as a teenage runaway herself. Kit enters a violent, unpredictable world out on the streets where life is cheap. When she captures the attention of a dangerous psychopath, she must not only save her own life, but figure out a way to stop him for good.

Bonnie Hearn Hill has written seven thrillers for adults including the first in this series, If Anything Should Happen, four books for children, and the nonfiction writing guide Digital Ink. She teaches and leads writers' workshops in California and is at work at the third book in this series.

INGA: Kennedy's Great Love, Hitler's Perfect Beauty, and J. Edgar Hoover's Prime Suspect

Lyons Press
October, 2016

The great love of President John F. Kennedy's life, Inga Arvad, was also a suspected Nazi spy, and in fact, Adolf Hitler's special guest at the 1936 Berlin Olympics. She was an actress, journalist, explorer, and a screenwriter. In addition to her romance with Kennedy, Arvad married four times — including to an Egyptian prince, the brilliant filmmaker Paul Fejos (with whom she went to live with a tribe of headhunters in Indonesia), and the famed cowboy movie star Tim McCoy. She had affairs with Wall Street financier Bernard Baruch, the noted surgeon Dr. William Cahan, and Winston Churchill's right hand man, Baron Robert Boothby.

Yes, she was Miss Denmark in 1931, but by all accounts, these men loved Inga not for her physical beauty but for her joie de vivre. She was a genius with people, she was daring and adventurous, and she was their equal.

Like Isak Dinesen, Beryl Markham, and Claire Booth Luce, Inga Arvad led a life that both sheds light on and defies the stereotypes of women of her time. Inga's life took place among the European and American elite (the overlap of which is stunning); it took place during the rise of Hitler's Berlin and the outbreak of World War II; it took place where gossip intersects with history, and demonstrates the powerful influence of the private life on public events.

Scott Farris is a former bureau chief for United Press International and a political columnist. He is also the author of ALMOST PRESIDENT: The Men Who Lost the Race but Changed the Nation and KENNEDY AND REAGAN: Why Their Legacies Endure. He is the Director of Government Relations for TransCanada and lives with his family in Portland, Oregon.

BUDDHA'S DIET: The Ancient Art of Losing Weight Without Losing Your Mind

Running Press
September, 2016

- A new approach to weight loss based on the Buddha's teachings and the latest scientific research. Simple, clear, and effective, it has more to do with when you eat than what you eat.

Buddha said very little about food, but the one thing he did say he said emphatically: that his followers should avoid “untimely eating.”

Over 2,500 years later, scientists call this “time restricted feeding,” and studies show it is highly effective in weight loss.

Using Buddha’s own story and wisdom, and combining it with modern science, the authors of this book outline a sustainable healthy lifestyle that promises you will lose weight without losing your mind.

“A science-based, spiritually inspired, time-tested guide to weight loss. I just loved reading this. Fascinating!”

CITY OF SPIES

Harlequin Teen
May, 2016

- The second in the Pagan Jones series, set in the 1960s and starring Pagan Jones, actress and spy
- Booklist* calls Pagan Jones a “smart, charismatic heroine given depth by her struggles with alcoholism” and Kirkus calls it a “well-paced thriller.”

Celebrating her escape from East Germany and the success of her new film, teen starlet Pagan Jones returns to Hollywood to reclaim her place among the rich and the famous. She's thrilled to be back, but memories of her time in Berlin—and the elusively handsome secret agent Devin Black—continue to haunt her daydreams. The whirlwind of parties and celebrities just isn't enough to distract Pagan from the excitement of being a spy or dampen her curiosity about her late mother's mysterious past.

When Devin reappears with an opportunity for Pagan to get back into the spy game, she is eager to embrace the role once again—all she has to do is identify a potential Nazi war criminal. A man who has ties to her mother. Taking the mission means that she'll have to star in a cheesy film and dance the tango with an incredibly awful costar, but Pagan knows all the real action will happen off-set, in the streets of Buenos Aires.

But as Pagan learns more about the man they're investigating, she realizes that the stakes are much higher than they could have ever imagined, and that some secrets are best left undiscovered.

Nina Berry is the author of the Otherkin trilogy.

CHARMED

Jabberwocky/Sourcebooks

March, 2016

- The second in the brand new Fairy Tale Reform School series where the teachers are (former) villains.
- Charmed* is the exciting sequel to the wildly popular *Flunked

It takes a (mostly) reformed thief to catch a spy. Which is why Gilly Cobbler, Enchantasia's most notorious pickpocket, volunteers to stay locked up at Fairy Tale Reform School...indefinitely. Gilly and her friends may have defeated the Evil Queen and become reluctant heroes, but the battle for Enchantasia has just begun.

Alva, aka The Wicked One who cursed Sleeping Beauty, has declared war on the Princesses, and she wants the students of Fairy Tale Reform School to join her. As her criminal classmates give in to temptation, Gilly goes undercover as a Royal Lady in Waiting to unmask a spy...before the mole can hand Alva the keys to the kingdom.

Her parents think Gilly the Hero is completely reformed, but sometimes you have to get your hands dirty. Sometimes it's good to be bad...

Jen Calonita is the author of the Secrets of My Hollywood Life, Sleepaway Girls, Summer State of Mind, and four other YA novels.

ROBIN CONSTANTINE

THE SECRETS OF ATTRACTION

Balzer + Bray (HarperCollins)
May, 2016

- “Fun and thoughtful—more than just a summer read.” —Kirkus Reviews
- “Constantine has a keen ear for witty teen banter and good insight into the deeply felt pain of young heartbreak.” — Bulletin of the Center for Children’s Books

Cassidy Emmerich is reeling from a sudden, humiliating breakup. The last thing she wants to do is stick around and be reminded of her ex everywhere she goes. On impulse, she decides to spend the summer with her father and his family at their Jersey Shore bed-and-breakfast. A different scene and a new job working as a camp counselor seem like the perfect recipe for forgetting Gavin as quickly as possible—not to mention for avoiding him until he leaves for college.

Bryan Lakewood is sick of nevers. You’ll never walk. You’ll never surf. You’ll never slow dance with a girl and have her put her head on your shoulder. Last year he made one false move—now he’s paralyzed and needs to use a wheelchair. But he’s back at his camp job and determined to reclaim his independence—and his confidence.

Cass is expecting two months of healing her broken heart.

Bryan is expecting a summer of tough adjustments.

Neither is expecting to fall in love.

Robin Constantine has two teenage children, from whom she gets all of her inspiration. She is the author of The Promise of Amazing and The Secrets of Attraction.
