

We'd like to take the time to update you on the latest and greatest JABberwocky has to offer before the Frankfurt Book Fair. Since Frankfurt last year, we've sold several debut novels, as well as enjoyed continued success with all of our clients. Although we will not be traveling to Frankfurt this year, we will look forward to seeing you at the London Book Fair in March and the Bologna Book Fair in April 2017!

JABberwocky's Latest and Greatest

Featured 2016 Debuts

MIKE GROSSO

Mike Grosso's debut I AM DRUMS is a virtuoso performance. The book is already so loved, it sold twice! It first sold to Egmont USA and then was picked up by Clarion Books after Egmont's closure and is a lead title for Fall 2016. Grosso is a musician and fourth-grade teacher, and his words ring true as he writes about a girl who follows her own beat. This contemporary middle grade will resonate with an entire generation of young readers with dreams of music.

K. EASON

K. Eason's stunning fantasy debut ENEMY immediately rose on Amazon.com's Kindle bestseller list, topping even Game of Thrones and Harry Potter to hit #1 among the fantasy bestsellers. Two months after its release date, ENEMY had collected 400 customer reviews, sold 5000 copies, and readers were clamoring for book two. In its first month on sale, the sequel, OUTLAW, sold nearly 3000 copies. This refreshingly diverse and feminist fantasy series is exactly what readers have been waiting for.

JOE ZIEJA

Joe Zieja's debut novel MECHANICAL FAILURE stars a smooth-talking ex-sergeant, who has become accustomed to an easygoing peacetime military. When he unexpectedly re-joins the fleet, he finds soldiers preparing for the strangest thing—war. With an experienced ear for military double-speak, Zieja has created a remarkable and sarcastic adventure in the spirit of Joseph Heller and Douglas Adams. The second book, COMMUNICATION FAILURE, is forthcoming in 2017.

Jack Campbell's Pillars of Reality series

The greatly anticipated finale to Jack Campbell's Pillars of Reality series is now here! The fifth book, THE SERVANTS OF THE STORM, was released in July, and the final installment, THE WRATH OF THE GREAT GUILDS, was released in August. The first book, THE DRAGONS OF DORCASTLE, sold over 3,500 copies in its first five days, becoming one of Audible Studios' greatest successes in the process. It sold over 12,500 copies in its first three months on sale and became a #10 Audible bestseller! It was also selected by the Science Fiction Book Club. The second book, THE HIDDEN MASTERS OF MARANDUR, sold over 1,600 copies in its first day on sale and over 5,000 copies in its first month on sale. This character-oriented grand adventure is a classic tale of prophecy, conspiracy, and the power of friendship, enjoyable for all ages. Find rights information here.

The Vicious Circuit trilogy continues with THE EMPTY ONES

This second installment in Robert Brockway's debut trilogy is a unique blend of retro urban fantasy, contemporary horror, and punk rock. The Vicious Circuit trilogy received a three-book, six figure offer from Tor at auction after only a week on submission, becoming the largest debut from a JABberwocky author to date. Following on the heels of his hilarious and horrifying novel THE UNNOTICEABLES, Robert Brockway's THE EMPTY ONES is like any good punk band: just when you think it can't get any louder, they somehow turn it up a notch. It's terrifying and hilarious, visceral and insane, chaotic and beautiful. Find rights information here.

Brandon Sanderson journeys into graphic novels with WHITE SAND

Brandon Sanderson's first foray into graphic novels, WHITE SAND: Volume 1, debuted at #2 on the New York Times graphic novel bestseller list in its first week on sale. WHITE SAND brings to life a crucial, unpublished part of Brandon Sanderson's sprawling Cosmere universe. The story has been adapted by Rik Hoskin (Mercy Thompson), with art by Julius Gopez and colors by Ross Campbell. Two more WHITE SAND volumes are forthcoming from Dynamite Entertainment. WARLOCK HOLMES shakes up a classic story

G.S. Denning's humorous Sherlock Holmes parody, WARLOCK HOLMES: A STUDY IN BRIMSTONE, was a top 10 Bookscan bestseller in the Mystery/Detective category its first week on sale! An imaginative, irreverent, and addictive reimagining of the world's favorite detective, WARLOCK HOLMES retains the charm, tone and feel of the original stories by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle while finally giving the flat at 221B Baker Street what it's been missing for all these years: a demon possession. This riotous mash-up is a glorious new take on the ever-popular Sherlock Holmes myth. Find rights information here.

The adventures in Riyria begin with AGE OF MYTH

Michael J. Sullivan's trailblazing career began with the breakout success of his Riyria series: spellbinding fantasy adventures with imaginative scope and characters that won a devoted readership and comparisons to fantasy masters Brandon Sanderson and Tolkien himself. Now, Sullivan's stunning hardcover debut, AGE OF MYTH, inaugurates an original five-book series that tells the story of Riyria in its earliest beginnings. Since time immemorial, humans have worshipped the gods they call Fhrey. But when a god falls to a human blade, the balance of power changes forever. Now, only a few stand between humankind and annihilation. Find rights information here.

The Scorched Continent marches on with BREAK THE CHAINS

Megan O'Keefe was the first place winner of the thirtieth Writers of the Future competition. On the heels of that victory, she published her debut novel STEAL THE SKY, first in The Scorched Continent trilogy. Pitched as "Dune-punk," O'Keefe has created a vivid world containing magic air and shapeshifters, where a drifting con-man finds himself in the middle of a worldwide conspiracy—one that may uncover his deadly secret. About the first book, Kirkus wrote, "Come for the heist, stay for the inventive world building." Find rights information here.

Bryce Moore's Bradbury-esque middle grade THE MEMORY THIEF

Bryce Moore's THE MEMORY THIEF is a middle grade novel in the vein of Ray Bradbury's classic Something Wicked This Way Comes. When Benji wanders off at the local county fair after seeing his parents argue, Benji enters a tent called The Memory Emporium. There he meets Louis, who shows him memories he has collected. Benji is happy to learn to become a "memory thief," as he believes he can use the technique to stop his parents' arguments. But the mysterious Genevieve is also a Memory Thief, one with much more nefarious motives, and Benji must learn to use his newfound power to stop her. Find rights information here.

Adam Rakunas delivers fun follow-up LIKE A BOSS

Adam Rakunas' LIKE A BOSS is the breathless and hilarious followup to his debut novel WINDSWEPT. This rum-soaked gonzo noir is the perfect marriage of Harry Harrison and Hunter S. Thompson, filled with all the sex, violence, and union labor relations you can handle. Rakunas delivers a fun read, with high-speed chases and brisk banter, while also exploring the limits of humanity in the face of corporate insanity. Find rights information here.

Introducing the wisecracking WAYPOINT KANGAROO

A high octane sci-fi spy thriller that puts a new spin on the outer space adventure, Curtis C. Chen's debut kicks off a blockbuster series full of adrenaline and intrigue. Publishers Weekly calls WAYPOINT KANGAROO "an auspicious start for its author and his wisecracking series," and Library Journal writes that "Zippy pacing and a hyperactive, wisecracking hero are two big reasons this space adventure succeeds. . .For those looking for a lively spy adventure in space, this is a fun debut." Find rights information here.

A GREEN AND ANCIENT LIGHT, a new literary fantasy for Gaiman fans

Frederic S. Durbin spins a gorgeous historical fantasy in the spirit of Pan's Labyrinth. Library Journal wrote, "This is a magical book that will appeal to those who loved Neil Gaiman's The Ocean at the End of the Lane and John Connolly's The Book of Lost Things." During a war that parallels World War II, a boy is sent to stay with his grandmother for the summer. Their tranquility is shattered by the crash of a bullet-riddled enemy plane, the arrival of his grandmother's friend Mr. Girandole, and the discovery of a riddle in the sacred grove of ruins behind the house. Find rights information here.

The Hallowed War trilogy begins with THE PAGAN NIGHT

Tim Akers' latest, THE PAGAN NIGHT, is an epic of mad gods, inquisitor priests, holy knights bound to hunt and kill, and noble houses fighting battles of politics, prejudice, and power. The Celestial Church has all but eliminated the old pagan ways, ruling the people with an iron hand. Demonic gheists terrorize the land, yet it's the battling factions within the Church and age-old hatred between north and south that tear the land apart. Find rights information here.

New Clients

JABberwocky now represents Nancy Farmer

We're thrilled to announce that JABberwocky now represents National Book Award-winning author Nancy Farmer! THE EAR, THE EYE AND THE ARM (1994) and A GIRL NAMED DISASTER (1996) were named Newbery Honor Books, and THE HOUSE OF THE SCORPION was both a Newbery Honor Book and the book that won her the U.S. National Book Award for Young People's Literature. She is currently editing another children's book and an adult book. We're very excited to be working with such a talented author! Read about available rights here.

We currently represent the translation rights for:

- THE EAR, THE EYE AND THE ARM
- A GIRL NAMED DISASTER
- A WARM PLACE
- DO YOU KNOW ME

Jay Posey

Jay Posey, author of The Legend of Duskwalker trilogy (Angry Robot), joins JABberwocky at the start of his incredible military science fiction series OUTRIDERS. Released in May from Angry Robot, OUTRIDERS follows a secret marine group that only takes on missions with the highest stakes. They're big, they're bad, they're the Outriders. The sequel, SUNGRAZER, was just sold to Angry Robot and we're proud to offer translation rights for Jay's entire catalogue. Jay is also a video game narrative designer, having spent the last eight years working on the award winning Tom Clancy series Ghost Recon and Rainbow Six franchises. Read about available rights here.

K.C. Alexander

K. C. Alexander's debut science fiction novel features a brilliant protagonist in the vein of Lisbeth Salander from The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo. In the futuristic world of NECROTECH, technology has been advanced to help keep people alive and healthy. . .until it goes too far. "Sci-fi that's slick, sharp and snarky — K. C. Alexander doesn't 'write' so much as she fires words into your cerebral cortex with an electromagnetic railgun," writes Chuck Wendig, New York Times bestselling author of Star Wars: Aftermath and Invasive. Dedicated to writing transhumanist novels, K. C. Alexander's previous writing credits include a critically acclaimed stint as Karina Cooper and she won an RT Reviewer's Choice Award for her urban fantasy series. The sequel to NECROTECH is currently under contract. Read about available rights here.

Dan Moren

We've just closed a deal with Talos for new client Dan Moren's debut title. THE CALEDONIAN GAMBIT is a science fiction spy thriller set against the backdrop of a galactic Cold War. Dan is a tech journalist and a podcaster whose work has appeared in the Boston Globe, Six Colors, Popular Science, Yahoo Tech, and Macworld, where he also formerly served as a senior editor. He co-hosts tech podcasts Clockwise and The Rebound, writes and hosts nerdy quiz show Inconceivable!, and is a frequent panelist on the Parsec-award-winning podcast The Incomparable. THE CALEDONIAN GAMBIT is forthcoming in summer 2017. ALCATRAZ VERSUS THE EVIL LIBRARIANS

By Brandon Sanderson

After creating the beloved Mistborn series and the enchanting novel Elantris, Sanderson delivered this wonderful middle grade series that filled the void left by Lemony Snicket. Tor Teen bought the rights to reissue the series, as well as the rights to a never before published fifth book, both in six-figure deals. Fans looking for more of his work for young readers after enjoying his New York Times bestselling YA titles, Reckoners series and The Rithmatist, will love this series. Sanderson has sold more than 8 million copies of his original fiction worldwide, and his works have been translated into 25+ languages.

RIYRIA REVELATIONS and RIYRIA CHRONICLES

By Michael J. Sullivan

Michael J. Sullivan originally self-published the Riyria Revelations series as six books, and then Orbit published the series as three omnibus editions, each containing two books. The Riyria Chronicles trilogy is a prequel to Riyria Revelations. The first two were published by Orbit, and Michael self-published book #3, The Death of Dulgath, with a very well-funded, fan-fueled Kickstarter campaign. There's no ancient evil to defeat or orphan destined for greatness, just unlikely heroes and classic adventure. Michael is now working on his newest series, The First Empire, a prequel to both Riyria series. The first book, AGE OF MYTH, was published in June.

GUSTAV GLOOM

By Adam-Troy Castro

Gustav Gloom is a lively middle grade series for fans of Roald Dahl and Lemony Snicket. Adam-Troy Castro is a Philip K. Dick Award-winning author, who has also been a finalist for six Nebulas, two Hugos, and three Bram Stoker Awards. Grosset & Dunlap made a big push for this series, making the first book in the series a Fall Lead Title. Grosset & Dunlap originally acquired the rights to the first four books in the Gustav Gloom series in a five-figure deal. Before the first book was even released, the publisher acquired books five and six for an additional five-figure sum. GUSTAV GLOOM AND THE CASTLE OF FEAR, the sixth and final book in the Gustav Gloom series, was released in August. The rights to all six books were recently sold to Huy Hoang in Vietnam and MAC Edukacja in Poland.

THE BLOODBOUND

By Erin Lindsey

Erin Lindsey's Bloodbound series is a page-turning fantasy that combines the political machinations of Game of Thrones with the romance of Outlander. The series stars a cunning and impetuous scout, Alix Black, who becomes the head of the king's personal guard after she saves him from certain death in the wake of his brother's betrayal. But while the king commands her duty, both he and a fellow scout lay claim to her heart, and she must choose between the two men who need her most. German rights to the first two books have been sold to Bastei Lubbe.

On the Horizon

CERTAIN DARK THINGS

Silvia Moreno-Garcia's highly anticipated second novel will be released in October 2016. Moreno-Garcia, author of award-winning debut SIGNAL TO NOISE, has radically reimagined vampire lore, and set her story among the drug world of Mexico. Publishers Weekly writes, "A bittersweet, satisfying ending confirms that Moreno-Garcia is an author to watch." Find rights information here.

Genesis Fleet: VANGUARD

Set in the same universe as The Lost Fleet and the Beyond the Frontier series, VANGUARD is the first in a new trilogy that takes place centuries before the events of The Lost Fleet. In VANGUARD, Earth is no longer the center of the universe. Humanity is rapidly establishing new colonies. But the vast distances of space also mean that the old order of protection and interstellar law offered by Earth has ceased to exist. Geary and Darcy must face down warships and armored soldiers—or die trying. Find rights information here.
