BEARING THE UNBEARABLE

LOVE, LOSS, AND THE HEARTBREAKING PATH OF GRIEF

Joanne Cacciatore
June 27, 2017 | Paperback | $15.95
248 pages | 6x9" | 9781614292968

Grief and love are two expressions of the same process—and nothing is more central to becoming fully human.

When a loved one dies, the pain of loss can feel unbearable. The process of grieving can feel wild and nonlinear—and often lasts for much longer than other people tell us it should. And it is important.

Dr. Joanne Cacciatore, a bereavement educator, researcher, and Zen priest, accompanies us in the painful process of transformation through love, loss, and grief. Organized into fifty-two chapters, this companion for life's most difficult time is heartrending and healing—revealing how grief can open our hearts to connection, compassion, and the very essence of our shared humanity. Through insightful writing and moving stories from her decades of work—as well as her own experience with loss—Cacciatore opens a space to process, integrate, and honor our own grief.

Dr. Joanne Cacciatore is director of the Graduate Certificate in Trauma and Bereavement at Arizona State University. Her work has been featured in the New York Times, Los Angeles Times, and Boston Globe and on CNN and National Public Radio. She lives in Sedona, Arizona.

THE BUDDHA'S DREAM OF LIBERATION

FREEDOM, EMPTINESS, AND AWAKENED NATURE

James William Coleman with Reb Anderson and Lama Palden Drolma

June 27, 2017 | Paperback | $16.95
176 pages | 6x9" | 9781614293583

Explore the foundations of Buddhism—the path out of suffering and the true nature of self—with this plain-English primer.

Three great teachings of the Buddha, known as the three turnings of the wheel, laid down the bedrock of Buddhist thought and practice, introducing to the world concepts that would revolutionize religious and philosophical thinking.

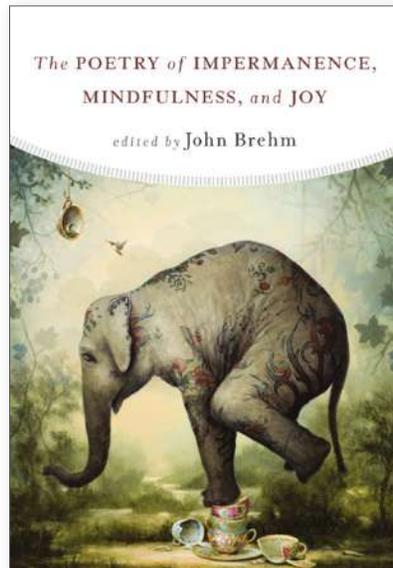

In remarkably clear language, Coleman guides the reader through the ancient sutras that preserve the Buddha's message, teasing out their meaning for a modern audience. He begins with the Pali Canon, the earliest record of the Buddha's teachings, and then moves through the Perfection of Wisdom literature of the second turning. Finally, his clear and simple presentation of the Sutra of the Explanation of the Profound Secrets ties the Buddha's wisdom together. The book concludes with chapters from two great teachers, one from the Zen tradition and one from the Tibetan Buddhist tradition, on how to use meditation to bring the Buddha's wisdom into our lives.

THE POETRY OF IMPERMANENCE, MINDFULNESS, AND JOY

Edited by John Brehm
June 6, 2017 | Paperback | $16.95
186 pages | 4.5x6.5" | 9781614293316

THE VAJRA ESSENCE

DÜDJOM LINGPA'S VISIONS OF THE GREAT PERFECTION, VOLUME 3
Translated by B. Alan Wallace
July 25, 2017 | Paperback | $19.95
368 pages | 6x9" | 9781614293477

Over 125 ancient and modern poetic companions, from Bashō to Billy Collins.

The Poetry of Impermanence, Mindfulness, and Joy offers a wide-ranging collection of ancient and modern poems unlike anything else. Buddhist poets like Han Shan, Saigyō, Bashō, Issa, and others are placed alongside those you might not expect—poets like Wallace Stevens, Robert Frost, Elizabeth Bishop, Billy Collins, and more. What these poems have in common, no matter when or where they were written, is that all reflect the essential truths the Buddha articulated 2,500 years ago.

With an in-depth introduction from editor John Brehm, fascinating biographical notes on the poets' lives, a short essay on "Mindful Reading," and a guided meditation included among the 129 poems, this is not just a book of poetry, but a way to begin or continue your spiritual practice.

John Brehm is the author of two award-winning books of poems. His poems have appeared in Poetry, The Sun, The Writer's Almanac, the Norton Introduction to Literature, among many other journals and anthologies. He lives in Portland, Oregon.

A systematic presentation of the path of Dzogchen, the Great Perfection, by one of its most renowned proponents and rendered by a master translator.

Dürdjom Lingpa (1835–1904) was one of the foremost tantric masters of nineteenth-century Tibet, and his powerful voice still resonates today. The Vajra Essence is Dürdjom Lingpa's most extended meditation on the path of Great Perfection, in many senses a commentary on all his other Dzogchen works. Revealed to Dürdjom Lingpa as visionary "treasure" text in 1862, The Vajra Essence takes the reader through seven stages of progressively deeper practice, from "taking the impure mind as the path" up to the practice of "direct crossing over" (tögal). The longest of Dürdjom Lingpa's works on Dzogchen, readers will find this a rich and masterful evocation of the enlightened experience. This is the first translation of this seminal work in any Western language, and B. Alan Wallace (The Attention Revolution), with his 45-plus years of extensive learning and deep meditative experience, is one of the most accomplished translators of Tibetan today.

Also in this series: Heart of the Great Perfection, Buddhahood without Meditation

Robert Aitken

Foreword by Nelson Foster

Illustrations by Jennifer Rain Crosby

August 22, 2017 | Hardcover | $19.95
224 pages | 4.75x7.25" | 9781614293842

The most comprehensive single commentary on the Way of the Bodhisattva
available.

One of the great classics of Buddhist literature, the Bodhicharyavatara is required reading for understanding Tibetan Buddhism. Presented in the form of a personal meditation in verse, it outlines the path of the bodhisattvas—those who renounce the peace of their own salvation, vowing instead to attain enlightenment for the sake of all others. The Dalai Lama once remarked that his own understanding of the bodhisattva path is based entirely upon Shantideva's text. Expounded by an accomplished scholar and meditator, Shantideva's Guide to Awakening is a resource for a lifetime of study. Verse by verse, it maps the Bodhicharyavatara, helping us to deepen our understanding of its teachings and apply them to our lives.

Previously published as The Way of Awakening.

Geshe Yeshe Tobden (1926-1999) spent several years teaching at the university in Varanasi. His final years were spent primarily in meditation retreat, touring occasionally, primarily in Italy.

A uniquely playful and incisive illustrated collection of Zen teaching stories from one of America's Zen masters.

Zen Master Raven is a modern classic. In the tradition of the great koan collections and the extensive records of ancient masters, Robert Aitken—one of America's best-known and most-respected Zen masters—distills a lifetime of teaching down to its essence. Intriguing, playful, and deceptively easy to read, Zen Master Raven is a brilliant encapsulation of Zen in over a hundred koan-like encounters—featuring curious beginners like Mallard and Mole, to teachers-in-training like Porcupine, to the profound wisdom of masters like Brown Bear, Moose Roshi, and Zen Master Raven himself.

This new edition features new illustrations and a new foreword by Nelson Foster.

Robert Aitken (1917-2010) was one of the most highly esteemed Zen masters of the last fifty years and one of the original founders of the Buddhist Peace Fellowship. He is the author of numerous books, including Taking the Path of Zen.

THE LIFE OF MY TEACHER

A BIOGRAPHY OF LING RINPOCHÉ

His Holiness the Dalai Lama

July 11, 2017 | Hardcover | $29.95
472 pages | 6x9" | 9781614293323

The Dalai Lama recounts the life of his mentor in the traditional Tibetan style in this richly illustrated volume.

The Sixth Ling Rinpoche (1903–1983) was a towering figure in Tibetan Buddhism. Combining great learning with great humility, he was ordained by the Thirteenth Dalai Lama and went on to serve as the head of the Geluk tradition and as the senior tutor to the present Dalai Lama. He was a singular influence on the Dalai Lama and became a steady presence for His Holiness during the chaotic changes that defined the Tibetan experience of the twentieth century. Ling Rinpoche's extensive travels among exiled communities buoyed the spirits of the Tibetan diaspora. The life and actions of this consummate Buddhist master, here told in the Dalai Lama's own words, will inspire and amaze. Over one hundred archival photos bring the text to life.

APPROACHING THE BUDDHIST PATH

THE LIBRARY OF WISDOM AND COMPASSION

His Holiness the Dalai Lama and Thubten Chodron

August 15, 2017 | Hardcover | $29.95
384 pages | 6x9" | 9781614294412

The first in an eight-volume collection of the Dalai Lama's definitive teachings on the Buddhist path.

The Dalai Lama has been publically teaching Buddhism for nearly seventy years. This series collects his presentations of every step of the path to enlightenment. Traditional presentations of the path in Tibetan Buddhism assume the audience already has faith in the Buddha and believes in rebirth and karma, but the Dalai Lama realized early that a different approach was needed for his Western students. Starting from the universal human wish for happiness and the dynamic nature of the mind, His Holiness here provides a framework for the modern reader to make sense of this rich tradition. This first volume provides a wealth of reflections on Buddhist history and fundamentals, contemporary issues, and the Dalai Lama's own personal experiences.

The Dalai Lama is the spiritual leader of the Tibetan people. In 1989 he was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. Venerable Thubten Chodron is the author of several bestselling books. She lives in Newport, Washington.

Two unique sourcebooks conceived by the Dalai Lama collect the scientific observations found in classical Buddhist treatises.

Science and Philosophy in the Indian Buddhist Classics compiles classical Buddhist explorations of the nature of our material world and the human mind and puts them into context for the modern reader. This ambitious two-volume series, a major resource for the history of ideas and especially the history of science, has been conceived by and compiled under the visionary supervision of His Holiness the Dalai Lama himself. It is his view that the explorations by the great Indian masters of northern India in the first millennium CE still have much that is of interest to us today, whether we are Buddhist or not, and these volumes make those insights accessible.

Forewords by Sylvia Boorstein and Jan Willis

October 23, 2017 | Paperback | $17.95

Deepen your meditation with earthy advice from celebrated Tibetan Buddhist masters like Jamgön Kongtrul, Patrul Rinpoche, and Ju Mipham.

For generations, Buddhist masters in Tibet have composed poignant instructions tailored to the needs of their disciples in the form of short works of advice. Due to their brevity, these works can be difficult to find in publication. This anthology of personal advice and practice instructions focuses on an influential and inspiring generation of Buddhist teachers: the nineteenth-century ecumenical, or rimé tradition of eastern Tibet, including well-known figures such as Jamgön Kongtrul, Patrul Rinpoche, and Ju Mipam. A Gathering of Brilliant Moons provides lively translations of nineteen pithy and profound works of advice by these great masters.

The accompanying essays in this volume by the fourteen translators explore the aesthetic qualities of their chosen works, highlight ecumenical features in them, and comment on the journey of translation. This unique book will be welcomed by religious scholars, Buddhist practitioners, and meditators.

Part personal reflection, part guidebook, and part manifesto of what ails our country and our communities.

How can we connect our personal spiritual journeys with the larger course of our shared human experience? How do we compassionately and wisely navigate belonging and exclusion in our own hearts? How can we embrace diverse identities and experiences within our spiritual communities, building sanghas that make good on the promise of liberation for everyone?

If you aren't sure how to start this work, if you've begun but aren't sure what the next steps are, even if you're already engaged in this work, Awakening Together is for you.

COMMENTARY OF TSONGKHAPA'S LAMRIM
CHENMO | VOLUME 5: INSIGHT

Geshe Lhundub Sopa
with Dechen Rochard

Foreword by His Holiness the Dalai Lama

December 12, 2017 | Paperback | $39.95
816 pages | 6x9" | 9781614293231

The final installment of the Steps on the Path to Enlightenment examines the nature of reality with a master class in Buddhist Middle Way philosophy and meditation.

In his fifth and final volume of commentary on Lama Tsongkhapa's masterwork on the graduated steps of the Buddhist path, Geshe Sopa explains the practice of superior insight, or wisdom, the pinnacle of the bodhisattva's perfections. All the Buddhist practices are for the purpose of developing wisdom, for it is wisdom that liberates from the cycle of suffering. All other positive actions, from morality to deep states of meditation, have no power to liberate unless they are accompanied by insight in the nature of reality. With unparalleled precision, Geshe Sopa unpacks this central principle with scholarly virtuosity, guiding the reader through the progressive stages of realization.

Geshe Lhundub Sopa (1923–2015) trained at Sera Je Monastic University and was a debate partner for the Dalai Lama. He founded Deer Park Buddhist Center in Wisconsin.

November 28, 2017 | Paperback | $18.95
300 pages | 6x9" | 9781614294429

The inspiring life story of the bestselling author

Bhante Gunaratana has long been among the most beloved Buddhist teachers in the West. Ordained at twelve, he would eventually become the first Buddhist chaplain at an American university, the founder of a retreat center and monastery, and a bestselling author.

Here, Bhante G. lays bare the often-surprising ups and downs of his more than ninety years, from his boyhood in Sri Lanka to his decades of sharing the insights of the Buddha.

This expanded anniversary edition includes four new chapters in which Bhante reflects on the impact of the tsunami that struck his homeland in 2004 and his subsequent appearance on Larry King Live, his brief experiment in ordaining nuns at his monastery, as well intimate reflections on the loss of family members and his own aging and infirmity—providing an inspiring model to us all of gracious equanimity.

DIVINE STORIES

DIVYĀVADĀNA, PART 2

CLASSICS OF INDIAN BUDDHISM

Translated by Andy Rotman

December 5, 2017 | Paperback | $29.95
544 pages | 6x9" | 9781614294702

Explore one of the most celebrated collections of classical Buddhist legends.

Ancient Buddhist literature is filled with tales of past lives and how, according to the Buddha, individuals met a particular fate. With stories of wicked wives, patricidal princes, and shape-shifting serpents, Divine Stories is a fascinating expression of how Buddhists have illustrated the law of karma—the truth that the power of good and ill deeds, once created, is never lost. These are some of the oldest Buddhist tales ever committed to writing, illuminating the culture of northern India and bringing to life the Buddhist values of generosity and faith.

Andy Rotman's translation of this collection combines accuracy with readability, with detailed notes comparing readings in the available Sanskrit texts. Divine Stories is major contribution to Indian and Buddhist studies.

Andy Rotman teaches in the Religion Department at Smith College. He lives in Northampton, Massachusetts.

COMMENTARY ON THE PLATFORM SUTRA

Shodo Harada

January 23, 2018 | Paperback | $18.95
240 pages | 6x9" | 9781614291145

DEEPEST PRACTICE, DEEPEST WISDOM

THREE FASCICLES FROM SHÖBÖGENZŌ WITH COMMENTARY

Kōshō Uchiyama

Translated by Daitō Tom Wright and Shōhaku Okumura

January 30, 2018 | Paperback | $39.95
816 pages | 6x9" | 9781614293231

Explore the seminal Platform Sutra, with one of the greatest living Zen masters as a guide.

A lodestone of Zen Buddhism, the Platform Sutra presents the life, work, and wisdom of Eno, or Huineng, the fascinating seventh-century Sixth Patriarch of Chinese Zen. An illiterate woodcutter who famously attained enlightenment after only hearing a single line of a sutra, he went on to decisively upstage senior monks with a poem that demonstrated the depth and clarity of his insight. His exhortations to directly perceive one's true nature still reverberate today.

Shodo Harada Roshi's fresh reading of the Platform Sutra offers both the history behind the work and the lived experience of its wisdom. In a conversational voice, Shodo Harada brings the sutra to life, discussing and explaining its central points chapter by chapter and illustrating it with his own beautiful calligraphy. This is far from a collection of dry lectures; it is an essential Buddhist text brought to life.

Shodo Harada Roshi is the abbot of Sogenji Zen Monastery in Okayama, Japan, and travels frequently.

Also by Shodo Harada Roshi: Moon by the Window

Commentary on a beloved ancient philosopher of Zen by a beloved contemporary master of Zen.

Eihei Dogen was a thirteenth-century Buddhist poet-philosopher and founder of the Sōtō school of Zen. Famously insightful and famously complex, his writings have been studied and puzzled over by generations of students.

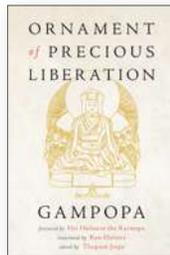

Kōshō Uchiyama, a beloved twentieth-century Zen teacher and author, here addresses himself head-on to unpacking Dogen's wisdom for a modern audience. Deepest Practice, Deepest Wisdom presents three fascicles of Dogen's monumental Shōbōgenzō, or Treasury of the True Dharma Eye. For each one, the translators lovingly render Uchiyama's thoughtful commentary on the piece. At turns poetic and funny, always insightful, this is Zen wisdom for the ages.

Also by Kōshō Uchiyama: Opening the Hand of Thought, The Zen Teaching of Homeless Kodo
