

LONDON 2018

International Rights Guide

Featuring Titles Publishing from
Fall 2017 to Summer 2019

St. Martin's Press
All Points Books
Castle Point Books
Minotaur Books
Thomas Dunne Books
Wednesday Books
Tor/Forge Books
Page Street Publishing

TABLE OF CONTENTS

GENERAL FICTION	3
ROMANCE	11
MYSTERIES/THRILLERS/ADVENTURE/HORROR	15
SCIENCE FICTION/FANTASY	24
YOUNG ADULT/TEEN	28
GENERAL NON-FICTION	33
BUSINESS/COMMUNICATION/FINANCE	39
HEALTH AND WELLNESS/LIFESTYLE/COOKERY/ACTIVITY	42

For more information about our titles please contact:

Kerry Nordling

Director of Subsidiary Rights

UK, Australia, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Scandinavia

kerry.nordling@stmartins.com

(646) 307-5718

Marta Fleming

Associate Director, International Rights

Spain, Portugal, Brazil, Latin America, Eastern Europe, Middle East, Asia

marta.fleming@stmartins.com

(646) 307-5715

Christopher Scheina

Senior Rights Manager

Tor/Forge Books – All Territories

chris.scheina@stmartins.com

(917) 494-5752

E. Witt Phillips

Assistant Manager, International Rights

Page Street Publishing – All Territories

witt.phillips@stmartins.com

(646) 307-5016

GENERAL FICTION

AN ANONYMOUS GIRL by Greer Hendricks and Sarah Pekkanen (St. Martin's Press, January 2019)

Comparison: Behind Closed Doors by B.A. Paris

In the next book from the New York Times bestselling authors of The Wife Between Us, a young woman is struggling to make ends meet in New York City, so she takes a chance and lies her way into what she thinks will be an easy way to make a quick $500. It's a psychology study on morality and ethics, and all it takes is two hours of her time and a willingness to answer questions honestly...and anonymously. Though the professor is fascinating, the questions seem odd, and oddly intimate. She leaves with the money in her pocket and a minor obsession with the study and the professor. But as she inserts herself deeper into the professor's murky world, the requests for her participation become more and more personal, and the stakes grow higher. What started as a white lie now becomes a fun-house of twists and turns that will have her lying to know the truth.

Praise: “[A] jaw-dropping psychological thriller...Unforgettable twists lead to shocking revelations all the way through the epilogue.”—Publishers Weekly (starred review) on The Wife Between Us

The Wife Between Us* debuted at #2 on the New York Times bestseller list, hit the list 10 straight weeks, and has sold over 300,000 units!

Foreign sales: Netherlands/Luitingh-Sijthoff

Previous title foreign sales: Arabic World/Dar Altanweer, Brazil/Companhia Das Letras, Bulgaria/Colibri, China/Citic, Croatia/Znanje, Czech Republic/Albatros, Denmark/Gyldendal, Estonia/Varrak, France/Sonatine, Germany/Rowohlt, Greece/Klidarithmos, Hungary/Alexandra, Iceland/Forlagid, Israel/Miskal, Italy/Piemme, Korea/Korea Literature, Inc., Latvia/Kontinent, Lithuania/Alma, Macedonia/Sakam Knigi, Netherlands/Luitingh-Sijthoff, Norway/Cappelen Damm, Poland/Zysk, Portugal/Objectiva|PRH, Romania/Grup Media Litera, Russia/AST, Serbia/Vulkan, Slovakia/Albatros, Spain/HarperCollins Español, Sweden/Modernista, Taiwan/Sun Color, Turkey/Dogan Kitap, UK/Pan Macmillan, Vietnam/ Nha Nam

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 352

Also available: The Wife Between Us (2018)

THE GIRL HE USED TO KNOW by Tracey Garvis Graves (St. Martin's Press, April 2019)

Comp: Me Before You by Jojo Moyes

From the internationally bestselling author of On the Island comes a compelling, moving, and hopelessly romantic novel. Annika Rose has always been “different.” Sensory overload is a constant problem for her. She has a hard time reading people and feels lost in social situations. She's a brilliant chess player but can't pull together an outfit to save her life. In her last year of college, her only real friend is her roommate until Jonathan, a sexy transfer student, joins the chess club and is immediately captivated by the beautiful girl whose attention is completely transfixed on her game. Despite the challenges they face, the two fall in love and embark on a relationship. Jonathan is patient and understanding of Annika's “quirks” and seems to like her just the way she is. Annika, in turn, finds the world less confusing and ominous when she's with Jonathan. As graduation looms, they begin making plans for the future; but a tragic event forces them apart, shattering their connection and leaving them to navigate their lives alone. A decade later, a highly functioning Annika and a jaded Jonathan meet by accident and feel the tug of old feelings and the passionate attraction they once shared. Will they be able to pick up where they left off, or will time and old betrayals keep them from each other?

Foreign sales: Germany/Droemer, Israel/Kinneret, UK/Orion

Material: manuscript

Page count: 304

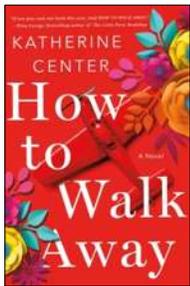

THE SCENT KEEPER by Erica Bauermeister (St. Martin's Press, May 2019)Comp: The Snow Child by Eowyn Ivey

Emmeline lives with her father, John, on a remote, unpopulated island in the Pacific Northwest's middle passage. Brought there when she was a baby, Emmeline's past is a complete mystery to her, as is her father, who is obsessed with a collection of glass bottles that he keeps locked away. Each bottle holds a magical scent. With her father's help, Emmeline journeys into the scents and learns their stories. Day by day, month by month, John teaches her to use her keen sense of smell to survive. At night, he reads Emmeline fairy tales. Enchanted by both the magic of the scents as well as the fairy tale world her father's stories evoke, Emmeline dreams about the places she will one day travel. But then the idyllic world her father has created on the island begins to slip away. The scents in the bottles start to disappear, and her father's grasp on reality goes with them. The quest that follows will take Emmeline far from the island she knows, out into a world of love, betrayal, ambition, and revenge, each of which has its own smell. To understand her past, and figure out her future, Emmeline must put the missing pieces together and challenge the limits of her heart and imagination.

Praise: "Sensual...evocative...A book designed to both fill you up and make you hungry for life."—Publishers Weekly on Joy for Beginners

Material: manuscript

Page count: 368

HOW TO WALK AWAY by Katherine Center (St. Martin's Press, May 2018)Comp: PS, I Love You by Cecelia Ahern

Margaret Jacobsen is just about to step into the bright future she's worked for so hard and so long: a new dream job, a fiancé she adores, and the promise of a picture-perfect life just around the corner. Then, suddenly, on what should have been one of the happiest days of her life, everything she worked for is taken away in a brief, tumultuous moment. In the hospital and forced to face the possibility that nothing will ever be the same again, Maggie must confront the unthinkable. First there is her fiancé, Chip, who wallows in self-pity while simultaneously expecting to be forgiven. Then, there's her sister Kit, who shows up after pulling a three-year vanishing act. Finally, there's Ian, her physical therapist, the one the nurses said was too tough for her. Ian, who won't let her give in to her pity, and who sees her like no one has seen her before. Sometimes the last thing you want is the one thing you need. Sometimes we all need someone to catch us when we fall. And sometimes love can find us in the least likely place we would ever expect.

Praise: "Center's characters . . . leap off the page with their unique voices, and their relationships evolve slowly and satisfyingly. Although this is largely the story of Margaret learning to make the most of her life, it's also a touching and believable love story with plenty of romantic-comedy flourishes. A story about survival that is heartbreakingly honest and wryly funny, perfect for fans of Jojo Moyes and Elizabeth Berg."—Kirkus Reviews (starred review)

Foreign sales: Germany/Goldmann, Israel/Miskal, Italy/Piemme, Netherlands/De Boekerij, Russia/Eksmo, Slovakia/Ikar, Sweden/Printz, UK/Pan Macmillan

Previous title's foreign sales: Bulgaria/Kragozor, Germany/Blanvalet

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

Also available: Happiness for Beginners (2015)

THE HIGH TIDE CLUB by Mary Kay Andrews (St. Martin's Press, May 2018)

Comp: Dorothea Benton Frank

When attorney Brooke Trappnell is summoned to remote Talisa Island, the home of eccentric millionaire heiress Josephine Bettendorf Warrick, she doesn't know what to expect. Over a few meetings, the ailing Josephine spins a tale of old friendships, secrets, betrayal and a long-unsolved murder. She tells Brooke she is hiring her for two reasons: to protect her island and legacy from those who would despoil her land, and secondly, to help her make amends with the heirs of the long dead women who were her closest friends, the girls of The High Tide Club. Brooke is charged with contacting Josephine's friends' descendants and bringing them together on Talisa for a reunion of women who've never actually met. What follows is a tale of a romance thwarted, friendships renewed, justice delivered, and true love found. This is New York Times bestseller Mary Kay Andrews at her very best.

Praise: “Perennial bestseller Andrews returns with what’s sure to be a popular beach read this summer...A compelling novel about the people and places that shape a life and the secrets that create ripples for generations. With a unique setting, mysterious flashbacks, romance, and a surprising twist, this book will not disappoint readers looking for juicy escape.”—Booklist

Previous titles' foreign sales: Germany/Fischer, Hungary/Nouvion Trade, Norway/Bastion, Poland/Znak, Portugal/Editora Planeta, Slovenia/Učila, Turkey/Pegasus

Material: manuscript

Page count: 480

Also available: Summer Rental (2011), Spring Fever (2012), Ladies' Night (2013), Christmas Bliss (2013), Save the Date (2014), Beach Town (2015), The Weekenders (2016)

THE REAL DEAL by Lauren Blakely (St. Martin's Griffin, July 2018)

Comp: Sophie Kinsella

From a #1 New York Times bestselling author comes a romantic story that is sure to make you smile. April Hamilton knows that going home alone for her family's summer reunion is an invitation for every single relative to butt into her personal life. She simply can't handle another blind date with someone from her hometown. So when she finds the Craigslist ad for a boyfriend-for-hire, she's ready to pay to play. Heading Home and Need a Buffer? I'm the REAL DEAL. Theo Banks is no gigolo. He's something of an actor, and he knows how to slip into any role, including pretending to be April's new beau—the bad boy with the heart of gold. What neither one of them counts on is falling for one another.

Praise: “I loved everything about these characters, from their sparkling banter to their electric attraction. Witty, clever, and swoony.”—Amy E. Reichert, New York Times bestselling author of The Coincidence of Coconut Cake

Foreign sales: Brazil/Faro

Material: manuscript

Page count: 368

SHE WAS THE QUIET ONE by Michele Campbell (St. Martin's Press, July 2018)

Comp: The Woman in Cabin 10 by Ruth Ware

When twin sisters Rose and Bel Enright enroll in The Odell School, a prestigious New Hampshire boarding school, it seems like the opportunity of a lifetime. But the sisters could not be more different. The school brings out a rivalry between them that few ever knew existed. And the school itself has a dark underbelly: of privileged kids running unchecked and uninhibited; of rituals and traditions that are more sinister than they seem; of wealth and entitlement that can only lead to disaster. For Sarah Donovan, the wife of an ambitious teacher, Odell also seems like the best thing that could happen to their small family. But how well does she really know her husband? To what lengths will he go to achieve his goals? And when one dark night ends in murder, who is guilty, who knows the truth, and who has been in on it all along? Murderers are almost never who you expect.

Praise: “An intriguing whodunit that examines the explosive potential of secrets to destroy friendships, marriages, and lives...a page-turner.”—Kirkus Reviews on It's Always the Husband

Foreign sales: UK/HarperCollins (two-book deal)

Previous title foreign sales: Czech Republic/Mystery Press, Israel/Modan, Poland/Literackie

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

Also available: It's Always the Husband (2017)

FORGET YOU KNOW ME by Jessica Strawser (St. Martin's Press, March 2019)

Comp: Big Little Lies by Liane Moriarty

In her third novel, Jessica Strawser takes readers deep into the intimate friendship of two women and the distance, secrets, and lies that threaten to break them apart, in a twisting plot that will keep readers guessing until the last page. Liza and Molly are life-long best friends—or at least they used to be. Ever since Liza moved to Chicago to pursue her career, leaving Molly behind in Cincinnati with a husband and two kids, the distance between their two lives has grown more and more insurmountable. In a last-ditch effort to save their friendship, they arrange a “girls night” over webcam, wine in hand, catching up like they used to. But when Molly runs upstairs to check on a crying toddler, Liza watches, horror-struck, as a masked man enters the home of her best friend. After calling the police, Liza frantically tries to reach Molly; but when she finally responds, her message is icy and terse, insisting that everything is fine. Liza is still convinced something is wrong—that her friend is in danger. But after an all-night drive to rescue her ends in a brutal confrontation, Liza is sure their friendship is over. Meanwhile Molly finds herself wondering whether she’s dodged one ruinous mistake only to make another in its place. Did she sacrifice her oldest friendship to save her marriage? Or has she inadvertently sacrificed both? Liza and Molly can’t avoid each other forever, and soon, they’ll face a reckoning that will force them to decide just how much weight a shared history can carry.

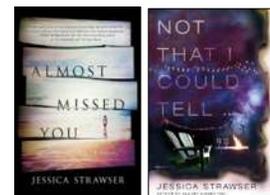

Praise: “Full of slow-burning intrigue, Strawser’s second novel will appeal to fans of Liane Moriarty’s Big Little Lies and Jennifer Kitses’ Small Hours.”—Booklist on Not That I Could Tell

Previous titles’ foreign sales: Hungary/Alexandra, Poland/Swiat Ksiazki, UK/Hodder (two-book deal)

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

Also available: Almost Missed You (2017), Not That I Could Tell (2018)

BABY TEETH by Zoje Stage (St. Martin's Press, July 2018)Comp: The Girl Before by JP Delaney

In this gripping debut, a mom is desperate to find help for her mute young daughter whose disturbing behavior grows increasingly dangerous. Meet Hanna. She's the sweet-but-silent angel in the adoring eyes of her Daddy. He's the only person who understands her, and all Hanna wants is to live happily ever after with him. But Mommy stands in her way, and she'll try any trick she can think of—tampering with her daily medication, imitating a rabid dog, casting a spell, setting her on fire—to get rid of her. Ideally, Hanna wants her gone for good. Meet Suzette. She loves her daughter, really, but after years of expulsions and strained home schooling, her precarious health and sanity weaken by the day. When Hanna finally speaks for the first time, she claims to be a seventeenth century witch, and though Suzette wants to write it off as another scary joke, Hanna's tricks become increasingly sophisticated. As her husband remains blind to the failing family dynamics, Suzette starts to fear that there's something seriously wrong and that maybe home isn't the best place for their wicked little girl after all.

Praise: “Deliciously creepy...The author keeps the suspense taut by alternating chapters between Hanna and Suzette, offering a terrifying glimpse into the inner thoughts of a budding sociopath.”—Library Journal (starred review)

Foreign sales: Czech Republic/Dobrovský, Germany/Droemer, Hungary/Gabo, Poland/Czarna Owca, Russia/AST, UK/Transworld

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

THE SUBWAY GIRLS by Susie Orman Schnall (St. Martin's Griffin, July 2018)Comp: Rules of Civility by Amor Towles meets Lillian Boxfish Takes a Walk by Kathleen Rooney

In this dual-timeline narrative, the lives and careers of Charlotte and Olivia, two women seventy years apart, intersect in interesting ways. In 1949, dutiful and ambitious Charlotte's dream of a career in advertising is shattered when her father demands she help out with the family business. In the present day, Olivia—an outspoken advertising executive—finds herself pitching the New York City subways account in a last ditch effort to save her job.

The Subway Girls is the charming story of two strong women, a generation apart, who find themselves up against the same eternal struggle to find an impossible balance between love, happiness, and ambition.

Praise: “The Subway Girls is a joyous romp through 1950s New York City, with a magnetic cast of characters you'll root for from page one. Dazzling and delicious.”—Fiona Davis, author of The Address and The Dollhouse

Foreign sales: Hungary/Nouvion Trade, Italy/Feltrinelli

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

THE LITTLE SHOP OF FOUND THINGS by Paula Brackston (St. Martin's Press, October 2018)

Comp: Susanna Kearsley

From the New York Times bestselling author of The Witch's Daughter comes a new series that is bound to enchant her audience and find her even more fans. Looking for a fresh start, Xanthe and her mother Flora leave London and take over an antique shop in the historic town of Marlborough. Xanthe has always had an affinity with some of the antiques she finds. When she touches them, she can sense something of the past they come from and the stories they hold. So when she has an intense connection to a beautiful silver chatelaine, she has to know more. Suddenly she finds herself transported back to the seventeenth century and confronted by a ghost who tasks Xanthe with putting right the injustice in the chatelaine's story to save an innocent girl's life. While Xanthe fights to save the girl amid the turbulent days of 1605, she meets architect Samuel Appleby. He may be the only person who can help her succeed. He may also be the reason she can't bring herself to leave.

Praise: "Stretching her tale over several centuries, British-based Brackston brings energy as well as commercial savvy to her saga of innocence and the dark arts."—Kirkus Reviews on The Witch's Daughter

Previous titles' foreign sales: Czech Republic/Dobrovský, Germany/Heyne, Russia/Eksmo, UK/Constable & Robinson

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

Also available: The Witch's Daughter (2011), The Winter Witch (2013), The Midnight Witch (2014), The Silver Witch (2015), Return of the Witch (2016)

THE MONTAUK MANOR by Nicola Harrison (St. Martin's Press, May 2019)

Comp: Beatriz Williams

The Montauk Manor opens in the summer of 1938 when all of high society is talking about a new summer vacation spot far out on the tip of Long Island: Montauk. Though reluctant at first, Beatrice Bordeaux hopes that summering in the new resort town will be just the change needed to recapture her husband's love and that they'll finally be able to start a family. But in the midst of lavish parties at the Manor, Casino Night at the Yacht Club and a glamorous soiree for the Golden Cup Regatta, Beatrice strikes up an unlikely friendship with the local laundress as she hauls away bags of clothing from the resort. It's through Elizabeth that Beatrice discovers a different side of Montauk, and of herself, and soon finds herself magnetically attracted to the town's lighthouse keeper. On the day of the masquerade ball that caps the social season, just before the hurricane of 1938 rips its way up the east coast ravaging Montauk and most of Long Island, Beatrice makes a discovery that reveals the life she desperately yearns for is right at her fingertips, not knowing that it could all be torn apart in an instant.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 400

UK/COMMONWEALTH RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with Levine Greenberg Rostan Agency)

DAUGHTER OF MOLOKA'I by Alan Brennert (St. Martin's Press, February 2019)Comp: Before We Were Yours by Lisa Wingate

This is the highly anticipated sequel to Alan Brennert's acclaimed book club favorite and national bestseller, Moloka'i, which has sold over 550,000 copies. Daughter of Moloka'i tells the story of Ruth, the daughter that Rachel Kalama—quarantined for most of her life at the isolated leprosy settlement of Kalaupapa—was forced to give up at birth. It follows young Ruth from her arrival at the Kapi'olani Home for Girls in Honolulu, to her adoption by a Japanese couple who raise her on a farm in California, and her marriage and unjust internment at Manzanar Relocation Camp during World War II—and then, after the war, to the life-altering day when she receives a letter from a woman who says she is Ruth's birth mother, Rachel. Told in Brennert's vivid, evocative prose, conjuring up the beauty and history of both Hawaiian and Japanese cultures, this is the powerful and poignant tale of two women—different in some ways, similar in others—who never expected to meet, much less come to love one another.

Praise: “Compellingly original...Brennert’s compassion makes Rachel a memorable character, and his smooth storytelling vividly brings early twentieth-century Hawai’i to life.”—Publishers Weekly (starred review) on Moloka'i

Previous title's foreign sales (sold via the agent): France/Editions Leduc, Turkey/Pozitif

Material: manuscript

Page count: 304

Also available: Moloka'i (2003)RUST & STARDUST by T. Greenwood (St. Martin's Press, August 2018)Comp: The Girls by Emma Cline

In 1948 eleven-year-old Sally Horner was abducted by fifty-two-year-old, ex-convict Frank LaSalle. This chilling novel traces the next two harrowing years as Frank mentally and physically abuses Sally as the two of them travel westward from New Jersey to California, forever altering not only her life, but the lives of her family, friends, and those she meets along the way. Based on the experiences of real-life kidnapping victim Sally Horner and her captor, whose story shocked the nation and inspired Vladimir Nabokov to write his controversial and iconic Lolita, this heart-pounding story by award-winning author T. Greenwood at last gives a voice to Sally herself.

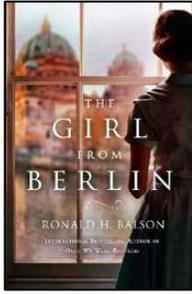

Praise: “A harrowing, ripped-from-the-headlines story of lives altered in the blink of an eye, once again proving her eloquence and dexterity as an author.”—Mary Kubica, New York Times bestselling author of The Good Girl

Foreign sales: Czech Republic/Dobrovský, Netherlands/De Fontein

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

THE GIRL FROM BERLIN by Ronald H. Balson (St. Martin's Press, October 2018)

Comp: We Were the Lucky Ones by Georgia Hunter

In the newest novel from the internationally bestselling author of Once We Were Brothers, Liam and Catherine come to the aid of an old friend and are drawn into a property dispute in Tuscany that leads them to the long-forgotten story of Ada Baumgarten, born in Berlin in 1918. The daughter of an accomplished first-chair violinist in the prestigious Berlin Philharmonic, and herself a violin prodigy, Ada's life was full of the rich culture of Berlin's interwar society. She formed a deep attachment to her childhood friend Kurt, but they were torn apart by the growing unrest as her Jewish family came under suspicion. As the tides of history turned, it was her extraordinary talent that would carry her through an unraveling society turned to war and make her a target even as it saved her, allowing her to move to Bologna—though Italy was not the haven her family had hoped, and further heartache awaited. But what became of Ada? How is she connected to the conflicting land deeds of a small Italian villa? As Liam and Catherine dig through the layers of lies, corruption, and human evil, they uncover an unfinished story of heart, redemption, and hope—the ending of which is yet to be written.

Previous titles' foreign sales: Brazil/Novo Seculo, Czech Republic/Dobrovský, Germany/Aufbau, Hungary/General Press, Italy/Garzanti, Poland/Swiat Ksiazki, Russia/Family Leisure Club

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

Also available: Once We Were Brothers (2013), Saving Sophie (2015), Karolina's Twins (2016), The Trust (2017)

THE WARTIME SISTERS by Lynda Cohen Loigman (St. Martin's Press, January 2019)

Comp: Lilac Girls by Martha Hall Kelly

Two estranged sisters, raised in Brooklyn and each burdened with her own shocking secret, are reunited at the Springfield, Massachusetts Armory in the early days of WWII. While one sister lives in relative ease on the bucolic armory campus as an officer's wife, the other arrives as a war widow and takes a position in the armory factories as a "soldier of production." Resentment festers between the two, and secrets are shattered when a mysterious figure from the past reemerges in their lives.

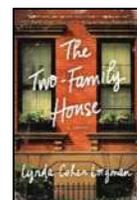

Praise: "In her first novel, Loigman uses complex characters to deconstruct the anatomy of family relationships and expose deep-rooted emotions, delivering a moving story of love, loss, and sacrifice." — Booklist on The Two-Family House

Material: manuscript

Page count: 304

Also available: The Two-Family House (2016)

UK/COMMONWEALTH RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with Marly Rusoff and Associates)

ROMANCE

DAGGER'S EDGE by Lora Leigh (St. Martin's Mass Market, September 2018)

#1 New York Times bestselling author Lora Leigh is back—with a vengeance—in her latest novel of passion and intrigue featuring the men of Brute Force. Ivan Resnova wants nothing more than to escape his hard, brutal past. But now, instead of being punished for his alleged crimes, Ivan fears that the one woman he can't forget is in danger of paying the price. Crimsyn “Syn” Delaney thought the danger she'd faced was over, and that she could resume her life. She never imagined that it would return and throw her back into Ivan's world. But when an attempt is made on her life, she needs Ivan more than ever to keep her safe—even if she is in danger of falling deeply and dangerously in love.

Praise: “Leigh continues to do what she does best: write steamy hot love scenes, dangerous enemies and deadly revenge.”—RT Book Reviews on Ultimate Sins

Material: manuscript due June

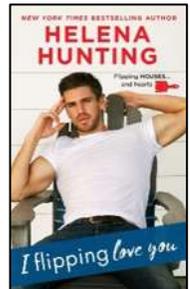

Page count: 368

Also available: Collision Point (2018)

I FLIPPING LOVE YOU by Helena Hunting (St. Martin's Mass Market, June 2018)

The first book in a new two-book arc from digital standout Helena Hunting featuring everything that readers loved about her ebook debut, Shacking Up, which hit the USA Today bestseller list at #40, was an Amazon Best Book of the Month and Best Book of the Year So Far, and a B&N Readouts selection! Rian Sutter and her sister are getting their lives back on track through their growing Hamptons' real estate business. But when she catches the attention of a sexy stranger who snaps up every house from under her, all bets are off. Pierce Whitfield doesn't normally demo kitchens, install dry wall, or tear apart a beautiful woman's dreams. He's just a down-on-his-luck lawyer who agreed to help his brother work on a few homes at the beach. When he first meets Rian, the attraction is undeniable. But when they start competing for the same pieces of prime real estate, the early sparks turn into full-blown fireworks. Can these passionate rivals turn up the heat on their budding romance—without burning down the house?

Praise: “Fun, sexy, and full of heart...Helena Hunting has done it again!”—Melanie Harlow, USA Today bestselling author on Shacking Up

Material: manuscript

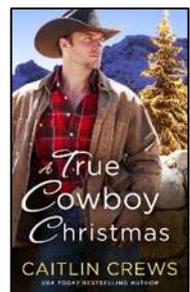

Page count: 320

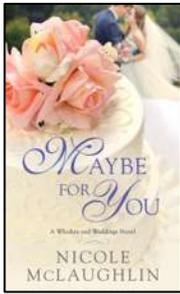

A TRUE COWBOY CHRISTMAS by Caitlin Crews (St. Martin's Mass Market, November 2018)

From a USA Today bestselling and RITA nominated author, this is the first in a new contemporary romance series featuring three brothers trying to keep their family's ranch afloat.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 320

MAYBE FOR YOU by Nicole McLaughlin (St. Martin's Mass Market, September 2018)

This is the third and final book in the Whiskey and Wedding series, a contemporary romance series about three men who open a distillery, The Stag, and accidentally become wedding planners. After a year of mourning her fiancé, Alexis Parker is ready for a new challenge and agrees to accompany her new co-worker Jake Cooper on a Stag cross-country promotional tour. He may have an infamous playboy reputation, but Alexis is surprised to find out that there is more to him than meets the eye. Jake promised Alexis's brother that he'd be an absolute gentleman. Of course, that was before he and Alexis hit the road, and they both agree that what Alexis's big brother doesn't know won't hurt him. The plan: keep their fling confined to the RV, but things progress in ways neither of them could have imagined, and Jake realizes that he and Alexis make a perfect mix. Can he convince her that he's ready to give true love a shot?

Praise: "A sexy and sweet contemporary romance."—Booklist on Maybe This Time

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

Also available: Maybe I Do (2017), Maybe This Time (2018)

THE WARRIOR OF CLAN KINCAID by Lily Blackwood (St. Martin's Mass Market, August 2018)

This is the stunning and dramatic final book in the Kincaid brothers' trilogy set in the wilds of Scotland. With fierce, Alpha warriors and plenty of drama and passion, this series is perfect for fans of Monica McCarty's Highland Guard series.

Praise: "Blackwood ensnares her fans with a tale of revenge, suspense and passion."—RT Book Reviews on The Rebel of Clan Kincaid

Foreign sales: France/J'ai Lu (three-book deal)

Previous titles' foreign sales: Germany/Cora Verlag, Japan/Oakla

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

Also available: The Beast of Clan Kincaid (2016), The Rebel of Clan Kincaid (2016)

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE DUKE by Amelia Grey (St. Martin's Mass Market, June 2018)

From award-winning and New York Times bestselling author Amelia Grey comes the third and final book in the lush, steamy Rakes of St. James Regency romance series.

Praise: "Sparks arc between perfectly matched protagonists as they fight their feelings and each other in a sexy, spirited story that will not disappoint."—Library Journal on To the Duke, With Love

Foreign sales: Norway/Vigmostad & Bjørke (three-book deal)

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

Also available: Last Night with the Duke (2017), To the Duke, With Love (2017)

KISS ME AT CHRISTMAS by Valerie Bowman (St. Martin's Mass Market, November 2018)

It's the Christmas season, and the Playful Brides series embraces holiday cheer and forbidden love, with a dash of mystery! When the aristocrats in Regency London are shaken by a series of crimes, they call in Daffin Oakleaf, a Bow Street Runner, to investigate, but he'll need some assistance questioning members of high society to solve the crimes. When he enlists help from the granddaughter of a duke, the lovely Lady Regina, sparks soon fly between them, despite their class differences. But could a romance between them ever work? This next installment from Valerie Bowman is sweet, heartwarming, and filled with the exciting action and sweeping romance that she does best!

Praise: “Readers are sure to be enthralled by the power of the chemistry between two strong-willed characters whose clash of wills explodes in heated love scenes. The novel is enhanced with intricate plotting of a murder mystery, intriguing flashbacks and witty dialogue that fuels the battle of wills.”—RT Book Reviews, Top Pick, on A Duke Like No Other

Previous titles' foreign sales: Czech Republic/Euromedia, Germany/Lübbe, Japan/Futami Shobo, Netherlands/De Vrijbouter|Audax, Norway/Schibsted, Portugal/20|20 Editora, Romania/Litera, Russia/AST, Slovakia/Ikar

Material: manuscript due May
Page count: 304

Also available: The Unexpected Duchess (2014), The Accidental Countess (2014), The Unlikely Lady (2015), The Irresistible Rogue (2015), The Untamed Earl (2016), The Legendary Lord (2016), Never Trust a Pirate (2017), The Right Kind of Rogue (2017), A Duke Like No Other (2018)

THE DUKE WITH THE DRAGON TATTOO by Kerrigan Byrne (St. Martin's Mass Market, September 2018)

Kerrigan Byrne's first novel was an instant favorite. It received amazing reviews and was nominated for RT's Reviewer's Choice Best First Historical Romance. Her subsequent novels have been equally well-praised with each one receiving a starred Publishers Weekly review among other starred trade reviews and award recognitions. Now she returns with the highly-anticipated sixth in the Victorian Rebels series featuring the mysterious man known only as The Rook and the one woman who could maybe, just perhaps, heal the broken parts of him.

Praise: “Byrne pens another emotionally powerful romance that is original, complex and fascinating... An unforgettable read.”—RT Book Reviews, Top Pick, on The Scot Beds His Wife

Previous titles' foreign sales: Germany/Lyx (three-book deal), France/J'ai Lu (four-book deal), Japan/Futami Shobo (two-book deal), Romania/Litera (five-book deal), Russia/AST (four-book deal), Slovenia/Učila, Turkey/Penguin Kitap (two-book deal)

Material: manuscript
Page count: 336

Also available: The Highwayman (2015), The Hunter (2016), The Highlander (2016), The Duke (2017), The Scot Beds His Wife (2017)

FIRST EARL I SEE TONIGHT by Anna Bennett (St. Martin's Mass Market, November 2018)

From the author of the Regency-set Wayward Wallflowers trilogy, this is the first in a new historical series: the Debutante Diaries. Miss Fiona Hartley so desperately needs a husband that she's willing to do the unthinkable—propose marriage to the most surly, irritable gentleman in town. David Gray, the Earl of Somerdale, gives her a test—if she can spend one week in his dilapidated estate then he'll consider her proposal. But as the week goes on, Fiona's refreshing wit finds a way into his heart. What started out as a marriage of convenience has turned into love...but will Fiona have him for the rest of her days?

Praise: “Fans of Regency romance authors Eloisa James, Tessa Dare, and Mary Jo Putney will go wild for the final installment of Bennett’s Wayward Wallflowers trilogy.”—Booklist (starred review) on The Rogue is Back in Town

Previous series' foreign sales: Japan/Hara Shobo

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 320

THE GOOD, THE BAD, AND THE DUKE by Janna MacGregor (St. Martin's Mass Market, December 2018)

Janna MacGregor burst on the historical romance scene with The Bad Luck Bride, one of Booklist's Best Romance Debuts of 2017, and continues that momentum with this fourth Cavensham Heiresses novel, which hits all the notes that Regency fans love. Set during Christmas, a fan favorite character (a rakish duke) finds redemption with a woman who has always loved and believed in him.

Praise: “Rising star MacGregor once again demonstrates her remarkable gift for effortlessly elegant writing, richly nuanced characterization, and lushly sensual love scenes.”—Booklist (starred review) on The Bride Who Got Lucky

Previous titles' foreign sales: Japan/Hara Shobo (two-book deal), Russia/Family Leisure Club

Material: manuscript due June

Page count: 368

Also available: The Bad Luck Bride (2017), The Bride Who Got Lucky (2017), The Luck of the Bride (2018)

MYSTERIES/THRILLERS/ADVENTURE/HORRORUNTITLED by John Hart (St. Martin's Press, Future)

Comp: John Grisham

It's 1974 at the twilight of the Vietnam War, and Gibby is about to graduate from high school. His older brothers have been to the war. One died there. The other, Jason, came back violent and hard, and has just been released from a three year stint in prison. Jason won't speak of it—the war or his time behind bars—but he wants a relationship with the younger brother he left behind. Determined to make that connection, he coaxes Gibby into spending a day at the lake: long hours of sunshine and whiskey and older women. It's pleasant at first, but the day turns ugly when the boys and their dates encounter a prison transfer bus on a dusty stretch of empty road. Beautiful but drunk, one of the women taunts the prisoners in a fashion so sexual and cruel it leads to a riot on the bus and a bloody beat down from the guards. It seems amusing at first, but the woman is murdered not long after. Given his violent history, suspicion turns first to Jason, but then to Gibby when the second woman dies in an equally horrible manner. What follows is crime fiction at its most raw, an exploration of family and the past, of prison and war, and the indelible marks left by these things.

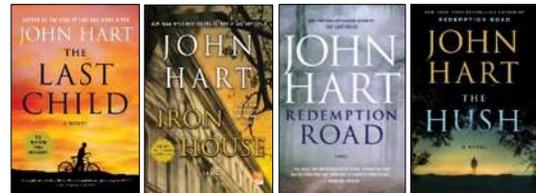

Praise: “Hart’s career continues on its ever upward trajectory: five books, five NYT bestsellers, two Edgars, and steadily growing critical acclaim... [He] makes it six for six here, and behind this uncanny string of success is a rare ability to combine the most propulsive of popular fiction with beguilingly rich characters. The track record is enough on its own, but this time the idea of a sequel to a popular previous novel will have Hart’s fans squirming in anticipation.”—Booklist (starred review) on The Hush

Previous titles' foreign sales: China/Beijing Time-Chinese, Croatia/24sata, Czech Republic/Vysehrad, Denmark/Hr. Ferdinand, France/Lattès, Germany/Bertelsmann, Hungary/General Press, Japan/Hayakawa, Korea/GU-FIC and RHK, Lithuania/UAB Metodika, Netherlands/Luitingh-Sijthoff, Norway/Font Forlag, Poland/Sonia Draga, Spain/Pamies, Taiwan/Spring International, Thailand/ClassAct, Turkey/Koridor, UK/John Murray, Vietnam/Alpha Books

Material: manuscript due July

Page count: 400

Also available: The King of Lies (2006, rights handled by the agent), Down River (2007), The Last Child (2009), Iron House (2011), Redemption Road (2016), The Hush (2017)

CITY OF WINDOWS by Robert Pobi (Minotaur Books, Summer 2019)

Comp: Jeffery Deaver

Dr. Lucas Page was a brilliant FBI agent until he was injured in an explosion ten years ago—he lost an arm, a leg, and one eye—and left the bureau to concentrate on his family of five adopted kids and a boring career as a college professor. But when his old partner is killed by a sniper with impossible aim—the victim was driving an SUV in Manhattan in the middle of a blizzard when he was shot in the head—Lucas allows himself to be dragged back into the game. And when there's a second victim—this time an agent riding the Roosevelt Island tram at rush hour, again shot in the head in an impossible shot—Lucas is the only one who can get into the shooter's head and figure out his next move.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 336

UK/COMMONWEALTH RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with Sandra Dijkstra Literary Agency)

JAR OF HEARTS by Jennifer Hillier (Minotaur Books, June 2018)

Comp: Luckiest Girl Alive by Jessica Knoll

At sixteen-years-old, Georgina “Geo” Shaw’s best friend, Angela Wong, disappears without a trace. Fourteen years later, Angela’s body is found not far from Geo’s childhood home. Her killer is identified and arrested—it was Calvin James, Geo’s abusive high school boyfriend, now a notorious serial killer known as the Sweetbay Strangler. Geo is arrested for covering up the murder and sentenced to five years in prison. The arresting officer, Kaiser Brody, was friends with both women back in high school. Not long into Geo’s prison sentence, Calvin James manages to escape custody and is on the run as a fugitive. Now Geo is being released from prison. But before she’s free, two bodies are found in the same place Angela’s body was buried. The bodies are a signal to Geo, and they are only the first. It seems obvious that these are the work of Calvin, but what message is he trying to send? The key to unraveling the mystery lies in the truth of what really happened all those years ago on the night that Angela was murdered. A truth that only two people know. This is a brilliantly compelling thriller of psychological suspense, moving from past to present, with surprise after surprise as the layers are peeled away and the truth behind the long ago events is revealed.

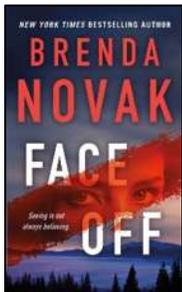

Film rights have been optioned by Cinelou Films!

Praise: “Engrossing...there’s no denying her page-turner’s grab-you-by-the-throat power.”—Publishers Weekly

Foreign sales: Czech Republic/Baronet, Germany/Penguin Verlag, Turkey/Penguin, UK/Atlantic Books

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

FACE OFF by Brenda Novak (St. Martin’s Mass Market, September 2018)

Comp: Sandra Brown and Allison Brennan

Tortured and left for dead at sixteen, Evelyn Talbot turned her personal nightmare into her life’s work—studying the disturbing psychopathy of some of the world’s most vicious serial killers at Hanover House in a small Alaskan town. She tries to believe the past will never come back to haunt her—until a woman goes missing from a cabin nearby, and every clue points to the man who once brutalized her. Evelyn can’t forget that her would-be killer, Jasper Moore, was never caught. But there are no new faces in tiny Hilltop, no one who seems suspicious or potentially violent. In this twisted game of cat and mouse, Evelyn is certain of only one thing—Jasper must be hiding in plain sight. And if she can’t find him before he comes for her, she won’t be lucky enough to survive twice.

Praise: “[A] chilling tale of psychological intrigue that will have readers on the edge of their seats...a fast-paced, fascinating and wild ride. Readers will be turning the pages to see what happens next.”—RT Book Reviews on Hello Again

Foreign sales: UK/Headline (four-book deal)

Previous titles’ foreign sales: Czech Republic/Dobrovský, Germany/Aufbau (two-book deal), Italy/Giunti, Japan/Futami Shobo, Russia/Eksmo

Material: manuscript

Page count: 416

Also available: Her Darkest Nightmare (2016), Hello Again (2017)

UNTITLED THRILLER by David Bruns and J.R. Olson (St. Martin's Press, Summer 2019)

Comp: Brad Taylor

Exiled terrorist Rafiq Roshed, currently in the service of North Korea, develops and unleashes a plan to exploit the tensions in the Pacific Rim between China, Japan, and the American Navy to start a shooting war. His weapon is a computer virus that takes over the military computers and “learns”—launching a series of attacks that forces the opposing force to respond and escalate. The virus first takes over the Chinese military computers, forcing the Chinese war machine to launch a series of attacks on the U.S. Pacific forces. Meanwhile, the CIA’s cyber analysts learn that not only have the Chinese lost control of their military, but the same virus has infected the network of the Pacific Fleet, and the U.S. is in danger of also losing control of their military too. As the war turns hot and casualties mount, there’s only one way to stop a rapid escalation into World War III—a trio of young but supremely gifted midshipmen from the U.S. Naval Academy who must track down the program at its source and guide a special operations team to the well-protected base of the terrorist controlling it all.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 352

A GATHERING OF SECRETS by Linda Castillo (Minotaur Books, July 2018)

Comp: Laura Lippman

When a historic barn burns to the ground in the middle of the night, Chief of Police Kate Burkholder is called in to investigate. At first it looks like an accident, but when the body of eighteen-year-old Daniel Gingerich is found inside—burned alive—Kate suspects murder. But who would want a well-liked, hardworking Amish man dead? Kate delves into the investigation and discovers Daniel had a dark side. He was a sexual predator. His victims were mainly Amish women, too afraid to come forward, and he’s been getting away with it for far too long. Now someone has stopped him, but who? The women he victimized? Their boyfriends? Their parents? As Kate wades through a sea of suspects, she’s confronted by her own violent past and an unthinkable possibility.

Praise: “Castillo once again weaves the particularities of the Amish mindset into a complex mystery that will leave you crying with pity or seething with rage.”—Kirkus Reviews (starred review) on Down a Dark Road

Foreign sales: Denmark/Hr. Ferdinand

Previous titles’ foreign sales: Brazil/Novo Seculo, Czech Republic/Moba, Denmark/Hr. Ferdinand, Germany/Fischer, Hungary/General Press, Italy/Fanucci, Netherlands/A.W. Bruna, Thailand/WeLearn, Turkey/Pegasus, UK/Pan Macmillan

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

Also available: Sworn to Silence (2009), Pray for Silence (2010), Breaking Silence (2011), Gone Missing (2012), Her Last Breath (2013), The Dead Will Tell (2014), After the Storm (2015), Among the Wicked (2016), Down a Dark Road (2017)

WHAT YOU WANT TO SEE by Kristen Lepionka (Minotaur Books, May 2018)

Comp: Pretty Girls by Karin Slaughter

Marin Strasser has a secret. Her fiancé thinks her secret is that she’s having an affair, and he hires P.I. Roxane Weary to prove it. Then, just days into the case, Marin is shot to death in an apparent mugging. When the police begin to focus their case on Roxane’s client, Roxane starts to dig deeper into Marin’s life—discovering that the elegant woman she’s been following has a past and a half, including two previous marriages, an adult son fresh out of prison, and a criminal record of her own. The trail leads to a crew of con artists, an ugly real estate scam that defrauds unsuspecting elderly homeowners out of their property, and the suspicious accident of a wealthy older woman who lives just down the street from where Marin was killed. With Roxane’s client facing a murder indictment and the scammers threatening Roxane’s mother by ensnaring her house in their web of fraud unless Roxane drops the case, it becomes clear that the stakes are as high as the secrets run deep.

Praise: “Lepionka is setting a high standard for crime fiction with the complex Roxane Weary at its heart.”—Booklist (starred review)

Foreign sales: UK/Faber & Faber (two-book deal), Germany/Goldmann (two-book deal)

Previous title’s foreign sales: Czech Republic/Dobrovsky

Material: manuscript

Page count: 304

Also available: The Last Place You Look (2017)

NO MERCY by Joanna Schaffhausen (Minotaur Books, January 2019)

Comp: The Woman in the Window by A. J. Finn

In this heart-pounding follow-up to the award-winning The Vanishing Season, police officer Ellery Hathaway finds herself suspended from the force until she completes psychological counseling, which includes group therapy for victims of violent crime. Ellery is not convinced that other victims have anything to teach her, but her doctor insists there is one particular crime survivor Ellery should meet. That person turns out to be Myra Gallagher, an older, wheelchair-bound woman with gnarled hands and a half-burned face. Like Ellery, Myra is a famous victim, the sole survivor of a rash of fires in Boston during the 1980s, which took her young son’s life. The man arrested and convicted of the crime has been rotting in prison ever since, but Myra seems to feel no relief, especially now that he might be set free. Another member of the therapy group, Wendy Mendoza, has endured a brutal attack that shattered her body and spirit. She’s become someone unrecognizable even to herself, with a shaved head and her rapist’s warning tattooed on her body: NO MERCY. The man is still out there somewhere, and Wendy is desperate to see him caught. Knowing Ellery will sometimes work outside the law, Wendy asks her to look into the case, aided by reluctant FBI profiler Reed Markham. Soon Ellery and Markham find themselves faced with two difficult cases.

Praise: “Schaffhausen’s debut is a fantastic, convoluted thriller that will have her audience on the edge of their seats...The storytelling is exceptional and the dialogue is powerful. This chilling tale will have readers guessing till the end!”—RT Book Reviews, Top Pick, on The Vanishing Season

Previous title’s foreign sales: Czech Republic/Metafora, UK/Titan

Material: manuscript

Page count: 288

Also available: The Vanishing Season (2017)

DARK WOLF RISING by Spencer Kope (Minotaur Books, April 2019)

Comp: Chelsea Cain

A woman—abducted and found in the trunk of a car after a high-speed chase—regains consciousness in the ICU only to tell the police two crucial pieces of information: the man who kidnapped her is not the same as the man who left her in the woods, and she’s not the first victim—in fact, she is number eight. Magnus “Steps” Craig and the elite three-man Special Tracking Unit of the FBI are brought in to track the driver through a dense forest after the blood hounds have lost his trail. Steps and his partner Jimmy find the driver laughing maniacally, babbling about souls, and hiding a pristinely maintained box of eight posed rats, before he slips away. Now the Special Tracking Unit must chase two villains—through not just the real world, but the dark web in the virtual world as well—tracking an enemy they can’t see, as time runs out for the unknown victims.

Praise: “A winner. Crammed with characters who will capture readers’ attention and writing that leaves much of the field in the dust, Kope’s novel features a character who is different, talented, sympathetic, and gifted with great heart.”—Kirkus (starred review) on Collecting the Dead

Previous titles’ foreign sales: Germany/LYX|Lübbe (two-book deal), Italy/Newton Compton

Material: manuscript due June

Page count: 336

Also available: Collecting the Dead (2016), Whispers of the Dead (2018)

LOST LAKE by Emily Littlejohn (Minotaur Books, November 2018)

Comp: Julia Keller

This is the next enthralling, atmospheric novel in the Gemma Monroe mystery series. On a bright Saturday in early spring, Detective Gemma Monroe responds to a missing person call at Lost Lake near the small town of Cedar Valley, Colorado. With its sapphire waters and abundance of wildflowers, the lake is a popular camping destination in the summer. But for now, ice still grips the lake and snow buries the flowers. When Gemma arrives at the shore, she meets three friends who have been camping there: the fourth of their group, Sari Chesney, has disappeared during the night without a trace. Sari is an assistant curator at the local museum, which is set to host a gala that night—a project she’s worked on for months and would never intentionally miss. As Gemma begins to understand the complex dynamics of the supposedly close-knit friendship group, she realizes that more than one person is lying to her—and that the beautiful, still waters of Lost Lake may hide more terrible secrets.

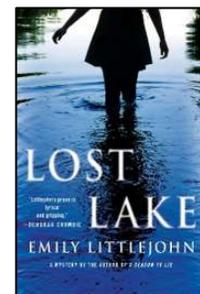

Praise: “A satisfying procedural with colorful supporting characters, Littlejohn’s second outing establishes her as a skilled plotter who keeps her story engaging.”—LitHub on A Season to Lie

Previous titles’ foreign sales: Germany/Aufbau (two-book deal)

Material: manuscript

Page count: 304

Also available: Inherit the Bones (2016), A Season to Lie (2017)

A BORROWING OF BONES by Paula Munier (Minotaur Books, September 2018)

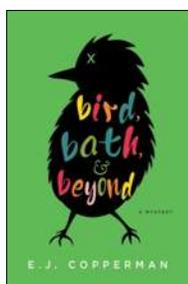

Comp: David Rosenfelt

It may be Fourth of July weekend, but for retired soldier Mercy Carr and her dog Elvis, it's just another walk in the remote woods—until the former bomb-sniffing dog alerts to explosives, and they find a baby abandoned near a shallow grave filled with what appear to be human bones. Game Warden Troy Warner and his search-and-rescue dog Susie Bear respond to Mercy's 911 call, and the four must work together to track down a missing mother, solve a cold-case murder, and keep the citizens of Vermont safe. A Borrowing of Bones is full of complex twists and real details about search-and-rescue dog training that Paula learned through the training of her own dog. With its canine sidekicks and rich, dramatic story, this debut will be a must-have for mystery fans.

Praise: “Finally, a suspense novel that combines my two loves: a thrilling police procedural, assisted by two fabulous working dogs. A one-sit read that will make you happy you did.”—Lisa Gardner, #1 New York Times bestselling author of Look for Me

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

BIRD, BATH, AND BEYOND by E. J. Copperman (Minotaur Books, October 2018)

Comp: Janet Evanovich

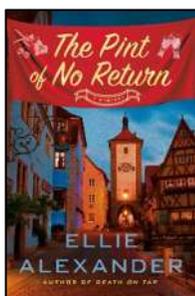

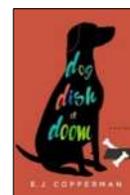

In the second in this hilarious cozy series, talent agent Kay Powell's client, a parrot named Barney, is the only eyewitness when a television show's charismatic star is shot in his trailer between scenes. And even though Kay keeps explaining that even a “talking” parrot doesn't actually converse with people, the investigators insist on interrogating the bird for information he clearly can't communicate. Suspects pile up, and before long it's clear the killer believes Barney might actually be able to supply useful evidence.

Praise: “Admirers of old comedy sketches and anyone looking for a laugh-out-loud mystery should pick up this series launch by Copperman.”—Library Journal (starred review) on Dog Dish of Doom

Material: manuscript

Page count: 304

Also available: Dog Dish of Doom (2017)

THE PINT OF NO RETURN by Ellie Alexander (Minotaur Books, October 2018)

Comp: Donna Andrews

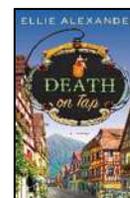

In the second installment in this delightful cozy series, amateur sleuth Sloan Krause returns—this time investigating a movie star who's murdered not long after arriving in Leavenworth, Washington to film his latest project.

Praise: “Alexander kicks off a new series that takes the passion for wine-related cozies in a new direction with oodles of beer lore, plenty of pleasant characters, and a stronger mystery than usual.”—Kirkus Reviews on Death on Tap

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

Also available: Death on Tap (2017)

UNEASY LIES THE CROWN by Tasha Alexander (Minotaur Books, October 2018)

Comp: Deanna Raybourn

In this next mystery in the bestselling Lady Emily series, set just after the death of Queen Victoria in 1901, Lady Emily and her husband Colin must stop a serial killer whose sights may be set on the new king, Edward VII.

Praise: “Breathtaking...a challenging puzzle, a historically interesting period, and detailed descriptions of one of the world’s most beautiful cities.”—Kirkus Reviews on Death in St. Petersburg

Foreign sales: UK/Constable & Robinson

Previous titles’ foreign sales: Slovenia/Ucila, UK/Constable & Robinson

Material: manuscript

Page count: 304

Also available: Tears of Pearl (2009), Dangerous to Know (2010), A Crimson Warning (2011), Death in the Floating City (2012), Behind the Shattered Glass (2013), The Counterfeit Heiress (2014), The Adventuress (2015), A Terrible Beauty (2016), Death in St. Petersburg (2017)

THE RIGHT SORT OF MAN by Allison Montclair (Minotaur Books, Summer 2019)

Comp: Susan Elia MacNeal and Jacqueline Winspear

London, 1946. In a city still recovering from the recent world war, Miss Iris Sparks and Mrs. Gwendolyn Bainbridge have banded together to meet one of the city’s most pressing post-war needs: appropriate potential spouses. But their newly opened The Right Sort Marriage Bureau hits a bit of a snag when Scotland Yard comes calling over the death of one of their new clients.

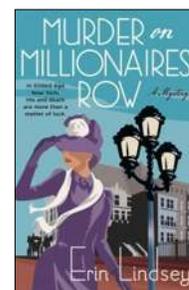

Material: manuscript

Page count: 288

MURDER ON MILLIONAIRES’ ROW by Erin Lindsey (Minotaur Books, October 2018)

Comp: The Molly Murphy mysteries by Rhys Bowen

Rose Gallagher might dream of bigger things, but she’s content enough with her life as a housemaid. After all, it’s not every girl from Five Points who gets to spend her days in a posh Fifth Avenue brownstone, even if only to sweep its floors. But all that changes on the day her boss, Mr. Thomas Wiltshire, disappears. Rose is certain Mr. Wiltshire is in trouble, but the police treat his disappearance as nothing more than the whims of a rich young man behaving badly. With nowhere left to turn, Rose takes it upon herself to find her handsome, young employer. The investigation takes her from the marble palaces of Fifth Avenue to the sordid streets of Five Points. This delightfully charming debut historical mystery takes readers on a chase through 1880s Manhattan, filled with wonderful period details, magic, ghosts, romance, and Pinkerton detectives.

Praise: “Murder on Millionaires’ Row is utterly charming, scrupulously researched, and beautifully felt. I enjoyed every page and cannot wait for Rose to stick her fingers into ever more perilous pies.”—Lyndsay Faye, bestselling author of Gods of Gotham and Jane Steele

Material: manuscript

Page count: 400

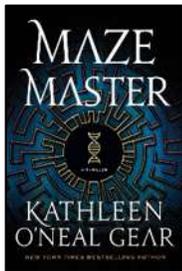

WHITE PEAK by Ronan Frost (St. Martin's Press, April 2019)

Comp: Matthew Reilly and James Rollins

With her partner Rye, Hannah Laws climbed the most dizzying summits in the world, but when Rye falls to his death, she is charged with his murder and faces years in one of the world's most inhospitable prisons. Greg Rask, a dying tech billionaire, has invested millions looking for a miracle cure. Now, he's gathering a team to go to the ends of the earth chasing life and wants Hannah to join them. The team's task is to retrieve a painting rumored to hide a map that marks the treasure of the Ahnenerbe, the occult wing of the SS, who had devoted dozens of expeditions in search of the lost city Shambhala. In an adrenaline-pumping quest through some of the most savage terrains known to man, Hannah is pushed to the limits of endurance and beyond. She and the others must uncover the secret history of the world before Rask's body finally betrays him.

Material: manuscript due July

Page count: 320

MAZE MASTER by Kathleen O'Neal Gear (St. Martin's Press, July 2018)

Comp: Douglas Preston

From New York Times and internationally bestselling author Kathleen Gear comes an apocalyptic thriller that shows the world ending not in fire or ice but in science. LucentB is a retrovirus that's unstoppable and utterly catastrophic for humanity. The U.S. government believes the only person who can find the cure is the geneticist, James Hakari, who has disappeared. To find him, they enlist his former student, Anna Asher, as well as paleographer and religious studies scholar Dr. Martin Nadai. The brilliant but insane geneticist is leaving clues for Anna and Martin to follow, showing he's truly earned his students' nickname for him: the Maze Master. The search takes Anna and Martin around the world and into a warzone they never imagined.

Praise: "Terrific...Maze Master combines wild imagination with solid science and history to create sensational suspense."—Lee Child, New York Times bestselling author

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

HALCYON by Rio Youers (St. Martin's Press, July 2018)Comp: Behind Her Eyes by Sarah Pinborough

Halcyon is a self-sustaining community made up of people looking to live without fear, crime, or greed. But things are not as perfect as they seem. After his wife is killed in a school shooting, Martin Lovegrove moves himself and his two young daughters to Halcyon to retreat from the chaos and grind and to rediscover a sense of family, community and hope. However, Martin soon begins to suspect there is something beneath Halcyon's perfect veneer and sets out to investigate Halcyon and its founder, Mother Moon...and in so doing uncovers a truth more terrible than anything he could have imagined.

Praise: "Rio Youers deftly mixes family drama, ESP, politics, and the collective insanity of cults into a heady cultural critique that also functions as a page-turning, white-knuckle thriller. Halcyon is a tornado of a novel."—Paul Tremblay, author of A Head Full of Ghosts and The Cabin at the End of the World

Foreign sales: UK/Titan (two-book deal)

Previous title's foreign sales: Turkey/Ithaki

Material: manuscript

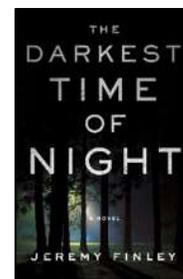

Page count: 384

Also available: The Forgotten Girl (2017)

THE DARKEST TIME OF NIGHT by Jeremy Finley (St. Martin's Press, June 2018)

Comp: The Winter People by Jennifer McMahon

When four-year-old William vanishes in the woods behind his home, the only witness is his older brother who whispers, "The lights took him," and then never speaks again. With these words, the boys' grandmother, Lynn Roseworth, fears she knows the truth of what has happened. But coming forward would ruin her family and her husband's political career. As Lynn and her best friend Roxy revisit the secrets of her long-buried past to find clues that will lead to William, they get ensnared in a much larger conspiracy. The truth is hidden for a reason, and not even a grandmother's love may be enough to save her grandson from what is coming for them all. The Darkest Time of Night is a fast-paced debut full of suspense and government cover-ups, perfect for thriller and alien fans alike.

Praise: "The Darkest Time of Night is a gripping and graceful thriller that conjures moody atmosphere and haunting circumstances into a rich read. Perfect for fans of The X-Files, Whitley Strieber, and Stranger Things, author Jeremy Finley delivers the goods in this compelling novel that will have you turning pages—and turning up the lights."—Michael Koryta, New York Times bestselling author of Rise the Dark and So Cold the River

Material: manuscript

Page count: 336

THE CHRYSALIS by Brendan Deneen (Tor Books, September 2018)

Comp: No One Gets Out Alive by Adam Nevill

In this spine-tingling, sardonic novel of suburban life gone very, very wrong, when barely-employed Millennials Tom and Jenny Decker luck into an amazingly affordable house in the New Jersey suburbs, Jenny doesn't know there's something hidden in the basement. Tom does, and it soon has him in thrall. The thing scrambles his senses and heightens his emotions making him feel like a Master of the Universe. But every upswing has its peak, and after that, comes the fall. Tom's is going to be hard and fast. Combining chills, thrills, and a literal monster in the basement with commentary on love, marriage, and parenthood, The Chrysalis will entertain and frighten Millennials and Baby Boomers alike. No one ever really wants to grow up...but sometimes behaving like an adult is the only way to survive.

Film rights are in development with Gotham Group and Oddball Productions!

Praise: "Creepy, powerful, wonderfully twisted."—Jonathan Maberry, New York Times bestselling author

Material: manuscript

Page count: 304

SABBATH by Nick Mamatas (Tor Books, July 2019)

Comp: Highlander meets Seven

A supernatural thriller from Bram Stoker Award-winning author Nick Mamatas, Sabbath tells the action-packed story of a legendary warrior from the dark ages who is resurrected in the present day by mysterious forces and tasked with hunting down seven deadly killers.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 320

SCIENCE FICTION/FANTASYDRAGONSLAYER by Duncan M. Hamilton (Tor Books, April 2019)

The author of a BuzzFeed Greatest Fantasy Book of the Year comes to Tor with an epic fantasy trilogy featuring lost magic, reawakened dragons, and a hero with a lot to learn, set in a medieval-inspired land where the head of the church vies with the king for power...and where a dragon, thought destroyed centuries ago, has returned. This adventure fantasy is perfect for fans of Michael J. Sullivan, Jeff Wheeler, and James Mallory, not to mention classics like The Wheel of Time and Wizard's First Rule.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 512

UK/COMMONWEALTH AND GERMAN RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with Howard Morhaim Literary Agency)

WAKE THE DRAGON by Kevin J. Anderson (Tor Books, June 2019)

The first in a thrilling epic fantasy trilogy by one of the most popular writers in the field. Two continents at war, the Three Kingdoms and Ishara, are divided by past bloodshed, but when an outside threat arises—the reawakening of a powerful ancient race that wants to remake the world—the two warring nations must somehow learn to stop hating each other and form an alliance to fight the real enemy.

Material: manuscript due August

Page count: 512

UK/COMMONWEALTH RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with Trident Media)

THE SHROUD OF PROPHECY by Kel Kade (Tor Books, September 2019)

Since her self-published ebook, Free the Darkness, was released in December 2015, Kel Kade has consistently been one of Amazon's top fantasy sellers. With The Shroud of Prophecy she launches the trilogy for Tor that she was born to write—a commercial epic fantasy for readers of Brent Weeks, Mark Lawrence and Brian Staveley. It's a tale as old as time: a farm boy born with a hidden power finds out that he is destined to save the world with his best friend by his side. Only, in this story, that farm boy is beset by assassins and slain two days into his quest. It is then left to the unheralded sidekick to finish the job...but saving the world isn't as easy as it sounds in the stories, and this journey will drive him to the brink of madness.

Material: manuscript due August

Page count: 400

UK/COMMONWEALTH RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with Donald Maass Literary Agency)

DRAGONS OF TERRA by Brian Naslund (Tor Books, July 2019)

In this debut epic fantasy for readers of Kings of the Wyld and Battlemage, Flawless Bershad, a disgraced noble, is sentenced to battle dragons until he is dead, but due to his uncanny ability to survive, he's given a new mission: save a little girl from a tyrant and assassinate a monarch. Now Bershad is all that stands in the way of all-out war.

Material: manuscript due August

Page count: 464

UK/COMMONWEALTH RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with Liza Dawson Associates)

EMPIRE OF MASKS by Sam Hawke (Tor Books, July 2019)

Poison. Treachery. Ancient spirits. Sieges. The epic fantasy series, The Poison Wars continues, following City of Lies, and perfect for the many fans of Robin Hobb, Naomi Novik, and Scott Lynch.

Praise: “An enormously enjoyable read, one of the best new fantasies I’ve seen in a long time.”—Adrian Tchaikovsky on City of Lies

Foreign sales: UK/Voyager

Previous title’s foreign sales: Czech/Host, UK/Voyager

Material: manuscript

Page count: 416

Also available: City of Lies (2018)

AN ILLUSION OF THIEVES by Cate Glass (Tor Books, May 2019)

Romy of Beggar’s Ring is a politically-inclined courtesan who, along with a ragtag group, must use her forbidden magic to pull off an elaborate heist in order to save her and her brother’s lives and stop a civil war. Set in an Italian-inspired fantasy world, and pitched as Kushiel’s Dart meets The Lies of Locke Lamora, An Illusion of Thieves is a brilliantly-written heist story with original magic and loveable underdog protagonists. Glass is a veteran fantasy author writing under a pseudonym who is primed for a breakout.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 368

CITY OF BROKEN MAGIC by Mirah Bolender (Tor Books, November 2018)

In this fast-paced, compelling, and genre-bending fantasy debut, the land of Orien still deals with the aftermath of a magical war fought centuries before. In order to win, Magi had deployed a magic biological agent—an infestation that ate magic and anything else it came into contact with. Enemies and allies were equally filling. Five hundred years later infestations still manifest in the city state metropolises of Orien, and the only defense is an elite squad of non-magical humans—sweepers, armed with Gin-infused guns, bombs, and tenacity. The city of Amicae’s head sweeper, Clae Sinclair, has a terrible track record with apprentices. Laura is the latest in a long list, and the only one who remains on the job—and alive. Her abilities are about to be tested to the limit because, in a matter of hours, an infestation will eat the city from the inside out—and she’s Amicae’s last hope.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 400

UK/COMMONWEALTH AND GERMAN RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with FinePrint Literary)

THE PERFECT ASSASSIN by K. A. Doore (Tor Books, March 2019)

A novice assassin is on the hunt for someone killing their own in this breakout high fantasy for fans of Robin Hobb, Sarah J. Maas, and Brent Weeks. Where water is costly but life is cheap, assassination is the most lucrative family business around. Amastan, the newest member of the Basbowen family, doesn’t feel like cashing in, and fortunately, no one has taken out a contract in ten years. But that’s when fellow assassins start showing up dead, and Amastan is given a timeline to solve these murders before the family gets blamed for them. Even worse, the jaan of the murdered start roaming the dusty streets of Ghadid as restless spirits seeking bodies to possess. In Ghadid, every life has its price, but when the tables are turned, Amastan must find this perfect assassin or be their next target.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

RECKONING OF FALLEN GODS by R. A. Salvatore (Tor Books, February 2019)

The epic story of Aoelyn continues in the next volume of The Coven series from bestselling author R. A. Salvatore, which began with Child of a Mad God. Aoelyn risked her life to save the trader Talmadge and it cost her everything that is dear to her, but Talmadge survived and can't forget the amazing woman that killed a god. Little do they realize, war is coming to the mountain. Far to the west, a fallen empire stirs. One that sees a solar eclipse as a call to war. Their empire once dominated the known world, and they want it back.

Previous titles' foreign sales: Germany/Cross Cult

Material: manuscript

Page count: 400

Also available: Child of a Mad God (2018)

CONSTELLATIONS OF BLOOD AND BONE by Sarah Gailey (Tor Books, June 2019)

How to Get Away with Murder meets The Magicians, from the debut novelist Sarah Gailey, whose short fiction has garnered accolades from Charlie Jane Anders, Chuck Wendig, and NPR. Constellations of Blood and Bone is a murder mystery set at a magical high school that slyly subverts our expectations. Far from the whimsical classrooms of Hogwarts, petty rivalries, brutal cliques, and hormone-fueled mistakes reign in this universe. Told from the perspective of an adult detective hired to investigate the death of a teacher, this debut reads like Tana French decided to set a murder mystery in a realistic version of The Magicians' Brakebills.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 428

UK/COMMONWEALTH RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with Howard Morhaim Literary)

EMPRESS OF FOREVER by Max Gladstone (Tor Books, May 2019)

Like a feminist Guardians of the Galaxy, this is a smart, swashbuckling, wildly imaginative adventure about a rag-tag team of brilliant misfits, dangerous renegades, and enhanced outlaws teaming up to take down a tyrannical galactic empire in a war-torn future. It's about standing up to authority and leading the charge for the oppressed.

Material: manuscript due August

Page count: 400

UK/COMMONWEALTH RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with D4EO Literary Agency)

THE NEVER AND THE NOW by Justina Ireland (Tor Books, August 2019)

From young adult author and activist Justina Ireland comes her adult science fiction debut about a cyborg rebellion and corporate espionage. Hundreds of years ago androids called Tech'd broke free from the human Chaldean Empire and founded the Commonwealth. Refusing to be surpassed by their own creations, the humans have been trying to reclaim their "property" ever since. Now the scales of victory have tipped in the Chaldean's favor when the Prime Minister of the Commonwealth's daughter and her girlfriend fall into their clutches. Imprisoned in a Chaldean research facility, Victoria and her girlfriend become test subjects of a new technology that could revert the Tech'd back to their former subservient selves. With the fate of her people at stake, Victoria escapes into the ancestral memories encoded into her DNA to find a way to fight the Chaldean's reprogramming.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 416

UK/COMMONWEALTH AND GERMAN RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with Donald Maass Literary Agency)

WE ARE MAYHEM by Michael Moreci (St. Martin's Press, February 2019)

We Are Mayhem continues the rollicking space adventure that began in Black Star Renegades from Lucasfilm writer Michael Moreci. It's a big, fun, action-packed, heartfelt space opera that the L.A. Times called "a fun romp" and Nerdist dubbed "the next big thing." Renegades Cade, Kira, Mig and 4-Qel are back after having disrupted the plans of the evil Praxis kingdom, which shocked the galaxy. But now Praxis wants revenge.

Praise: "Moreci's book is what I'd characterize as a sort of beach read for nerds—like Ready Player One or Andy Weir's The Martian and Artemis."—The Verge on Black Star Renegades

Material: manuscript

Page count: 384

Also available: Black Star Renegades (2018)

LAST TANGO IN CYBERSPACE by Steven Kotler (St. Martin's Press, Summer 2019)

A cutting-edge, near-future cyberpunk thriller and first in a series, for readers of William Gibson, from bestselling author Steven Kotler. After the human species has fractured, Judah Zorn is the first of his kind—an empathy tracker. It's a useful skill for a certain kind of company and Arctic Pharmaceuticals is that kind of company, but when a routine em-tracking job leads to the discovery of a gruesome murder, Zorn finds himself neck-deep in a world of eco-assassins, soul hackers and consciousness terrorists. But what the man really needs is a nap....

Praise: "A hardboiled tour-de-force, Kotler's Last Tango blends sparkling prose, compelling characters, and underline-able insights into a gritty sci-fi epic that balances at the precipice of light and dark."—Neil Strauss, nine-time New York Times bestselling author

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 320

THROUGH FIERY TRIALS by David Weber (Tor Books, January 2019)

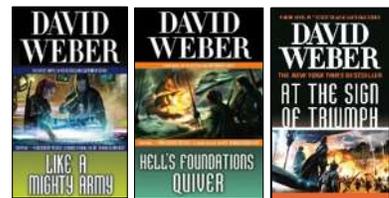

In the tenth installment in this acclaimed, bestselling space opera, the unholy war between the small but mighty island realm of Charis and the radical, luddite Church of God's Awaiting has finally come to an end. However, even though a provisional veil of peace has fallen over the human colonies, many secrets of Safehold's past still remain unearthed. With new alliances forged and old regimes fractured, Merlin—the cybernetic avatar of Earth's last survivor and immortal beacon to humanity—and the colonies of Safehold have many adventures ahead.

Previous titles' foreign sales: Bulgaria/Bard, Czech Republic/Wales, France/BrageLonne, Germany/Lübbe, Japan/Hayakawa, Poland/Rebis, Russia/Eksmo, UK/Tor

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 768

Also available: Off Armageddon Reef (2007), By Schism Rent Asunder (2008), By Heresies Distressed (2009), A Mighty Fortress (2010), How Firm a Foundation (2011), Midst Toil and Tribulation (2012), Like a Mighty Army (2014), Hell's Foundations Quiver (2015), At the Sign of Triumph (2016)

YOUNG ADULT/TEENTHE DYSASTERS by P.C. Cast and Kristin Cast (Wednesday Books, January 2019)

House of Night meets X-Men in this exciting new series from #1 New York Times mother/daughter writing duo, P.C. Cast and Kristin Cast. Foster Stewart knows she's different. Her life has never been "normal." Talking to plants and controlling cloud formations aren't things most seventeen year olds are into. Tate "Nighthawk" Taylor is perfect. Star quarterback and all around dreamy boy-next-door, he never thought about his "extra" abilities. What quarterback wouldn't want night vision? That's not weird, right? It's cool! But on the night of their first meeting a deadly tornado brings them together and awakens their true abilities—the power to control the element air. Unbeknownst to Tate and Foster, they are the first in a group of teens who were genetically manipulated before birth to bond with the elements. Which truly sucks for Foster, as she has to face the fact that Dr. Rick Stewart, her beloved scientist father, betrayed her and now wants to use her and the others for his own nefarious world domination plot. Foster and Tate must stop her father and his minions before he destroys their lives and the world. In this new superhero multiverse, the Cast duo again combine real world teens and an adventure filled with danger, romance, and superpowers that will thrill House of Night fans looking for their next action-packed fix.

Foreign sales: Australia/Pan Macmillan (four-book deal), Netherlands/Unieboek

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

WHITE STAG by Kara Barbieri (Wednesday Books, January 2019)

As the last child in a family of daughters, seventeen-year-old Janneke was raised to be the male heir. While her sisters were becoming wives and mothers, she was taught to hunt, track, and fight. On the day her village was burned to the ground, Janneke—as the only survivor—was taken captive by the malicious goblin Lydian and eventually sent to work for his nephew Soren. Janneke's survival in the court of merciless monsters has come at the cost of her connection to the human world. And when the Goblin King's death ignites an ancient hunt for the next king, Soren senses an opportunity for her to finally fully accept the ways of the brutal Permafrost. But every action he takes to bring her deeper into his world only shows him that a little humanity isn't bad—especially when it comes to those you care about. Through every battle they survive, Janneke's loyalty to Soren deepens even as she tries to fight her growing attraction to him. After dangerous truths are revealed, Janneke must choose between holding on to or letting go of her last connections to a world she no longer belongs to. She must make the right choice to save the only thing keeping both worlds from crumbling. This is the first book in the brutally stunning Permafrost series, which started as a Wattpad sensation.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

THE RAGING ONES by Krista and Becca Ritchie (Wednesday Books, August 2018)

In this YA debut from New York Times and USA Today bestselling authors Krista and Becca Ritchie, set in a world where everyone knows the day that they will die, three teens defy the odds and must flee their planet to learn the truth about who they are. Franny Bluefort, Court Icefort, and Mykal Kickfall come from different backgrounds, but the three are connected by their senses and emotions. They have also done the impossible and dodged their deathdays. Now, with the threat of people learning the truth of what they've done, the teens must flee their planet to survive. But to do so, they will have to hide their shared bond as they vie for a highly sought after spot in the newest mission to space against thousands of people far smarter, who'll live longer, and never fear death the way that they do.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

THE PRICE OF DECEIT by Kristen Simmons (Tor Teen, February 2019)

Pretty Little Liars meets Ocean's 11 in this highly commercial, intrigue-filled contemporary drama from acclaimed author Kristen Simmons set at a school for aspiring con artists. For Brynn Hilder, getting into Vale Hall means a new life away from her rundown neighborhood. But at this elite boarding school for con artists, Brynn will be expected to use her skills to help rid the city of crooked politicians and corrupt officials. And at a school of con artists, who can she really trust?

Praise: “A breathtaking story full of high-seas adventure, power struggles, romance, betrayal...Non-stop action and surprises will keep readers enthralled.”—Booklist (starred review) on Pacifica

Previous titles' foreign sales: Australia/Murdoch, Germany/Piper, Latin America/Mexico/Panamericana, Poland/Dolnoslaskie, Taiwan/Marco Polo, Turkey/Pegasus

Material: manuscript

Page count: 368

Also available: Article 5 (2012), Breaking Point (2013), Three (2014), Glass Arrow (2015), Metaltown (2017), Pacifica (2018)

DARE YOU TO LIE by Amber Lynn Natusch (Tor Teen, September 2018)

From bestselling indie author Amber Lynn Natusch comes her debut YA novel for fans of Riverdale with a brilliant heroine who reads like this generation's Veronica Mars. When her FBI agent father is framed for murder, Kylene is forced to move in with her grandfather, back to the small town that turned its back on her, and the boy who betrayed her. All Ky cares about is clearing her father's name, but someone won't let her forget the photo scandal that drove her away two years ago. Determined to expose the town's hidden skeletons, Ky unwittingly thrusts herself into a much bigger plot...and they're about to learn they messed with the wrong girl.

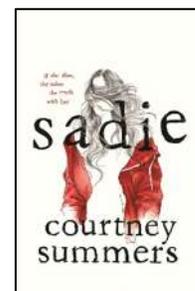

Praise: “A snarky, brave, likeable sleuth of a heroine, a thoughtful, fast-paced plot, suspense, mystery and a dash of romance.”—Samantha Young, New York Times bestselling author

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

SADIE by Courtney Summers (Wednesday Books, September 2018)

On her own, Sadie's been raising her sister Mattie in an isolated small town, trying her best to keep their heads above water. When Mattie is found dead, Sadie's entire world crumbles. After a botched police investigation, Sadie is determined to bring her sister's killer to justice and hits the road following a few meager clues to find him. When West McCray—a radio personality working on a segment about small, forgotten towns in America—hears Sadie's story, he becomes obsessed with finding the missing girl. He starts his own podcast as he tracks Sadie's journey, trying to figure out what happened before it's too late. Propulsive and harrowing, Sadie is the breakout book from award-winning author Courtney Summers and will keep you riveted until the last page.

Praise: “Sadie is an electrifying, high-stakes road trip—a gripping thriller with a true—crime podcast edge. Clear your schedule. You're not going anywhere until you've reached the end.”—Stephanie Perkins, New York Times bestselling author of There's Someone Inside Your House and Anna and the French Kiss

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

UK/COMMONWEALTH RIGHTS ONLY (All other rights are with Signature Literary Agency)

NEVER-CONTENTED THINGS by Sarah Porter (Tor Teen, March 2019)

Critically-acclaimed author Sarah Porter's previous YA fairy tale retellings have racked up rave starred reviews, and now she's back with her breakout book—a surrealist fairy horror that will appeal to fans of Holly Black's Tithe and Melissa Marr's The Wicked Lovely. Foster-siblings Ksenia and Josh party with a band of staggeringly beautiful newcomers to their boring little suburban town realizing only too late that they've strayed into the sphere of darkly seductive—and vicious—fairies.

Praise: “Darkly seductive. Sarah Porter’s writing glitters and her storytelling stuns in this twisted tale of siblings, love, and death.”—Stephanie Garber, New York Times bestselling author of Caraval on When I Cast Your Shadow

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

AN AFFAIR OF POISONS by Addie Thorley (Page Street Publishing, February 2019)

This thrilling and romantic debut historical fantasy reimagines an infamous seventeenth-century murder scandal in France. After unwittingly helping her mother poison Louis XIV, seventeen-year-old alchemist Mirabelle Monvoisin is forced to see her mother, La Voisin, and her Shadow Society in a horrifying new light. Torn between loyalty and growing unease, Mirabelle seeks consolation in the forbidden art of antipoisons, dabbling in tinctures that could destroy the Shadow Society from within. Royal bastard Josse de Bourbon is more kitchen boy than fils de France. But when his father and half the royal court are murdered by La Voisin, Josse must become the prince he was never meant to be. Hunted like animals, his only objective is to keep the injured princesses and the petulant Dauphin alive—until his path collides with Mirabelle's and he finds his greatest ally in his sworn enemy. She is a poisoner with the desire to heal instead of harm. He is a bastard with the audacity to play king. Together they might be able to take down the Shadow Society. If they can learn to trust each other. And if La Voisin doesn't purge all of Paris first.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 400

THE SWORD AND THE DAGGER by Robert Cochran (Tor Teen, April 2019)

An epic YA historical adventure by debut novelist and proven storyteller Robert Cochran, the Emmy Award-winning executive producer of many hit shows (Attila, La Femme Nikita) and the co-creator of 24. For fans of Robin LaFevers and Roshani Chokshi, The Sword and the Dagger is a rousing tale of adventure and romance set during the Crusades as an unlikely trio—a Christian princess, her affianced prince, and a Muslim assassin—must embark on a journey to the court of the most fearsome warrior the world has even known, Genghis Khan.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 384

THE TESLA LEGACY by K. K. Perez (Tor Teen, March 2019)

After a fateful encounter in the Tesla Suite of the New Yorker Hotel unlocks her dormant electrical powers, precocious young scientist Lucy Phelps struggles to understand her new abilities. She soon finds herself thrust into a centuries' old battle between rival alchemical societies. One side wants her help and the other wants her dead, but both believe she is the next step in human evolution. Unfortunately, carriers of the genetic mutation—including Nikola Tesla—eventually lose their minds and then their lives. Even if Lucy can outrun her enemies, she can't outrun herself.

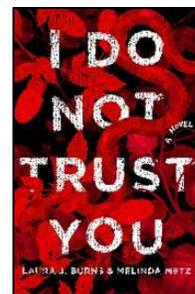

Praise: “A smart thriller with plenty of jolts, The Tesla Legacy will keep you turning pages to the shocking end.”—Stacey Lee, author of Under a Painted Sky

Material: manuscript

Page count: 368

I DO NOT TRUST YOU by Laura J. Burns and Melinda Metz (Wednesday Books, September 2018)

In this new novel from an award-winning team of authors, dangerous secrets and dark mythology make for thrilling suspense. Memphis “M” Engle is stubborn to a fault, graced with an almost absurd knowledge of long lost languages and cultures, and a heck of an opponent in a fight. When Ashwin Sood, a member of an ancient cult (which she’s pretty sure counts for more than one strike against him), informs Memphis that her father who she thought was dead, isn’t, and needs her help, the two set off on a journey that takes them from the catacombs of Paris to lost temples in the sacred forests of Chile searching for the pieces of the one thing that might save her father. Full of plot twists and uneasy, ever-changing alliances, this is a thrilling journey at every turn that asks—what would you do to save the ones you love?

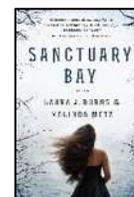

Praise: “[A] white-knuckle read that pushes envelopes and makes the reader question everything.”—USA Today’s Happily Ever After blog on Sanctuary Bay

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

Also available: Sanctuary Bay (2016)

UNCHARTED by Erin Cashman (Page Street Publishing, September 2018)

This is a page-turning mystery incorporating a gorgeous blend of history, superstition, and mythology based on the legendary island of Hy-Brasil rumored to exist off the coast of Ireland. Reeling from the death of her mother, seventeen-year-old Annabeth accompanies her father to the funeral of some family friends who drowned, where she’s surprised to find her grief reflected in the face of Griffin Bradford, the son of the couple who died. Soon after, Annabeth’s dad goes missing in the woods, and she suspects Griffin knows more about the disappearance than he’s letting on. Fearing her father isn’t lost, but rather a victim of something sinister, Annabeth launches her own investigation, tracing clues that whisper of myth and legend, until she stumbles upon a secret. One that some would die to protect, others would kill to expose—and which twists Annabeth’s fantasy and reality together in deadly new ways.

Praise: “A stunning new fantasy where legend and reality come together in the form of a deadly mystery, where every page simmers with danger, magic, myth, and romance.”—Sarah Glenn Marsh, author of the Reign of the Fallen series and Fear the Drowning Deep

Material: manuscript

Page count: 416

LAST CHANCE SUMMER by Jessica Pennington (Tor Teen, May 2019)

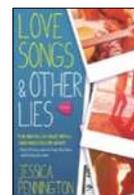

In Jessica Pennington’s next contemporary standalone, Aiden Emerson is an all-star athlete and golden boy of Riverton. Or at least he was, before he showed up the last day of junior year and quit the team without any explanation. How could he tell people he’s losing his vision at seventeen? Straight-laced fanfic writer Alyvia thought she had life all figured out until a chance encounter leads her to Aiden, and the two team up to help Aiden fulfill his before-I-go-blind bucket list. Perfect for readers of Rainbow Rowell and Nicola Yoon, Last Chance Summer is a stunning, romantic YA about new love, old wounds, and unexpected turns of fate.

Previous title’s foreign sales: Poland/Jaguar

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 320

Also available: Love Songs and Other Lies (2018)

THE SOUND OF DROWNING by Katherine Fleet (Page Street Publishing, March 2019)

An emotional, twisty, and compulsively readable story about love, loss, and picking up the pieces, this atmospheric YA love-triangle delivers a shocking twist! Every night, Meredith Hall takes the ferry to Hatteras Island to meet Ben, the boy she’s loved for as long as she can remember—the boy she broke with her lies. But after the ocean gives them a second chance, Ben becomes Mer’s safety net, the only thing keeping her from drowning. Then, the waves deliver Wyatt to her—a cocky, new boy with a Texas twang and a personality bigger than his home state. He’s flirting with her, making her feel reckless, excited, alive, and he keeps showing up when she needs him most. But nothing is as it seems in the Outer Banks. As secrets unfold, Mer finds her precarious reality slipping back into the surf, and she’ll soon discover that there are some decisions you can never take back.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 350

HOME AND AWAY by Candice Montgomery (Page Street Publishing, October 2018)

An #ownvoices story that asks thought-provoking questions about family, identity, and forgiveness. A high school senior, Tasia Quirk is young, Black, and fabulous. She’s got great friends and a supportive and wealthy family. She even plays football as the only girl on her private high school’s team. But when she catches her mama trying to stuff a mysterious box in the closet, her identity is suddenly called into question. Now Tasia’s determined to unravel the lies that have overtaken her life. Along the way, she discovers what family and forgiveness really mean and that the answers she seeks don’t come without a price.

Praise: “A stunning tapestry of texture and culture that doesn’t shy away from tough topics or the messiness of humanity, Home and Away shines a multicolored light on the myriad meanings of ‘family’ and how each plays a role in shaping who we are, what we do, and who we become.”—Nic Stone, New York Times bestselling author of Dear Martin

Material: manuscript

Page count: 384

YOU’D BE MINE by Erin Hahn (Wednesday Books, April 2019)

If eighteen-year-old country music superstar Clay Coolidge can’t convince Annie Mathers to join his summer tour, his music label is going to drop him. That’s what happens when your bad boy image turns into bad boy reality. Annie, heir to a country music dynasty that ended in her parents’ tragic deaths, has been mostly avoiding the spotlight, except on her skyrocketing YouTube channel. Swayed by Clay’s charm and extreme hotness, Annie and her band agree to join the tour. And soon, the label dubs them the new Johnny Cash and June Carter Cash, retro photoshoot and all. But if there’s one part of fame Annie wants nothing to do with, it’s a high-profile relationship. She had a front row seat to her parents’ volatile marriage and deaths and isn’t interested in repeating history. If only she could convince her heart that Clay, with his whiskey tenor and painful past, isn’t worth the risk to her already-fractured heart. Can the right song and the perfect summer on the road make two broken hearts whole?

Material: manuscript

Page count: 256

GENERAL NON-FICTION

WHERE WE GO FROM HERE by Bernie Sanders (Thomas Dunne Books, October 2018)

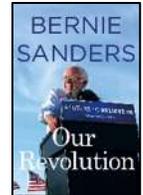

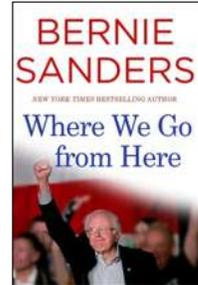

Senator Bernie Sanders' 2016 presidential campaign was a beginning, not an end. In his new book, America's most popular political figure speaks about what he's been doing to oppose the Trump agenda and strengthen the progressive movement and how we go forward as a nation.

Previous title's foreign sales: China/Beijing Mediatime Books, Finland/Into Publishers, France/Editions Les Liens qui Libèrent, Germany/Ullstein, Korea/Wonderbox, Netherlands/8 Publishers BV, Serbia/Kontrast, Spanish World/Lola Books, UK/Profile Books

Material: manuscript embargoed (due June)

Page count: 320

Also available: Our Revolution (2016)

MR. TRUMP'S WILD RIDE: The Thrills, Chills, Screams, and Occasional Blackouts of His Extraordinary First Year in Office by Major Garrett (All Points Books, September 2018)

American politics today are more polarizing and divisive than ever, but there's one thing we can all agree on: 2017 was one long, crazy year. When every year in Trumpland feels like a decade, who can we turn to for an authoritative, entertaining breakdown of the most important and wide-reaching events? Look no further than Major Garrett. As CBS News' Chief White House Correspondent, he's been strapped into the front seat of Mr. Trump's Wild Ride since Inauguration Day. Garrett has served as a White House correspondent for nearly two decades covering the last four presidents for three different news outlets; he's an expert in executive branch intrigue, and he knows a little something about taking the long view. Mr. Trump's Wild Ride is neither an exercise in Trump-bashing nor a pro-Trump pep rally. It's a definitive, non-biased chronicle of a watershed year in the White House.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 272

WOLF CUBS: Why Young Men Are Drawn to Violent Movements and What We Can Do About It by Jamil Jivani (All Points Books, February 2019)

In this moving work of conscience and social concern, youth activist Jamil Jivani recounts his experiences working with angry and alienated young men throughout North America and the Middle East, drawing striking parallels between ISIS recruits and at-risk youth in the West. Most people assume that the major factor in recruitment to groups like Al Qaeda and ISIS is the ideology of Islamic extremism. But Jivani noticed certain basic similarities between these angry young Muslims and those susceptible to recruitment by black urban drug gangs and the white nationalist underground. Most come from low-income families, lack strong male role models, and feel that they have no future. Wolf Cubs is the story of Jivani's education as an activist on the front lines of one of today's most dangerous and intractable problems: the exploding violence among angry young men in countries all over the world.

Material: manuscript due June

Page count: 288

TRANSLATION RIGHTS ONLY (UK/Commonwealth with Westwood Creative Artists)

EQUALITY FOR WOMEN = PROSPERITY FOR ALL: The Disastrous Global Crisis of Gender Inequality by Augusto Lopez-Claros and Bahiyyih Nakhjavani (St. Martin's Press, October 2018)

This ground-breaking book by a leading authority on gender inequality and economics, and former Director of the Global Indicators Group at the World Bank, demonstrates the direct relationship between a woman's amount of freedom and the economic prosperity of her country. An enormous global project entitled Women, Business and the Law that was conducted by the World Bank systematically looked at 173 economies around the world, evaluating each in terms of the answers to forty-seven questions concerning the rights of women in that locale. Astonishingly, the survey revealed an almost direct correlation between how many freedoms women enjoyed and how much prosperity was enjoyed by that particular economy. Based on the findings of that study this pioneering book proves irrefutably, once and for all, that freedom for women equals prosperity for all.

Praise: “A wonderfully compelling book, combining as it does relevant statistical data with unique insights and stories that bring the subject matter to life. Beautifully written—I literally couldn’t put it down!”—Amanda Ellis, New Zealand Ambassador to the UN

Material: manuscript

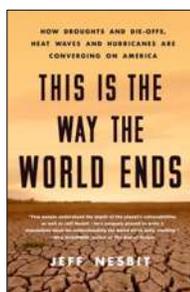

Page count: 304

DON'T LABEL ME by Irshad Manji (St. Martin's Press, March 2019)

From the founder of the award-winning Moral Courage Project at the University of Southern California and the bestselling author of The Trouble with Islam Today comes a book about “honest diversity,” addressing the tribalism and walled-off mentality that prevent people of different groups from connecting. Identity politics—the tendency for people of a particular religion, race, social background, etc. to form groups and alliances based on these identities rather than on traditional party-based, democrat or republican ideals—is the new norm. Diversity, once heralded as the missing piece of an equitable, just democracy, is now the very thing that has driven an incalculable, divisive wedge in our democracy. Don't Label Me will show a way forward, so that everyone may be understood for who we really are, not what we're assumed to be based on the context of our gender or race. Sure to ignite debate as well as reflection, Don't Label Me shows how we can move in the direction of unity rather than division: “we, the people” instead of “we, the polarized.”

Material: manuscript due June

Page count: 256

THIS IS THE WAY THE WORLD ENDS: How Droughts and Die-offs, Heat Waves and Hurricanes Are Converging on America by Jeff Nesbit (Thomas Dunne Books, September 2018)

In This is The Way the World Ends, Jeff Nesbit, the former director of public affairs for two federal science agencies, explores environmental issues across the globe—beginning with water loss in Middle Eastern countries such as Saudi Arabia, Yemen, and Somalia and concluding with monsoon damage in countries such as India. Black coal is rising. Carbon dioxide and temperature levels are fluctuating beyond precedent. Big business is booming. Even if these alarming issues don't wake you up in the middle of the night, they are imminently approaching. We have the power to stop them, but we must act now.

Praise: “Few people understand the depth of the planet’s vulnerabilities as well as Jeff Nesbit—he’s uniquely placed to write a touchstone book for understanding the world we’re daily creating.”—Bill McKibben, author of The End of Nature

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

HERO DOGS: How a Pack of Rescues, Rejects, and Strays Became America’s Greatest Disaster-Search Assets by Wilma Melville with Paul Loboschefsky (St. Martin’s Press, January 2019)

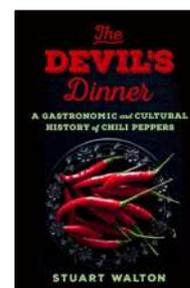

Having volunteered as a canine search-and-rescue handler during the 1995 Oklahoma City bombing, Wilma Melville, retired gym teacher and grandmother, had seen how ill-prepared the country was to respond to disasters. Then and there, armed with only her loyal Black Lab, Murphy, and a mind no one could change, she made a pact. Wilma singlehandedly founded the National Disaster Search Dog Foundation (SDF) and began a journey that changed the face of search-and-rescue forever. But even Wilma could not predict how desperately her idea would soon be needed. With 9/11, the scope of disaster response in America changed in an instant, and SDF launched to a national stage. In this gripping, heart-wrenching story, Wilma and writer Paul Loboschefsky trace the paths of the incredible dogs, firefighters, and volunteers who brought her dream to fruition. Wilma recounts struggles and triumphs as they face off with hurricanes, bombings, and other disasters. Along the way, we witness the unshakeable bonds that develop between humans and their dogs—now some people’s only hope.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 336

THE DEVIL’S DINNER: A Gastronomic and Cultural History of Chili Peppers by Stuart Walton (St. Martin’s Press, October 2018)

In the tradition of Cod and Salt, The Devil’s Dinner looks at the history of hot peppers, their culinary uses through the ages, and the significance of spicy food in an increasingly homogenous world. With festivals, expositions, academic colloquia, and a broad range of hot sauce products available everywhere from specialty delicatessens to fast-food franchises, hot peppers are having a cultural moment. And they are big business, as well. There are now chili whiskies, chili beers, chili colognes, and more. But more than just a hot trend, chili peppers have a fascinating history. The Devil’s Dinner is the first book to go into depth about the biological, gastronomical, and cultural impact this forbidden fruit has had upon people all over the world. Covering everything from the geographical migration of chilies, to regional cuisine, to cultural importance, to medicinal uses, to weapon creation, and more.

Foreign sales: Japan/Soshisha

Material: manuscript

Page count: 320

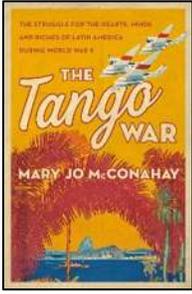

ON THE GANGES: Encounters with Saints and Sinners on India’s Mythic River by George Black (St. Martin’s Press, July 2018)

From an award-winning author and journalist comes a look at one of the world’s greatest rivers, the Ganges, and the people who live on it and along its shores. Part E.M. Forester and part Bill Bryson, On the Ganges is an extraordinary journey down the entire length of the Ganges. From the river’s origin point near Hardwar to Varanasi and on to Kolkata and Bangladesh, Black chronicles the lives of people who cremate their dead at the river’s edge, perform in the streets of towns along its shores, eke out a life funded by lower-than-average factory wages and—for some Brits—live as if The Raj was still in place. What Black finds is a land of contradictions, one that is both sacred and profane. At the conclusion of the book, trying to make sense of the rich and contradictory Ganges, he finds that there is no absolute conclusion. As a roadside vendor tells him “There are good days and there are bad days. It all depends. Everything is in the hands of our mother, Ma Ganga.”

Material: manuscript

Page count: 336

THE TANGO WAR: The Struggle for the Hearts, Minds and Riches of Latin America During World War II by Mary Jo McConahay (St. Martin's Press, September 2018)

Filling an important gap in World War II history, The Tango War is the gripping and little known story of the fight for the allegiance of Latin America. Beginning in the 1930s, both sides were well aware of the need to control not just the hearts and minds but also the resources of Latin America. Allies secured loyalty through espionage and diplomacy—including help from Hollywood and Mickey Mouse—while Jews and innocents among ethnic groups—Japanese, Germans—paid an unconscionable price. The Tango War also describes the machinations behind the greatest mass flight of criminals of the century, fascists with blood on their hands, who escaped to the Americas. This true, shocking account that reads like a thriller shows how WWII was truly a global war.

Praise: “A long-overdue history...For anyone interested in World War II, Latin America, or just plain good old-fashioned stories, really well told, this is a fascinating read.”—Jon Lee Anderson, Staff Writer, The New Yorker, author of The Lion’s Grave and Che Guevara

Material: manuscript

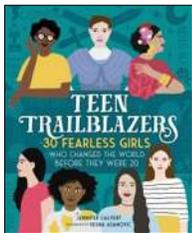

Page count: 336

THE SPY IN MOSCOW STATION: NSA, CIA and a Counterspy’s Hunt for a Deadly Cold War Threat by Eric Haseltine (Thomas Dunne Books, January 2019)

This is the true story of unorthodox, underdog intelligence officers at the National Security Agency—rivals to the more established CIA—in the late 1970s who fought an uphill battle against their own government to prove that the KGB had pulled off the most devastating penetration of U.S. national security in history. Much like today—Russian spy craft had proven itself far beyond the best technology the U.S. had to offer. The perils of American arrogance mixed with bureaucratic infighting left the country unspeakably vulnerable to ultra-sophisticated Russian electronic surveillance and espionage. Now American spies in Russia were being outed, and the CIA was helpless to stop the purge. Outsmarting honey traps and encroaching deep enough into enemy territory to perform complicated technical investigations, NSA engineer Charles Gandy accomplished the mission in Russia, but discovered more than State and the CIA wanted him to know. If you think The Americans isn’t riveting enough, you’ll love this toe-curling nonfiction thriller.

Material: manuscript due July

Page count: 320

TEEN TRAILBLAZERS: 30 Fearless Girls Who Changed the World Before They Were 20 by Jennifer Calvert (Castle Point Books, October 2018)

Joan of Arc. Anne Frank. Cleopatra. Pocahontas. Mary Shelley. Many of these heroines are well-known. But have you heard of Margaret Knight who, when she was twelve, invented a safety mechanism that was used in cotton mills all over the country? Or Élisabeth Vigée-LeBrun who, born in 1755, was a sought-after portrait artist by the age of fifteen and developed her own style of painting in a time when both newness and female painters were frowned upon? What about Jackie Mitchell who was one of the first women to be signed to a minor-league baseball contract and struck out baseball legends Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig when she was seventeen years old? This fascinating book features thirty young women who accomplished remarkable things before their twentieth birthdays. Visually compelling, with original illustrations, this book will inspire the next generation of strong, fearless women.

Material: manuscript and sample illustrations

Page count: 128

THE WARRIOR CODE: 11 Principles to Unleash Your Dopeness and Realize the Badass Inside of You
by Tee Marie Hanible (St. Martin's Press, April 2019)

From the true American hero and first female Marine to see war action in Iraq comes the story of how she became a warrior...and how you can too. By the age of fifteen, Tee Hanible's father had been murdered. She'd lived in foster care a total of fourteen years and a total of one year with her biological mother. She'd been expelled from school. She'd been shot on the streets of South Side Chicago. She had no future. But while attending paramilitary reform school, Tee felt overcome with the need to serve her country. To be strong. To be a warrior. Forged from Tee's relentless drive and ambition, she was part of the first female class ever to take the Marine combat-training course. She was the only woman to go into a theater of war with her unit in Iraq in 2013. She's a Gunnery Sergeant. She's a badass. And now, she wants to help you become one. An empowering, captivating blend of memoir and motivation, Tee shares the harrowing story of her childhood, her inspiring rise through the Marines, and the methods by which she achieved such success.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 176

QUEEN BEY: 16 Writers Celebrate the Beauty, Power and Creativity of Beyoncé Knowles-Carter
edited by Veronica Chambers (St. Martin's Press, January 2019)

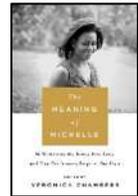

Beyoncé. Her name conjures more than music; it has come to be synonymous with beauty, glamour, power, creativity, love, romance and sex appeal. Her performances are legendary, and her album releases are events. She is only thirty-six but she has already rewritten the Beyoncé playbook more than half a dozen times. She is consistently provocative, political and surprising. As a solo artist, she has sold more than 100 million records apart from the sixty million sold as part of Destiny's Child. She has won twenty-two Grammys and is the most nominated woman in the award's history. Now, from the editor of the bestselling anthology The Meaning of Michelle, Queen Bey will feature contributors with a diverse range of voices from star academics to outspoken cultural critics to Hollywood and music stars in this celebration of one of the greatest pop stars and role models of our time.

Praise: "A glorious tribute to an incredible woman."—Booklist (starred review) on The Meaning of Michelle

Material: manuscript due June

Page count: 256

Also available: The Meaning of Michelle (2017)

LIVE LONG AND... : What I Might Have Learned Along the Way by William Shatner
with David Fisher (Thomas Dunne Books, September 2018)

In his latest book, Star Trek legend and veteran author William Shatner discusses the meaning of life, finding value in work, and living well whatever your age. After mulling over the lessons he's learned, the places he's been, and all the miracles and strange occurrences he's witnessed over the course of an enduring career in Hollywood and on the stage, Shatner has arrived at one simple rule for living a long and good life: don't die. With a combination of humor and thoughtful vulnerability, Shatner lays out his journey from childhood to peak stardom and all the bumps in the road. (Sometimes the literal road, as in the case of his 2,400-mile motorcycle trip across the country with a bike that didn't function.) These funny, provocative, and poignant reflections offer an unforgettable read about a remarkable man.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 224

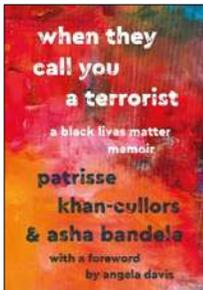

FORTNITE: The Ultimate Unauthorized Guide by Grant Turner (St. Martin's Griffin, July 2018)

Are you ready to take your game to the next level, destroy zombie hordes AND your fellow gamers? If so, read on for all the essential information needed to navigate through the Fortnite world like a pro. Learn how to download the game on all platforms (Nintendo, PlayStation, Xbox and PC—and now on your mobile device!), and then, whether playing Battle Royale or Save the Earth mode, learn how and where to unearth the best items, discover essential combat strategies and weapons use, identify ideal landing zones and build the perfect fort or base. With secret cheats, hacks, unlockables, and more, this is the guide to all things Fortnite!

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 208

WHEN THEY CALL YOU A TERRORIST: A Black Lives Matter Memoir by Patrisse Kahn-Cullors and asha bandele (St. Martin's Press, January 2018)

From the co-founder of the Black Lives Matter movement comes a poetic memoir and reflection on humanity. Necessary and timely, Cullors' story asks us to remember that protest in the interest of the most vulnerable comes from love. Leaders of the BLM movement have been called terrorists and a threat to America. But in truth, they are loving women whose life experiences have led them to seek justice for those victimized by the powerful. In this meaningful, empowering account of survival, strength, and resilience, Cullors and bandele seek to change the culture that declares innocent black life expendable.

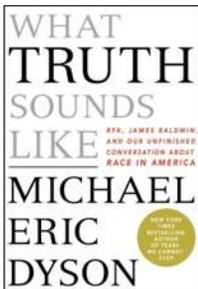

A New York Times Bestseller!

Praise: "This book tells why we all share the responsibility to move those three words from an aspiration into a new reality."—Jeff Chang

Foreign sales: Germany/Kiepenheuer & Witsch, Italy/Ottotipi, UK/Canongate

Material: finished copies

Page count: 272

WHAT TRUTH SOUNDS LIKE: Robert F. Kennedy, James Baldwin, and Our Unfinished Conversation About Race in America by Michael Eric Dyson (St. Martin's Press, June 2018)

A stunning follow up to New York Times bestseller Tears We Cannot Stop, this is a timely exploration of America's tortured racial politics. In 1963 Attorney General Robert Kennedy sought out James Baldwin to explain the rage that threatened to engulf black America. Kennedy walked away from the nearly three-hour meeting angry—that the black folk assembled didn't understand politics and that they weren't as easy to talk to as Martin Luther King. But Kennedy's anger quickly gave way to empathy. And he set about changing policy—the meeting having transformed his thinking in fundamental ways. What Truth Sounds Like exists at the tense intersection of the conflict between whether we embrace political resolution or moral redemption to fix our fractured racial landscape. The future of race and democracy hang in the balance.

Praise: "Dyson masterfully refracts our present racial conflagration through a subtle reading of one of the most consequential meetings about race to ever take place. In so doing, he reminds us that Black artists and intellectuals bear an awesome responsibility to speak truth to power."—Robin D. G. Kelley, author of Freedom Dreams: The Black Radical Imagination

Material: manuscript

Page count: 304

Also available: Tears We Cannot Stop (2017)

BUSINESS/COMMUNICATION/FINANCE

FIVE STARS: The Communication Secrets to Get from Good to Great by Carmine Gallo (St. Martin's Press, June 2018)

Ideas don't sell themselves. As the forces of globalization, automation, and artificial intelligence combine to disrupt every field, having a good idea isn't good enough. Mastering the ancient art of persuasion is the key to standing out, getting ahead, and achieving greatness in the modern world. Communication is no longer a "soft" skill—it is the human edge that will make you unstoppable, irresistible, and irreplaceable—earning you that perfect rating, that fifth star. In Five Stars, Carmine Gallo breaks down how to apply Aristotle's formula of persuasion to inspire contemporary audiences. In the knowledge age—the information economy—you are only as valuable as your ideas. Five Stars is a book to help you bridge the gap between mediocrity and exceptionality, and gain your competitive edge in the age of automation.

Praise: “In Five Stars, communication coach Carmine Gallo skillfully builds the case that mastering the ancient art of persuasion is the key to thriving in a world of rapid technological change. Developing superior communication skills is no longer an option; it’s fundamental for success. Five Stars is an enormously valuable tool for entrepreneurs and leaders in every field.”—Tony Robbins, #1 New York Times bestselling author, philanthropist, & the nation’s #1 life & business strategist

Foreign sales: China/Citic, Czech Republic/Dobrovsky, Japan/Nikkei BP, Korea/RHK, Netherlands/Business Contact, Russia/Eksmo, Taiwan/Eurasian, UK/Pan Macmillan
 Previous titles' foreign sales: Arabic language/Al-Ahlia, Brazil/Editora HSM, Bulgaria/Roi, China/Citic, Czech Republic/Albatros, Germany/MVG, Hungary/HVG, Italy/Vallardi, Japan/Nikkei BP, Korea/RHK, Mongolia/Erdemt Geegen NGO, Netherlands/Business Contact, Poland/Foksal, Portugal/Bertrand, Romania/Act, Russia/Alpina, Slovakia/Albatros, Spanish language/Conecta, Sweden/Optimal/Pagina, Taiwan/Eurasian, Thailand/Openworlds, Turkey/Notos, UK/Pan Macmillan, Vietnam/Alpha Books

Material: manuscript

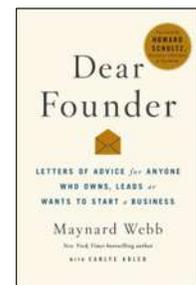

Page count: 256

Also available: Talk Like TED (2014), The Storyteller's Secret (2016)

DEAR FOUNDER: Letters of Advice for Anyone Who Leads, Manages, or Wants to Start a Business by Maynard Webb with Carlye Adler (St. Martin's Press, September 2018)

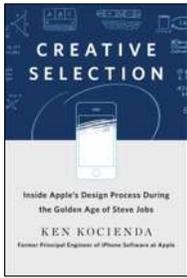

Maynard Webb—Silicon Valley angel investor, board member at Salesforce and Visa, former chairman of the board at Yahoo!, and former CEO of LiveOps and COO of eBay—has long been considered one of Silicon Valley's most trusted sources of advice for entrepreneurs. Known for sharing his insight through personal letters to new company founders and entrepreneurs, Webb now reveals to all business readers what he has previously counseled to a private audience. Dear Founder, a collection of more than eighty thoughtful, wise, and wide-ranging letters, is rich with sound advice on an array of business topics: how to hire your first employees, how to build and manage culture, how to raise money, how to set and reach goals, how to scale, and how to think about legacy. These and dozens of other business-critical subjects are addressed with a blend of empathy, humor, candor, tough-love, and hard-won wisdom from more than forty years in a range of businesses from start-ups to established companies. Dear Founder is an invaluable book for anyone who wants to lead and succeed in any business.

Foreign sales: China/Citic, Russia/Eksmo, Taiwan/Ye-Ren

Material: manuscript

Page count: 352

CREATIVE SELECTION: Inside Apple's Design Process During the Golden Years of Steve Jobs by Ken Kocienda (St. Martin's Press, September 2018)

For fifteen years, Ken Kocienda was on the ground floor of Apple as a specialist responsible for experimenting with novel user interface concepts and writing software for products including the iPhone, the iPad, and the Safari web browser. His stories explain the symbiotic relationship between software and product development, and reveal what it was like to work on the cutting edge of technology at one of the world's most admired companies. Kocienda shares moments of struggle and success, crisis and collaboration, illuminating each with lessons learned over his Apple career. He introduces the essential elements of innovation—inspiration, collaboration, craft, diligence, decisiveness, taste, and empathy—and uses these as a lens through which to understand productive work culture. An insider's tale of creativity and innovation at Apple, Creative Selection shows readers how a small group of people developed an evolutionary design model, and how they used this methodology to make groundbreaking and intuitive software which countless millions use every day.

Foreign sales: China/Citic, Japan/Sunmark, Korea/ChungRim, UK/Pan Macmillan, Vietnam/Saigon

Material: proposal (manuscript due May)

Page count: 304

WIN OR DIE: A Game of Thrones and Leadership by Bruce Craven (Thomas Dunne Books, March 2019)

"When you play the game of thrones, you win or you die. There is no middle ground."—Cersei Lannister. One of the great joys of watching Game of Thrones is strategizing what bold moves you'd make in this bloody, volatile world. One of the great terrors of being a leader is knowing that the real world can be just as brutal. Every day leaders are presented with opportunities and challenges, and they must decide which roads to follow never knowing whether they will profit or fail until they're in the thick of it. In Win or Die: A Game of Thrones and Leadership, Bruce Craven, the Director of Columbia University's Advanced Management Program, brilliantly charts the journeys of the best and worst leaders in Westeros, so that leaders can create their own narratives of success. Craven tracks beloved characters such as Ned Stark, Jon Snow, Daenerys Targaryen, and Cersei Lannister as they make terrible decisions and fatal mistakes but also achieve incredible victories and surprising successes. All the while, Craven shows readers how to recognize opportunities, work with mentors, identify their purpose, apply strategic learning, become a fully engaged leader and much, much more.

Material: manuscript due July

Page count: 288

HOW TO THINK LIKE A ROMAN EMPEROR: The Stoic Philosophy of Marcus Aurelius by Donald Robertson (St. Martin's Press, January 2019)

Roman emperor Marcus Aurelius was the final famous Stoic philosopher of the ancient world. The Meditations, his personal journal, survives to this day as one of the most beloved self-help and spiritual classics of all time. In How to Think Like a Roman Emperor, psychotherapist Donald Robertson weaves stories of Marcus's life from the Roman histories together with explanations of Stoicism—its philosophy and its psychology—to enlighten today's readers. Robertson shows how Marcus used philosophical doctrines and therapeutic practices to build emotional resilience and endure tremendous adversity and guides readers through applying the same methods to their own lives. This book puts a human face on Stoicism and offers a timeless and essential guide to handling the ethical and psychological challenges we face today.

Material: manuscript due May

Page count: 256

VOCATIONAL COURAGE: A Guide to Living the Life You Were Meant to Live by Nicholas Pearce (St. Martin's Press, June 2019)

In a book that will appeal to readers of Designing Your Life by Bill Burnett and Dave Evans and Let Your Life Speak by Parker Palmer, Dr. Nicholas Pearce, an award-winning management and organizations professor at the Kellogg School of Management and founder and CEO of The Vocati Group, a global boutique executive advisory firm, introduces the practice of vocational courage—boldly building a life of significance and not just importance. This practice has been essential to Pearce's own success and fulfillment and drives the guidance he provides as an expert in values-driven leadership and organizational authenticity. Vocational Courage is structured around five questions that we must ask ourselves to create a life of significance. These key checkpoints for charting life's journey can help anyone determine whether they are leading a meaningful, vocationally courageous life and help them find their way if they are not. Vocational courage is not merely about a job or career, fame or fortune, or even passion—it's about finding and pursuing your true purpose in life and about making sure your life's work is reflected in your daily work.

Material: proposal (manuscript due June)

Page count: 256

DISCIPLINE EQUALS FREEDOM: Field Manual by Jocko Willink (St. Martin's Press, October 2017)

From the #1 New York Times bestselling co-author of Extreme Ownership and host of the top-rated Jocko Podcast comes the ultimate book on motivation. Jocko Willink's methods for success were born in the SEAL Teams where he spent most of his adult life. In Discipline Equals Freedom, Willink describes how he lives that mantra: the mental and physical discipline he imposes on himself in order to achieve freedom in all aspects of life. Many books offer advice on how to overcome obstacles and reach your goals, but that advice often misses the most critical ingredient: discipline. Without discipline, there will be no real progress. With Discipline Equals Freedom you can discover the keys to becoming stronger, smarter, faster, and healthier.

Now a New York Times Bestseller with over 200,000 units sold!

Foreign sales: China/Citic, Germany/MVG, Korea/Maven, Russia/Eksmo, Taiwan/ECOTREND, Vietnam/Saigon Books

Material: finished copies

Page count: 208

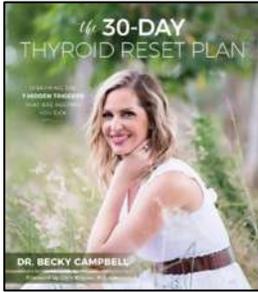

SELFIE MADE: Your Ultimate Guide to Social Media Stardom by Meridith Valiando Rojas (Wednesday Books, October 2018)

For kids aged eleven to eighteen the number one job choice is a YouTuber. Whether your goal is to be a social star or an online entrepreneur, Meridith Valiando Rojas' Selfie Made can help. Meridith launched her wildly successful company with an idea and a WiFi connection. She and her company DigiTour Media have worked with over 500 social stars from nearly every platform, seeing first-hand how people go viral, grow an audience, and leverage the popularity of the internet to build their brand in front of or behind the camera. With personal stories, both from Meridith and from twenty of the biggest social media influencers, and practical hands-on advice, if you want to launch your online career, this book is for you!

Material: manuscript

Page count: 256

HEALTH AND WELLNESS/LIFESTYLE/COOKERY/ACTIVITYTHE 30-DAY THYROID RESET PLAN: Disarming the 7 Hidden Triggers that Are Keeping You Sick by Dr. Becky Campbell (Page Street Publishing, June 2018)

The revolutionary answer for all the people with thyroid problems and no idea how to fix them. After years of feeling sick and misunderstood by conventional medical practitioners, Dr. Becky Campbell began exploring functional medicine. Now a practicing and board-certified Doctor of Natural Medicine, Dr. Campbell breaks down the functional medical approach to Hashimoto's thyroiditis and other thyroid disorders and explains the hidden seven root triggers that cause sickness—which includes gut infections, leaky gut and food sensitivities, vitamin deficiencies, HPA-axis imbalance, and heavy metal toxicity. With a highly-effective thirty-day diet reset plan that doesn't sacrifice on flavor, recipes for toxin-free household cleaning products, and more, The 30-Day Thyroid Reset Plan has everything you need to jump start your journey to thyroid health.

Material: .pdf

Page count: 208

THE BLOATED BELLY WHISPERER: Tame Digestive Distress Once and For All by Tamara Duker Freuman, MS, RD, CDN (St. Martin's Press, January 2019)

Ask any gastroenterologist about the most common complaint they get from patients, and they'll tell you the same thing: "bloating." This is more than anecdotal: at least thirty million Americans visited the doctor in 2010 with complaints of abdominal distress. One of the country's most sought-after registered dietitians, Dr. Freuman, has spent years listening to thousands of patients describe their bloating in vivid detail, which has taught her to appreciate the differences between a belly bloated from acid indigestion and one bloated due to a delay in stomach emptying...and all the possibilities in between. Now she uses her experience to help readers take control of their own digestive health, by helping you identify the specific cause of your bloating, giving you the right descriptive terminology and questions to take to your next doctor's visit, and teaching you the most effective dietary remedies for your particular brand of bloating so you can get that bloated belly under control for good and end abdominal distress and bloating once and for all.

Includes 50 recipes from former Bon Appétit editor and cookbook author Kristine Kidd!

Material: manuscript

Page count: 304

HANGRY B*TCHES: The Paleo Hormone Cure by Sarah Fragoso and Brooke Kalanick, ND, MS (St. Martin's Press, April 2019)

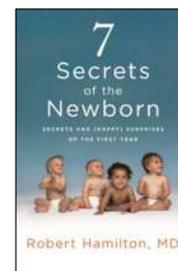

*Hangry B*tches* offers women with "normal" lab work a diet and lifestyle program to reverse the hidden autoimmune illnesses that leave them feeling stressed out, cranky, hungry, frustrated, overweight and really freaking tired. Powerhouse authors Sarah Fragoso and Dr. Brooke Kalanick present a five-step, customizable plan for women to heal their hormones, restore their joy, reset their metabolism, and kick start fat loss in just four weeks. Go from tired and irritable, to vibrant, fit, and most importantly: happy.

Material: manuscript due July

Page count: 336

7 SECRETS OF THE NEWBORN: Secrets and (Happy) Surprises of the First Year by Robert Hamilton, MD (St. Martin's Press, September 2018)

When pediatrician Dr. Bob Hamilton's video showing how to soothe a crying infant hit the web, he became a YouTube sensation, garnering over fifteen million views in just ten days, which led to appearances on Good Morning America, Dr. Oz, and Fox & Friends, as well as media attention from Europe to China. Now with 7 Secrets of the Newborn Dr. Hamilton brings parents clear, sensible, warm advice on the first year with baby. With over thirty years' experience as a pediatrician, father, and grandfather, Hamilton's advice is science-based, slightly old-fashioned, and strives for a supportive and healthy growing environment for babies AND parents. With Dr. Bob, parents will be prepared to face baby's first year with common sense, confidence, and calm.

Material: manuscript

Page count: 288

THE ULTIMATE NEW MOM'S COOKBOOK: A Complete Food and Nutrition Resource for Expectant Mothers, Babies and Toddlers by Aurora Satler with Allison Childress PhD, RDN, LD, (Page Street Publishing, June 2018)

With over eighty recipes—each with a full-color photo—this cookbook is every mother's must-have guide for healthy and easy recipes for pregnancy, through the baby's first year and beyond. From therapeutic dishes to cure morning sickness to nourishing dishes to eat during breastfeeding, and everything in between, mother and cook Aurora Satler and licensed dietitian Dr. Allison Childress have compiled all you need to know for a healthy mom and baby. Recipes include nutritious snacks and meals for breastfeeding mothers, as well as double-duty recipes that provide both delicious Butternut Squash Puree for your baby and Butternut Squash Mac & Cheese for the rest of the family.

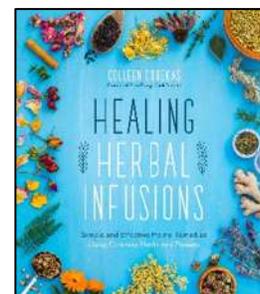

Material: early .pdf

Page count: 224

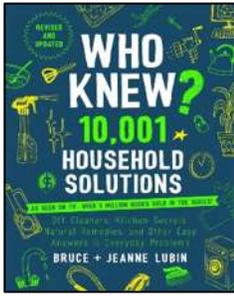

HEALING HERBAL INFUSIONS: Simple and Effective Home Remedies Using Common Herbs and Flowers by Colleen Codekas (Page Street Publishing, October 2018)

A wonderful introduction for the beginner herbalist, find here the seventy-five most effective infusions to remedy common health ailments, including skin conditions, cold and flu, digestion aids, as well as mental wellness aids and those for mother and child. To boost your immunity during cold and flu season, create a medicinal tea with vitamin C-packed rose hips, hibiscus, orange and cinnamon. If you have digestion discomfort, a simple syrup made with ginger and turmeric will do wonders. Readers will also learn effective infusions for sprains and bruises, burns, itchy skin, inflammation, headaches, sore throats, stress and so much more. Each recipe is simple to make and uses easily sourced materials. Budding herbalists, families seeking safe home remedies and natural living enthusiasts will love crafting their own wellness products.

Material: early .pdf due May

Page count: 192

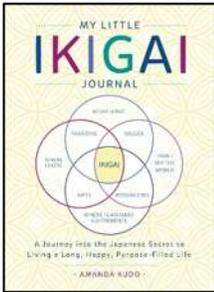

WHO KNEW? 10,001 HOUSEHOLD SOLUTIONS: Money-Saving Tips, DIY Cleaners, Kitchen Secrets, and Other Easy Answers to Everyday Problems by Bruce Lubin and Jeanne Lubin (Castle Point Books, August 2018)

From the five-million-copy-selling Who Knew? brand comes a big new book on household solutions. Who Knew? 10,001 Household Solutions makes household tips more accessible and easier to use than ever. Each tip—such as Magic Bug Spray, Orange Peel All-Purpose Cleaner, and How to Make Lemons Last Forever—is listed briefly with easy-to-follow instructions in the trademark chatty Who Knew? style. Tips are organized into chapters by subject and the book includes a full index.

Material: early .pdf due May

Page count: 400

MY LITTLE IKIGAI JOURNAL: A Journey into the Japanese Secret to Living a Long, Happy, Purpose-Filled Life by Amanda Kudo (Castle Point Books, September 2018)

Ikigai is a Japanese concept that means “a reason for being.” If you make three lists: your values, the things you like to do, and the things you are good at, there is a point at which the three overlap. This is your ikigai. According to Japanese culture, everyone has an ikigai, and staying true to it in everything we do is the secret to a long, happy life. People of retirement age don’t put their feet up in Japan: they continue to pursue their ikigai, which leads to fulfillment and contentment. This guided journal offers simple questions to help you determine your ikigai helping you to achieve a purposeful, worthwhile, happy life.

Material: early .pdf due May

Page count: 128

FRENCH VINTAGE DECOR: Easy and Elegant DIY Projects for Any Home by Jamie Lundstrom (Page Street Publishing, June 2018)

Chic and elegant French décor never goes out of style. Crafters will delight in these sixty easy yet stunningly sophisticated projects, featuring traditional French shapes and patterns, graceful typefaces and the bold yet refined color palette, all while utilizing found and recycled objects. Sample projects span every category, from seasonal to sewing, painting and upholstery, and include projects such as Distressed Key Holder from Wine Crate, French Glazed Plant Pots and Vintage Christmas Stockings. Have fun building these projects you can be proud of, and create the French vintage home of your dreams.

Material: early .pdf

Page count: 176

ONE-DAY ROOM MAKEOVERS: How to Get the Designer Look for Less with Three Easy Steps by Martin Amado (Page Street Publishing, July 2018)

“Makeover Maestro” Martin Amado shares his easy, fast and inexpensive three-step method to get a designer look in each room of your house for less money in one day. By painting the walls, rearranging key pieces of furniture and adding new decorative accessories to complete the style, your rooms will beautifully come to life at practically no cost. It’s like The Life Changing Magic of Tidying Up meets Martha Stewart with simple and sensible adjustments room by room that will create a home that brings you joy. This book will have ten in-depth projects and one hundred photos.

Material: early .pdf

Page count: 192

THE ARTFUL SKETCH: Create Artistic Drawings Step by Step to Embellish Your Home, Business and Life by Mary Phan (Page Street Publishing, September 2018)

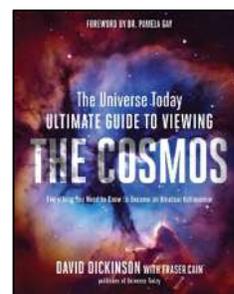

Mary Phan, the founder of a popular sketching workshop, makes it unbelievably easy for beginner drawers to create gorgeous, modern sketches that can adorn their homes, crafts or blogs. Adult coloring and hand lettering has inspired a generation of budding casual artists, and now makers looking for a new creative outlet have access to Mary's exclusive secrets. In each sketch she walks readers through the basics, from using a ruler and pencil to sketch out the basic shape, to adding details like shadows, using a black pen to highlight the final sketch and adding color to bring it to life. By the end of each tutorial, readers will have a professional-level work of art that they'll be proud to share as a gift, send as a card, post online or hang on their wall. This book will have fifteen detailed step-by-step illustrated tutorials, and styled photographs of each sketch.

Material: early .pdf due May
Page count: 160

THE UNIVERSE TODAY ULTIMATE GUIDE TO VIEWING THE COSMOS: Everything You Need to Know to Become an Amateur Astronomer by David Dickinson with Fraser Cain (Page Street Publishing, December 2018)

If you've ever been interested in the night sky and the wonders above our heads, search no further: your ultimate resource for all things in the universe is here. From David Dickinson and Fraser Cain, publisher of the widely popular astronomy news site, Universe Today, comes the complete guide to the night sky, ranging from the best tips and tricks for viewing and an overview of the solar system and our galaxy, to exclusive interviews with top NASA scientists interwoven with exclusive, beautiful photography from top night sky photographers. With calendars, charts and graphs, you'll treasure this definitive resource for many night sky viewings now and for years to come.

Material: early .pdf due July
Page count: 256

WONDERS OF THE NIGHT SKY YOU MUST SEE BEFORE YOU DIE: The Guide to Extraordinary Curiosities of Our Solar System by Bob King (Page Street Publishing, April 2018)

Do you enjoy looking at the night sky but aren't sure how to keep track of what you've seen? Maybe you're looking to take your night watching to another level and find more incredible sights? Bob King's bucket list collection of seventy must-see night sky wonders and dark sky destinations will fill your nights with adventure and the ability to see some of the incredible phenomenon of the sky. Learn how to find out all about the brightest and best stars, planets, meteors, comets and constellations using the naked eye, binoculars, telescopes, and apps. Complete with background information, sight-seeing activities, technological resources, and a comprehensive checklist to keep track of your travels, this is the ultimate pocket resource for any sky watcher.

Foreign sales: China/United Sky New Media Co.

Previous title's foreign sales: China/United Sky New Media Co., Taiwan/Business Weekly Publications

Material: finished copies
Page count: 224

Also available: Night Sky with the Naked Eye (2016)

THIS IS ROCKET SCIENCE: An Activity Guide: 70 Fun and Easy Experiments for Kids to Learn More About Our Solar System by Emma Vanstone (Page Street Publishing, April 2018)

Learning about science has never been easier with these fun experiments for kids and adults to learn to build mind-blowing projects, each designed to show how mechanical science and astrophysics work from the inside out. Use everyday items like bottles, cardboard, glue, and tape to build awesome rocket ships, paper spinners and mobile rocket launch pads, all while learning concepts like Newton's third law of motion (for every action there is always an opposite and equal reaction), speed, gravity and air resistance. Kids learn to make scientific observations, ask questions, identify and classify and find answers to their questions, all while investigating space.

Material: finished copies

Page count: 160

GENIUS LEGO INVENTIONS WITH BRICKS YOU ALREADY HAVE: 40+ New Robots, Spaceships, Vehicles, Contraptions, Gadgets and Other Tinkering Projects with Real Working Parts by Sarah Dees (Page Street Publishing, November 2018)

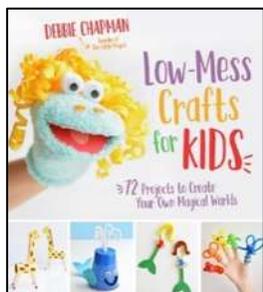

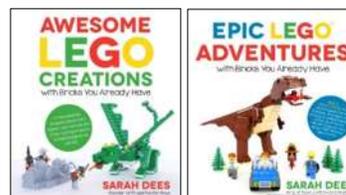

Sarah Dees' first two LEGO books have been hits, and now, she focuses on the subject that draws many kids into LEGO in the first place—tinkering, engineering, building, experimenting, solving problems and inventing. This book shares fun and exciting new science-powered creations that are fun toys kids can play with, but which also teach the important scientific concepts at work behind levers, pulleys, suspension bridges, skyscrapers, gears, motorized machines, magnets and more. Kids will learn important scientific facts that help them in school, developing critical thinking skills, as well as staying entertained for hours on end!

Previous titles' foreign sales: China/Posts & Telecommunications Press, Germany/Schwager & Steinlein, Netherlands/WPG Kindermedia, Russia/Eksmo

Material: early .pdf due August

Page count: 192

Also available: Awesome LEGO Creations with Bricks You Already Have (2016), Epic LEGO Adventures with Bricks You Already Have (2017)

LOW-MESS CRAFTS FOR KIDS: 72 Projects to Create Your Own Magical Worlds by Debbie Chapman (Page Street Publishing, June 2018)

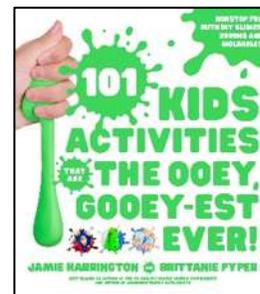

Crafting with kids can be overwhelming sometimes. It can be just so messy. But that doesn't have to be the case all the time. With Debbie's techniques—like creating a beautiful butterfly without glue or using leftover paper scraps for flowers—you really can do crafts without making a huge mess. The projects in each chapter create their own wonderful worlds for children to play in, like a world under the sea, a magical garden, or a monster puppet show. Step-by-step photos make these projects extra kid-friendly, and all of these seventy-two projects can be made with supplies you already have at home—clothespins, paper towel rolls, construction paper, pipe cleaners, and tissue paper—making craft time easier than ever.

Material: early .pdf

Page count: 192

101 KIDS ACTIVITIES THAT ARE THE OOEY, GOOEY-EST EVER: Nonstop Fun with DIY Slimes, Doughs and Moldables by Jamie Harrington, Brittanie Pyper, and Holly Homer (Page Street Publishing, December 2018)

Slimy, mashable, goeey crafts for kids come together in this ultimate guide to all things oozy and fun for children. Playdough is on the docket, of course, but this book delves past the classic sensory play into a world of slime and moldable creations. Besides the fun, children get the added benefits of sensory play—a trending parenting and teaching tool for toddlers often implemented in preschools and daycares due to its developmental benefits—by exploring with all five senses. With recipes requiring simple household ingredients, parents will love how easy these creations are for playtime, and with so many to choose from, there’s no risk of boredom.

Material: early .pdf due July

Page count: 192

THE ULTIMATE KIDS' COOKBOOK: Fun One-Pot Recipes Your Whole Family Will Love! by Tiffany Dahle (Page Street Publishing, August 2018)

Transform the stress of meal prep into a fun family activity with kids at the center of the action chopping veggies, stirring the pot or adding ingredients. The recipes are made in one pot for less mess, less cleanup and less work. Get a nutritious home-cooked meal on the table that your kids will be thrilled to eat because they had a hand in creating it. This cookbook is best suited for young kids ages 6–10 with parent involvement, but some older children ages 11+ could complete the whole meal by themselves, making it a very versatile book for the family. Example recipes include Cheesy Egg Breakfast Casserole, Pork Picadillo Burrito Bowls, Crustless Chicken Pot Pie and Potsticker Stir Fry.

Material: early .pdf

Page count: 208

ESSENTIAL TOOLS, TIPS AND TECHNIQUES FOR THE HOME COOK: A Professional Chef Reveals the Secrets to Better Cooking by Michelle Doll (Page Street Publishing, September 2018)

The mastery of cooking through the proper use of essential and specialized kitchen utensils will send technical-oriented chefs to new levels of excitement. By understanding the fundamental mechanics of how certain tools impact the way food is cooked, home chefs will make better food and have more fun while cooking. In each chapter, Chef Michelle Doll provides information, recommendations and exceptional recipes. Interspersed throughout the book are helpful diagrams including: what happens to pie dough when it bakes; what makes a croissant flakey; and the best way to store proteins in your refrigerator. Ultimately readers will learn the best utensils and the best way to use them to make more exceptional food with the perfect blend of fresh kitchen science and delicious recipes.

Material: early .pdf due May

Page count: 192

THE ULTIMATE ONE-PAN OVEN COOKBOOK: Complete Meals Using Just Your Sheet Pan, Dutch Oven, Roasting Pan and More by Julia Konovalova (Page Street Publishing, August 2018)

With seventy-five recipes for breakfast, lunch, dinner, and everything in between, mealtime just got a whole lot easier. New mom Julia Konovalova began creating her sheet pan recipes to save time and clean-up. They're also healthier since they use less oil and other fats. Now find recipes for family-favorites like Oven French Toasts as well as dishes that will please even the most sophisticated palate, like Roasted Pork Tenderloin with Sauerkraut and Apples.

Material: early .pdf

Page count: 192

MINDFUL VEGAN MEALS: Food is Your Friend by Maria Koutsogiannis (Page Street Publishing, June 2018)

Framed by her own personal struggle with bulimia and body dysmorphia, Maria Koutsogiannis' Mindful Vegan Meals traces the foods she ate to get her to the next stage of her recovery in a way that will inspire and help others with this large and growing problem. Packed with vibrant and healthy vegan recipes inspired by her journey, including milestone recipes like the first carbs she allowed herself to eat, this is an intimate and hopeful look at life illustrating how the author went from an eating disorder to proclaiming her personal mantra: "Fear not. Food is your friend."

Material: early .pdf

Page count: 208

RAWesome SUPERFOODS: 100 Nutrient-Packed Recipes Using Nature's Hidden Power to Help You Feel Your Best by Emily von Euw (Page Street Publishing, December 2018)

In her fourth cookbook, Emily von Euw, creator of the hugely popular blog This Rawsome Vegan Life, presents a comprehensive compilation of one hundred superfood recipes. Von Euw makes those famed superfoods like chia, acai, maca and spirulina attainable and incorporates these nutritional power bombs into daily eating. Start the day with a drinkable mashup like the Juicy Green Pineapple Smoothie with Basil and Spirulina, and keep the healthy kick going with main dishes like Zucchini

Noodles with Pumpkin Seed Pesto, Roasted Tomatoes and Tahini Chickpea Cakes. And no Rawsome book is complete without tantalizing sweets such as the Chocolate Pudding Tarts with Avocado or Cinnamon Chia Pudding with Raspberries and Chocolate Sauce.

Praise: "Emily's use of fresh ingredients in her cooking and baking is inspiring. Her recipes prove that eating vegan (and raw) doesn't have to be hard and can easily be delicious!"—Erin Alderson, creator of the blog Naturally Ella

Previous title, Rawsome Vegan Baking, foreign sales: Czech Republic/Anag, France/Editions L'Age D'Homme, Spain/Juventud

Material: early .pdf due July

Page count: 256

Also available: Rawsome Vegan Baking (2014), 100 Best Juices, Smoothies and Healthy Snacks (2014), The Rawsome Vegan Cookbook (2015)

