There Was a Black Hole that Swallowed the Universe

Chris Ferrie, illustrated by Susan Batori

Spark creative conversations about celestial beings with this clever parody from the #1 science author for kids!

- Goodnight Lab and Scientist, Scientist have strong sales (Goodnight Lab 26K Bookscan RTD) and have established Chris Ferrie as a picture book author beyond Baby University
- Our fascination with space seems to have no limits, and it's a popular topic that spans all age ranges—space books have strong sales in multiple categories
- Using well-known rhymes to introduce complex concepts is a method that works and functions well in classrooms as well as at bedtime

Read a Different Story Backward with a Black Light!

From the #1 bestselling science author for kids comes a hilarious new take on the universe and everything in it. Using the familiar rhythm of “There Was an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Fly,” follow along as the black hole swallows up everything that exists, from the biggest to the smallest pieces of matter. The silly, vibrant artwork is sure to make stargazers of all ages smile. Included in the book are instructions for revealing secret, invisible text and artwork that reverses the story from nothing to the scientific creation of everything!

The WORST Read-Aloud Book Ever

Raj Haldar and ChrIs Carpenter, illustrated by Bryce Gladfelter

From the #1 New York Times bestselling author of P is for Pterodactyl comes another hilarious fresh look at the English language.

- Follow up to the #1 New York Times bestseller P Is for Pterodactyl, which has sold nearly 200K copies in a year
- Perfect for young kids, older kids, ESL kids, and grown-ups who like wordplay

In this delightful new book, pairs of similar-sounding sentences are illustrated in two hilariously different ways. These illustrations gone awry highlight how absurd the English language can be. But have no fear! The illustrations will give you all the clues you need to decipher the true meanings behind these wily words. You won't be tricked by phrases like "C Major, it's a beautiful key! / See Major, it's a beautiful quay!" Context clues, bright illustrations, and rhyming words will help readers navigate the ridiculous text with ease.

Better known by his stage name Lushlife, Raj Haldar is an American rapper, composer, and producer from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Connect with him on Twitter @lushlifemedia.

CHRIS CARPENTER is a software developer for a tech startup in New York.

An adventurer at heart, Bryce Gladfelter honed his skills in the arts during hours spent drawing on trains and buses, people-watching in markets, and wandering the natural world. Bryce's illustrations are featured in magazines and product labels around the country. He currently resides in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

A Thousand No's

DJ Corchin, illustrated by Dan Dougherty

Even great ideas sometimes get a NO—but that NO can actually help great ideas become the best ideas!

- Whimsical illustrations reminiscent of Shel Silverstein
- Simple yet powerful story that promotes growth mindset, grit, and perseverance
- A great gift for creative and enterprising kids and adults!

There was a little girl who had a great idea. She had the most amazing, superb, best idea ever! NO? Wait, what do you mean NO? NO again? What is she supposed to do with all these NO's?

NO after NO after NO come the little girl's way, twisting and squishing her idea. But by persevering, collaborating, and using a little imagination, all those NO's become the building blocks for the biggest YES ever!

A Thousand NO's is a story about perseverance and innovation. It shows what amazing things can happen if we work with others and don't give up, and it teaches kids not to let expectations of how things should be get in the way of what could be.

DJ CORCHIN is an award-winning children's book author and illustrator. He uses his unique humor and wit to focus on socially conscious messages involving kindness, communication, and emotional awareness. He currently lives and works in Chicago, Illinois.

Dinosaurs Can't Roar

Layla Beason, illustrated by Mariano Epelbaum

Fact meets fiction in this humorous story about how what we think we know about dinosaurs may not always be true.

- Growth mindset opportunity: Offers a unique approach to the popular dinosaur space by confronting common dinosaur misconceptions in children's products, encouraging readers to always keep an open mind when it comes to science
- Fun reading experience: Hilarious characters that transform in the art and goofy facts create a fun experience for parents and teachers to read to children

LAYLA BEASON is a writer, photographer, and dinosaur lover. She lives in Chicago with her husband, two children, and a four-year-old dachshund named Harry.

MARIANO EPELBAUM is an illustrator and character designer from Buenos Aires. He worked as the art director for the animated film Underdogs and enjoys trying different styles of illustration inspired by each project he works on. When he's not working, he likes playing with his two daughters, watching movies, and going for walks outdoors. Visit him online at mariano.artstation.com.

Mars' First Friends

Come on Over, Rovers!

Susanna Leonard Hill, illustrated by Elisa Paganelli

A heartwarming story about the little red planet who just wants a pet!

- A sweet, heartwarming story about the Mars rovers told for the first time from the planet's perspective
- Wider focus on the solar system as a family unit makes for a cute and relatable family read
- Features educational back matter about the solar system, Mars, and NASA's Mars rovers

Mars has been asking his dad, the Sun, for a pet for forever. He's lonely and just wants someone to play with! But after talking to each planet in the solar system and asking to play, no one has time for poor Mars. Then, Earth sends her little brother a gift: two rovers named Spirit and Opportunity that become Mars' first pets. The rovers roam all over Mars' surface, and he is so happy to finally have his pets. Maybe he will have more pets in the future...

SUSANNA LEONARD HILL is the New York Times bestselling author of Moon's First Friends, as well as many other award-winning books for children. Moon's First Friends

One Giant Leap for Friendship

Susanna Leonard Hill, illustrated by Elisa Paganelli

A heartwarming story of a friendship-seeking moon that also commemorates the extraordinary 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 mission!

- A different way to tell the story: This charming tale takes a new approach to books about the moon landing by telling it from the moon's perspective
- Perfect timing to commemorate the lunar landing: A perfect learning tool and companion to the 50th anniversary of the momentous first moon landing
- Educational back matter: Includes out-of-this-world facts about the moon, space flight, and the individuals who made the mission possible

From high up in the sky, the Moon has spent her whole life with the watchful eye of a parent focusing on the happenings of Earth below. Dinosaurs roam, pyramids are built, boats are made, and planes take flight, but she remains a lonely little orb floating out in space alone. Until, one day, a spaceship soars from Earth...and so does her heart.

Ten on a Twig

Lo Cole

A deceptively simple counting picture book with an awesome interactive format, perfect for readers of Ten Little Ladybugs

- Interactive format: The clever use of die-cuts to count down the birds, which harkens back to A VERY HUNGRY CATERPILLAR, will have readers flipping through it endlessly; it's a book that demands to be played with
- Counting, rhyming, and bedtime: This is a delightful counting book, but it also has a bouncy rhyming scheme and ends with bedtime, making it the perfect pick for day or night!
- Engaging, bright art: Lo's art is bold, colorful, and fun, and the simple style is guaranteed to engage even the youngest readers

In this sweet and simple interactive counting book, ten birds sit on a twig, falling off one after another in new and cute ways. As each bird falls, they take a piece of the twig with them. In the end, they use the pieces to build a brand-new nest for themselves, just in time to say GOODNIGHT!

Lo Cole is an internationally acclaimed illustrator and printmaker whose commercial work spans editorial, publishing, advertising, corporate design, and album cover artwork. He's worked for the Guardian since 2002 and lives in Gloucestershire, UK.

When I Hit the Road

Nancy J. Cavanaugh

Senior citizens, a road trip, and a karaoke contest—Samantha's summer is going to be a wild ride!

- This Journal Belongs to Ratchet received a Starred Review, is on six state reading lists, and won the Florida Book Award and the NCTE's Notable Children's Book in the Language Arts award; Always, Abigail is a 2015-2016 Texas Bluebonnet nominee
- Just Like Me was lauded for its poignancy, and Kirkus Reviews called it "incredibly moving"; all of Nancy's titles with Sourcebooks have sold 94,173 net copies, and this new novel about multiple generations and family is set to continue Nancy's success
- Nancy is a former teacher and librarian who is fast becoming a favorite speaker at elementary schools; she is an active promoter and connected to the kidlit community

Samantha's mom springs a big surprise at the start of summer vacation—the two of them are visiting Gram at her new condo in Florida. Samantha can't think of anything more boring than hanging around with a bunch of senior citizens at Sunny Sandy Shores condominium.

When Mom gets called back home, Samantha's summer plans take an unexpected turn. Gram and her pal Mimi decide to audition for the Seniors' Got Talent Karaoke Contest. This means taking a road trip across Florida in Gram's new Mustang. What's even worse is that Mimi's grandson, Brandon, is coming with!

Nothing about their road trip goes to plan, and Samantha's summer becomes one she will never forget.

NANCY J. CAVANAUGH is the award-winning author of This Journal Belongs to Ratchet and Always, Abigail, which was a Texas Bluebonnet Award nominee. She has a bachelor of science in education and a master's in curriculum and instruction. She was an elementary school teacher for more than fifteen years as well as a library media specialist. She and her husband and daughter enjoy winters in sunny Florida and eat pizza in Chicago the rest of the year. Visit nancyjcavanaugh.com.

Coop Knows the Scoop

Taryn Souders

When mysterious remains are found beneath the local playground and foul play is suspected, Coop jumps to solve the case.

- Taryn Souders's How to (Almost) Ruin Your Summer was a finalist on the Florida's Sunshine State Young Readers Award list for 2017-2018, and Dead Possums Are Fair Game is on this year's 2018-2019 Georgia Children's Book Award list
- Mystery is a popular category in the middle grade space and still growing
- Taryn Souders is an author to grow, and her first book with us, How to (Almost) Ruin Your Summer, has sold 25,425 net copies

The morning human bones turned up buried beneath the slide in the old playground, Coop was busy helping his mom at her café and bookstore, A Latté Books. Coop can't wait to discover the details about what the police have found.

But then the facts hit too close to home: the remains belong to his grandmother, who supposedly left town some forty years ago. Folks thought she got bored with Windy Bottom, but it looks like something much more sinister happened.

When the police pinpoint Coop's Gramps as the main suspect, Coop and his pals Justice and Liberty begin their own investigation. Coop's convinced the person responsible is any one of a number of eccentric residents of Windy Bottom. The police and Coop's mother tell him to cease his detective work, but that only fuels Coop's search to uncover the truth.

TARYN SOUDERS graduated from the University of North Texas with a specialization in mathematics. She is the author of How to (Almost) Ruin Your Summer and Dead Possums Are Fair Game. She lives in Winter Park, Florida, with her family. Visit her at tarynsouders.com.

Curse of the Night Witch

Alex Aster

In this fast-paced adventure filled with mythology, mayhem, and peril, Tor must travel to a witch to save himself from a curse.

- Perfect mashup: This has the fantasy and action of Aru Shah and the End of Time with the fairy tales and friendship of Fairy Tale Reform School
- OwnVoices: The author is of Colombian descent, and the novel is inspired by the Latin American myths her Colombian grandmother told her as a child

ALEX ASTER is a young author who graduated summa cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania, where she majored in English with a concentration in creative writing. The Emblem Island series is inspired by the Latin American myths her Colombian grandmother told her as a child before bedtime. She lives in New York City. Visit her on Twitter @byalexaster.

The Wolf of Cape Fen

Juliana Brandt

Beyond the Bright Sea meets Echo in this middle-grade fantasy debut set in the harsh winter of an isolated town, following a girl who must break a magical bargain.

- Lovely writing: The writing is reminiscent of MarcyKate Connolly, sophisticated and charming but accessible for this audience; there's also a beautiful sister story at the core of the novel!
- Great comps: This fits in line with novels like Beyond the Bright Sea, Orphan Island, and Shadow Weaver

JULIANA BRANDT is an author and kindergarten teacher with a passion for storytelling that guides her in both of her jobs. She lives in her childhood home of Minnesota, and her writing is heavily influenced by her travels around the country and a decade of living in the South. When not working, she is usually exploring the great outdoors. Find her online at julianalbrandt.com.

The Secret of White Stone Gate

Julia Nobel

The second book in this exciting new series continues Emmy's adventures dealing with a sinister organization, a missing father, and secrets she's not sure who to trust with.

- Excellent setting: This is set at a boarding school and has the feel of Harry Potter or Gallagher Girls—kids will see themselves at Wellsworth; it has an aspirational feel
- Compelling mystery/popular category: This a great middle-grade mystery that readers can solve along with the characters; dark mysteries are doing well, and this will fit well in the space

JULIA NOBEL is a teacher from Canada and a mother to a young daughter who helps her write by throwing applesauce at the keyboard. The Mystery of Black Hollow Lane is her debut novel. Visit her online at julianobel.com.

Lost Island

MarcyKate Connolly

This thrilling conclusion to the Hollow Dolls duology continues Simone's story as she sets out with her friends to stop the body walker and Lady Aisling once and for all.

- More action: This second story has even more action and adventure than the first and has a satisfying ending to Simone's story that readers will appreciate
- House author: This is MarcyKate's fifth book with us; she has become one of our top middle-grade house authors

MARCYKATE CONNOLLY is a New York Times bestselling children's book author and nonprofit administrator who lives in New England with her family and a grumble of pugs. She graduated from Hampshire College (a magical place where they don't give you grades), where she wrote an opera sequel to Hamlet as the equivalent of senior thesis. It was also there that she first fell in love with plotting and has been dreaming up new ways to make life difficult for her characters ever since. She is also the author of the Shadow Weaver series and The Star Shepherd. You can visit her online at marcykate.com.

Lightbringer

Claire Legrand

The final installment to the New York Times bestselling Empirium trilogy.

- Final book: This will be the epic conclusion to the Empirium trilogy and answer all remaining questions for readers; we have seen with other trilogies an uptick in sales for all books in the series, and this will be no exception
- Critically acclaimed series: Furyborn has twelve blurbs from New York Times bestselling fantasy authors; Furyborn and Kingsbane got great trade reviews and made numerous “best of” lists
- Great sales: The hardcover of Furyborn has netted almost 50,000 units sold!

young adult

Queen Rielle, pushed away by her family and friends, is slowly being driven mad by her power, the Empirium whispers to her to open the gate and free the angels, and she's not sure how long she can resist. She turns to the angel Corien, who easily welcomes her and her power.

In the future, Eliana is a broken shell of herself. Betrayed by Simon and captured along with her brother, Remy, she doesn't know if she will be able to escape. At the capital, she comes face-to-face with Corien, who is determined to break her and use her to repair the Empirium.

But when the Prophet, the mysterious force that has been working behind the scenes at every turn, finally reveals themselves, it changes the course of history forever.

CLAIRE LEGRAND is the New York Times bestselling author of Furyborn. She is also the author of The Cavendish Home for Boys and Girls, Some Kind of Happiness, and Winterspell, among others. Claire lives in Princeton, New Jersey. Visit claire-legrand.com.

The Crow Rider

Kalyn Josephson

The thrilling conclusion to this epic duology that follows a fallen princess as she tries to bring back the magical elemental crows taken from her people.

- Fantastic premise: The magical crows at the heart of the story are special, fresh, and filled with magic; a perfect premise and heart for an epic fantasy
- Prepub buzz: The first book, The Storm Crow, was included in the December 2018 Fairyloot box, and fans are already excited and anticipating its July 2019 release; we'll build on this buzz for the second book
- Author partner: Kalyn Josephson has been a great publishing partner for us; she's well-connected in the community, has wonderful ideas, and is open to all promotion regarding the duology

Thia, her allies, and her crow, Res, may have escaped Illucia, but their troubles are far from over. While Res is mastering his crow abilities and flight, he struggles to control his magic. To make matters worse, Thia also has to worry about Prince Ericen. While she may want to reconnect with him, his mother, Queen Razel, is her sworn enemy.

As the rebel group prepares for war against the Illucian empire, Res's magic grows more unstable. And Thia has to decide if she can trust him, and herself, enough to lead the rebellion and become the crow rider she was meant to be.

KALYN JOSEPHSON is a fantasy writer living in the California Bay Area. She loves books, cats, books with cats, and making up other worlds to live in for a while. She is also the author of The Storm Crow. Visit her at kalynjosephson.com.

Belle Révolte

Linsey Miller

In this standalone French-inspired fantasy, two young women work together in secret to stay alive and end a war caused by magic and greed before it kills thousands for the sake of the wealthy few.

- Fresh and accessible: This is more immediately accessible than Mask of Shadows while still being representative of marginalized characters; it also doesn't have royal protagonists and is a standalone, which feels fresh in the fantasy space
- Compelling author: Linsey is a powerhouse author who is a great partner; she's worn many hats and has forged intense connections with her fans through her fantastic worldbuilding and compelling characters

LINSEY MILLER is a wayward biologist from Arkansas who previously worked as a crime lab intern, neuroscience lab assistant, and pharmacy technician. She currently lives in Wichita, Kansas, and can be found writing about science and magic anywhere there's coffee. She is also the author of Mask of Shadows and Ruin of Stars. The Dawning Dark

Linsey Miller

Beauty and the Beast meets Wicked Saints in this standalone dark fantasy from the author of Mask of Shadows.

- Fairy-tale retelling: This is a loose retelling of Beauty and the Beast; this is Linsey's most romance-based book but with all the epic worldbuilding and action we've come to expect from her
- Standalone fantasy: We are building Linsey Miller in the standalone fantasy space, an area that is growing
- Mask of Shadows: Mask of Shadows has sold over 9,500 copies p + e on NPD and has sold over 12,000 net; it also had success in Canada, sold Spanish and audio rights, was an Indie Next pick, and garnered strong reviews

Wicked As You Wish

Rin Chupeco

An unforgettable alternative-history fairy-tale series from the author of the Bone Witch trilogy about found family, modern-day magic, and finding the place you belong.

- Fresh concept: Rin delivers a unique concept that combines our contemporary world with fairy-tale figures and high-fantasy magic in this great new trilogy
- Talented writer: Rin's books have consistently earned Starred Reviews, been JLG picks, Amazon Best Books of the Month, etc.; she's a wonderful writer with the sales to match

RIN CHUPECO wrote obscure manuals for complicated computer programs, talked people out of their money at event shows, and did many other terrible things before becoming an author. She now writes about ghosts and fairy tales and is the author of The Girl from the Well, The Suffering, and the Bone Witch trilogy. Rin lives in the Philippines with her family. Be Dazzled

Ryan La Sala

Project Runway goes to Comic-Con in an epic queer love story about creativity, creation, and finding the courage to be your most authentic self.

- Ryan's first novel, Reverie, is poised for success and has a lot of support from big YA authors
- Personal story: This is a deeply personal story for Ryan and will showcase his incredible voice and humor; fans will easily be able to connect to the message and story

Raffy's main passion in life is sewing. Well, sewing, stitching, bedazzling, draping, pattern making, and a million other hands-on skills. All his life, Raffy has hidden his art from his mother, Evie, a famed curator disgusted with all things pop culture. She finds Raffy's interest in cosplay to be incredibly lowbrow.

But Raffy is tired of hiding in the shadows, so he decides to enter Boston's biggest, baddest cosplay competition: the Controverse Championship of Cosplay...except things get extra complicated when Raffy's ex-boyfriend Luca also enters the competition.

When Raffy agrees to partner with Luca on their most ambitious build yet, he'll have to juggle unresolved feelings for the boy who broke his heart, along with a surprise visit from his mother, who can't understand that he wants to make his art his way.

RYAN LA SALA grew up in Connecticut, but only physically. Mentally, he spent most of his childhood in the worlds of Sailor Moon and Xena: Warrior Princess, which perhaps explains all the twirling. He studied anthropology and neuroscience at Northeastern University before becoming a project manager specializing in digital tools. He technically lives in New York City but has actually transcended material reality and only takes up a human shell for special occasions, like brunch, and to watch anime (which is banned on the astral plane). He is also the author of Reverie. You can visit him at ryanlasala.com.

It Came from the Sky

Chelsea Sedoti

This is the absolutely true story of how Lansburg, Pennsylvania, was invaded by aliens. None of this story is false. At least...not according to Gideon Hofstadt.

- Fantastic author: The Hundred Lies of Lizzie Lovett netted over 20K in hardcover; As You Wish netted over 27K; Chelsea's star is on the rise.
- Interesting format: This story is told through a traditional narrative and supplementary materials such as newspaper articles, interviews, and transcripts

CHELSEA SEDOTI lives in Las Vegas, Nevada. Her short stories have been published in Pantheon Magazine and BALLOONS Lit Journal. Chelsea went to school for film and worked as a videographer before switching to writing. Chelsea spends her time rock climbing, baking, and exploring the Mojave Desert. Visit chelseasedoti.com.

Even If We Break

Marieke Nijkamp

From #1 New York Times bestselling author of This Is Where It Ends and Before I Let Go comes a heart-stopping new thriller.

- Bestselling author: Marieke's previous two books have sold a combined total of 367,686 on NPD, and TWIE spent 72 weeks on the New York Times bestseller list; her first book in over 2½ years is sure to be one of the big YA events of 2020
- Page-turning read: With five POVs, a condensed twenty-four-hour timeline, and an incredible pace, this is unputdownable
- Conversation starter: The POVs are diverse and authentic, it's highly political without getting into politics, and it touches on important themes of friendship and how those change over the course of high school

End the game before it ends you.

For five friends, it was supposed to be one last getaway before they went their separate ways—a time to say goodbye to each other, and to the game they've been playing for the past three years. But they all have their own demons to deal with, and they're all hiding secrets.

Finn hasn't been able to trust anyone since he was attacked a few months ago. Popular girl Liva saw it happen and did nothing to stop it. Maddy was in an accident that destroyed her sports career. Carter is drowning under the weight of his family's expectations. Ever wants to keep the game going for as long as they can, at all costs.

And things take a deadly twist when the game turns against them.

MARIEKE NIJKAMP is the #1 New York Times bestselling author of This Is Where It Ends and Before I Let Go. She is a storyteller, dreamer, globe-trotter, and geek. She holds degrees in philosophy, history, and medieval studies, has served as an executive member of We Need Diverse Books, and is the founder of DiversifYA. She lives in the Netherlands. Obsession

Jesse Sutanto

A classic story of boy meets girl, boy stalks girl, girl gets her revenge.

- Great thriller: This is an over-the-top, twisty thriller that will keep readers guessing until the end
- Fantastic voice: A dual POV story with two strong voices that will connect with readers
- Strong category: Sourcebooks Fire is the home of YA thrillers, and this will be a great addition to the list

Nobody knows Delilah like Logan does. And Logan knows this for a fact, because he spends all of his free time looking through her social media profiles and watching her every move. Some might call him a stalker. Logan prefers to be called a "romantic." They're meant to be together; he just needs to wait for the perfect moment to sweep her off her feet.

Except, during one of his watching—okay, spying—sessions, he witnesses Delilah killing her abusive stepfather. His sweet, perfect Delilah isn't so perfect after all.

But that's okay. Logan's not unrealistic. Everybody has flaws. And as long as Delilah understands that they're meant to be, everything will be okay. Everything will be totally and utterly perfect. And if she doesn't, well...

JESSE SUTANTO is Indonesian Chinese and grew up in Jakarta and Singapore before moving to Oxford, England, and then California. This is her debut novel.

We Were Restless Things

Cole Nagamatsu

Maggie Stiefvater meets Neil Gaiman in this stunning contemporary fantasy debut.

- Gripping hook: An impossible death and a hint of magic is a hook that immediately pulls you in
- Powerful new voice: This is a remarkable meditation on love, grief, and the expectations that society puts on girls and marks the start of an incredible career for Cole Nagamatsu
- Captivating magical realism: This falls thoroughly in the magical realism space that Readerlink called out as a growing trend

Last summer, Link Miller drowned in the woods, miles from the nearest body of water. His death was ruled a weird accident, but Noemi Amato knows the truth: Link was killed. He told her so himself, because he's been texting her from beyond the grave, warning her to keep away from the forest.

Amberlyn, Link's sister, can't shake the feeling that Noemi is hiding something, and Jonas, Noemi's new sort-of-stepbrother, can't get past the walls that she has constructed around herself. Because Noemi has a dangerous secret even bigger than Link's ghost: Link drowned in an impossible lake that only she can see. And if the three don't work together to unravel the truth about what's happening in the woods, someone else will wind up dead.

COLE NAGAMATSU teaches creative writing at St. Olaf College, and her fiction has appeared in Tin House, West Branch, and Bartleby Snopes. She currently resides near Minneapolis. Visit her online at colebn.com.

Little Creeping Things

Chelsea Ichaso

A compulsively readable debut with a narrator who can't be trusted. Cassidy joked about killing her bully, but when that girl goes missing, it's up to Cassidy to unravel the truth.

- Creepy and shocking read: Thriller readers will love the unreliable narrator, crazy twists, and surprising killer
- Compelling writing: The strong voice, well-devised tone, and moody setting make this a page-turning read
- Author to watch: We have a second equally creepy thriller in the works with Chelsea, so she's someone we'll be looking to break out

When she was a child, Cassidy Pratt accidentally started a fire that killed her neighbor. At least, that's what she's been told. She can't remember anything from that day. She's pretty sure she didn't mean to do it. She's a victim too. But her town's bullies, particularly the cruel and beautiful Melody Davenport, have never let Fire Girl live it down. In Melody's eyes, Cassidy is a murderer and always will be.

And then Melody goes missing. Cassidy overheard what sounded like an abduction. She knows she should go to the cops, but... She recently joked about how much she'd like to get rid of Melody. She even planned out the perfect way to do it. It's up to Cassidy to figure out what really happened, because if she comes forward without a suspect, she knows people will point fingers at her. Again. And she can't let that happen.

But the truth behind Melody's disappearance will set the whole town in flames.

CHELSEA ICHASO is a former high school English teacher and holds a bachelor's in English and a master's in education. She lives in La Habra, California. This is her debut.

Every May 7, the students at Coffee County High School take a class trip. And every year, Lulu's relationship with Alex Rouvelis gets a little more complicated. Freshman year, they went from sworn enemies to more than friends after a close encounter in an escape room. It's been hard for Lulu to quit Alex ever since.

Through breakups, makeups, and dating other people, each year's class trip brings the pair back together and forces them to confront their undeniable connection. From the science museum to Six Flags, New York City to London, Lulu learns one thing is for sure: love is the biggest trip of all.

Growing up in Tennessee, MIRANDA KENNEALLY dreamed of becoming an Atlanta Brave, a country singer (cliché!), or a UN interpreter. Instead, she writes and works for the State Department in Washington, DC, where George W. Bush once used her shoulder as an armrest. Miranda loves Twitter, Star Trek, and her husband. DEBUT!

If We Were Us

K. L. Walther

In this coming-of-age romantic contemporary novel, friendship, identities, and relationships are put to the test.

- Swoony romance: One book, twice the romance! Both protagonists have wonderful love stories that the reader will be invested in
- Commercial appeal: This fits in firmly with what's working right now, high-concept rom com in the vein of Jenny Han
- Great setting: Teens love a boarding school setting, and this author gives you a real sense of it

K. L. WALTHER was born and raised in the rolling hills of Bucks County, Pennsylvania, surrounded by family, dogs, and books. Her childhood was spent traveling the northeastern seaboard to play ice hockey. She attended a boarding school in New Jersey much like Bexley and went on to earn a bachelor's in English from the University of Virginia. She lives in Pennsylvania. Visit her at kwalther.com.

DEBUT!

Yesterday Is History

Kosoko Jackson

Dear Martin meets More Happy Than Not in this story of a contemporary gay teen who begins to travel through time after an operation and lands in New York City on the eve of the Stonewall riots.

- Compelling hook: The historical significance of a book like Dear Martin with the quirky plot and LGBTQ themes of an Adam Silvera novel
- Epic romance: There are two epic romances in this story that will have readers swooning
- New voice: Kosoko has a unique voice that will appeal to readers looking for diverse protagonists dealing with tough issues

Born and raised in the DC metro area and currently living in Brooklyn, KOSOKO JACKSON is a digital media strategist for nonprofit organizations, which enables his Twitter obsession. Occasionally, his personal essays have been featured on Medium, Thought Catalog, and The Advocate. When not searching for an extra hour in the day, he can be found obsessing over movies, drinking his (umpleenth) London Fog, or writing lengthy Twitter threads summarizing how Slytherin is the best Hogwarts house. Yesterday Is History is his debut novel. Hello, Fears

Crush Your Comfort Zone and Become Who You're Meant to Be

Michelle Poler

Based on the social movement that went viral! What's the best that could happen if you say hello to your fears?

- In 2016, Michelle founded Hello Fears, a social movement to make the world a braver place through live events, interviews, and user-generated content; she visits schools around the country to encourage girls to become their bravest selves: #bravegirlsdoitbest
- 20th Century Fox is developing a television show based on her project
- She has been featured across various media, such as CBS, Buzzfeed, ELLE, CNN, Bustle, Cosmopolitan, Rachael Ray, and TEDx.

Michelle has always had a problem with the word fearless. Facing your demons doesn't mean you're fearless; it means you fear them, but you do it anyway! So for 100 days, she faced 100 of her fears, and the message went viral.

Written in Michelle's hilarious, honest voice and driven through storytelling, expert interviews, and practical tools, Hello, Fears conveys the lessons she learned from facing each fear and inspires readers to make the right choice—the brave choice.

For readers of Girl, Wash Your Face and 100 Days of Brave, Hello, Fears is a growth mindset personal development book for those who are ready to push past their comfort zone and embrace their fears.

MICHELLE POLER speaks at companies, schools, and organizations such as Google, Facebook, Netflix, and Microsoft. She also hosts a YouTube podcast series, Dear Younger Self. Michelle lives in Florida. Visit michellepoler.com.

The Brainwashing of My Dad

How the Rise of the Right-Wing Media Changed a Father and Divided Our Nation—and How We Can Fight Back

Jen Senko

An unnerving look at right-wing media and the affect it has had on us all—at the family level.

- Based on a documentary of the same name that has won awards, been at festivals, and trended in media
- Most Americans are experiencing divisions and turmoil in political discussions with family and friends, with many wondering “how can they think this?”—and this book provides some insight to the media mechanics of the right
- While the content does have a point of view that is unabashedly liberal, the ultimate goal of the work is to educate, heal, and bring people back together

JEN SENKO lives in a tight-knit community in the Soho area of Manhattan. Formerly an oil painter, she segued into film with her first documentary short, Road Map Warrior Women.

Rustic Joyful Food: Meant to Share

Danielle Kartes, photography by Michael Kartes

“Like me, Danielle realizes that food is the great connector—a conduit to bring people together around the table and create new memories.”
—Rachael Ray

- Danielle Kartes is a rising star in the food world, and this is her first new cookbook to be published through a traditional publishing process with a robust sales and marketing plan
- Danielle consistently appears on local TV shows and the Hallmark Channel and has booked appearances on national shows like Rachael Ray
- Connection and community is a strong theme within this space that will bring new fans to Danielle's work

Rustic Joyful Food: Meant to Share, a new cookbook by Seattle food scene favorite Danielle Kartes, centers on the idea that life is good right now, in this moment. Despite life's difficulties, we have the capacity to find joy, and we can share that joy through the food we make. Cooking and feeding people is about loving the journey, not having it all put together. It's about laughter and making memories, and it's about being present, even if the rest of our life is decidedly imperfect.

Rising star Kartes's new cookbook taps into a deep need to gather with friends and family to share good food and laughter and is thematically organized to aid readers in creating meaningful moments with the special people in their lives.

The Last Sailor

A Novel

Sarah Anne Johnson

In turn-of-the-century Cape Cod, a fishing family struggles with the fractures caused by a tragic accident to a young boy.

- Written by a Cape Cod native, who is steeped in nautical history and maritime lore
- Emotionally gripping dramatic stories of the power of the sea and the power of our own choices
- Story of sibling relationships and brotherly bonds

All that Nathaniel Boyd wants is to be left alone on his Cap Cod salt marsh. His hopes of marriage with Meredith Butler died years ago, not long after the accidental death of his youngest brother, Jacob. When their father asks the brothers to sail a schooner down from Boston to Yarmouth Port harbor, an unexpected passenger causes chaos for all the Boyds. Into this unsettled atmosphere their father dies, further upending the world as they know it, forcing Nathaniel to take command and sail his own ship.

Sarah Anne Johnson is the author of The Very Telling, The Art of the Author Interview, and Conversations with American Women Writers, as well as The Lightkeeper's Wife. Her interviews have appeared in The Writer's Chronicle, Glimmertrain Stories, Provincetown Arts, and The Writer. She has received residencies in fiction from Jentel Artists' Residency Program and Vermont Studio Center. She lives in Provincetown, Massachusetts. Find her at sarahannejohnson.com.

Lost at Sea

Erica Boyce

The only thing more heartbreaking than his death, is why he went to sea in the first place.

- A gorgeously written, commercially accessible family drama that merges domestic mystery with small-town book club
- Explores another spot of regional America (small Massachusetts town on the East Coast) where the windswept landscape merges with the emotional, domestic hook
- The same lyrical, honest voice that was praise in The Fifteen Wonders of Daniel Green that tackles relatable talking points in creative new ways (grief, addiction, and the definition of family)

ERICA BOYCE is a graduate of Dartmouth College and Harvard and the author of The Fifteen Wonders of Daniel Green. She lives outside of Boston with her husband and a corgi named Finn.

Darcy Coates

9781728220185
January 2020

The Black Winter series from USA Today bestseller and rising queen of atmospheric horror, DARCY COATES!

No one escapes the stillness.

- Established author: Darcy Coates is a USA Today bestseller with a strong digital fan base primed to break into print
- Retailer support: Barnes & Noble discovered Darcy and brought her to Sourcebooks's exclusive attention; they will be a strong partner in her launch and continued success
- Compelling read: Classically scary and atmospheric, with unforgettable characters

Clare remembers the cold. She remembers dark shapes and a terror she can't explain. When she wakes, aching and afraid in a stranger's gothic home, he tells her she was in an accident. He claims he saved her. Clare wants to leave, but a vicious snowstorm has trapped them together, and there's nothing she can do but wait.

He promised they were alone here, but she is convinced that something else is creeping about the surrounding woods, watching. Waiting. Between the storm and the inescapable sense of being hunted, Clare is increasingly certain of one thing: Something is waiting for her to step outside the safety of the house. Something monstrous, something unfeeling. Something desperately hungry.

Boyfriend Material

Alexis Hall

In this hilarious LGBTQIA+ rom-com, a famous young man whose reputation needs damage control soon finds his fake relationship turning to real romance.

- Fantastic hook: Two tangentially famous young men must pretend to date to save their reputations in this hilarious LGBTQIA+ rom-com with a quirky fame and fandom bent
- Award-winning author: Alexis Hall is a two-time Lambda Literary Award finalist and was one of the first LGBTQIA+ RITA winners in 2016

When tangentially—and reluctantly—famous Luc O'Donnell is forced back into the spotlight in the worst possible way, he has to think fast if he wants to save his floundering reputation. Enter Oliver Blackwood. Stunningly handsome and effortlessly put together, Oliver is successful, an ethical vegetarian, and has never appeared in a scandal mag even once. In other words, he's perfect boyfriend material and exactly what Luc needs to appear respectable again. But when their fake relationship starts to feel like real romance, Luc and Oliver might have to consider whether they're willing to fight for the truth of their new relationship...scandal, and consequences, be damned.

ALEXIS HALL writes books in the southeast of England, where he lives entirely on a diet of tea and Jaffa Cakes. You can find him at quicunquieult.com, on Twitter @quicunquieult, and on Facebook at facebook.com/quicunquieult

The Tourist Attraction

Sarah Morgenthaler

First in a laugh-out-loud romantic comedy series from a debut author Welcome to Moose Springs, Alaska!

- Fantastic hook: Fresh, fun Alaska setting and light rom-com feel—a winning mix of two popular elements, Alaska + romantic comedy
- Evergreen opposites attract and fish out of water tropes: quirky small-town locals clash with wealthy resort visitors, saturated with the personality of Alaska plus wildlife!
- Author to build: Sarah Morgenthaler is an award-winning debut author who crafted this series exclusively for Sourcebooks.

When Graham Barnett named his diner The Tourist Trap, he meant it as a joke. Now he's stuck slinging reindeer dogs to an endless string of resort visitors who couldn't interest him less. Not even the sweet, enthusiastic tourist in the corner who blushes every time he looks her way...

Two weeks in Alaska isn't just the top item on Zoey Caldwell's bucket list. It's the whole bucket. One look at the mountain town of Moose Springs and she's smitten. But when an act of kindness brings Zoey into Graham's world, she may just find there's more to the man than meets the eye...and more to love in Moose Springs than just the Alaskan wilderness.

Geologist and lifelong science nerd, SARAH MORGENTHALER is a passionate supporter of chocolate chip cookies, geeking out over rocks, and playing with her rescue pit bull, Sammy. When not writing contemporary romance and romantic comedy set in far off places—Alaska anyone?...Sarah can be found traveling with her husband, hiking national parks, and enjoying her own happily ever after. Sarah is a two-time Golden Heart finalist and winner of the NOLA STARS Suzannah award.

Beyond Power

Connie Mann

Sultry romantic suspense set in Florida's untamed wilderness.

- Stellar reviews from big name authors including Debbie Macomber
- Authenticity: As a licensed boat captain living in Florida, Connie Mann's new series will grab readers for an authentic portrayal of its setting and authoritative writing

If you dare venture beyond Disney's magic and Miami's high-rises, you'll find yourself in Florida's untamed wilderness. FWC officer and pilot Josh Tanner is one of the tough cops needed to manage these rugged areas.

Delilah Atwood barely escaped her ultra-fundamental militia family years ago. Now she's back to save her sixteen year old sister, and no government man is going to stop her. Josh isn't going to stand by and watch Delilah risk her life, but unless he can get her to trust him, she may end up being the next victim.

CONNIE MANN is a licensed boat captain. When she's not dreaming up plotlines, you'll find "Captain Connie" on the waterways, introducing boatloads of schoolchildren to their first alligator. She and her husband live in central Florida just a stone's throw from Ocala National Forest.

Calling on Quinn

Blue Saffire

First in a thrilling new Own Voices interracial contemporary romance series from bestselling author Blue Saffire.

- Blue Saffire is an award-winning, bestselling author with a growing following
- The Blackhart Brothers series features a band-of-brothers hook that readers love
- #ownvoices romance with a diverse cast of characters readers can relate to

Alicia Rhodes has had a tough year. Now she is ready to move on from her troubled past and find happiness in the present. But when handsome Quinn Blackhart walks into her driving school—and her heart—her troubles might just be starting.

Quinn Blackhart comes from a sprawling Irish family. As the oldest of three brothers, he is a control freak who loves checklists, and the gorgeous driving instructor just earned a place at the top of his to-do list. But when the ghosts from his past come back to threaten Alicia, he will stop at nothing to keep the woman he loves safe.

As a young girl, BLUE SAFFIRE's mother introduced her to the world of love and music through movies, but once she got her hands on books, an author was born. With more than thirty contemporary romance novels and novellas under her belt, she's now an award-winning, bestselling author. She lives with her husband on Long Island.

Fearless

Katie Golding

First in a high-octane cowboy romance, where highly competitive racers find themselves torn between the glitz of the international stage and the ranches they call home.

- Katie Golding has a uniquely authentic voice; she is plugged into the MotoGP world and has a wealth of information at her fingertips
- Strong series hook: hometown cowboys plus the glitz and glamor of international MotoGP, with tropes romance readers love
- Phenomenal writing that strikes the perfect balance of heart, humor, and (moderate) heat

King may be smiling under his black Stetson as he waves for the MotoGP press corps, but the plain truth is the motorcycle racer is hurting: for his horse back in Memphis, for his girl with one boot out the door, and thanks to an injury that's not getting any better.

With his racing contract contingent on his latest injury remaining a secret, Billy bolts home at the end of the international circuit—resolved to heal, and ready to win fellow racer Taryn's heart a second time. Hopefully, before the love of his life is gone for good. But broken hearts don't heal overnight, and the cost of forgiveness is sky high...unless Billy can prove his heart is home to stay.

Paranormal Romance

The Stormbringer

Isabel Cooper

First in a thrilling new paranormal trilogy from award-winning author Isabel Cooper.

- Isabel Cooper is a noted paranormal romance author with multiple starred reviews
- Rich, clever worldbuilding plus unputdownable writing
- Bridges the gap between paranormal and fantasy, with a hook that will appeal to fans of Netflix's The Witcher

Pursuing her latest quarry deep into the wilderness, Sentinel Darya finds herself in an ancient city. As she makes her way through ruined buildings and abandoned courts, dodging traps and fighting monsters, she comes upon a handsome warrior in ancient clothing, held in a deathlike sleep by unfamiliar magic—magic that her enchanted sword breaks on contact. She's shocked to discover this is Amris, a warrior from the last great battle against the forces of the Traitor God ages ago. The man he trapped in stasis with him is gone, and his absence can only mean one thing: the Traitor is gathering his armies again, and the storms are returning.

ISABEL COOPER lives in Boston, where she spends her days editing technology research and her nights doing things best not discussed here. (Actually, she plays a lot of videogames.) Her home city involves more diners than intrigue, which is fine by her. You can find her sporadically updated blog at isabelcooper.wordpress.com.
