Pranklab

Chris Ferrie, Byrne La Ginestra, Wade David Fairclough

Learn about science while performing fun and hilarious pranks in this unique book by the #1 bestselling science author for kids!

- STEAM is still a popular topic and this is a hands-on FUN way to introduce scientific theories and finally brings Chris Ferrie to the middle grade audience
- Pranks and humor are one of the most popular ways middle grade kids express themselves with their friends and on social media platforms like tiktok. Using pranks and humor as the lead-in to scientific discovery is a fresh approach!
- expert authors make it better—Chris Ferrie's background as a scientist and the co-authors' roles as science teachers mean the content is thoroughly vetted and will appeal to educators and parents as much as it will kids

What's more fun than a practical joke? A SCIENTIFIC practical joke! Your friends and family might be annoyed at first...until they realize they're learning about science too! Using everyday household items, kids can exploit the laws of physics, biology, and chemistry through entertaining (and perfectly safe) activities. Each prank includes easy-to-understand instructions, step-by-step diagrams, and diary-style illustrations. Additional notes in each prank explain the science behind the fun.

Pranks include:

- Fountain Dew
- Natural Selection Candy
- Disappearing Ink Stain
- Ghost toothpick
- and more!

Enchanted Science

Magical Experiments for Kids

Cara Florance

Embrace your inner alchemist and discover the science behind dazzling experiments! Using simple household items, kids will explore the laws of physics, biology, and chemistry through delightful and fun activities

- STEAM is still a popular topic, and this is a fun and interactive way to appeal to kids while teaching them about science
- Explaining science through “magic” is a unique approach that this space hasn’t seen yet
- Expert author: Cara Florance has a PhD in biochemistry, and all the science behind the experiments will be thoroughly vetted

Have you ever wished you could cast a real spell with the wave of a magic wand? Have you ever wanted to mix a real color-changing potion? Now kids can perform magical feats with a few simple ingredients and a little help from science.

Written by biochemist Cara Florance, Enchanted Science is the perfect way to engage kids while teaching them about science. Each experiment includes simple instructions, diagrams to follow along with, and an explanation of the science behind each magical experiment.

Experiments include Tea Party Potions, Fairy Salt, Light-Up Magic Wand, Pendulum Painting, and more!

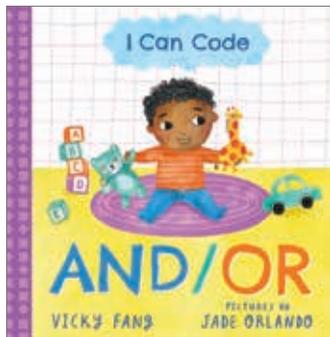

CARA FLORANCE is a biochemist specializing in catalytic RNA. She has a BS in chemistry from Iona College and a PhD in biochemistry from University of Colorado, Boulder. She lives in Boston with her husband and two children. Her little girls inspired her to create Brave the Elements, an online resource for parents to bring science into the home.

DJ Corchin, illustrated by Dan Dougherty

A simple story that demonstrates how we all must put forth effort to better communicate to understand each other.

- Simple story about a powerful and universal subject: There are approximately 6,500 languages spoken in the world, 430 different languages are spoken in the United States
- Written by award-winning author and award-winning illustrator; previously published edition received the Nautilus Book Award for Best Children's Picture Book
- A useful educational tool for special education classrooms and classrooms with ESL students

When a child meets a fish and says hello, the fish does not respond. The child is shocked. What a rude fish! But what the child must understand is that it's not up to the fish to speak the child's language. And if the child wants to communicate, he'll have to take the time to learn how to speak Fish.

“During storybook yoga today, we read this book and talked about communication and understanding...There is SO MUCH WISDOM in this book! This message is critical now more than ever.”

—buddhabellykidsyoga

A Thousand No's

DJ Corchin, illustrated by Dan Dougherty

Even great ideas sometimes get a NO—but that NO can actually help great ideas become the best ideas!

- Simple yet powerful story that promotes growth mindset, grit, and perseverance: Themes connect to the Passion Point of Preparing Kids for Success
- Illustrates an entrepreneurial mindset and how ideas evolve—a great gift for creative and enterprising kids and adults
- The whimsical illustrations help bring to life the emotions of the character as the "NO's" pile up and influence her idea

There was a little girl who had a great idea. She had the most amazing, superb, best idea ever! NO? Wait, what do you mean NO? NO again? What is she supposed to do with all these NO's?

NO after NO after NO comes the little girl's way, twisting and squishing her idea. But by persevering, collaborating, and using a little imagination, all those NO's become the building blocks for the biggest YES ever!

A Thousand NO's is a story about perseverance and innovation. It shows what amazing things can happen if we work with others and don't give up, and it teaches kids not to let expectations of how things should be get in the way of what could be.

Except Antarctica

Todd Sturgell

This meta-leaning and hilarious picture book about animal habitats on every continent will have kids (and adults!) laughing every time they pick it up

- The meta concept and comical dialogue between the narrator and animals make this a book kids will come back to over and over again
- Evergreen topic of animals combined with humor that works well in this space
- Includes educational backmatter about animals (in and out of Antarctica!)

Turtles are found on every continent EXCEPT Antarctica. But not for long!

When a David Attenborough-esque narrator explains that turtles are found everywhere except Antarctica, one determined turtle sets out to prove him wrong. After recruiting other non-Antarctic animals along the way—much to the narrator’s dismay—the turtle and his adventurous friends travel through fields, forests, and cross an entire ocean to reach their goal. But what exactly do they do once they get there?

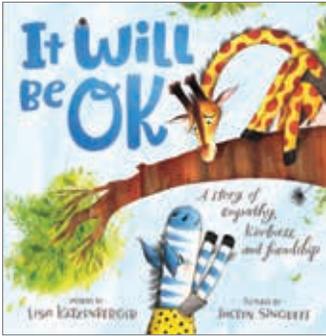

Perfect for anyone who’s ever gone a little too far to prove a point, this nature documentary gone wrong is a gleefully funny lesson in determination and the beauty of having a contingency plan

TODD STURGELL is an illustrator, author, and freelance art and creative director. In his previous career as a corporate advertising art director, he worked with national brands, including Home Depot, Hyundai, Red Lobster, and 7-Eleven. He lives, hikes, draws, and watches nature documentaries in the North Carolina mountains with his wife, daughters, and dog Max (named for a certain famous picture book character). He has not yet been to Antarctica.

Too Crowded

Lena Podesta

Have you ever needed just a little more space?

- Strong market demand: This book satisfies reader demand for picture books starring lovable, funny characters with subtle underlying messages for children, like the Pigeon series, the Pout-Pout Fish series, and more.
- Seasoned illustrator with writing debut: The author has worked as a commercial animator on television shows for more than a decade, and this is her debut as an author-illustrator
- Series to grow: Strong potential for a series, board book, and/or merchandising following Gil the Goldfish

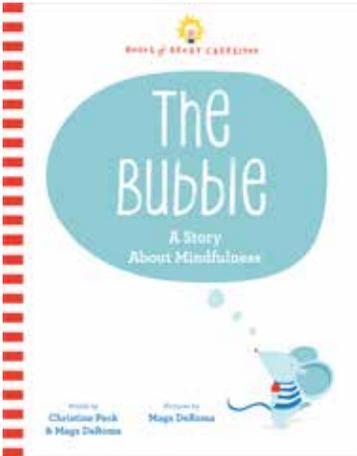

Gil the Goldfish lives in a fishbowl with 138 pebbles—he counts them every day—and a castle. It feels TOO CROWDED! When Gil leaves his bowl in search of open spaces, he finds a world full of many interesting...and loud...and possibly dangerous...creatures. It turns out that life outside the bowl might not be right for a fish. Thank goodness for Turtle, a citizen of the not-so-great outdoors who comes to Gil's rescue! Will Gil make peace with his home sweet home, and maybe even find room for a friend in the process?

LENA PODESTA lives in Portland at the base of a volcano with her husband and two children. She's been an illustrator and animator for more than fifteen years, and her clients have included The Simpsons, 20th Century Fox, Highlights Magazine, Universal Studios, Hallmark, Ernst & Young, Proctor & Gamble, and more.

Off to See the Sea

Nikki Grimes, illustrated by Elizabeth Zunon

From the celebrated team of Nikki Grimes and Elizabeth Zunon comes a child's imagination-fueled adventure out at sea—or maybe it's just the bathtub!

- From award-winning author Nikki Grimes comes another sweet tale focused on parent and child bonding during ordinary moments of everyday
- A fun and imaginative read-aloud perfect for bedtime and leading up to bath time
- Companion to the acclaimed Bedtime for Sweet Creatures

Night has fallen, and Mom and Dad need to get their little one in the tub. To make it more fun, Mom brings a magical adventure out at sea to life, where the faucet is a waterfall, a rubber ducky is a sea creature, and the splashing water is a raging sea! In their ocean journey, Mom and Dad manage to get their little one clean just in time to dock for bedtime.

New York Times bestselling author NIKKI GRIMES is the recipient of the Coretta Scott King Award, the 2017 Children's Literature Legacy Award, the 2016 Virginia Hamilton Literary Award, and the 2006 NCTE Award for Excellence in Poetry for Children, among many others. Grimes lives in Corona, California. Find her at nikkigrimes.com.

ELIZABETH ZUNON grew up in West Africa and now lives Albany, New York, where she draws, paints, collages, sews, silkscreens, makes jewelry, and ponders the endless possibilities of chocolate. Her work is largely influenced by the people, places, and things from her childhood in the Ivory Coast as the product of two cultures. Visit her at lizzunon.com.

Ten on a Twig

Lo Cole

Ten little birds sit on twig until...SNAP! Count along as they fall off one by one through the die-cut pages!

- Interactive format: The clever use of die-cuts to count down the birds, which harkens back to The Very Hungry Caterpillar, will have readers flipping through it endlessly—it's a book that demands to be played with
- Counting, rhyming, and bedtime: This is a delightful counting book, but it also has a bouncy rhyming scheme and ends with bedtime, making it the perfect pick for day or night!
- Engaging, bright art: Lo's art is bold, colorful, and fun, and the simple style is guaranteed to engage even the youngest readers

LO COLE is an internationally acclaimed illustrator and printmaker whose commercial work spans editorial, publishing, advertising, corporate design, and album cover artwork. He's worked for The Guardian since 2002 and lives in Gloucestershire, UK.

Little Red Sleigh

Erin Guendelsberger

A charming, inspirational Christmas tale about a little red sleigh that dreams of working for Santa

- Combines the spirit of The Little Engine That Could with the timeless magic of The Polar Express, a perfect holiday message
- Books about vehicles and things that go are evergreen and repeatedly bestselling, especially during the holiday season
- Great read-aloud experience and unique concept sure to become an instant Christmas classic

This little red sleigh is determined to grow up and become Santa's big red sleigh. It's all Little Red's ever dreamed of! But all her life, she's been told she's too small, she's too young, and she can't do it. Well, she's about to prove everyone wrong.

Poised to become an instant Christmas classic, Little Red Sleigh is the perfect heartwarming Christmas story you'll want to read again and again. Full of nostalgia, heart, warm Christmas illustrations, and a unique, lyrical story, this is a book of encouragement, reminding you that no matter your size, you can do anything you put your mind to.

ERIN GUENDELSBERGER writes stories and poems. She studied writing at Hamline University and Bowling Green State University and now pursues adventure in Ohio with her husband, daughters, and a cat named Hennimore.

Trap the Monster

Agnese Baruzzi

This silly and interactive die-cut board book helps little ones laugh at their fears and conquer monsters!

- Interactive narrative will inspire repeat reads: This inventive format including die-cuts offers a new approach to interactive book concepts
- Year-round retail promotions: Monsters have year-round appeal, but it's also perfect for Halloween promotions and storytime
- Demonstrates how to turn fear into power: By tackling common childhood fears in a fun way, this book empowers kids to face their fears

Are you afraid of the big bad wolf? Now you can put him in jail!

Turn the pages in this delightfully silly board book to lock a wolf behind bars, send a vampire away in a rocket ship, and smash a monster with a fly swatter...until there's nothing left to be scared of!

Created by artist Agnese Baruzzi, this book features unique die-cuts that "trap" the creatures and send them on their way.

As the daughter of a typographer and a librarian, AGNESE BARUZZI grew up surrounded by books and always loved them. She has a degree in graphic design and has been working as a children's author and illustrator since twenty-one. Baruzzi lives in the countryside close to Bologna, Italy.

Mia's Life: Fan Takeover!

Mia Fizz

- Mia's combination of humor and authenticity will hit just the right tone with middle-grade readers
- Huge promotional and marketing power to her 1 million YouTube followers + 520,000 Instagram audience
- Social media star culture is highly prevalent throughout the world

Mia wants to shake things up on her channel, and she needs some creative inspiration. So she decides to let her subscribers take over her life for a week! Each day, she'll have to do one thing they suggest, and there's no taking the easy way out: it's got to be whatever gets the most upvotes. At first, it's not so tough. Mia's followers want her to wear an out-there beauty trend to school on Monday. Next, her followers challenge her to join a new after-school club that's outside her comfort zone—and she meets a cute boy. When she mentions him in the next day's video, her subscribers pose a wild idea: What if Mia asks him out?

Little Victories

Joyce Magnin

- Outstanding writing and storytelling that's reminiscent of Newbery medalists Kate DiCamillo, Gary D. Schmidt, and Jennifer L. Holm
- Jelly Bean Summer has sold more than 14,000 net copies between the hardcover and paperback editions
- Joyce Magnin's works have been reviewed well, including a Starred Review from Kirkus Reviews for her book Cake

Bee is sent to live with Aunt Charlotte and Uncle Tate while she waits for her mother to recover from a breakdown. Her aunt and uncle are kind people, but Bee's not settling in well.

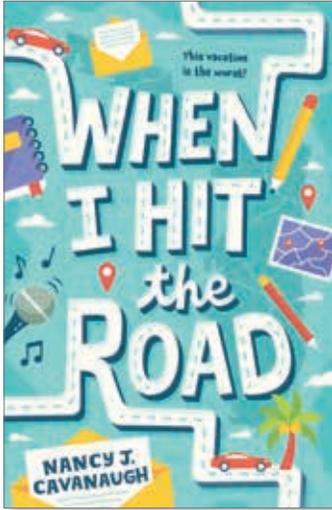

Bee knows Charlotte and Tate own a gym, but she never expected it to be a boxing gym called Jab. Dismissive at first, Bee becomes fascinated with boxing and soon takes to training in the ring. But there's a problem at the gym—feisty Francine, who knows the truth about Bee's mother, spreads Bee's family drama around school.

No matter how close she gets to her aunt and uncle, Bee holds out hope that her mother will come home soon. Until that day comes, Bee learns to love boxing, her second home, and maybe even how to negotiate a truce with Francine.

JOYCE MAGNIN has written books for adults and children. She teaches writing workshops and is a popular conference speaker. She lives in Portland, Oregon. Visit her at joycemagnin.blogspot.com.

The Empirium Trilogy, Book #3

Lightbringer

Claire Legrand

The epic final installment in the New York Times bestselling Empirium trilogy from Claire Legrand

- Final book: This is the epic conclusion to the Empirium Trilogy and answers all remaining questions for readers; we have seen with other trilogies an uptick in sales for all books in the series, and this will be no exception
- Critically acclaimed series: Furyborn has twelve blurbs from New York Times bestselling fantasy authors; Furyborn and Kingsbane got great trade reviews and made numerous “best of” lists
- Great sales: The hardcover of Furyborn has netted almost 5,000 units across all editions; the paperback of Furyborn and Kingsbane are also performing well for us

Queen Rielle, pushed away from everything she loves, turns to Corien and his promises of glory. Meanwhile, whispers from the Empirium slowly drive her mad, urging her to open the gate. Separated from Audric and Ludivine, she embraces the role of Blood Queen and her place by Corien’s side, determined to become the monster the world believes her to be.

In the future, Eliana arrives in the Empire’s capital as a broken shell of herself. Betrayed by those she trusted, she fights to keep her power at bay—and away from Corien, who will stop at nothing to travel back in time to Rielle, even if that means destroying her daughter.

But when the mysterious Prophet reveals themselves at last, everything changes, giving Rielle and Eliana a second chance for salvation—or the destruction their world has been dreading.

CLAIRE LEGRAND is the New York Times bestselling author of Furyborn and Kingsbane. She is also the author of The Cavendish Home for Boys and Girls, Some Kind of Happiness, and Winterspell, among others. Claire lives in Princeton, New Jersey. # We Were Restless Things

Cole Nagamatsu

Maggie Stiefvater meets Neil Gaiman in this stunning contemporary fantasy debut

- Gripping hook: An impossible death and a hint of magic is a hook that immediately pulls you in
- Powerful new voice: This is a remarkable meditation on love, grief, and the expectations that society puts on girls, and marks the start of an incredible career for Cole Nagamatsu
- Captivating magical realism: This falls thoroughly in the magical realism space that Readerlink called out as a growing trend

Last summer, Link Miller drowned in the woods, miles from the nearest body of water. His death was ruled a weird accident, but Noemi Amato knows the truth: Link was killed. He told her so himself because he's been texting her from beyond the grave, warning her to keep away from the forest.

Amberlyn, Link's sister, can't shake the feeling Noemi is hiding something, and Jonas, Noemi's new housemate, can't get past the walls she's constructed around herself. Because Noemi has a dangerous secret even bigger than Link's ghost.

Link drowned in an impossible lake that only she can find. Now, if the three teens don't work together to unravel the truth about what is happening in the woods, someone else will wind up six feet under water.

COLE NAGAMATSU teaches creative writing at St. Olaf College, and her fiction has appeared in She currently resides near Minneapolis. Visit her online at colebn.com.

What We Devour

Linsey Miller

Beauty and the Beast meets Wicked Saints in this standalone dark fantasy from the author of Mask of Shadows and Belle Révolte.

- Fairy-tale retelling: This is Linsey's most romance-based book, but with all the epic world-building and action we've come to expect from her
- Standalone fantasy: We are building Linsey Miller in the standalone fantasy space, an area that is growing; this will be her second standalone and her most accessible book yet
- Mask of Shadows has sold over 9,500 copies P+E on NPD and has sold over 12,000 net; it also had success in Canada, sold Spanish and audio rights, was an Indie Next pick, and garnered strong reviews.

LINSEY MILLER is a wayward biologist from Arkansas who previously worked as a crime lab intern, neuroscience lab assistant, and pharmacy technician. She currently lives in Wichita, Kansas, and can be found writing about science and magic anywhere there's coffee. She is also the author of Mask of Shadows, Ruin of Stars, and Belle Révolte. A Hundred Names for Magic, Book #2

The Nameless Sword

Rin Chupeco

The second installment of the epic alternate history fairy-tale series from the author of the Bone Witch trilogy.

- Great concept: Rin delivers a unique concept that combines our contemporary world with fairy-tale figures and high-fantasy magic. This second book in the A Hundred Names for Magic trilogy has even more action, fairy-tale characters, and heart
- Talented writer: Rin's books have consistently earned Starred Reviews, been JLG picks, Amazon Best Books of the Month, etc.; she's a wonderful writer with the sales to match
- House author: This is Rin's seventh book with Sourcebooks, and we have eight signed with her in total; she is truly a successful house author with over 2,000 net units sold

Despite uncanny resemblances to Japanese revenants, RIN CHUPECO has always maintained her sense of humor. Raised in Manila, Philippines, she keeps four pets: a dog, two birds, and a husband. She's been a technical writer and a travel blogger but now makes things up for a living. She is also the author of The Girl from the Well, The Suffering, and the Bone Witch trilogy. The Beast Charmer, Book #2

The Frozen Prince

Maxym M. Martineau

Fantastic Beasts meets Assassin's Creed in this epic, gripping fantasy from up-and-coming author Maxym M. Martineau

- Compelling and epic story: This trilogy is unputdownable; it's very accessible, in the same vein as other bestselling YA high fantasy books
- Early buzz: The mass market Kingdom of Exiles is a Publishers Weekly Best Book of Summer 2019, received a Publishers Weekly Starred Review, is a June 2019 LibraryReads pick, a Bookish Staff pick, and was called "lush and sweeping" by the New York Times
- Great hook: Rich, clever worldbuilding plus unputdownable writing; Assassins Creed meets Fantastic Beasts

Noc Feyreigner, leader of the assassins of Curor, is living on borrowed time. If he fails to kill Leena Edenfrell—the girl he can't live without—his own life will be at stake. With the dark magic of Curor's Oath testing his control, Noc has to fight with everything he is to keep his friends and family safe.

Leena would do anything to help Noc overcome the oath. So when she hears of a beast rumored to have the power needed to save Noc's life, she embarks on a quest to the frozen north. But what starts as a hunt for a magical beast quickly turns Leena, Noc, and their trusted band of assassins into prey...and time is running out.

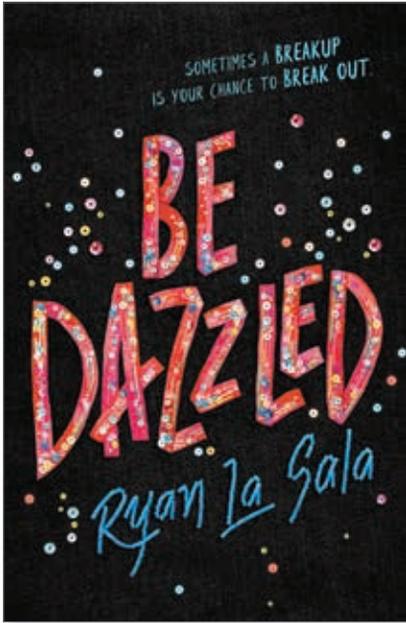

MAXYM M. MARTINEAU is an article and social media writer by day and a fantasy author by night. She earned her bachelor's degree in English literature from Arizona State University and lives with her husband in Arizona. ## Be Dazzled

Ryan La Sala

Project Runway goes to Comic-Con in an epic queer love story about creativity, creation, and finding the courage to be your most authentic self

- Superstar author: Ryan is a fantastic author; he is a wonderful self-promoter who puts together excellent media content
- Personal story: This is a deeply personal story for Ryan and will showcase even more of his voice and personality; fans will be able to connect easily to the message and story
- Reverie buzz: There is so much buzz for Reverie going into its publication; it's in mass, it's a B&N Book Club pick, it's got great preorders and support from big YA authors, all poised to make it a huge success

Raffy has a passion for bedazzling. Not just bedazzling, but sewing, stitching, draping, pattern making—for creation. He's determined to make his mark at this year's biggest cosplay competition. If he can wow there, it could lead to finally earning real respect for his work. There's only one small problem: Raffy's ex-boyfriend, Luca, is his main competition.

Raffy tried to make it work with Luca. But Luca's insecurities and Raffy's insistence on crafting perfection caused their relationship to crash and burn. Now, Raffy is after the perfect comeback, one that Luca can't ruin.

But when Raffy is forced to partner with Luca on his most ambitious build yet, he'll have to juggle unresolved feelings for the boy who broke his heart, and his own intense self-doubt, to get everything he's ever wanted.

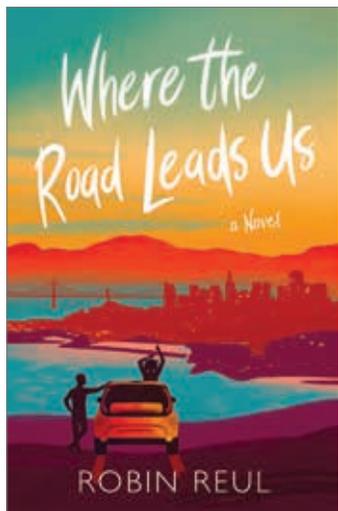

RYAN LA SALA grew up in Connecticut, but only physically. Mentally, he spent most of his childhood in the worlds of Sailor Moon and Xena: Warrior Princess, which perhaps explains all the twirling. He studied anthropology and neuroscience at Northeastern University before becoming a project manager specialized in digital tools. He technically lives in New York City but has actually transcended material reality and only takes up a human shell for special occasions, like brunch, and to watch anime (which is banned on the astral plane). He is also the author of Reverie. You can visit him at ryanlasala.com.

Where the Road Leads Us

Robin Reul

Two teens discover who they're meant to be when they take a spontaneous road trip together in this heartwarming contemporary YA.

- Poignant coming-of-age: Touches on themes of parental expectations, figuring out who you are in the face of looming adulthood, complicated family dynamics, and health issues; teenagers will find so much to connect to here
- Inspiring road trip story: Road trips are an evergreen trope, and this joyfully captures the fun of heading off to unexpected places, while introducing readers to California coastal landmarks
- Strong reviews: Reul's first book, My Kind of Crazy, was called "the perfect novel" by San Francisco Book Review and "entirely enjoyable" by Publishers Weekly

ROBIN REUL has been writing stories since she was old enough to hold a pen. She grew up on movie sets and worked in the film and television industry but decided to focus her attention on writing young adult novels. She lives in Los Angeles with her husband, son, and daughter.

COVER NOT FINAL

The Perfect Place to Die

Bryce Moore

Stalking Jack the Ripper meets a YA Devil in the White City in this terrifying story of a girl trying to save her sister from one of the most notorious mass murders in history and his custom-built death trap.

- Media potential: Devil in the White City is being made by Martin Scorsese and Leonardo DiCaprio for Hulu, which will bring renewed interest to H. H. Holmes
- Exciting category: Horror/thriller is an expanding category in the teen space and in this format could do strongly in the mass channels as Stalking Jack the Ripper did
- Fantastic author: The author is a librarian based in Maine and was also the president of the Maine chapter of ALA; he's got great connections in the school/library space

BRYCE MOORE is the author of The Memory Thief, published by Adaptive Books and under development by Fox Animation, and 21 Laps. Bryce's YA debut, Vodnik, picked up two awards, including the Association for Mormon Letters' award for best YA novel. # Yesterday Is History

Kosoko Jackson

Dear Martin* meets More Happy Than Not in this story of a contemporary gay teen who begins traveling through time and must choose between a boy from the past and the boy in his future

- Compelling hook: The historical significance of a book like Dear Martin with the quirky plot and LGBTQ themes of an Adam Silvera novel
- Epic romance: There are two epic romances in this story that will have readers swooning
- New voice: Kosoko has a unique voice that will appeal to readers looking for diverse protagonists dealing with tough issues

Andre Cobb hopes his luck is finally turning around. After being sick for as long as he can remember, he's finally gotten a liver transplant. But days after the operation, he passes out and wakes up in a different time. He soon realizes he's slipped back to the 1960s. There, he meets Michael, who Andre feels an instant connection with.

But just as suddenly as he arrived, Andre slips back to present-day Boston. As he tries to figure out if he's losing his mind, the family of his donor reaches out to let him know his new liver may have side effects...of the time-travel variety. They task their youngest son, Blake, with the job of helping Andre figure out the ins and outs of time travel. As the two work together, they also grow closer.

Torn between two boys, Andre has to figure out where he belongs. And the more he time travels, the more he learns about himself and just how far we have and haven't come.

The Summer of Broken Rules

K. L. Walther

Perfect for fans of Jenny Han and Katie Cotugno, this is a story of loss, romance, and the time it takes to become who you really want to be.

- Swoony romance: This unexpected romance will leave readers wanting more
- Great sense of place: The author is a master of transporting the reader to a setting; fun details and great atmosphere will make this a perfect beach read
- Commercial appeal: This fits in firmly with what's working right now, high-concept rom-com in the vein of Jenny Han

K.L. WALTHER was born and raised in the rolling hills of Bucks County, Pennsylvania, surrounded by family, dogs, and books. Her childhood was spent traveling the northeastern seaboard to play ice hockey. She attended a boarding school in New Jersey and went on to earn a BA in English from the University of Virginia. She is happiest on the beach with a book, cheering for the New York Rangers, or enjoying a rom-com while digging into a big bowl of popcorn and M&M's. She is also the author of If We Were Us. ## The Nature of Witches

Practical Magic meets Twister in this debut standalone set in a world where witches have long maintained the climate but are now losing control.

- Timely subject: While this is a contemporary fantasy, it also deals with the timely subject of climate change; the author is also a certified weather spotter for the National Weather Service, so she knows her stuff!
- Witches are in right now for YA, and this is a take we haven't seen before; it's also set in a boarding school, which we know resonates with teen readers
- Pure candy: This is a highly readable, page-turning commercial story that has it all: romance, drama, compelling characters, etc.

RACHEL GRIFFIN lives just outside of Seattle with her husband and dog, Doppler. She was fortunate enough to witness the 2017 total solar eclipse and became a certified weather spotter for the National Weather Service while doing research for this project. This is her debut. ### You can't run from murder...

- House author: A new novel from a successful, long-time house author whose books have been critically acclaimed
- Strong hook: Every reader can imagine what it would be like to be accused of murdering their family
- Popular category: YA thrillers continue to be hugely successful for Sourcebooks, and their overall popularity is growing in the YA marketplace

Andrea McNulty goes to sleep on her eighteenth birthday with a near-perfect life. But when she wakes up in a motel room unable to remember what happened the previous night and covered in blood, Andi is a fugitive.

According to the news, Andi's parents were brutally attacked. Her father is dead, her mother is in a coma, and her little brother Joshua is missing. She teams up with Nate, the boy working the motel's front desk, to find the real killer while hiding out from the police, who have named Andi a prime suspect. While the police are getting further from the killer, the killer is getting closer to her—closer than she could ever have imagined.

The Escape Maker

A Novel

Kristina McMorris

From New York Times and bestselling author of Sold on a Monday comes a riveting tale of a woman whose recruitment to British intelligence during WWII leads to a harrowing journey of love, betrayal, and a deadly game of chance

- Powerhouse author: Kristina is the A+++ author of Sold on a Monday, a New York Times and USA Today bestseller that has sold over half a million copies in P+E since its release
- Proven category: Kristina's book club chops + the success of WWII fiction = an unputdownable, uber-pitchable follow-up with a huge potential audience
- Fascinating hook: One woman uses her skills for illusion to help Allied prisoners escape from the hands of the enemy, based on incredible true accounts!

Haunted by an unfathomable tragedy in a Michigan copper-mining town, Fenna Vos has learned to focus on her own survival, even as World War II rages on. Now, she performs with an escape artist. Her honed ability to control her surroundings and elude entrapments, physical or otherwise, helps her run from the trauma of her youth.

Then, Fenna is recruited by British intelligence. Tasked with creating escape tools to thwart the Germans, MI9 seeks those with specialized skills for a war nearing its breaking point. Though reluctant, Fenna joins an unconventional group of inventors and proves herself worthy of the cause. But for Fenna, delving deeper into the fray means a pivotal confrontation with her past, and the stakes are more treacherous than she ever imagined.

KRISTINA McMORRIS is a New York Times and bestselling author of Sold on a Monday. Her novels have garnered more than twenty national literary awards and include Letters from Home, Bridge of Scarlet Leaves, The Pieces We Keep, and The Edge of Lost, in addition to novellas featured in A Winter Wonderland and Grand Central. She lives with her husband and two sons in Oregon.

In My Dreams I Hold a Knife

A Novel

Ashley Winstead

It doesn't matter who you are now—it matters who you were, and what you did. And now it's time to pay.

- A debut author who delivers both a fantastic hook and a gripping ensemble cast that will resonate in this high-volume category (first of a two-book deal)
- Fascinating dual timeline narrative that unravels across the insular and privileged world of a college campus; author taught at SMU
- Twisty, female-driven suspense is still a top category in fiction, and In My Dreams I Hold a Knife offers a fresh perspective in the space

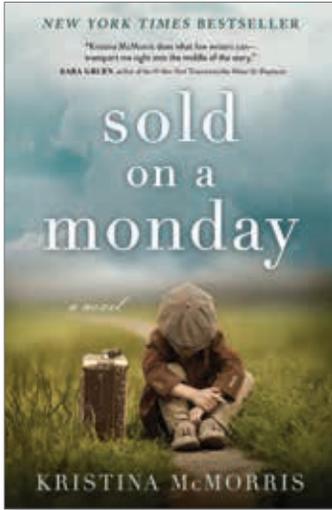

Ten years after graduation, Jessica Miller plans to triumphantly return to Duquette University for reunion festivities. She has made something of herself, damn it—she might be the most successful of her group of friends, and that's the girl everyone is going to see. Not that their friend group really exists anymore: Heather's murder right before graduation fractured everything, and Jack being accused of the killing shattered things further. But someone has set an elaborate trap to out the real killer in the cold case once and for all.

In My Dreams I Hold a Knife is an addictive, propulsive read that you won't be able to put down.

ASHLEY WINSTEAD leads communications for the criminal justice team at Arnold Ventures, a philanthropy dedicated to maximizing opportunity and minimizing injustice. Ashley taught English at Southern Methodist University (SMU) while completing her Ph.D. in English. She lives in Houston, Texas. This is her first novel.

The Arctic Fury

A Novel

Greer Macallister

A dozen women join a secret 1850s Arctic expedition—and a sensational murder trial unfolds when not all of them come back

- A brilliant story of a forgotten time in history, a rich period of adventure, exploration, and pioneers, this time engineered by the women
- Fascinating premise with complicated characters, a tense murder trial, a harrowing expedition, and a brutal, unforgiving land poised to destroy them all
- Woman 99 got great reviews, Girl in Disguise was an April 2017 Indie Next pick, and The Magician's Lie has sold over 55,000 copies P+E and was a Target Book Club pick

The next book from acclaimed author Greer Macallister! Virginia Reeve is summoned by an eccentric Brit with a compelling offer. Lady Jane Franklin wants her to lead a dozen women into the arctic in search of the ships of her husband's lost expedition, and she's willing to pay handsomely. All four search attempts Lady Franklin has sponsored have failed. She has decided only a radical new approach can succeed: let women make the decisions.

A year later, Virginia stands trial for murder. The Arctic Fury uses the true story of Lady Franklin's quest to find her husband's lost expedition to spin a tale of bravery and hope.

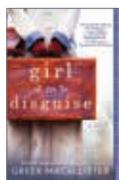

Raised in the Midwest, GREER MACALLISTER is a poet, short story writer, playwright, and novelist whose work has appeared in publications such as The North American Review, The Missouri Review, and The Messenger. She is also the author of Girl in Disguise, The Magician's Lie, and Woman 99. She lives with her family on the East Coast.

The Night We Burned

S. F. Kosa

- Female-led psychological suspense isn't slowing down, and S.F. has the chops to be a strong name in the space with her twisty, evocative writing
- Cults are a thing in popular culture! People are fascinated by cults and how people are slowly pulled into their strange, insular world
- Author is a clinical psychologist who delves into the strange psychological realms of her characters, weaving together a tight narrative that touches on layers of mental health, trauma, and cult psychology

S.F. KOSA is a clinical psychologist with a fascination for the seedy underbelly of the human psyche. Though The Quiet Girl is her debut psychological suspense novel, writing as Sarah Fine, she is the author of over two dozen fantasy, urban fantasy, sci-fi, and romance novels, several of which have been translated into multiple languages. # The Dead Husband

Carter Wilson

A murderer, a victim, and a witness...but no one in this house is innocent

- Bestselling author Carter Wilson continues to prove his talent as a storyteller; The Dead Girl in 2A received glowing praise and has been nominated for a number of awards
- Unforgettable hook and high-stakes premise will make this a must-read for fans of books like Every Last Lie and The Breakdown
- Psychological suspense continues to sell well, and readers can't seem to get enough of original, well-told stories in the category

Twenty years ago, a boy disappeared, and only Rose and her family know what happened to him. Haunted by guilt, Rose escaped into a new life. Now she has it all: a marriage, a son, a career. And then her husband is found dead.

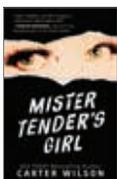

As far as Detective Colin Pearson is concerned, Rose is guilty. Her marriage wasn't as happy as she'd led everyone to believe, and worse, she's connected to a twenty-year-old cold case. She can play the part of the victim, but he won't let her or her family escape justice this time around.

Grieving her husband and struggling to make ends meet, Rose returns home hoping to finally confront her domineering father and unstable sister. But memories of a horrific crime echo through the house, and Rose soon learns that she can't trust anyone, especially not the people closest to her.

Clare remembers the cold. She remembers dark shapes and a terror she can't explain. When she wakes, aching and afraid in a stranger's Gothic home, he tells her she was in an accident. He claims he saved her. Clare wants to leave, but a vicious snowstorm has trapped them together, and there's nothing she can do but wait.

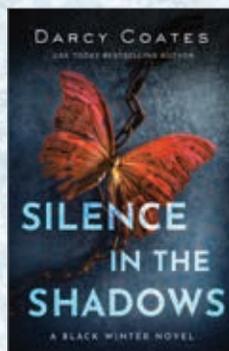

He promised they were alone here, but she is convinced that something else is creeping about the surrounding woods. Watching. Waiting. Between the storm and the inescapable sense of being hunted, Clare is increasingly certain of one thing: Something is waiting for her to step outside the safety of the house. Something monstrous, something unfeeling. Something desperately hungry.

Violent Crimes Investigations Unit,
Book #1

The Silenced Women

Frederick Weisel

This first-in-series is a compelling police procedural debut that follows the Violent Crime Investigations Unit as they track a disturbing killer through Santa Rosa

- First book in a new police procedural series from a debut author that takes a fascinating angle on violent crime investigation
- Serial killer novels are always popular, and this one has a strong potential serial killer thread
- Weisel's writing is gripping and intense, pulling the reader right into the high-stakes world of life-and-death criminal investigation

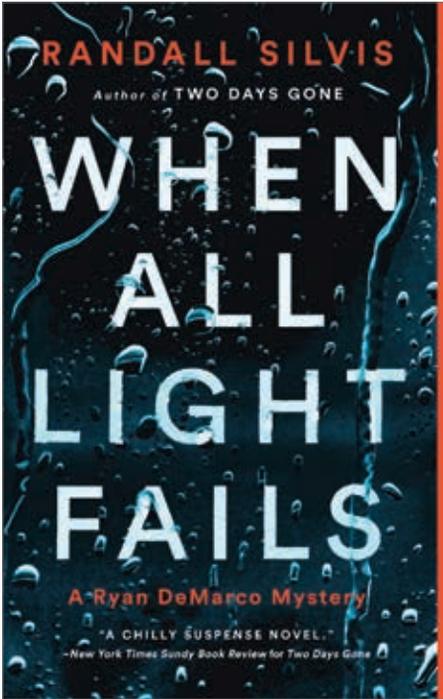

Wrapped in a red blanket on a park bench in Santa Rosa, the young woman could almost be asleep—if it weren't for the livid bruises around her neck. The Violent Crime Investigations (VCI) Unit starts an inquiry, but their leader, Eddie Mahler, is wary.

Smart, stoic, and possessing a stellar track record for closing cases, Mahler is a good detective. But belying his success are his debilitating chronic migraines and the knowledge that the only time he worked on a serial killer case, the culprit escaped, unpunished. When similarities between the old case and this newest murder come to light, Mahler knows that this is his last chance to redeem himself and put a killer away for good.

FREDERICK WEISEL has been a writer and editor for more than thirty years, and his articles have appeared in the Boston Globe, Washington Post, and the Christian Science Monitor. He lives with his wife in Santa Rosa, California, and shares a birthday with his favorite author, Raymond Chandler. This is his debut novel.

Ryan DeMarco Mystery

When All Light Fails

Randall Silvis

In the riveting conclusion to the acclaimed Ryan DeMarco mysteries, DeMarco uncovers secrets that were never meant to see the light of day—and they may cost him everything

- We have sold nearly 100,000 units (p+e) of Randall Silvis's Ryan DeMarco mysteries
- Randall Silvis's writing has been consistently praised as being exceptionally high quality and transcending the category
- When All Light Fails is an unforgettable conclusion to the Ryan DeMarco Mystery series

There's not much that would convince retired police sergeant Ryan DeMarco to take on another private investigation case, but he can't refuse a nine-year-old girl begging for help finding her biological father. DeMarco and his partner, Jayme, get some good leads, but then tragedy strikes. The girl and her grandmother are found dead in their home, supposedly of carbon monoxide poisoning from a blocked furnace vent. But something feels fishy to DeMarco, and he keeps digging.

What he finds is rampant corruption, from a local judge to the fire inspector. In When All Light Fails, the secrets DeMarco digs up are darker than anyone could have imagined.

RANDALL SILVIS is the internationally acclaimed author of more than a dozen novels, including Two Days Gone and the other Ryan DeMarco mysteries. His essays, articles, poems, and short stories have appeared in various online and print magazines. His work has been translated into ten languages. He lives in Pennsylvania.

Moose Springs, Alaska, Book #2

Lana Montgomery has loved Moose Springs since she was a child, and she's determined to show she belongs, but she's getting the cold shoulder from the locals. When an elusive and vengeful moose comes to town, hell-bent on destroying everyone's decorations, Lana agrees to help rid Moose Springs of the antlered menace in the hope of winning the town over for good.

Geologist and lifelong science nerd, SARAH MORGENTHALER is a passionate supporter of chocolate chip cookies, geeking out over rocks, and playing with her rescue pit bull, Sammy. When not writing romantic comedy and contemporary romance set in far-off places, Sarah can be found traveling with her husband, hiking national parks, and enjoying her own happily ever after. Sarah is a two-time Golden Heart finalist and winner of the NOLA STARS Suzannah Award.

Mistletoe and Mr. Right

Noa and Lilah's Guide to Surviving B-List Fame

Jennet Alexander

In this heartfelt LGBTQIA+ rom-com, an up-and-coming actress and the makeup artist for her newest film turn on-set chemistry into the romance of a lifetime

- Fantastic hook: An up-and-coming scream queen and the makeup artist behind her chair make the perfect couple in this charming and hilarious LGBTQIA+ rom-com
- Winning tropes: Fan-favorite tropes including opposites attract and found family; also deals with deeper issues of self-acceptance, identity, and faith and is a heartfelt and funny #ownvoices story
- Fresh new voice: Jennet Alexander is a debut author whose fresh take on evergreen romance tropes with a horror-movie twist is sure to win fans

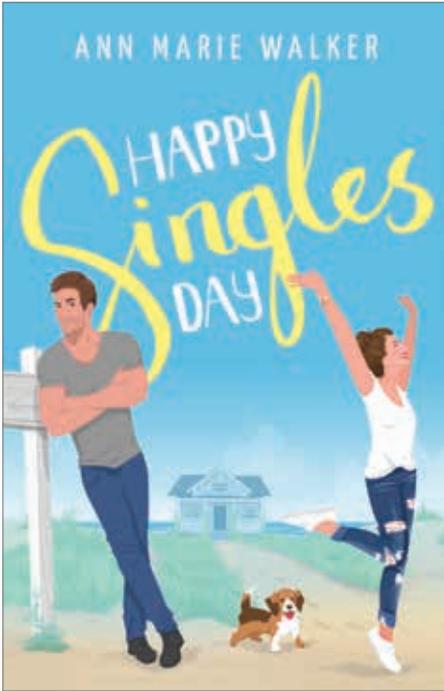

Movie makeup artist Noa Birnbaum is thrilled when she learns that Lilah Silver will be the star of her next flick—she's had a crush on the leading lady forever. But when she meets Lilah, Noa is unimpressed. Lilah's distant and shallow, and Noa isn't in any hurry to get to know her.

Lilah Silver is tired of being in B-rate movies and has finally landed a leading role—in a sci-fi creature feature. Worried that no one will take her seriously, she's hidden herself behind her pageant queen persona. Lilah is awed by Noa's self-confidence and style, but how can she convince Noa she's not a snobby scream queen when she can't find the right words without a script in her hands?

JENNET ALEXANDER has been a game designer, a teacher, a singer, a Riot Grrrl, a guitar player, and a crew tech and department head for both stage and screen. She grew up queer in the heart of a large Jewish community in Toronto, Canada, and now lives with her partner, two kids, and two cats. You can follow Jennet on Twitter @jennetalexander and online at jennetalexander.com.

Happy Singles Day

Ann Marie Walker

Hilarious rom-com series by author Ann Marie Walker featuring the hottest, most popular hashtag holidays

- Ann Marie Walker has published 6 digi-first titles with a total of about 14,000 units sold (successful digi-first titles sell 2,000 to 3,000 copies)
- TP rom-com is seeing real success when the concept is as fresh and original as the Hashtag Holiday series is; the series has endless potential for expansion, and the TP format commands higher print and ebook prices
- Singles Day is gaining traction among the anti-Valentine's Day crowd, which celebrates by shopping for gifts for themselves and taking mini-vacations; we're releasing in the perfect time frame to take advantage of the Valentine's and anti-Valentine's Day promo period

Paige Parker proudly celebrates Singles Day on February 15 every single year. Who needs a man anyway? They have zero taste in quality television, leave the toilet seat up, and sleep with your best friend. No thanks.

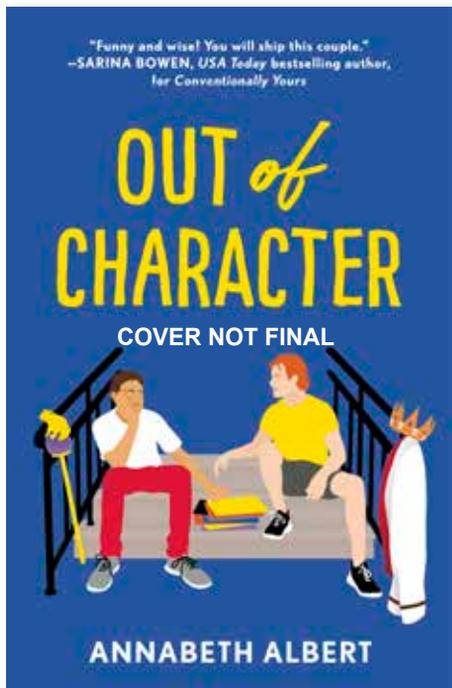

The owner of a run down B and B, widower and single dad Lucas Croft's life is simple and quiet. It's him and his five-year-old daughter. Who needs a woman anyway? They nag you to clean up your stuff, want the toilet seat put down, and expect the dishes to be done the same day the meal is served. No thanks.

Paige's and Lucas's two worlds collide—with hilarious results and an HEA.

ANN MARIE WALKER is the author of six romances. She's a fan of fancy cocktails, anything chocolate, and '80s rom-coms, and her superpower is connecting any situation to an episode of Friends. Ann Marie attended the University of Notre Dame and currently lives in Chicago. You can find her at annmariewalker.com.

Out of Character

Annabeth Albert

In this groundbreaking LGBTQIA+ rom-com, two former friends strike an unlikely bargain that could lead to more than either of them expected

- Strong hook: LGBTQIA+ rom-com with a quirky fandom bent; due to its younger characters and low heat level, it has a strong crossover appeal to a YA audience
- Winning tropes: Fan-favorite tropes, including enemies-to-friends-to-lovers, former friends, redemption, virgin hero, jock-and-nerd, close proximity, and opposites attract
- Established author: Annabeth Albert is an award-winning, well-known author with a strong digital fan base poised to break into print

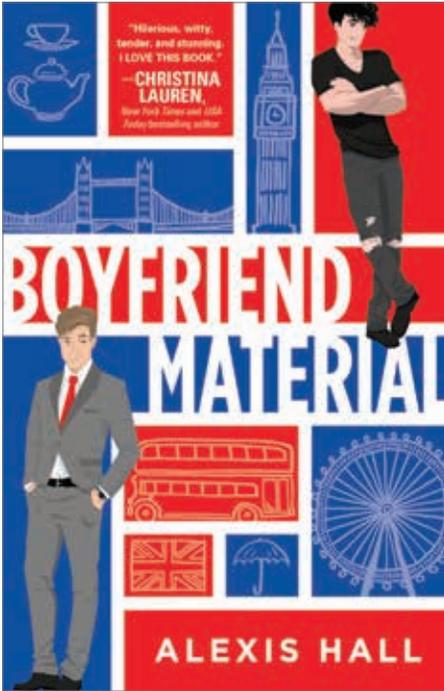

Milo Lionetti is not a gamer. Not even close. But when a stupid bet costs him his brother's prized cards, he'll do anything to replace them before anyone notices they're gone. To do that, he'll need a little help from the best gamer he knows...who also happens to hate him.

Jasper Quigley is on a popular gaming blog, but he's eager to step into the limelight and stop playing the sidekick. The last thing he wants is to help out Milo and dredge up feelings he'd rather forget. But helping Milo comes with some perks, including getting to see him dress as a scantily clad sea god in his cosplay group. It was not supposed to come with kissing in costume, and definitely not falling in love...

When she's not adding to her keeper shelf, ANNABETH ALBERT is a multi-published Pacific Northwest romance writer. She lives with her spouse and two children in Oregon. To find out what she's working on next—as well as other fun extras—check out her website or connect with Annabeth on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and Spotify.

Boyfriend Material

Alexis Hall

In this hilarious LGBTQIA+ rom-com, a famous young man whose reputation needs damage control soon finds his fake relationship turning to real romance.

- Fantastic hook: Two tangentially famous young men must pretend to date to save their reputations in this hilarious LGBTQIA+ rom-com with a quirky fame-and-fandom bent
- Winning tropes: Fan-favorite tropes, including fake dating, enemies-to-lovers, opposites attract, and found family; also deals with deeper issues of identity and self-acceptance
- Award-winning author: Alexis Hall is a two-time Lambda Literary Award finalist and was one of the first LGBTQIA+ RITA winners in 2016

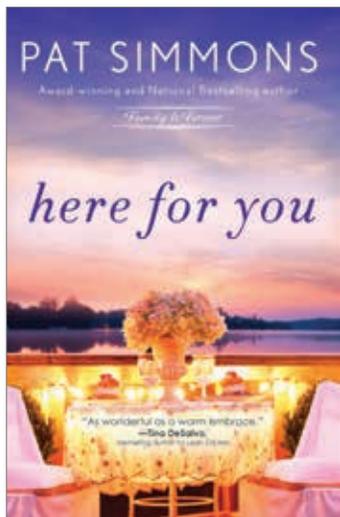

When tangentially—and reluctantly—famous Luc O'Donnell is forced back into the spotlight in the worst possible way, he has to think fast if he wants to save his floundering reputation. Enter Oliver Blackwood. Stunningly handsome and effortlessly put together, Oliver is successful, an ethical vegetarian, and has never appeared in a scandal mag even once. In other words, he's perfect boyfriend material and exactly what Luc needs to appear respectable again. But when their fake relationship starts to feel like real romance, Luc and Oliver might have to consider whether they're willing to fight for the truth of their new relationship...scandal, and consequences, be damned.

ALEXIS HALL writes books in the southeast of England, where he lives entirely on a diet of tea and Jaffa Cakes. You can find him at quicunquevult.com, on Twitter @quicunquevult, and on Facebook at facebook.com/quicunquevult.

Walking the Edge

Sue Ward Drake

First in a new romantic suspense series by author Susan Ward Drake set in sultry New Orleans.

- Sue Ward Drake wrote Hear No Evil for Harlequin Intrigue in the late 1990s—it sold nearly 140,000 copies worldwide
- This is an #ownvoices story with hearing-impaired characters; Sue is herself hearing impaired
- Sue has taken a long hiatus from writing and is now back with thrilling romantic suspense

SUE WARD DRAKE has lived in most of the different neighborhoods of New Orleans, including the French Quarter. She was forced to leave during hurricane Katrina but still counts as friends a wide spectrum of the city's inhabitants. Though she now resides minutes from the mountains, her heart will always belong to the Big Easy.

The Girl Explorers

How a Group of Globetrotting Women Treked, Flew, and Fought Their Way Around the World

Jayne Zanglein

The untold stories of women who broke the rules, trekked the globe, and changed the world!

- Great hook: Women and STEM (+ art!)—the women broke records, discovered new species, and widened understanding of different cultures
- Breaking new ground: The story of the four women (and the wider SWG organization) has never been told before
- Great research: Author has direct contact with the families and personal photographs; additionally, she has retraced the footsteps of some of the international travel

"Don't take women when you go exploring!"

In 1932, Roy Chapman Andrews, the president of the Explorers Club, told hundreds of female students at Barnard College that women and exploration could never mix. He obviously didn't know a thing about either...

The Girl Explorers is the inspirational and untold story of the women who broke apart the stuffy men's club and founded the Society of Woman Geographers (SWG), and how some key members—including Blair Niles, Amelia Earhart, Gloria Hollister, and Anna Heyward Taylor—paved the way for women scientists by scaling mountains, exploring the seas, flying across the Atlantic, and recording the world through film, sculpture, and art.

JAYNE ZANGLEIN is a labor lawyer and law professor, and the author of four law books. She lives in North Carolina.

Rage Yoga

Unleash Your Inner Badass

Lindsay Istace

An irreverent and hilarious guide to becoming zen as f*ck from the creator of Rage Yoga

- .Edgy, authentic self-help is strong (in many subcategories), and pairing it with yoga is the perfect way to target a wide range of audiences, from yogis to people looking for empowering stress management, anger control, and fun exercise outlets
- An expert author who founded the Rage Yoga practice and has been featured in Cosmo, Shape, Self, Bustle, GQ, and much more; content easily portable in bite-size pieces
- Alternative exercise practices are a huge trend (goat yoga, morning raves, hula fit, etc.), and Rage Yoga is a way to pull in that audience

From the creator of the international viral sensation Rage Yoga comes a book that will empower readers to crush their bullsh*t, unleash their innermost Badass Self, and become zen as f*ck. Rage Yoga is taught by certified instructors and done while blasting heavy music, loudly cursing like a sailor, and extending middle fingers (a.k.a. “fist unicorns”) high into the sky. Rage Yoga embraces the misfits of the yoga world, pairs well with a cold beer, and is often done in alternative venues such as pubs and breweries. This book will explore how and why Rage Yoga came to be and how to create a regular practice through breath work, positional exercises, and mindfulness, along with two seven-day programs.

An award-winning circus artist, LINDSAY ISTACE performs contortion, sword swallowing, comedy-variety acts, and fire arts. They have trained contortion and extreme flexibility with top coaches in Beijing, Las Vegas, and San Francisco. Their keen interest in flexibility ended up bringing them into the world of yoga and taking them on a deeper and more Badass path. They became a certified yoga instructor and founded Rage Yoga in 2016. Since then, they have taught the viral phenomenon across North America and Europe as well as online. Rage Yoga has continued to grow and expand and has begun to bring in new teachers with annual Rage Yoga Certified Badass Instructor programs.

The Girls Who Stepped Out of Line

Untold Stories of the Women Who Changed the Course of World War II

Maj. Gen. Mari K. Eder

A look inside the lives and experiences of 15 unknown women heroes who served, fought, struggled, and made things happen during WWII.

- Badass author: Mari K. Eder is a highly respected retired Army major general, one of only a handful to ever achieve that rank; she is a well-known member of many military organizations that will support her book
- Fresh voices: The women featured in the book have gone largely unheralded and unrewarded; the stories are fresh and new for readers wanting to learn more about these unsung heroes
- International appeal: From a Dutch resistance fighter to an American tennis champion to a British fighter pilot to an Austrian scientist, readers will engage with women from all over the world who played a vital role in World War II

For fans of The Radium Girls and history and WWII buffs, The Girls Who Stepped Out of Line takes you inside the lives and experiences of 15 unknown women heroes from the Greatest Generation. Theirs is a legacy destined to embolden generations of women to come.

The Girls Who Stepped Out of Line are heroes you hardly ever hear about. These women who did extraordinary things didn't expect thanks and shied away from medals and recognition. Despite their amazing accomplishments, they've gone mostly unheralded and unrewarded. No longer. These are the women of World War II who served, fought, struggled, and made things happen—in and out of uniform.

MARI K. EDER is a retired U.S. Army Major General, a renowned speaker and author, and a thought leader on strategic communication and leadership. General Eder is the former Commanding General of the U.S. Army Reserve Joint and Special Troops Support Command, former Deputy Chief of the Army Reserve and former Deputy Chief of Public Affairs for the U.S. Army. She is the author of Leading the Narrative: The Case for Strategic Communication, published by the Naval Institute Press.
