A GAMBLING MAN — book 2 in the Aloysius Archer series

Contact: Lucy Childs

Publisher: Grand Central Publishing

U.S. Release: April 20, 2021

Foreign Sales: UK—Pan Macmillan; Netherlands—Bruna; Sweden—Bokfabriken

SYNOPSIS:

In A GAMBLING MAN, the 1950s are on the horizon, and Archer is in dire need of a fresh start after a nearly fatal detour in Poca City (ONE GOOD DEED). So Archer hops on a bus and begins the long journey out west to California, where rumor has it there is money to be made if you're hard-working, lucky, criminal—or all three. Along the way, Archer stops in Reno, where a stroke of fortune delivers him a wad of cash and an eye-popping convertible—plus a companion for the final leg of the journey, an aspiring actress named Liberty Callahan who is planning to try her luck in Hollywood. But when the two arrive in Bay Town, California, Archer quickly discovers that the hordes of people who flocked there seeking fame and fortune landed in a false paradise that instead caters to their worst addictions and fears. Archer's first stop is a P.I. office where he is hoping to apprentice with a legendary private eye and former FBI agent named Willie Dash (one of the best characters David has written yet!) He lands the job, and immediately finds himself in the thick of a potential scandal: a blackmail case involving a wealthy well-connected politician running for mayor that soon spins into something even more sinister. As bodies begin falling, Archer and Dash must infiltrate the world of brothels, gambling dens, drug operations, and long-hidden secrets, descending into the rotten bones of a corrupt town that is selling itself as the promised land—but might actually be the road to perdition, and Archer's final resting place.

Publisher: Grand Central Publishing

U.S. Release: November 17, 2020

Foreign Sales: UK—Pan Macmillan; Netherlands—Bruna; Germany—Heyne; Sweden—Bokfabriken ; Hungary—General Press; Italy—Fanucci

SYNOPSIS:

For many long years, Atlee Pine was tormented by uncertainty after her twin sister, Mercy, was abducted at the age of six and never seen again. Now, just as Atlee is ordered to wrap up her unofficial investigation into Mercy's disappearance, she finally gets her most promising breakthrough yet: the identity of the kidnapper, a mobster named Ito Vincenzo.

With time running out, Atlee and her assistant Carol Blum race to Vincenzo's last known location in Trenton, New Jersey—and unknowingly stumble straight into John Puller's investigation, blowing his arrest during a military drug ring investigation.

Now Pine and Puller's investigations will run parallel lines as they dig deep into the mob family's secrets, leading them into the precarious world of organized crime and also – Atlee hopes – to the person she has sought so desperately her entire life. Atlee is closer to her sister than ever before, but the road to Mercy is more twisted than she can imagine – and more dangerous.

WALK THE WIRE — book 6 in the Amos Decker series

Contact: Lucy Childs

Publisher: Grand Central Publishing

U.S. Release: April 21, 2020

Foreign Sales: UK—Pan Macmillan; Netherlands—Bruna; Sweden—Bokfabriken; Poland-Dolnoslaskie; Vietnam—Best Book; Bulgaria, Obsidian

SYNOPSIS:

When Amos Decker and his FBI colleague Alex Jamison are called to London, North Dakota, they instantly sense that the thriving fracking town is ripe for trouble. The promise of a second gold rush has attracted an onslaught of newcomers all hoping for a windfall, and the community is growing faster than houses can be built. The sudden boom has also brought a slew of problems with it, including drugs, property crimes, prostitution—and now murder.

Decker and Jamison are ordered to investigate the death of a young woman named Irene Cramer, whose body was expertly autopsied and then dumped in the open—which is only the beginning of the oddities surrounding the case. As Decker and Jamison dig into Irene’s life, they are shocked to discover that the woman who walked the streets by night as a prostitute was a teacher for a local religious sect by day—a sect operating on land once owned by a mysterious government facility that looms over the entire community.

London is a town replete with ruthless business owners, shady government officials, and religious outsiders, all determined to keep their secrets from coming out. When other murders occur, Decker will need all of his extraordinary memory and detective skills, and the assistance of a surprising ally, to root out a killer and the forces behind Cramer’s death. . . before the boom town explodes.

Publisher: Grand Central Publishing

U.S. Release: July 23, 2019

Foreign Sales: UK—Pan Macmillan; Netherlands—Bruna; Sweden—Bokfabriken; Denmark-Lindhardt & Ringhof; Bulgaria—Obsidian

SYNOPSIS:

In 1949, Aloysius Archer arrives in the dusty Southern town of Poca City. He has nothing but a handful of dollars, the clothes he's wearing, and an appointment with his new parole officer. After his wartime experiences in Italy and a prison sentence for a crime he didn't commit, Archer is looking for a fresh start and a peaceful life. On his first night of freedom, Archer meets local business tycoon Hank Pittleman, who promises Archer handsome compensation to work as his debt collector. Yet Archer takes on more than he bargains for, as he becomes embroiled in a long-running feud between the drought-struck town's most dangerous residents. When one of them dies, the authorities label Archer as their number one suspect. A bloody game is being played above and below the law. Everybody playing has a deeply buried secret, and Archer must uncover them all – if he's to avoid going back behind bars.

THE STARS BELOW—book four in the Vega Jane series

Contact: Lucy Childs

Publisher: Scholastic

U.S. Release: February 26, 2019

Foreign sales for THE STARS BELOW: UK—Pan Macmillan

“What happens when an international best-selling crime novelist tries his hand at a youth fantasy? Well, in this case, success.” – Starred Booklist Review for THE FINISHER

SYNOPSIS of THE FINISHER:

At first glance, there isn't much going on in the village of Wormwood. Like most other Wugmorts, 14-year-old Vega Jane is dirty, hungry, and deprived. Everything changes one morning when she spies her mentor, Quentin Herms, heading into the Quag, the terrifying forest that surrounds Wormwood. There are beasts inside the Quag, and supposedly nothing past it, so why would Herms run? The cryptic note he leaves behind raises more questions, and despite danger from many directions, Vega's a girl who wants answers.

SYNOPSIS of THE KEEPER:

Vega Jane was always told there was nothing outside but the Quag, a wilderness filled with danger and death. And she always accepted it, until the night she stumbled across a secret that proved that everything she believed was a lie. In order to discover the truth, Vega Jane and her best friend, Delph, must find a way to make it across a terrifying land of blood-thirsty creatures and sinister magic. With The Keeper, the follow-up to the global #1 bestseller and award winner The Finisher, master storyteller David Baldacci unleashes a hurricane of action and adrenaline that takes readers to the breaking point.

SYNOPSIS of THE WIDTH OF THE WORLD:

Vega Jane has been lied to her whole life, so she breaks away from the only home she's ever known in search of the truth. She battles horrors to fight her way across the Quag with her best friend, Delph, and her mysterious canine, Harry Two. Against all odds, they make it through into a new world that's even worse—the people are enslaved but don't even know it. It's up to Vega, Delph, Harry Two and their new comrade, Petra, to take up the fight against a foe that's unrivaled in savagery and cunning. Whether Vega Jane triumphs or fails will determine whether a whole world survives.

SYNOPSIS of THE STARS BELOW:

Vega Jane has tried to outrun, outsmart, and outlast her enemy, but the showdown she has dreaded is finally here. Her ragtag crew must take a stand against a fully trained army, knowing the odds are impossible, knowing each of them could die for nothing. But when injustice appears, the only choice is to stand and fight. Master storyteller David Baldacci sounds the drums of war in the jaw-dropping conclusion to the #1 international bestselling Vega Jane fantasy series.

A DANGEROUS MAN — featuring Elvis Cole and Joe Pike

Contact: Lucy Childs

Publisher: Putnam

U.S. Release: June 18, 2019

Foreign Sales: UK—Simon & Schuster; Japan—Sogensha; Italy-Mondadori; Latvia-Kontinents;
Finland—CIL Suomi Oy

SYNOPSIS:

Joe Pike didn't expect to rescue a woman that day. So when Isabel Roland, the lonely young teller at his bank, steps out of work on her way to lunch, Joe Pike is on hand when two men abduct her. Joe Pike is no ordinary bystander. He chases them down, saves her, and the two men are arrested. But the kidnappers don't remain in custody for long. Izzy claims the men are unknown to her, but they claim otherwise. When they make bail a few days later, both are found murdered, and the police suspect Pike and Isabel had a hand in it, especially when Izzy disappears again. Pike fears the worst. Are the murders connected to her disappearance, or has Isabel fled to escape, and why had the two men kidnapped her? Convinced that Isabel has been abducted again, Pike calls on his friend, Elvis Cole, to help learn the truth. Elvis soon finds himself in their crosshairs as he learns Izzy Roland's life is a web of lies: Isabel's mother was once a key witness in a multinational counterfeit pharmaceuticals case, and her parents had been relocated from Texas to Los Angeles in the witness protection program. Their names were changed, their true identities were disguised, and Izzy, only an infant at the time, never knew the truth, and still doesn't! As Elvis and Joe zero in on the mystery, the Feds close in fast and it's up to Joe and Elvis to save Izzy at all costs.

In Robert Crais' inimitable style, he's created another brilliant "noir" mystery set in Los Angeles with his bestselling characters, Elvis Cole and Joe Pike.

Publisher: Henry Holt

U.S. Release: August 6, 2019

Foreign Sales: France—Cherchemidi

SYNOPSIS:

From the author of A Rumor of War, The Longest Road, and Some Rise By Sin comes a captivating mosaic of stories set in a small town where no act is private and the past is never really past. Hunter's Moon is set in Michigan's wild, starkly beautiful Upper Peninsula, where a cast of recurring characters move into and out of each other's lives, building friendships, facing loss, confronting violence, trying to bury the past or seeking to unearth it. Once-a-year lovers, old high school buddies on a hunting trip, a college professor and his wayward son, a middle-aged man and his grief-stricken father, come together, break apart, and, if they're fortunate, find a way forward. Hunter's Moon offers an engaging, insightful look at everyday lives but also a fresh perspective on the way men navigate in today's world.

U.S. Release: September 24, 2019

Foreign Sales: UK—Pan Macmillan; Israel—Tchelet

SYNOPSIS:

Boston is in the grip of the coldest winter on record, but in its criminal underworld the temperature is rising.

Harbour chief Cormack O'Connell has lived his life close to the wire – above and below the law. He knows every movement on his waterfront, and that's why someone wants him out of the way, fast.

Homeland security agent, Kit Steele is committed to avenge terrorism. Also known as The Hunter, she's got her eye on the prize. This time it's personal, she's nothing left to lose.

Her prey is Vincente Carpio, one of the world's most dangerous criminals. He is clever, calculating and he's biding his time.

Diamond O'Connell is a daughter, a lover and a fighter. She's seen things most nineteen-year-old girls couldn't even begin to imagine. And she's about to become a pawn in a deadly game of cat and mouse. Everyone has a role to play but now it seems that there are much darker, far-reaching forces at work which look to be preparing for the international stage.

SYNOPSIS:

Over twenty years ago, heiress Patricia Lockwood was abducted during a robbery of her family's estate, then locked inside an isolated cabin for months. Patricia escaped, but so did her captors, and the items stolen from her family were never recovered. Until now.

On New York's Upper West Side, a recluse is found murdered in his penthouse apartment, alongside two objects of note: a stolen Vermeer painting and a leather suitcase bearing the initials WHL3. For the first time in years, the authorities have a lead not only on Patricia's kidnapping but also on another FBI cold case - with the suitcase and painting both pointing them towards one man.

Windsor Horne Lockwood III - or Win as his few friends call him - doesn't know how his suitcase and his family's stolen painting ended up in this dead man's apartment. But he's interested - especially when the FBI tell him that the man who kidnapped his cousin was also behind an act of domestic terrorism, and that he may still be at large.

The two cases have baffled the FBI for decades. But Win has three things the FBI does not: a personal connection to the case, a large fortune, and his own unique brand of justice.

SYNOPSIS:

After a late night of partying, New York University student Matt Pine returns to his dorm room to devastating news: nearly his entire family—his mom, his dad, his little brother and sister—have been found dead from an apparent gas leak while vacationing in Mexico. The local police claim it was an accident, but the FBI and State Department seem far less certain—and they won't tell Matt why.

The tragedy makes headlines everywhere because this isn't the first time the Pine family has been thrust into the media spotlight. Matt's older brother, Danny—currently serving a life sentence for the murder of his teenage girlfriend Charlotte—was the subject of a viral true crime documentary suggesting that Danny was wrongfully convicted. Though the country has rallied behind Danny, Matt holds a secret about his brother that he's never told anyone: the night Charlotte was killed Matt saw something that makes him believe his brother is guilty of the crime.

When Matt returns to his small hometown to bury his parents and siblings, he's faced with a hostile community that was villainized by the documentary, a frenzied media, and memories he'd hoped to leave behind forever. Now, as the deaths in Mexico appear increasingly suspicious and connected to Danny's case, Matt must unearth the truth behind the crime that sent his brother to prison—putting his own life in peril—and forcing him to confront his every last fear.

SYNOPSIS:

An invitation addressed to his long-dead mother sparks Van Shaw’s curiosity about the woman he barely knew. As he digs into young Moira Shaw's past, he uncovers startling details about her life, including her relationship to a boy named Sean Burke—a boy Moira may have been seeing when she became pregnant. Could this Burke be the biological father who abandoned Van before he was born? Although Van knows all too well that some doors shouldn’t be opened, he decides to investigate the man—only to discover that Burke has an even darker family history than Van's own.

But Van’s got more immediate problems. His friend Hollis is in a jam, and helping him out accidentally steers Van into the path of a master extortionist named Bilal Nath. Nath demands that the talented thief to mastermind a daring heist targeting a Seattle biotechnology firm, or the blackmailer will destroy the lives of people Van loves. Will Van be forced to steal a viral weapon with the potential to kill thousands?

With Bilal Nath coercing him into a possible act of domestic terrorism, Van turns to his formidable crew of lawbreaking friends—including Hollis, Big Will Willard, and Willard's sly and seductive niece Elana—for help. Yet even this team may not be enough. To outwit a brilliant sociopath, Van might just need a cold-blooded killer . . . a criminal whose blood may run through his own veins.

SYNOPSIS:

When Kevin Gogarty’s irrepressible eighty-three-year-old mother, Millie, is caught shoplifting yet again, he has no choice but to hire a caretaker to keep an eye on her. Kevin, recently unemployed, is already at his wits’ end tending to a full house while his wife travels to exotic locales for work, leaving him solo with his rebellious teenaged daughter, Aideen, whose troubles escalate when she befriends the campus rebel at her new boarding school.

Into the Gogarty fray steps Sylvia, Millie’s upbeat American home aide, who appears at first to be their saving grace—until she catapults the Gogarty clan into their greatest crisis yet.

With charm, humor, and pathos to spare, Good Eggs is a delightful study in self-determination; the notion that it’s never too late to start living; and the unique redemption that family, despite its maddening flaws, can offer.

SYNOPSIS:

As a boy, Evan Smoak was pulled out of a foster home and trained in an off-the-books operation known as the Orphan Program. He was a government assassin, perhaps the best, known to a few insiders as Orphan X. He eventually broke with the Program and adopted a new name—The Nowhere Man—and a new mission, helping the most desperate in their times of trouble. But the highest power in the country has made him a tempting offer—in exchange for an unofficial pardon, he must stop his clandestine activities as The Nowhere Man. Now Evan has to do the one thing he’s least equipped to do—live a normal life.

But then he gets a call for help from the one person he never expected. A woman claiming to have given him up for adoption, a woman he never knew—his mother. Her unlikely request: help Andrew Duran—a man whose life has gone off the rails, who was in the wrong place at the wrong time, bringing him to the deadly attention of very powerful figures. Now a brutal brother-and-sister assassination team are after him and with no one to turn to, and no safe place to hide, Evan is Duran’s only option. But when the hidden cabal catches on to what Evan is doing, everything he’s fought for is on the line—including his own life.

SYNOPSIS:

From the beloved author of A Wrinkle in Time comes a deeply personal, genre-bending short story collection that transcends generational divides. This powerful collection of short stories traces an emotional arc inspired by Madeleine L'Engle's early life and career, from her lonely childhood in New York to her life as a mother in small-town Connecticut. In a selection of eighteen stories curated by one of L'Engle's granddaughters, we see how L'Engle's personal experiences and abiding faith informed the creation of her many cherished works. A child learns, for the first time, that there are more important things in life than the immediate fulfillment of her desires; a young woman grapples with societal expectations regarding motherhood and self-determination; a young man returns to his childhood home, aggrieved to find his parents' mental and physical health deteriorating before his eyes; a mother and daughter confront their changing relationship when a suitor comes calling. In L'Engle's beautifully distilled world, characters young and old navigate the highs and lows of life, experiencing the agonizing beauty of the everyday. From realism to science fiction to fantasy, there's something for everyone in this magical collection.

HE'S GOT MOVES: 25 LEGENDARY CHESS GAMES (AS ANALYZED BY A SMART KID)

Foreword by Bruce Pandolfini

Contact: Mitch Hoffman

Publisher: Metabook Entertainment

U.S. Release: December 2020

Film: Metabook Entertainment

SYNOPSIS:

Chess is all the rage. Thanks to Netflix's The Queen's Gambit, global interest in the game is surging. And consumers are not just buying chess sets (though they're buying a lot of those), they're buying chess books. Here in the US, Bookscan noted that sales of chess-related titles have surged over 600%.

He's Got Moves: 25 Legendary Chess Games, written by 10-year-old chess prodigy Oliver Boydell, is the perfect complement for this chess-crazy moment. It breaks down 25 of the most riveting chess games ever played, and is aimed at players of every level and has already won praise from some of the most respected figures in the international chess world. The book's Foreword is penned by Oliver's chess coach Bruce Pandolfini, famously portrayed by Sir Ben Kingsley in the movie Searching for Bobby Fischer and primary chess consultant for The Queen's Gambit.

PRAISE FOR HE'S GOT MOVES:

"Oliver has assembled some of the world's best chess games into a superbly integrated volume. Young or old, new to the game or experienced, readers will find Oliver Boydell's first book to be a touchstone for challenge and inspiration." – National Master Bruce Pandolfini

"Oliver has taken the classics and put his personal spin on them for chess lovers everywhere to understand." – Grandmaster Maurice Ashley

"There are big moments, thematic lessons, and Socratic questioning. Above all, you'll feel the joy of a young chess player's passion in the analysis. How could you not be inspired?"
– Fide Master Mike Klein

AUTHOR BIO:

Oliver Boydell was born in New York City to a Vietnamese mother and an English father. A National Chess Champion and a New York City Chess Champion, Oliver developed a passion for chess at the age of five. He started competing in chess tournaments during the same year and is a regular contender at New York City, New York State, and National Scholastic Chess Championships. Oliver endeavors to become a chess Grandmaster. Oliver is ten years old and lives in New York City with his family.

MURDER AT TEAL'S POND: HAZEL DREW AND THE MURDER THAT INSPIRED TWIN PEAKS

Foreword by Mark Frost, co-creator with David Lynch of Twin Peaks

Contact: Mitch Hoffman

Publisher: Thomas & Mercer

U.S. Release: December 2021

Foreign Sales: World English—Thomas & Mercer

Film: Metabook Entertainment

EARLY PRAISE FOR MURDER AT TEAL'S POND:

"In the literary equivalent of an archaeological dig, authors Bushman and Givens unearth the details of a sensational murder mystery that gripped the nation in 1908 and inspired the sinister cult favorite, Twin Peaks. Now, with Murder at Teal's Pond, the real characters emerge in a drama that proves to be every bit as compelling as the TV classic—if not more so."

—John Berendt, author of Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil

SYNOPSIS:

Murder at Teal's Pond explores the unsolved murder of the young woman Hazel Drew, whose mysterious death in the summer of 1908 in Sand Lake, New York became a local legend and served as inspiration for the television series Twin Peaks, which first debuted 30 years ago. Hazel's death made national headlines as police searched for the killer. As clues about her double life involving secret lovers were uncovered the investigation was abruptly brought to an end, and Hazel's story was left unfinished. In Murder at Teal's Pond, Bushman and Givens reopen the investigation into Hazel's murder, exposing a shocking ring of secrets, corruption, and gender politics one small town community tried to keep buried.

DAVID BUSHMAN BIO:

David Bushman is a television curator at The Paley Center for Media in New York. He also worked as a TV editor/critic at Variety and program director of TV Land network. Bushman is the co-author of Twin Peaks FAQ and Buffy the Vampire Slayer FAQ, both published by Applause Books.

MARK GIVENS BIO:

Mark Givens is a longtime Twin Peaks devotee who launched a Twin Peaks-themed podcast, Deer Meadow Radio, in 2016 during the lead-up to the much anticipated third season of the show. Givens works as a consultant for the federal government. He lives in Washington, D.C.

SYNOPSIS FOR HER LAST BREATH:

When her beloved sister Caroline dies suddenly, Deirdre is heartbroken. However, her sorrow turns to bone-chilling confusion when she receives a message Caroline sent days earlier warning that her death would be no accident. Long used to being a pariah to her family, Deirdre covers her tattoos and heads to Manhattan for her sister’s funeral. The message claimed Caroline’s husband, Theo, killed his first wife and got away with it. Reeling from the news, Deirdre confronts Theo on the way to the cemetery, and he reveals both his temper and his suspicion that Deirdre’s “perfect” sister was having an affair. Paranoid and armed with just enough information to make her dangerous, Deirdre digs into the disturbing secrets buried with Caroline. But as she gets closer to the truth, she realizes that her own life may be at risk...and that there may be more than one killer in the family.

Publisher: Dutton

U.S. Release: July 16, 2019

Film Rights: Matt Chazen, CAA

Foreign Sales: World—Dutton; UK/BC—Little, Brown (contact Eugenie Furniss, 42 Management & Production)

SYNOPSIS:

Talking to Robots mixes reporting on real artificial intelligence and quotes from experts with imagined scenarios of where these robots might take us in the future. Engineers, entrepreneurs, philosophers, synthetic biologists, doctors, and artists weigh in on what they see coming in our robot future, both utopic and dystopic. Imagined conversations with robots that drive autonomous cars, sex bots, robot psychiatrists, robots that treat us like pets, and ultimately, organic bots that are identical to humans, illustrate a world that might not be too far off.

SYNOPSIS:

Paris, 2017: Ottoman flags have been flying over the great city for three hundred years, ever since its fall—along with all of Europe—to the empire’s army. Kamal Arslan Agha, a feted officer in the sultan’s secret police, is starting to question his orders. Rumors of an impending war with the Christian Republic of America, attacks by violent extremists, and economic collapse have heightened surveillance and arrests across the empire. Tasked with surveying potential threats, Kamal has a heavy caseload—and conscience. When a mysterious stranger appears on the banks of the Seine, Kamal is called in to investigate. But what he discovers is a secret the Sultan will do anything to silence. With the mysterious Z Protectorate one step behind, Kamal, together with Nisreen—a fierce human rights lawyer—is caught up in a race across the empire and time itself.

SYNOPSIS:

Both lives and democracy are at stake in this unnerving political thriller, which only an insider could write. Investigative reporter Jack Sharpe is down to his last chance. He receives a message from a grad student named Tori Justice who swears she’s observed an impossible result in a local election. Jack learns that the most important tool in any election is the voter file: the database that keeps track of all voters in a district, and shapes a campaign’s game plan for victory. In the wrong hands, the file is the ultimate weapon against American democracy. On the run as Jack and Tori unravel the full story, they are forced to question the values—and viability—of the country they love and a president they admired. With targets on their backs, Jack and Tori must risk everything in this thriller written by an expert on the American political system.

SYNOPSIS:

In this new series from #1 New York Times bestselling author Ian K. Smith, ex-cop turned private investigator Ashe Cayne seeks justice on the vibrant, dangerous streets of Chicago. After refusing to participate in a cover-up involving the death of a young black man, Cayne is pushed out of the force. But he won’t sit quietly on the sidelines: he’s compelled to fight for justice as a private investigator...even if it means putting himself in jeopardy. When a young woman, Tinsley Gerrigan, goes missing, her wealthy parents from the North Shore hire Cayne to find her. Cayne fears he may never find Tinsley alive. His worries spike when Tinsley’s boyfriend is found dead—another black man murdered on the tough Chicago streets. Cayne must navigate his complicated relationships within the Chicago PD, leveraging his contacts and police skills to find the missing young woman, see justice done, and earn his redemption.

SYNOPSIS FOR A FRONT PAGE AFFAIR:

New York City, 1915. Capability "Kitty" Weeks would love nothing more than to report on the news of the day, but she's stuck writing about fashion and gossip on the Ladies' Page—until a man is murdered at a high society picnic. Determined to prove her worth as a journalist, Kitty finds herself plunged into the midst of a wartime conspiracy that threatens to derail the United States' attempt to remain neutral—and to disrupt the privileged life she has always known.

SYNOPSIS FOR MURDER BETWEEN THE LINES:

When Kitty's latest assignment takes her to Westfield Hall, there's more going on at the school than initially meets the eye. When a student named Elspeth is found frozen to death in Central Park, the doctors proclaim that the girl's sleepwalking was the cause, but Kitty isn't so sure. Determined to uncover the truth, Kitty must investigate a murder that may involve Elspeth's scientist father and a new invention by a man named Thomas Edison.
