THE TOTALLY TRUE BOOK OF STRANGE AND SURPRISING BIBLE LISTS

Carla Barnhill and Marc Olson, illustrated by Kelsey Heaton

Beaming Books, November 2021

That's in the Bible?!

From talking donkeys to women turning into salt, the Bible is filled with weird and wacky stuff. This big book of lists highlights the strange details and pairs them with cool and quirky illustrations. Flip through a few at a time or sit down and read the whole book: inside, you'll find collections of lesser-known stories, sayings, creatures, and more. (You may even stumble across something you've never heard of!) The Totally True Book of Strange and Surprising Bible Lists invites kids to get curious about the Bible and engage with it in a whole new way.

THE ANIMALS SPEAK

A Christmas Eve Legend

Marion Dane Bauer, illustrated by

Brittany Baugus

Beaming Books, October 2021

Praise for THE ANIMALS SPEAK:

“Baugus’s bold color and luminous digital spreads convey a sense of reverence and joy in this calm picture book, which will most appeal to those familiar with its biblical allusions.”

—Publishers Weekly

Long ago and even today, the story is told of how all the animals in the world, at the stroke of midnight on Christmas Eve, speak. With their newfound power of speech, the animals rejoice at the birth of Jesus, born humbly in a manger and surrounded by animals. Singing in treetops, braying in stables, barking in yards--the animals all rejoice and proclaim, "The Child is come."

With rich illustrations and lyrical text, Newbery Honor Award-winner Marion Dane Bauer delights readers of all ages with this fresh telling of a classic Christmas legend.

CRAFTING CALM

Art and Activities for Mindful Kids

Megan Borgert-Spaniol and Lauren Kukla, illustrated by Aruna Rangarajan

Beaming Books, November 2020

Praise for CRAFTING CALM:

"A solid addition to the growing offerings of much-needed mindfulness activities for kids, especially as families look for more offline activities and ways to manage stress in the context of physical distancing and COVID-19." — School Library Journal

"Crafting Calm is filled with a wonderful assortment of creative activities and practices that will engage kids to help them put mindfulness into practice. This is a fantastic resource for parents and educators." — Gabi Garcia, author of Listening to My Body

"A wonderful, hands-on approach to mindfulness and creativity. Parents and teachers will find themselves calming down alongside their children as they ease into each creative activity." — Dr. Christopher Willard, PsyD, author of Growing Up Mindful, Alphabreaths, and Breathing Makes It Better

"Crafting Calm is a beautifully illustrated treasury of activities to help children focus their mind, engage their heart, and share their wisdom with the world." — Whitney Stewart, author of Mindful Me: Mindfulness and Meditation for Kids

"Crafting Calm manages to be both upbeat and soothing, a thoroughly satisfying blend of mindfulness crafts, 'Put It to Use' applications, and exercises." — Kate Coombs, author of Breathe and Be

Mindfulness is a powerful practice to help kids find calm in the midst of everyday stress – but how to make it accessible and fun?

In Crafting Calm: Art and Activities for Mindful Kids, kids engage in and practice mindfulness through fun and easy exercises, quizzes, crafts, and activities, with the goal of learning a deeper sense of calm, peace, joy, and connection to the world around them, all while improving intelligence, boosting self-esteem, and reducing anxiety. Perfect for kids to do alone or with the help of an adult, the activities in Crafting Calm will have kids playing, tinkering, creating, and doodling their way to peaceful, balanced minds.

YOU ARE REVOLUTIONARY

Cindy Wang Brandt, illustrated
by Lynnor Bontigao

Beaming Books, October 2021

You have what it takes to change the world!

This is the empowering message parenting author and podcaster Cindy Wang Brandt wants every child to hear and embrace. In this inspiring picture book she speaks to every child who sees injustice in the world, revealing that they already have inside themselves everything they need to make big, transformative change in the world--just as they are. Every kid is a revolutionary! You don't need to wait until you grow up. You don't even need any special skills. Kids who are loud, kids who are quiet, kids who make art, kids who are good at math, kids with lots of energy, kids who are good listeners--all kids have what it takes to make a difference.

Lynnor Bontigao's vibrant illustrations feature a diverse group of children taking up a call to action and using their individual gifts to change the world.

HOW TO TRAIN YOUR PET BRAIN

Nelly Buchet, illustrated by Amy Jindra

Beaming Books, February 2022

Your brain is like a pet in need of training. By you.

How does it feel to smile, or to stick out your bottom lip? With heart and humor, How to Train Your Pet Brain invites kids to explore how their bodies and minds work together to process emotions. Told from the perspective of a child, this unexpectedly funny take on the tricky topic of mental health follows two characters learning to train their pet brains. Lighthearted illustrations paired with grounded language help kids understand why their brain does what it does, teaches that big feelings are okay, and guides kids through a simple practice to help them feel calm.

Praise for ZOEY AND SASSAFRAS series:

"Concepts are explained concisely and clearly, and a short glossary provides valuable vocabulary building. The slightly larger font makes the text inviting for emerging readers, and the illustrations blend perfectly into the story. Sassafras and the dragon prove to be able sidekicks in the vein of Disney characters...while this book is a natural fit for STEM collections, it deserves a place in all libraries serving young readers." —School Library Journal

"...the imaginative premise and the incorporation of STEM elements make this an attractive and engaging choice..."
—Booklist

"Citra gracefully balances her story's scientific and fantasy elements."
—Publishers Weekly

Oh dear . . . when Pip shows up with a new look that's just as much of a surprise to him as to Zoey and Sassafras, the trio knows something strange is happening in the forest. They retrace Pip's steps only to see another magical friend change right before their eyes! It's up to the team to figure out what is happening and how to change the magical animals back before things get any more serious . . .

With magical animals, science, mystery, and adventure—the ZOEY AND SASSAFRAS series has something for everyone! Easy-to-read language and illustrations on nearly every page make this series perfect for a wide range of ages. These plot-driven early chapter books boast 13 to 18 quick chapters and a glossary of scientific words.

STRONGMAN

The Rise of Five Dictators and the Fall of Democracy

Kenneth C. Davis

Henry Holt, October 2020

Praise for STRONGMAN:

"History's warnings reverberate in this gripping read about five dictatorial strongmen. A pitch-perfect balance of nuanced reflection and dire warning."

—Kirkus Reviews, starred review

"This captivating history of five deprived 'strongmen' offers a timely warning about the need to protect democracy.... A fascinating, highly readable portrayal of infamous men that provides urgent lessons for democracy now."

—Publishers Weekly, starred review

"Rarely does a history book take such an unflinching look at our common future, where the very presence of democracy is less than certain; even rarer is a history book in which the author's moral convictions incite young readers to civic engagement; rarest of all, a history book as urgent, as impassioned, and as timely as Kenneth C. Davis' Strongman."

—Eugene Yelchin, author of the Newbery Honor book Breaking Stalin's Nose

From the bestselling author of the Don't Know Much About® books comes a dramatic account of the origins of democracy, the history of authoritarianism, and the reigns of five of history's deadliest dictators.

What makes a country fall to a dictator? How do authoritarian leaders—strongmen—capable of killing millions acquire their power? How are they able to defeat the ideal of democracy? And what can we do to make sure it doesn't happen again?

By profiling five of the most notoriously ruthless dictators in history—Adolf Hitler, Benito Mussolini, Joseph Stalin, Mao Zedong, and Saddam Hussein—Kenneth C. Davis seeks to answer these questions, examining the forces in these strongmen's personal lives and historical periods that shaped the leaders they'd become.

Meticulously researched and complete with photographs, Strongman provides insight into the lives of five leaders who callously transformed the world and serves as an invaluable resource in an era when democracy itself seems in peril.

MORE DEADLY THAN WAR

The Hidden History of the Spanish Flu and the First World War

Kenneth C. Davis

Henry Holt Books for Young Readers, May 2018

A Junior Library Guild Selection
A Washington Post Best Children's Book of the Month

Praise for MORE DEADLY THAN WAR:

"Davis' account untangles the scientific advances, international conflicts and cultural currents that shaped this catastrophic event."

—The Washington Post

"Davis deftly juggles compelling storytelling, gruesome details, and historical context. More Deadly Than War reads like a terrifying dystopian novel—that happens to be true."

—Steve Sheinkin, author of *Bomb and Undefeated

"More Deadly Than War is a riveting story of the great influenza pandemic of 1918, packed with unforgettable examples of the power of a virus gone rogue. Kenneth C. Davis's book serves as an important history—and an important reminder that we could very well face such a threat again."

—Deborah Blum, New York Times bestselling author of *The Poison Guide: One Chemist's Single-Minded Crusade for Food Safety at the Turn of the Twentieth Century

"With eye-popping details, Kenneth C. Davis tracks the deadly flu that shifted the powers in World War I and changed the course of world history. In an age of Ebola and Zika, this vivid account is a cautionary tale that will have you rushing to wash your hands for protection."

—Karen Blumenthal, award-winning author of *Jane Against the World: Roe v. Wade and the Fight for Reproductive Rights

"Davis once again makes history accessible for students from the middle grades through high school."

—VOYA, Starred Review

"Engaging and illuminating."

—Booklist

"The smooth narrative excels at connecting the epidemic and the war . . . informative."

—Kirkus Reviews

"Davis puts a human face on the pandemic, interlacing tales of political, military, and civilian luminaries struck by the flu... Davis also assiduously documents modern medical research and puts the pandemic in the context of medical history."

—Publishers Weekly

New York Times* bestselling author Kenneth C. Davis explores the hidden history of the Spanish influenza pandemic during World War I.

2018 marked the 100th anniversary of the worst disease outbreak in modern times: the Spanish flu, a story even more relevant today. This dramatic narrative, told through the stories and voices of the people caught in the deadly maelstrom, explores how this vast, global epidemic was intertwined with the horrors of World War I—and how it could happen again.

Complete with photographs, period documents, modern research, and firsthand reports by medical professionals and survivors, More Deadly Than War provides captivating insight into a catastrophe that transformed America in the early twentieth century.

A KID'S GUIDE TO SAVING THE PLANET

It's Not Hopeless and We're Not Helpless

Paul Douglas, illustrated by Chelen Écija

Beaming Books, March 2022

The Earth is warming. The climate is changing. Sea levels are on the rise, and plastic is showing up... everywhere.

We have every reason to be concerned about our planet, our only home. New inventions and technologies will help, but cleaning up the planet--saving the world--will require all of us to pay attention and take action. What can you do to help? Plenty!

Despite what you may hear on the news, the situation isn't hopeless, and we aren't helpless. In this inspiring, informative book, nationally recognized meteorologist Paul Douglas clearly and thoughtfully presents the daunting problems of climate change. And he offers realistic solutions (including some that are already working!) and actions that kids can participate in now. It's imperative that we all step up and become part of the solution, by engaging in new, smarter ways of living.

SOME DADDIES

Carol Gordon Ekster, illustrated
by Javiera Maclean Alvarez

Beaming Books, May 2022

Every daddy is different--and that makes them even more special!

"Some daddies teach you about the world. Others attend tea parties. Some help turn blankets into forts. Others hold you steady while you pedal."

This rollicking showcase of daddies celebrates the incredible diversity of modern fathers. The inclusive cast of characters--including a two-dad family, a single dad, and a stay-at-home dad--highlights the bond between daddy and child as they play, learn, comfort, and laugh their way through everyday life. This open-hearted ode to fatherhood will give readers new appreciation for how their own fathers and father-figures shine in their own unique ways.

Some Daddies is the perfect gift for a new dad, Father's Day, or any occasion for parents and educators to read with their kids. Carol Gordon Ekster's playful text is illustrated with the quirky, colorful artwork of Javiera Maclean Alvarez, making this picture book a wonderful read-aloud.

ONCE UPON ANOTHER TIME

Matt Forrest Esenwine and Charles Ghigna,
illustrated by Andrés F. Landazábal

Beaming Books, March 2021

Praise for ONCE UPON ANOTHER TIME:

“Beautiful images of long ago come together with lyrical text to transport readers to a past that is almost forgotten but that we would benefit to remember.... A necessary addition to picture-book collections.”

—Booklist

“In upbeat rhyming couplets, Esenwine and Ghigna paint a portrait of the world pre-Anthropocene.... this is an evocative encouragement to experience the glory of nature.”

—Publishers Weekly

“For Earth Day shelves, but all year around. It’s a near-perfect way to remind children of all their planet has to offer.”

—School Library Journal

“Ghigna and Esenwine take readers through an exploration of the world as it was before humans made their mark. Sweeping landscapes and up-close details of the natural world invite readers of all ages to appreciate, explore, and protect our planet.”

—Publishers Weekly, Environmental Kids' Books for 2021

“This poetic ode... packs an understated, powerful punch about stewardship. Without an ounce of sanctimony, it vitally conveys how humans have transformed Earth’s landscape.... Luminous illustrations span the long sweep of history.... This stellar book is sure to send kids outdoors equipped with new ways of observing and appreciating their surroundings.”

—BookPage, Feature: Earth Day for Young Readers

Once upon another time,
the world was young and new.
If you want to know this world,
there’s something you can do...

With sweeping landscapes and up-close details of the natural world, Once Upon Another Time takes readers through a lyrical exploration of the world as it was before humans made their mark. Contrasting the past with the present, this expansive picture book serves as a warm invitation for children--and all people--to appreciate, explore, and protect the magic and wonder of this planet we call home.

Once Upon Another Time is a stunning portrait of a world that used to exist, and can still be found--if you just know where to look.

EVELYN THE ADVENTUROUS ENTOMOLOGIST

The True Story of a World-Traveling Bug Hunter

Christine Evans, Illustrations by Yasmin Imamura

Innovation Press, September 2019

Praise for EVELYN THE ADVENTUROUS ENTOMOLOGIST:

“Lucy Evelyn Cheesman, who went by her middle name, studied to be a canine nurse and later became the first woman curator of the London Zoo’s insect house. Evelyn traveled across the globe to study and gather specimens of insects; this was her passion.... This volume highlights key points of Evelyn’s life, and she is always portrayed as a wide-eyed, jaunty, inquisitive person who never let societal norms keep her down. The book’s tag line emphasizes the fact that ‘she went anyway.’ This is a great mantra for readers of this work. VERDICT A valued addition for all STEM collections and one that may especially inspire young women facing similar adversity.” —School Library Journal

Back in 1881, when Evelyn Cheesman was born, English girls were expected to be clean and dressed in frilly dresses. But Evelyn crawled in dirt and collected glow worms in jars. When girls grew up they were expected to marry and look after children. But Evelyn took charge of the London Zoo insect house, filling it with crawling and fluttering specimens and breathing life back into the dusty exhibits. In the early 1920s, women were expected to stay home, but Evelyn embarked on eight solo expeditions to distant islands. She collected over 70,000 insect specimens, discovered new species, had tangles with sticky spider webs, and tumbled from a cliff. Inspire children to believe in their dreams and blaze their own trail with the story of Evelyn’s amazing life!

GOD MADE ALL YOUR FEELINGS

Amanda Flinn, illustrated by Sejung Kim

Beaming Books, February 2022

God made me and God made you. God made our minds and our feelings, too!

We all have lots and lots of feelings. For young children, feelings can be overwhelming and difficult to manage. This sweet picture book explores the wide variety of emotions kids experience--happiness, sadness, anger, fear, and others--and gently reassures them that it is okay to feel these feelings and that God is with us through all the ups and downs. The book affirms young children with the message that all our emotions help us grow and that no matter how we are feeling, God loves us.

YOGA BABY

Amanda Flinn, illustrated by Shane Crampton

Beaming Books, June 2020

Praise for YOGA BABY:

"Recommended to encourage playful, patient parenting."

—Kirkus Review

A celebration of bodies and play for yoga-loving parents and little ones.

Reaching, bending, rocking, and swaying--these are just a few of the moves a bouncy little baby tries when her mother practices yoga throughout the day. In the midst of a busy day, yoga turns out to be a surprising source of connection, fun, and giggles for mother and child. Surprising and silly, Yoga Baby proves that it's never too early for parents and children to explore together what their bodies can do--never too early, in short, for the life-giving practice of yoga!

A guide in the back of the book provides tips and tricks for incorporating yoga practice into daily life with a young child.

Shane Crampton was born in St. Andrews, Scotland. She spent her childhood years growing up there, as well as in Aberdeen and the Shetland Islands. At the ripe old age of 29 she moved from Scotland to the other end of the country, to sunny (sometimes) Cornwall in South West England, where she still lives today with her husband and four sons and their two ridiculous dogs. Daughter to an extremely talented artistic and musical father, she was encouraged from an early age to embrace her creativity as much as possible by both parents.

HATTIE HATES HUGS

Sarah Hovorka, illustrated by
Heather Brockman Lee

Beaming Books, April 2022

Hattie loves her family, but she hates hugs!

While at a family reunion, Hattie wants to play horseshoes with Uncle Jake and Aunt Celia, but her boisterous relatives keep hugging her. Hattie's stomach squirms uncomfortably when she's hugged, but dodging and hiding from the open arms isn't working. Great-Grandma is the only relative who understands how Hattie feels. With Great-Grandma's help, Hattie learns to use simple but clear body language with verbal reinforcement to set boundaries around her personal space and to assert her right to consent to physical touch. And she even wins a game of horseshoes!

This picture book will teach huggers and non-huggers alike the importance of respecting people's personal boundaries and provides an example of how to advocate for yourself with confidence.

MONSTERS LIKE US

Amy Huntington

Beaming Books, April 2021

A fun new twist on a monster picture book about how kids and monsters are more alike than different.

Monsters may look and act scary, but deep down they're not so different from you and me. They talk and giggle, they read and clean their rooms, and they have ENORMOUS chompers for...eating ice cream!

This humorous book will have kids giggling and turning the pages as they discover that monsters aren't so scary after all--and discover their own inner monster.

Amy Huntington began painting in kindergarten, using the ends of her pigtailed brushes. She drew castles, bicycles, sleds, cats, and her siblings with the chicken pox. In summer she wrote poems while tucked in the branches of her favorite tree.

Her first picture book, One Monday, had both Huntington's words and her art. She has since illustrated numerous books, including Grandma Drove the Garbage Truck; Fresh-Picked Poetry: Poems from the Farmer's Market; and NINE: A Book of Nonet Poems. Huntington lives with her husband, two wild cats, some hens, and two sheep in an old Vermont farmhouse that needs lots of care.

THE GIRL WITH BIG, BIG QUESTIONS

Britney Winn Lee, illustrated by Jacob Souva

Beaming Books, August 2021

"Why can't people live on the moon?"

"Can I be president when I grow up?"

"What makes a person good?"

These are just some of the questions that bubble forth from one little girl with twinkling eyes and a curious mind. When the girl finds that her big questions make some people uncomfortable, she stops. But then she learns that her questions can solve problems and that asking questions is how we learn and grow.

Celebrate the spirit of curiosity and the joy of learning with this lively picture book about a persistent girl and her quest for knowledge.

THE BOY WITH BIG, BIG FEELINGS

Britney Winn Lee, illustrated by Jacob Souva

Beaming Books, August 2019

Celebrates the gift of a sensitive spirit in a world that works to snuff it out.

Meet a boy with feelings so big that they glow from his cheeks, spill out of his eyes, and jump up and down on his chest. When a loud truck drives by, he cries. When he hears a joke, he bursts with joy. When his loved ones are having a hard day, he feels their emotions as if they were his own. The boy tries to cope by stuffing down his feelings, but with a little help and artistic inspiration, the boy realizes his feelings are something to be celebrated. Written by debut picture book author Britney Winn Lee and boldly illustrated by Jacob Souva, The Boy with Big, Big Feelings is relatable for any child, but especially for children experiencing anxiety and extreme emotions, or who have been diagnosed with autism or as a Highly Sensitive Person.

ALL ABOUT ANXIETY

Carrie Lewis, illustrated by Sophia Touliatou

Beaming Books, July 2020

Praise for ALL ABOUT ANXIETY:

"An approachable resource for those interested in mental health."
—Publishers Weekly

"A solid introduction to anxiety management."
—Kirkus Reviews

An engaging handbook designed to equip readers to better understand anxiety and give them tools to manage it.

Anxiety. It's an emotion that rears its head almost every day, from the normal worries and concerns that most of us experience, to outright fear when something scary happens, to the anxiety disorders that many kids live with daily. But what causes anxiety? And what can we do about it?

All About Anxiety tackles these questions from every possible angle. Readers will learn what's going on in their brain and central nervous system when they feel anxious. They'll learn about the evolutionary reasons for fear and anxiety and that anxiety isn't always a bad thing--except for when it is! Most importantly, kids will discover new strategies to manage their anxiety so they can live and thrive with anxiety.

PRIMA GINA, BALLERINA

Kelly Mangan, illustrated by Anuki López

Beaming Books, January 2022

"Ballet makes me happy," Gina said. "Why can't I be a ballerina too?"

Gina wants nothing more than to dance ballet, but people doubt her because her body looks different from most ballerinas. When Gina enters a talent show to prove her skill, she must overcome both the unkindness of others and her own doubts. Through courage and determination, and drawing inspiration from a hero, Gina wows the audience and, along the way, provides encouragement to another person who needs it.

Prima Gina, Ballerina is a lively story about body positivity and how dance is for everyone, regardless of their size, shape, or gender. Readers will delight in Gina's positive attitude, determination, and inspiration. Get ready to be swept off your feet by Gina's flourish, flair, and grace!

LaRonda Gardner Middlemiss is a picture book author who formerly worked as an engineer in corporate America. Her son's love of story time, which for him meant any time, immersed her in the wonderful world of picture books. Enjoying books with various themes and approaches to storytelling, from the quirky to the quiet, eventually inspired her to begin writing stories of her own. When not busy battling wits with her husband or having fun with her son, she enjoys listening to children's book themed podcasts, gaining insight from NPR, and watching movies. She also likes creating art and hopes to someday illustrate her own books. LaRonda writes books to entertain, enlighten, and empower children across the globe. She resides in Kernersville, North Carolina.

Beth Hughes is an artist who loves animals and nature and bright colors. She enjoys playing around with colors and shapes and, most of all, telling great stories. She has studied at Ringling College of Art and Design, as well as Sheridan College. In the past she has done character design, visual development, and illustration work and is now working as a freelance illustrator.

THE ASTRONAUT WITH A SONG FOR THE STARS

The Story of Dr. Ellen Ochoa

Julia Finley Mosca, Illustrations by Daniel Rieley

Innovation Press, September 2019

Part of the Amazing Scientists Series

Praise for THE ASTRONAUT WITH A SONG FOR THE STARS:

★ "This delightful book combines poetry and whimsical artwork to tell Ochoa's story, the world's first Latina in space, and the hard work and perseverance that got her all the way to the stars. A must purchase for all elementary science and biography collections."

—School Library Journal, starred review

Meet Dr. Ellen Ochoa—a determined space pioneer with a stellar symphony of talents.

Growing up in a family of immigrants, Ellen dreamed of becoming a professional flutist, but all of that changed when she discovered engineering in college. Though she was told that field of study wasn't for girls, the bright young scientist refused to give up—ultimately becoming a NASA astronaut who shattered barriers and rocketed to success!

The Astronaut With a Song for the Stars: The Story of Dr. Ellen Ochoa is the fourth book in a riveting educational series about the inspiring lives of amazing scientists. In addition to the illustrated rhyming tale, you'll find a complete biography, fun facts, a colorful timeline of events, and even a note from Dr. Ochoa herself!

A GIRL'S BILL OF RIGHTS

Amy B. Mucha, illustrated by Addy Rivera Sonda

Beaming Books, February 2021

Praise for A GIRL'S BILL OF RIGHTS:

"A celebration of girl power in picture-book form... the art opens up lots of opportunities for discussion about what may trigger the articulation of any particular right."

—Kirkus Reviews

"A must for libraries and girls' organizations."

—The Pioneer Press

A bold and powerful message about a girl's right to confidence, freedom, and consent.

"I have the right to be bold, and mighty, and LOUD!"

In a world where little girls must learn to stand tall, A Girl's Bill of Rights boldly declares the rights of every woman and girl: power, confidence, freedom, and consent. Author Amy B. Mucha and illustrator Addy Rivera Sonda present a diverse cast of characters standing up for themselves and proudly celebrating the joy and power of being a girl.

Amy B. Mucha grew up in New York and New Jersey and now lives in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, with her husband, two children, two spoiled dogs, four superior cats, and hundreds of books. When she isn't writing, she can be found reading, daydreaming, sipping tea, and eating chocolate medicinally. Amy is passionate about empowering girls and women everywhere to love themselves, embrace and support all the girls in their lives, and speak loud for what's right.

Addy Rivera Sonda is a Mexican illustrator, who loves color and nature. When she is not drawing, she devotes a great part of her time to learning and exploring ways in which we could live kinder and more sustainable lives.

Her biggest inspiration for drawing is that she knows that stories and art can shape the way people understand themselves and perceive others, building empathy and ultimately a happier, more inclusive world.

LITTLE MOLE'S CHRISTMAS GIFT

Glenys Nellist, illustrated by Sally Garland

Beaming Books, October 2020

Praise for LITTLE MOLE'S CHRISTMAS GIFT:

"This compassionate Christmas fable emphasizes classic morals: that the heart behind a gift matters more than the gift itself."

—Publishers Weekly

"A warm wintertime read with a message for any time of year."

—Kirkus Review

A Christmas tale of generosity and kindness from Glenys Nellist to continue the Little Mole picture book series.

Bestselling author Glenys Nellist tells a Christmas tale of generosity and kindness.

It was going to be the best Christmas ever because Little Mole had found the perfect gift for Mama: the biggest, most beautiful mushroom he had ever seen. But on his way home, Little Mole encounters other woodland friends in need. Though it pains him to do so, Little Mole shares pieces of his mushroom with each friend he meets until there's not much left. Disappointed and anxious about what this means for Christmas, Little Mole wraps what's left of the mushroom. He fears Christmas is ruined, but ultimately, Little Mole discovers that his gift was bigger than he ever imagined.

PINK IS FOR BOYS

Robb Pearlman, illustrated by

Eda Kaban

Running Press, 2018

Pink is for boys . . . and girls . . . and everyone! This timely and beautiful picture book rethinks and reframes the stereotypical blue/pink gender binary and empowers kids -- and their grown-ups -- to express themselves in every color of the rainbow. Featuring a diverse group of relatable characters, Pink Is for Boys invites and encourages girls and boys to enjoy what they love to do, whether it's racing cars and playing baseball, or loving unicorns and dressing up. Vibrant illustrations help children learn and identify the myriad colors that surround them every day, from the orange of a popsicle, to the green of a grassy field, all the way up to the wonder of a multicolored rainbow.

Parents and kids will delight in Robb Pearlman's sweet, simple script, as well as its powerful message: life is not color-coded.

FLY, GIRL, FLY!

Shaesta Waiz Soars Around the World

Nancy Roe Pimm, illustrated by Alexandra Bye

Beaming Books, September 2020

Praise for FLY, GIRL, FLY!:

"An inspiring celebration of passion, dedication, and success."

—Kirkus Reviews

"Bye's colorful illustrations are emotive and elegant. Readers will be inspired to chase their own dreams."

—School Library Journal

The story of how Shaesta Waiz became the youngest woman in history, and the first woman from Afghanistan, to circle the globe in a single-engine aircraft.

"You must believe in yourself and allow your dreams to soar."

--Shaesta Waiz

Shaesta Waiz, a refugee from Afghanistan, dreamed of doing great things. But first she had to leave a refugee camp with her family to make a new life in America, overcome gender stereotypes, be the first in her family to go to college, and overcome her fear of flying. After becoming a pilot, Shaesta made the flight of a lifetime by crossing five continents, making thirty stops in twenty-two countries across nearly 25,000 nautical miles. At the age of thirty, Shaesta was the youngest woman and the first from Afghanistan to circumnavigate the globe by herself in a single-engine aircraft.

Fly, Girl, Fly! is the first authorized picture book biography of Shaesta Waiz. Backmatter includes more information about Shaesta's mission to empower girls to pursue STEM careers, details about her historic trip around the world, information about her nonprofit organization Dreams Soar, and a personal note from Shaesta Waiz encouraging girls to pursue their dreams.

SQUIRREL'S SWEATER

Laura Renauld, illustrated by Jennie Poh

Beaming Books, September 2021

As Winter Warmup approaches, all but one of the woodland friends are bundled up for the snowy season ahead.

Bear, Porcupine, and Doe are all ready to hunker down for winter, but not Squirrel. When she discovers that the sweater her grandma knit for her has shrunk, she doesn't know what to do! No amount of stretching or sewing or help from her friends seems to fix her favorite sweater. But perhaps it doesn't need to stay a sweater to remind her of her grandma and her friends?

The colorful gang of woodland friends from Porcupine's Pie and Bear's Bicycle return to help Squirrel as she learns to navigate and accept change. A final spread features an activity that teaches young readers how to transform their own piece of clothing into something new.

BEAR'S BICYCLE

Laura Renauld, illustrated by Jennie Poh

Beaming Books, April 2021

Praise for BEAR'S BICYCLE:

"The message of perseverance is augmented with fine-lined cartoon drawings offering depth and color to a kind, purposeful narrative.... This story of determination and friendship is simply and consistently told."

—Kirkus Reviews

"The illustrations encapsulate summer fun, with bright bicycles unique to every character's personality, and the final pages provide a primer on bicycle safety."

—Foreword Reviews

Porcupine, Doe, Squirrel, and Bear discover they all learn in different ways in this tale of perseverance and friendship.

Our woodland friends from Porcupine's Pie are back, and Summer Scoot, the big community bike ride, is right around the corner!

Bear, Porcupine, Doe, and Squirrel all eagerly prepare for the festival on wheels. But even after studying every book on bikes he can find, Bear still struggles to get the hang of riding. While he is on his way to the library for a new book, his friends teach Bear that everyone learns in different ways, and by practicing together, they will all master riding their bikes. The woodland friends inspire each other in a tale of practice, perseverance, and friendship. A final spread features tips from one of Bear's books: bike safety, caring for your bike, and fun ways to decorate it.

RAINBOW BOY

Taylor Rouanzion, illustrated by
Stacey Chomiak

Beaming Books, January 2021

One of Lambda Literary's Most Anticipated LGBTQ
Books of January 2021

Praise for RAINBOW BOY:

"Dynamic digital illustrations by Chomiak highlight the child's energy and imagination. While the ending feels slightly abrupt, the narrative clearly encourages readers to avoid projecting limiting binary social norms."

—Publishers Weekly

"Ever-empowering... the bright, colorful images will pull your little one in from the very first page."

—PopSugar.com Feature

A picture book about a world of colors and a little boy who refuses to choose just one favorite.

A story about a boy with a heart too big for one color alone.

A little boy attempts to answer one of grown-ups' all-time favorite questions: "What's your favorite color?" But with so many wonderful colors to choose from, he doesn't know how to answer. He loves his pink sparkly tutu, bright red roses, soft yellow baby doll pajamas, and big, orange basketball. How will he ever pick?

BIG BEAR WAS NOT THE SAME

Joanna Rowland, illustrated by John Ledda

Beaming Books, August 2021

Praise for BIG BEAR WAS NOT THE SAME:

"An accessible, age-appropriate primer that sheds light on trauma and PTSD."

—Publishers Weekly

One scary day can change everything . . .

Little Bear loves the woods, his home, and going on adventures with his best friend, Big Bear. Big Bear is so big and strong and brave. He always protects Little Bear and helps him feel safe. Then something scary happens to Big Bear. He's caught in a forest fire. Even after he escapes and is safe, Little Bear can tell that Big Bear is not the same. He runs, roars, or freezes in fear when ordinary things happen in the woods that remind him of that traumatic day. How can Little Bear's big, strong, brave friend be so scared now? And how can Little Bear be a good friend?

In Big Bear Was Not the Same, Joanna Rowland, author of the bestselling book The Memory Box, gently introduces young readers to the common feelings of fear, anxiety, and anger that can follow a traumatic event, and shows them how to have empathy and compassion for themselves and for loved ones experiencing the effects of trauma.

Includes backmatter written by a family therapist with information on how to talk about trauma with children.

Beaming Books, March 2021

Praise for WHEN THINGS ARE HARD, REMEMBER:

“The book’s broad, spiritual message merges.... A reassuring read for uncertain times.”

—Booklist

A lesson on change and finding hope in new growth waiting to burst forth.

On days when your faith is shaken, remember...

A seed falls to the ground. A child moves away from home. Can life bloom in a new place?

With gentle storytelling and poetic language, Joanna Rowland explores what it means to have hope--hope that things will get better, hope that you are cared for even when things are hard, and hope that new growth is waiting to burst forth, just around the corner?

LITTLE EWE

The Story of One Lost Sheep

Laura Sassi, illustrated by Tommy Doyle

Beaming Books, February 2021

Award-winning author Laura Sassi tells the story of one lost sheep and teaches a counting lesson in Little Ewe!

Little Ewe would rather jump on logs and investigate spider webs than follow the shepherd when he calls. But what happens when she gets lost? How will she find her way home? Told in whimsical rhyme, this humorous counting book for our littlest ones is a delightful reminder that, like a loving parent, our Shepherd will find us and care for us, even when we wander from the path.

In Little Ewe: The Story of One Lost Sheep, award-winning author Laura Sassi and illustrator Tommy Doyle tell an endearing tale of a distracted sheep and her persistent shepherd, inspired by the Parable of the Lost Sheep in Luke 15.

BELLA'S RECIPE FOR SUCCESS

Ana Siqueira, illustrated by Geraldine Rodriguez

Beaming Books, July 2021

Featured on the We Need Diverse Books blog!

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again.

Bella wants to find out what she's good at. But she quits everything she (barely) tries because she's a disaster at it. Her somersaults are like clumsy jirafas rolling downhill, her piano playing like elephant feet. When she decides to learn how to bake with her wise old abuela, her first attempt at dulce de leche frosting looks like scaly cocodrilo skin. She must learn it's okay to try again or she won't be good at anything. Peppered with Spanish vocabulary and set in an intergenerational Latinx home, Bella's Recipe for Success will show all kids the value of practicing to learn a new skill, and that it's okay to make mistakes along the way.

A recipe for Polvorones con Dulce de Leche is included at the back of the book so kids can have fun making their own.

FINDING BEAUTY

Talitha Shipman

Beaming Books, February 2021

A message that will inspire girls of all ages to ambitiously find beauty and make beauty wherever they go.

You are beautiful from the top of your head to the tip of your toes--but beauty is far more than something you can have. It's also something you have to find. In other people. In nature. In acts of kindness. In math, and art, and music, and sports.

In this beautiful inspirational book for girls, author-illustrator Talitha Shipman turns the concept of beauty inside out, transforming girls into beauty-seeking adventurers charging out into the world with confidence and ambition to find beauty and make beauty wherever they go.

YOUR NAME IS A SONG

Jamilah Thompkins-Bigelow,
illustrated by Luisa Uribe

Innovation Press, July 2020

Praise for YOUR NAME IS A SONG:

★ "This lovely celebration of African American culture, featuring a Muslim family, offers a fresh way to look at the tradition of creating new names. . . A delightful celebration."

—Kirkus Reviews, starred review

Frustrated by a day full of teachers and classmates mispronouncing her beautiful name, a little girl tells her mother she never wants to come back to school. In response, the girl's mother teaches her about the musicality of African, Asian, Black-American, Latinx, and Middle Eastern names on their lyrical walk home through the city. Empowered by this newfound understanding, the young girl is ready to return the next day to share her knowledge with her class. Your Name is a Song is a celebration to remind all of us about the beauty, history, and magic behind names.

OUR FATHER IN HEAVEN

A Lord's Prayer Pop-Up Book

Agostino Traini

Beaming Books, August 2021

Our Father in Heaven, hallowed be your name...

The prayer that Jesus taught to his disciples is one of the most famous sacred texts in the world, spoken each Sunday in different languages by Christians across countries and denominations. In this book, the timeless prayer is given a respectful pop-up treatment by world-renowned paper artist Agostino Traini, who brings the well-known words to life in surprising ways. Introduce this prayer to children in a way that connects the ancient words to their lives today--or buy it as a keepsake for someone at any age. A must-have for any Christian's bookshelf.

Amy Webb, illustrated by Merrilee

Liddiard

Beaming Books, September 2020

WHEN CHARLEY MET EMMA Featured on Former First Lady Laura Bush's Must-Read Books for Kids Summer 2021

Praise for AWESOMELY EMMA:

"An inclusive depiction of a disabled girl who declares that bodies may be different but none are wrong. With a main character who confidently navigates her world and deals with strong emotions in a positive way, this title has a clear theme of self-empowerment." —School Library Journal

A Charley and Emma story about disability, accessibility, and standing up for yourself.

"I love being me, because me is an awesome thing to be!"

Emma has limb differences, but different isn't bad, sad, or strange. It's just different! But when some accessibility problems get in the way at the local art museum, it ruins the fun of a class trip...and then Emma's friend Charley makes things even worse! In the middle of a really bad day, Emma has to call upon her sense of inner awesome to stand up for herself and teach everyone a lesson about the transformative power of feeling awesome in your own skin.

Amy Webb's follow-up to When Charley Met Emma, Awesomely Emma will have all kids cheering as they learn to see the inner awesome in themselves and those around them.

TOFU TAKES TIME

Helen H. Wu, illustrated by Julie Jarema

Beaming Books, April 2022

Homemade tofu is good, and good things take time.

CLICK CLACK WHIRRRR . . . Lin and her grandma, NaiNai, are making tofu from scratch! When NaiNai goes through each step, from blending soybeans with water to molding curd into shape, Lin gradually becomes impatient. But she soon discovers that making tofu not only takes time, but also takes the whole universe! It takes the seed from soil and sunshine, the cloth from thread and fiber, weight and space, books of words and pictures. And most of all, it takes spending lovely time with her beloved grandmother.

In this charming tale by Helen H. Wu,, readers will marvel at how patience brings a whole universe together in a simple dish made by a modern Chinese American family. Perfect for fans of Fry Bread, Drawn Together and Thank You, Omu.

Praise for COURAGEOUS CREATIVITY:

"This inspirational and powerful work affirms readers with the underlying message: Fear not! Inspiring and honest, this smart book offers both compassion and practical instruction."

—Kirkus Reviews

"A good title to have in school or public library collections to inspire young creatives, especially young writers."

—School Library Journal

National Book Award finalist Sara Zarr will help you face down your fears, let go of expectations, stop comparing yourself to others, and make your art with courage.

Being creative takes courage.

It can be scary to create something. Before you can even work on your craft, you have to face down the fear of messing up or looking silly, the perfectionism that keeps you from even starting, and the negative voices inside your head that say you don't have anything valuable to offer.

Well, you do have something to offer! Being creative is a right, and in this book, National Book Award finalist Sara Zarr will help you get started. Her advice and encouragement are paired with exercises to help you face down your fears, let go of expectations, stop comparing yourself to others, and make your art with courage. A perfect gift for anyone who wants to be creative but doesn't know where to start, or for people who've been doing creativity for a while but want more inspiration, Courageous Creativity will empower readers to express themselves with self-confidence, bravery, and joy

THE CURIOUS KID'S SCIENCE BOOK

100+ Creative Hands-On Activities for Ages 4-8

Asia Citro

Innovation Press, September 2015

Praise for THE CURIOUS KID'S SCIENCE BOOK:

"The Curious Kid's Science Book is not just another book of experiments to fill a rainy day. This book guides parents through the process of inspiring a sense curiosity in children, and developing a set of skills to help them problem solve, and be scientific thinkers...Full of easy, fun, and meaningful science activities, its real value is its approach to helping parents inspire a sense of exploration and discovery that will benefit their children long after they have grown." —Bob Pflugfelder, Founder of ScienceBob.com and seen on Jimmy Kimmel Live and Live with Kelly and Michael

"This is a delightful book that draws on a child's natural curiosity to impart the basics of scientific inquiry...Children will love it and parents will learn some things, too."—Dr. Henry L. Roediger, Distinguished Professor at Washington University in St. Louis and author of Make It Stick: The Science of Successful Learning

"What The Curious Kid's Science Book does so well, which so many science books for kids tend to miss, is the celebration of this innate curiosity and penchant for experimentation...This book encourages children...to ask their own questions and think like real scientists!"
—Rachelle Doorleym, Arts Educator at TinkerLab.com and author of Tinkerlab: A Hands-On Guide for Little Inventors

What happens if you water plants with juice? Where can you find bacteria in your house? Is slug slime as strong as a glue stick?

In The Curious Kid's Science Book, your child will learn to design his or her own science investigations to determine the answers! Children will learn to ask their own scientific questions, discover value in failed experiments, and—most importantly—have a blast with science. The 100+ hands-on activities in the book use household items to playfully teach important science, technology, engineering, and math skills. Each creative activity includes age-appropriate explanations and real life applications of the concepts covered. Adding science to your at-home schedule will make a positive impact on your child's learning. Just one experiment a week will help build children's confidence and excitement about the sciences, boost success in the classroom, and give them the tools to design and execute their own science fair projects.

PIGEON MATH

Asia Citro, illustrated by Richard Watson

Innovation Press, September 2019

Praise for PIGEON MATH:

"Readers can see right on the wire there that if six pigeons fly off, that leaves four—math at its most accessible...Citro's exasperated text works hand in glove with Watson's comical birds to make this counting game a joy rather than a task. The narrative text expresses equations in words, and corresponding number sentences are tucked into the scenes. Good fun for early counters." —Kirkus Reviews

Telling a story about pigeons should be simple. But what's a narrator to do when the number of feathered friends is constantly changing?

Can our intrepid storyteller use math facts to keep up with the unstable quantities. . . or is this pigeon-centric tale doomed?

VROOM VROOM GARBAGE TRUCK

Asia Citro, illustrated by Troy Cummings

Innovation Press, October 2018

Praise for VROOM VROOM GARBAGE TRUCK:

★ “A 28-page tour de force of a board book that is even better than its title would suggest. Given a toddler's natural fascination for heavy equipment in general and for garbage trucks in particular, this volume could have offered far less and still been a hit. But, surprise, this cleverly written and lovingly rendered volume should prove an absolute delight for caregivers and tots alike. This onomatopoeic opus is ideal read-aloud fun, a slice-of-life snapshot of a garbage truck featuring all the signature sounds that alert tykes that the truck is nearby... The illustrations are charming and economical, imbuing the protagonist with huge amounts of personality with surprisingly few (satisfyingly thick) lines.... The smiling truck dumps its load from its aft end in a panel that could have come from a book on potty training and then heads home for the night. The book may be about garbage, but it's pure gold.”

—Kirkus Reviews, starred review

Whoop WHOOSH whoop WHOOSH click clack BUMP!

Bright and cheerful illustrations come together with a giggle-worthy variety of noises in this rhythmic tale of a garbage truck's day. The illustrations provide young children with a truckload of opportunities to practice counting 0-5 and to work on beginning inference skills. The story rolls to a gentle close, making it a perfect bedtime choice for little truck fans.

THE HOUSE THAT CLEANED ITSELF

The True Story of Frances Gabe's (Mostly) Marvelous Invention

Laura Dershewitz and Susan Romberg, illustrated by Meghann Rader

Innovation Press, September 2019

Praise for THE HOUSE THAT CLEANED ITSELF:

"...enthusiasm, purpose, and originality shine through in this gently humorous selection, showing that effort is worthwhile, and besides, "maybe one day a young inventor will figure out how to build on Frances's ideas—and go out and do something about it."...This quirky selection shows the lively inner life of a less-than-successful inventor who followed her dreams." —Kirkus Reviews

Like most of us, Frances Gabe detested housework—she found cleaning a "nerve-twangling bore". Unlike most of us, she invented a contraption to free herself from this tedious task forever: a self-cleaning house! Gabe's wacky, wonderful home included almost 70 new patented inventions, from a soap-spraying sprinkler in the ceiling to a kitchen cabinet that washed, dried, and stored dishes all in one place. Though Gabe's invention didn't catch on, her determination and clever thinking remind us that we don't have to accept the world as it is; we can improve it using our minds and our own two hands.

Laura Dershewitz would much rather do crosswords—or anything, really—than housework. A former high school English teacher, Laura currently works in educational publishing. She lives in the Chicago area with her husband, daughter, and self-cleaning cats.

Susan Romberg wishes her house would clean itself—especially her kids' rooms. When she's not scraping gum off the floor, Susan writes and edits educational materials. She lives with her family outside of Chicago and sometimes runs into Laura Dershewitz at the grocery store.

Meghann Rader is an illustrator from Vancouver Island, Canada. She has a BFA from the Emily Carr Institute of Art and Design and spent several years showing and selling her original artwork before discovering that illustration was her true calling. Her art has since been featured on greeting cards, stationery and textiles around the world. The House That Cleaned Itself is her first picture book.

HOW TO SURVIVE

How to Survive as a Firefly

How to Survive as a Shark

Kristen Foote, illustrated by Erica Salcedo

Innovation Press, August 2017

The HOW TO SURVIVE series provides a unique take on science that will entertain and educate in and out of the classroom. Full of opportunities for extended learning, these books include fun facts hidden throughout the hilarious illustrated story – and after, a glossary of important terms and some real photos. If you’ve ever wondered how these fascinating beetles grow and glow or how to think and swim like a shark — and like to laugh while you learn — this book is for you!

Listen up, larvae! I've been in the trenches for the last year and a half, and let me tell you, there is danger lurking behind every tree and headlight. With my expertise, you'll learn how to hunt your first meal (snail soup anyone?), what makes your abdomen glow (put down the fire extinguisher!), and how to react when your mate wants to eat you for dinner (who knew fireflies could be cannibals?). Buck up, buttercup – you're in for the flight of your life! If you know what's good for you, you'll stop goofing around and pay attention to HOW TO SURVIVE AS A FIREFLY, or you might never make it to adulthood!

KRISTEN FOOTE is the author of How to Survive as a Firefly and How to Survive as a Shark. With a degree in Biology, she is a firm believer that learning about science can be fun (and funny!). She's a Colorado transplant who, when not writing, is enjoying everything the Rocky Mountains have to offer with her husband and two kids. How to Survive as a Firefly is her first book.

ERICA SALCEDO is a Spanish illustrator. She studied Fine Art at Castilla-La Mancha University and holds a Master's in Illustration and Graphic Design. She has illustrated several books with publishers from around the world, including Wolfish Stew (Bloomsbury UK) and Department Store Doll's House Sticker Books (Usborne Publishing Ltd).

FUNGUS IS AMONG US!

Joy Keller, illustrated by Erica Salcedo

Innovation Press, September 2019

Praise for FUNGUS IS AMONG US!:

"...this is a truly delightful rhyming book about the wonderful surprises that await us in nature. Author Keller brings alive the woods...Illustrator Salcedo provides art that is the perfect blend of humor and information...Fun, rhythmic, informative, and worthy of many happy read-aloud moments." —Kirkus Reviews

You can run, but you can't hide...

They're in the air you breathe. They're in the food you eat. They're on your body. Fungi are EVERYWHERE!

But wait . . . do you need to be afraid? From fun facts about fairy circles to the delicious secret behind pizza, this book is the perfect read for young scientists. It even contains a Q & A section with a real-life mycologist!

MISS TURIE'S MAGIC CREATURES

Joy Keller, illustrated by Richard Watson

Innovation Press, September 2018

Praise for MISS TURIE'S MAGIC CREATURES:

"The cartoon artwork is colorful and blithe, with the fabled beings possessing as much personality as the eccentric, brown-skinned, big-hair-don't-care Miss Turie. This exploration of ancient mythical creatures as potential pets satisfies with its double twist ending."

—Kirkus Reviews

"Watson's bright, lively illustrations move us right into Keller's delightful story." — Booklist

Dragons, Chimeras, and Hydras, oh my!

Come explore Miss Turie's Magic Creatures, the most exotic pet store you've ever seen! Miss Turie guarantees to "have the pet that's right for you," but can she find a match for her toughest customer yet?

Told in an upbeat, fast-paced rhyme, children will laugh as they learn about mythical creatures and contemplate what they might be like as a household pet. Following the story is a catalog of each featured creature with a more detailed history.

Nilah Magruder is a writer of children's books and comics. From her beginnings in the woods of Maryland she developed an eternal love for three things: nature, books, and animation. She is the author of HOW TO FIND A FOX and M.F.K., coming from Insight Comics in fall 2017. She has also drawn for Disney and DreamWorks, and written for Marvel. When she is not drawing or writing, Nilah is reading fantasy novels, watching movies, rollerskating, and fighting her cat for control of her desk chair.

M.F.K.

A Graphic Novel

Nilah Magruder

Insight Comics, 2017

A fantastic adventure following the story of Abbie, a deaf girl with a mysterious power, who is traveling across a vast desert to scatter her mother's ashes.

In a world of sleeping gods, a broken government, and a fragile peace held in the hands of the corrupt, one youth must find the strength to stand up against evil and save humanity.

This story is not about that youth.

It's about Abbie, who just wants to get to the mountain range called the Potter's Spine, scatter her mother's ashes, and then live out her life in sweet, blissful solitude. Unfortunately, everyone she meets wants to whine at her about their woes, tag along on her quest, arrest her for no reason, or blow her to bits.

Journeys are hard on the social recluses of the world.

THE GIRL WITH A MIND FOR MATH

The Story of Raye Montague

Julia Finley Mosca, illustrated by Daniel Rieley

Innovation Press, September 2018

Part of the Amazing Scientists Series

Praise for THE GIRL WITH A MIND FOR MATH:

★ "... a great model for building awareness of racism and solid inspiration for achieving against the odds." — Kirkus, starred review

"Accompanied by expressive digitized illustrations, this rhyming picture-book biography describes the challenges and triumphs Montague met as an African American woman. . . Hidden Figures fans will applaud." —Booklist

"A solid addition to the picture book biography shelves and STEAM curricula for young readers." —School Library Journal

Meet Raye Montague—the hidden mastermind who made waves in the U.S. Navy!

After touring a German submarine in the early 1940s, young Raye set her sights on becoming an engineer. Little did she know sexism and racial inequality would challenge that dream every step of the way, even keeping her greatest career accomplishment a secret for decades. Through it all, the gifted mathematician persisted—finally gaining her well-deserved title in history: a pioneer who changed the course of ship design forever.

The Girl With a Mind for Math: The Story of Raye Montague is the third book in a riveting educational series about the inspiring lives of amazing scientists. In addition to the illustrated rhyming tale, you'll find a complete biography, fun facts, a colorful timeline of events, and even a note from Montague herself!

Fairy Tale Survival Rule #32: If you find yourself at the mercy of a wicked witch, sing a romantic ballad and wait for your Prince Charming to save the day.

Yeah, no thanks. Dorthea is completely prined out. Sure, being the crown princess of Emerald has its perks—like Glenda Original ball gowns and Hans Christian Louboutin heels. But a forced marriage to the not-so-charming prince Kato is so not what Dorthea had in mind for her enchanted future.

Talk about unhappily ever after.

Trying to fix her prince problem by wishing on a (cursed) star royally backfires, leaving the kingdom in chaos and her parents stuck in some place called "Kansas." Now it's up to Dorthea and her pixed off prince to find the mysterious Wizard of Oz and undo the curse...before it releases the wickedest witch of all and spells The End for the world of Story.
