You Are Not Alone

Alphabet Rockers, illustrated by Ashley Evans

ALPHABET ROCKERS make music that makes change, creating brave spaces for children and families to stand up to hate and be their courageous, beautiful selves. Led by Kaitlin McGaw (she/her) and Tommy Shepherd (he/him/they), Alphabet Rockers gets young people to talk about self-love and justice while living it. Their GRAMMY-nominated albums, multimedia, & curricula empower youth to embody change, advocate for others, and imagine a world they can both be seen in and thrive in. Alphabet Rockers are based in Oakland, CA, on the unceded land of the Chochoenyo Ohlone people.

From the Grammy award-nominated hip-hop group Alphabet Rockers comes an empowering picture book that invites kids to love themselves, stand up to hate, and foster inclusivity among their peers!

- Incredible brand that celebrates diversity: The Alphabet Rockers' mission is to curate content that encourages kids to stand up to hate, to embrace Black liberation, Queer liberation, Indigenous rights, immigrant rights, and intersectionality, and to understand that they are loved and never truly alone
- Award-winning group: The Alphabet Rockers' music and lyrics have been highly acclaimed, earning them many awards and honors including two Grammy nominations, ALA's Top Album three years in a row, and a Parent's Choice Award
- Vetted material: The music, lyrics, curriculum, and concerts this book draws from are reviewed by an intercultural team of anti-bias thought leaders, educators, artists, parents, and young people of all genders

*When I say something is unfair to me, but it's fair for you,
what does that make it?
When I meditate, it all gets clear.
And if you listen, you will really hear.
I am not alone. I am enough.*

It can be scary to feel like you're all on your own, especially in the face of prejudice. But always remember: you are not alone. Inspired by the Alphabet Rockers' empowering song "Not Alone," this uplifting picture book reassures kids that they belong and encourages them to love their beautiful selves and their identities, use their voices against hate, and step up for one another and have one another's backs no matter what.

Good Night to Your Fantastic Elastic Brain

JoAnn Deak and Terrence Deak, illustrated by Neely Daggett

From the award-winning creators of Your Fantastic Elastic Brain comes a new adventure into the science of how the brain works at night, and the importance of sleep!

- Established audience: Your Fantastic Elastic Brain, the #1 growth mindset resource for kids, has sold more than 1,000 copies.
- Exceptional praise: PBS Parents has high praise for Your Fantastic Elastic Brain: "This title makes both a wonderful addition to a child's collection and to any growth mindset program or curriculum".

When you go to sleep, what does your brain do? Does it rest too? It can't because it's busy working while you snooze! It repairs, and resets, and helps your body even when you aren't awake.

Using up-to-date research to explore our brains' critical functions when we are asleep, psychology experts JoAnn and Terrence Deak invite kids (and adults) to unpack all the amazing things your brain is doing when you're not awake—and why it's so important to get your sleep!

JOANN DEAK, Ph.D., is an author and an international speaker, educator, and preventive psychologist. She also works with parents, teachers, and other adults who work with children as a consultant to schools worldwide on issues of brain development and gender equality.

My First Learn-to-Talk Book

Stephanie Cohen M.A., CCC-SLP, CLC

Help babies and toddlers master the building blocks of speech with this adorable, fun-to-read rhyming board book, written by an early speech expert!

- Expert author: Stephanie Cohen is a speech-language pathologist and has been working with infants and toddlers for over 20 years.
- Blue ocean opportunity: There are currently no other board books available that combine emotionally engaging images and age-appropriate text with SLP-approved language modeling.

My First Learn-to-Talk Book is a joyful book that encourages speech development in little ones. By using adorable rhythmic rhyming text, simple exclamatory words and sounds, and engaging photographs of babies and toddlers, this book gives parents, grandparents, teachers, and therapists a new tool that does more than just entertain and engage babies and toddlers—it uses proven therapeutic techniques to help little ones think, repeat, react, and babble—the vital skills they need to learn to talk!

If You Find a Unicorn, It Is Not Yours to Keep

Life lessons for my magical daughter

DJ Corchin

DJ CORCHIN is an award-winning children's book author and illustrator. He uses his unique humor and wit to focus on socially conscious messages involving kindness, communication, and emotional awareness. He currently lives and works in Chicago, IL.

Would-be wizards, play-pretend princesses, and nerdy families ever will cherish this whimsical rule book for parents and daughters to share!

- Award-winning author DJ Corchin is a great self-promoter and continues to establish himself with delightfully quirky, timeless books.
- "Magical" wisdom will especially appeal to self-proclaimed "nerdy" parents who are fans of DnD and fantasy, but is also broad enough to appeal to consumers outside that niche.

You have a choice to cast good spells or bad spells. Choose good spells. People will tell you that you can't be a knight because you have magical abilities. They are wrong.

And remember...if you happen find a unicorn, it is not yours to keep!

Strings

DJ Corchin

DJ CORCHIN is an award-winning children's book author and illustrator. He uses his unique humor and wit to focus on socially conscious messages involving kindness, communication, and emotional awareness. He currently lives and works in Chicago, IL.

From the author of A Thousand No's and the I Feel... series comes this warm, whimsical book that reminds kids that no matter where they are in the world, they're never alone!

- Award-winning author DJ Corchin is a great self-promoter and continues to establish himself in the social-emotional learning space.
- Whimsical text and illustrations with a timeless message make this a great graduation gift, going away gift, or just-because gift for all ages!

Being apart makes us both sad sometimes. But no matter where you go, if you're ever feeling sad or bored or happy or lonely, give this string a little tug and I promise to tug back!

It isn't easy to be far away from friends and family. But being far away doesn't mean you're alone! No matter where you go, you'll always be connected and loved. With author DJ Corchin's signature wit and warmth, this sweet book about connection and friendship affirms kids in the many emotions they feel while reminding them of how strong and loved they are!

Black Boy, Black Boy

Ali Kamanda, illustrated by Jorge Redmond

ALI BIKO SULAIMAN KAMANDA is an award-winning filmmaker and social entrepreneur from Sierra Leone, West Africa. He runs BIKO Studios, a cross-cultural film production company and is the President of Salone Rising, a not-for-profit organization that provides micro-financing and mentoring resources to small business owners in rural Sierra Leone.

JORGE REDMOND currently works in the Buncombe County District Attorney's office as an Assistant District Attorney, and as an adjunct professor in South College's Legal Department. Ali and Jorge are college friends, and Black Boy, Black Boy is their debut book.

An inspiring picture book about self-esteem for African American boys, drawing on the history of the role models that came before them, perfect for fans of Little Legends: Exceptional Men Throughout Black History and All Because You Matter

- Uplifting and inspiring: With a simple structure that harkens back to Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See? and a wonderful message, this is sure to be a great fit for any families looking for books for Black boys.
- Clever use of biography: The book calls back to great Black men throughout history to serve as inspiration for Black boys to imagine what they can be, and we'll include detailed backmatter.
- Great debut authors: Ali and Jorge have inspiring careers themselves and are both fathers to Black boys. They made this book for their families and are speaking from the heart.

*Black boy, Black boy, rise up, it's time.
It's a new day and a chance to shine.
Shine like the sun, magnificent and bold.
A new chapter begins, your story's untold!*

From athlete and activist Colin Kaepernick to musician Fela Kuti, explorer Matthew Henson and writer Chinua Achebe, there are so many inspirational men in Black history. This inspiring, lyrical picture book combines an uplifting, motivational text with references to figures throughout history that have paved the way for today's Black boys. The combination is both encouraging and educational, prompting boys to imagine what they can be and the great things they can do in their own lives.

Listen to the Language of the Trees

A Story of How Forests Communicate Underground

Tara Kelley, illustrated by Marie Hermansson

This fascinating picture book explores the underground communication system between trees and helps young readers see that the natural world's survival depends on staying connected and helping others—just like us!

- Explores a fascinating, trending topic: Reveals the underground communication system of tree roots in a forest to young readers, a fairly new revelation in the scientific world.
- Perfectly aligns with science and literacy curriculum: The story and backmatter explore the forest ecosystem, the underground mycorrhizal network, and symbiotic relationships in nature, in alignment with K-5 Next Generation Science Standards.
- Universal themes of compassion and community: Introduces children to the idea of the interconnectedness and importance of community, helping each other thrive, and assisting others when there is danger.

Readers will discover that trees have their own social network, and helping one another thrive is trending. The fascinating mycorrhizal fungi network runs underground through the forest via the roots of trees, allowing for connection and communication.

Listen to the Language of the Trees captures the magic of talking trees that take care of their neighbors (not to mention the mysterious fungi that help them do it).

A lyrical read aloud, Listen to the Language of the Trees is the story of a seedling, newly sprouted at the base of a giant tree. As it stretches its roots into an underground web of fungi, it learns that its fellow trees use the fungi to pass messages and share resources! It will take great luck for this tiny seedling to survive, but it will have help from its friends in the forest. The Douglas fir forest also harbors creatures like a zany Yellow Pine chipmunk gathering and forgetting seed cones, an owl nested in the giant tree, and chattering Steller's jays. And, as we must never forget, no part of the forest is entirely free from danger!

TARA KELLEY was a children's bookseller for six years, and her first book, Ocean Baby, was selected for the ocean curriculum of Santa Cruz's Migrant Head Start Program. She is currently a freelance writer and editor in Northern California, where she works at a local library. Find out more about her work at terakelley.com.

Our World Is a Family

A Book About Being a Good Neighbor

Miry Whitehill and Jennifer Jackson, illustrated by Nomar Perez

MIRY WHITEHILL is the founder of the award winning non-profit Miry's List, which assists families resettling as refugees in America. She is a community activist with 1 years of experience in digital marketing and leads discussions about migration at libraries and schools in Los Angeles. Jennifer Jackson is a community activist, member of SCBWI, and the author of The Punkydoos Take the Stage for Disney-Hyperion.

We're all one big family, no matter where you're from! Dive into this uplifting picture book and learn how to welcome neighbors into your community—particularly when they might be far from home

- Important and timely: Human migration is a growing issue, and there are few picture books that tackle how to welcome resettled persons into your community.
- Great partner: One of the authors, Miry, is the founder of the resettlement nonprofit Miry's List and will be able to promote the book with expertise.
- Lovely, gentle text: A welcoming, heartwarming read that also fits into the broader category of diverse picture books.

When we see someone new in our neighborhood, how can we help them feel safe and loved and important? How can we tell them, you're not alone? There are so many ways!

Our World is a Family is a picture book exploring the complicated topic of human migration in a gentle, loving, and affirming way. It lightly touches on the reason people might leave their homes, like climate change or lack of safety, and inspires children to welcome their new neighbors into their communities with love.

An uplifting look at migration and, ultimately, human connection that champions diversity and inclusion.

I Like This Color

Liz Goulet Dubois

Duck and Cluck

LIZ GOULET DUBOIS is an author/illustrator and product designer who lives in Rhode Island. When she's not creating quirky and engaging stories for kids, she's designing giftware and toys.

Meet Duck and Cluck, two squabbling but lovable friends who will not listen to each other! For fans of Mo Willems books comes the second story in a brand-new funny kids series, drawn in an engaging comic books style and perfect for beginning readers.

- Entertaining but educational content: The writing is unexpected, subversive, and funny but also teaches important lessons.
- Engaging style: Written and illustrated in a comic book or graphic novel style, reluctant readers will love to follow the adventures of Duck and Cluck.
- Great author/illustrator: Liz has a buttoned-up platform and big star potential—with her experience in the industry and plenty of hilarious ideas, this is an author to support.

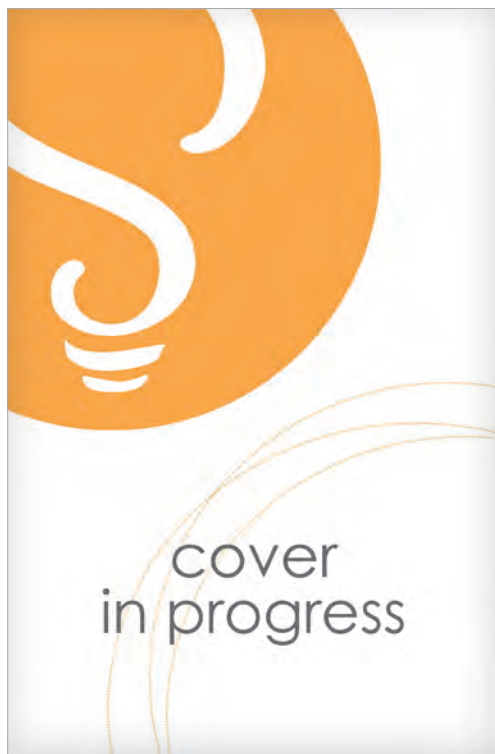

Duck and Cluck can agree on one thing: this page is boring, and it needs some color. But they cannot agree on which color is best! Told through engaging and simple language paired with humorous visuals, the two friends each make their case for why the color they've chosen is the best one. And in the end, they both learn important lessons about manners and listening. This silly and amusing book will make kids laugh-out-loud and is perfect for any kindergarten and 1st grade students learning how to read.

Me and the Family Tree

Carole Boston Weatherford, illustrated by Ashleigh Corrin

Poet and author CAROLE BOSTON WEATHERFORD has written more than 4 books and has earned many awards including the NAACP Image Award, a Coretta Scott King Award, and a Caldecott. She often writes about African American history, families and traditions, and jazz. Weatherford is the winner of a Ragan-Rubin Award for Literary Achievement from the North Carolina English Teachers Association and the North Carolina Award for Literature. She lives in North Carolina and teaches at Fayetteville State University.

Carole Boston Weatherford, a Caldecott Honor winner, creates a celebration of family roots in this uplifting tale about how one young girl can see her family history when she looks into a mirror

- Celebrated author: Carole Boston Weatherford is an established and beloved author, receiving accolades such as the Caldecott Honor, a Coretta Scott King Award Honor, and the NAACP's Image Award.
- Inclusive: Many parents and families are looking for sweet, joyful board books that feature BIPOC families and Black joy.
- Universal theme: Parents and children are always in need of an adorable book celebrating the love and security of family.

An adorably cute book for children to feel the love and security of family, and to celebrate the diversity among the people who love us so much! As a young girl reflects on her family, she notices how her own characteristics are similar to those in her family. She discovers these shared traits are just part of what makes her so unique.

*I've got my father's mouth
And my mother's thick brown waves.
I've got my uncle's chin
Though you can't tell 'til he shaves.
I've got my brother's ears
And my sister's big bright eyes.
I've got my grandpa's hands
Though mine are a smaller size.*

Tea Time for Dinosaurs

A. J. Smith

Illustrator/author A. J. SMITH specializes in silly stories and funny drawings. He's illustrated eleven books for children. Previously, A. J. worked as an animator/designer in NYC on fun shows like Courage the Cowardly Dog and Sheep in the Big City. A. J. lives in Newburyport, MA. Visit him at evenmonsters.com.

A roaringly fun dinosaur tale about standing out, being yourself, and sauring over challenges!

- Popular category: From We Don't Eat Our Classmates to Dinosaurs Love Underpants, silly dinosaur stories are some of the most popular picture books.
- Important message: Teaches that there is no "right" way to fit in, and to pursue what makes you happy.

Tyra and Tops don't fit in with the other rough-and-tumble dinosaurs. They like dancing in tutus, playing the trumpet, and having tea parties! The other dinosaurs don't like this at all, and crash Tyra and Tops' party to show them how real dinosaurs are supposed to act.

Unicorn Night

Diana Murray, illustrated by Luke Flowers

After prancing the day away, it's time for unicorns to shine their horns, sing a unicorn lullaby, and wait for dreams to dance in their magical heads

- Beloved companion: Unicorn Night is a follow up to Unicorn Day, an Indie National bestseller and a Goodreads Choice Award of 219 Finalist.
- Huge opportunity: Now available as a board book, this book is about unicorns and bedtime, two highly popular subjects, and will satisfy the eager bedtime audience.
- Bestselling illustrator: Luke Flowers illustrated the New York Times bestseller A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood: The Poetry of Mister Rogers, and he loves to engage with kids at school events.

Before going to bed, unicorns sweep up piles of dust and sprinkles and shine their horns till each one twinkles. They pull up blankets, closing eyes to sleep beneath the starry skies. Then with voices low, they snuggle tight, to sing the song of unicorn night!

*"Fuzzy jammies, flower beds,
Sweet dreams swirling in our heads,*

*Neigh, neigh, neigh,
Played all day,
Time to sleep the night away!"*

DIANA MURRAY is the author of One Snowy Day of which the Tulsa Book Review wrote: "Youngsters will love this book and so will the adults who read it to them." Diana grew up in New York and still lives nearby with her family. Visit her online at dianamurray.com.

LUKE FLOWERS is an illuminator of the imagination that spends his days (and most nights) in his cozy creative cave illustrating and writing children's books. He lives in Colorado Springs, Colorado and you can find him online at lukeflowerscreative.com.

When Jack Doyle moves into a lighthouse on a mysterious island not found on any maps, he must figure out why those who visit are never heard from again before he and his family fall victim to the island's curse.

- Commercial Premise: Spooky stories work in middle-grade and this is Juliana's most commercial book to date.
- Fantastic Writer: Juliana is an incredible writer who has strong trade and consumer reviews.

When Jack Doyle's father takes an overseas position, Jack finds himself relocated from Minneapolis to his Uncle's light house on Isle Philipeaux, smack dab in the middle of Lake Superior surrounded by nothing but black, ominous waters. The place is frightening and becomes even more so when a storm rocks the island and a ship wrecks outside the lighthouse. Even worse, the survivors are terrified to learn they've washed up on the phantom isle.

The Girl from Gladder Hill

Christina Collins

A moving, innovative middle grade that asks: Can you know who you are if don't know what you look like?

- Unique exploration of body image and our looks-obsessed culture through the lens of a community seemingly free from negative influences.
- Compelling, voice-driven contemporary story perfect for fans of Counting by 7s and Extraordinary Birds.

Zailey has never seen her own face. She's never seen her reflection, or a photo of herself, or even a drawing. Here at Gladder Hill, cameras and mirrors are banned, words like "beautiful" and "ugly" aren't in the dictionaries, and it's wrong to talk—or even think—about anyone's appearance, including one's own. People are happier at Gladder Hill—or so Zailey's been taught—so her fascination with her classmates' faces is a guilty secret. She starts to wonder about the world outside the community, the past she can't quite remember, and most of all, what she looks like. When a fateful event leads Zailey beyond the gates of Gladder Hill, she finally has a chance to have her questions answered. But is she prepared for the truth?

Curse of the Forgotten City

Alex Aster

Emblem Island, Book #2

ALEX ASTER is an author who recently graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, where she majored in English with a concentration in creative writing. The Emblem Island series is inspired by the Latin American myths her Colombian grandmother told her as a child before bedtime. She lives in New York. Explore the world of Emblem Island at asterverse.com.

A fantastic sequel to Curse of the Night Witch filled with adventure on the high seas, terrifying creates, and an unforgettable journey

- An ever-popular category: Fantasy and action/adventure is a growing category in the middle-grade space and the second book in the Emblem Island series ramps up the suspense.
- A highly-anticipated follow up to an acclaimed debut: The first book in the Emblem Island series, Curse of the Night Witch, has received two starred reviews and was named a Most Anticipated Book of the Summer by Seventeen magazine.

Tor is adjusting to life with the Night Witch's powers, with his best friends Engle and Melda by his side. But when a mysterious girl named Vesper washes ashore claiming a band of cursed pirates is on their way to Emblem Island, life changes fast.

Vesper is from an underwater city that was destroyed by the terrible Calavera pirates and she warns Tor that his village is next. To stop the pirates, Tor, Engle, and Melda join Vesper on the hunt for the famed Pirate's Pearl, an ancient relic that would give them complete control of the high seas.

Monster Problems

Victor Piñero

Time Villains, Book #2

VICTOR PIÑERO heads up content and social media at an ad agency where he's run @YouTube, some of @Google and launched @Skittles, creating its award-winning zany voice. He's also designed games and toys for Hasbro, written/produced a popular documentary on virtual worlds and taught third graders. Time Villains is his first novel.

Pitched as Bill and Ted's Excellent Adventure in middle school, this second book in the Time Villains series follows Javi and his friends as they try to stop Count Dracula from taking over the school.

- Fun Premise: This second book has a great premise that kids will love: what if Dracula took over your school?
- Perfect for Reluctant Readers: The books in this series are funny, fast-paced, and not overly long. Perfect for reluctant readers and educators looking for adventure-based historical projects.

With Blackbeard gone, life has gone somewhat back to normal for Javi, his sister Brady, and his best friend Wiki. But then one day at 4 a.m., Javi wakes up to a flying monkey slapping his face. Principal Gale needs him to send her back to Oz. Javi escorts her to Andy the table, rings the bell, and before he's even fully awake, Finistere's principal is long gone.

Monsters Born and Made

Tanvi Berwah

TANVI BERWAH is a South Asian writer who grew up wanting to touch the stars and reach back in time. She graduated from the University of Delhi with a Bachelor's and Master's in Literature of English and lives in India. This is her debut novel.

A South Asian inspired YA debut that follows sixteen-year-old Koral, who risks her life each day to capture the monstrous maristags that live in the black seas that surround her island.

- Fantastic Writing: Absolutely fantastic writing with incredible pacing and world building that transports you.
- Tropes that Work: This has some of the classic fantasy tropes, but they feel fresh, interesting, and perfect for teen fantasy readers.
- Connected: Melissa Albert had this to say about a previous short story: "A mesmerizing account of love, loss, and revenge, entwined with a mythic family history. It's all spikes and rising oddity, a sharp-toothed thing that nods to Helen Oyeyemi and Kelly Link, but does its own thing."

Sixteen-year-old Koral and her older brother Emrik risk their lives each day to capture the monstrous maristags that live in the black seas around their island. They have to, or else their family will starve.

In an oceanic world swarming with vicious beasts, the Landers—the ruling elite, have indentured her family to provide the maristags for the Glory Race, a deadly chariot tournament reserved for the upper class. The winning contender receives gold and glory. The others—if they're lucky—survive.

When the last maristag of the year escapes, and Koral has no new maristag to sell, her family's financial situation takes a turn for the worse, and they can't afford medicine for her chronically ill little sister. Koral decides her only choice is to do what no one in the world has ever dared: she cheats her way into the Glory Race.

Don't Go to Sleep

Bryce Moore

BRYCE MOORE is the author of several novels, including The Perfect Place to Die. When he's not authoring, he's a librarian in Western Maine and a past president of the Maine Library Association. And when he's not up to his nose in library work, he's watching movies, playing board games, and paying ridiculous amounts of money feeding his Magic the Gathering addiction. Check out his daily blog for writing tips, movie reviews, and general rantings over at brycemoore.com

It's 1918, WW1 is in full swing, and a Spanish Influenza outbreak is on the horizon. In the midst of the chaos, families are being terrorized and people are being killed by a lone man with an axe. As Gianna and her friend Jake investigate the heinous crimes, she realizes she's connected to the killer in a way she could have never imagined.

- Terrific Story: This historical horror follows the notorious axeman murders in New Orleans. Teens will be shocked by this grisly story they most likely aren't familiar with.
- Exciting Category: Horror/thriller is an expanding category in the teen space.
- Great Reviews: His previous book, The Perfect Place to Die, earned stellar reviews, including a star.

Gianna is the average seventeen-year-old girl living in 1918 New Orleans. She worries about her family's store, the great war, and a mysterious illness that's about to take hold of the city she loves.

It doesn't help that there also appears to be a mad man on the loose in her neighborhood. The attacks started as burglaries but soon escalate to cold blooded murder. There's a killer out there, and the police can't seem to figure out how to stop him.

Gianna enlists the help of her friend Jake to investigate. And as they study the crimes, they see a common link between the victims, and Gianna can't help but wonder if it's the same man who attacked her family years before.

As Gianna gets closer to the killer, she discovers a connection between them that she never would have suspected.

An Unreliable Magic

Rin Chupeco

A Hundred Names for Magic, Book #2

Despite uncanny resemblances to Japanese revenants, RIN CHUPECO has always maintained their sense of humor. Raised in Manila, Philippines, they keep four pets: a dog, two birds, and a husband. Rin has been a technical writer and a travel blogger but now makes things up for a living. They are also the author of The Girl from the Well, The Suffering, and The Bone Witch trilogy. Connect with Rin at rinchupeco.com.

The second installment of the epic alternate history fairytale series from the author of The Bone Witch trilogy

- Great concept: Rin delivers a unique concept that combines our contemporary world with fairytale figures and high fantasy magic. This second book in the A Hundred Names for Magic trilogy has even more action, fairytale characters, and heart.
- Talented writer: The first book in the series earned two starred reviews.
- Superstar author: Rin Chupeco is the author of the successful Bone Witch trilogy and has sold over 200,000 copies of their previous titles.

Tala, Alex, and the rest of their friends are safe for now, but they know the Snow Queen is biding her time. Her attack is coming, and they have to be prepared when it does.

Alex is determined to find all he can on the legendary Buyan, a long-lost country that is supposedly paradise on earth, said to possess life-giving waters and the cure to the Snow Queen's long-thought irreversible Deathless curse. All he knows for certain is he'll need the Firebird to find it.

When the Nameless Sword, a legendary weapon that, according to Avalon legend, will make its wielder the most powerful warrior of their time turns up with Tala's name on it, her life gets messy as well. Then the Snow Queen arrives with an unlikely ally, and the group must unite to defeat her or meet their end.

Survive the Dome

Kosoko Jackson

Born and raised in the DC Metro Area, and currently living in Brooklyn, KOSOKO JACKSON is a digital media strategist for non-profit organizations; which enables his Twitter obsession. Occasionally, his personal essays have been featured on Medium, Thought Catalog, and The Advocate. When not searching for an extra hour in the day, he can be found obsessing over movies, drinking his (umpteenth) London Fog, or writing lengthy Twitter Threads summarizing how Slytherin is the best Hogwarts House. He is also the author of Yesterday is History. Visit him at kosokojackson.com.

Black Lives Matter meets Attack the Block with a dash of Under the Dome in this stunning story of teens using their talents to liberate a city from unjust police occupation

- Timely subject matter: Amidst the Black Lives Matter movement and the growing call to view racism as a pandemic which has plagued the U.S. for centuries, Survive the Dome is an eye-opening story we need now more than ever.
- A new #OwnVoices star: Kosoko's unique voice and compelling storytelling will appeal to readers who are in search of diverse protagonists that band together in order to overcome injustice.
- Thrilling read: An action packed survival narrative that will keep readers on the edge of their seats.

Jamal Lawson just wanted to be a part of something. As an aspiring journalist, he packs up his camera and heads to Baltimore to document a rally protesting police brutality after another Black man is murdered.

But before it even really begins, the city implements a new safety protocol...the Dome. The Dome surrounds the city, forcing those within to subscribe to a total militarized shutdown. No one can get in, and no one can get out.

Alone in a strange place, Jamal doesn't know where to turn... until he meets hacker Marco, who knows more than he lets on, and Catherine, an AWOL basic-training-graduate, whose parents helped build the initial plans for the Dome.

No Way Home

Jody Feldman

JODY FELDMAN is the author of the bestselling middle grade series The Gollywhopper Games. This is her YA debut.

An exciting international thriller! When a teenager's dream exchange program in Italy turns into a nightmare, can she find a way to outwit her criminal host family before she and her parents end up dead?

- Summer hook: An exchange program gone wrong meets an exciting European setting—the perfect summer combo.
- Fun read: The fast-paced, commercial writing will keep readers on their toes.
- Bestselling category: Sourcebooks is the dominant publisher for YA thrillers.

Tess Morelli is living a dream: she was selected for an incredible exchange program in Rome, where she'll spend a month taking in the beautiful sights and sounds and tastes of Italy. Her Italian counterpart, Sofia, will stay with Tess's family while she's away. Sure, her host parents barely speak English, but they seem cool enough.

Until one night, when Tess discovers her hosts on a video chat with their daughter, who is brandishing a knife over Tess's sleeping parents. They tell Tess she needs to do exactly as they tell her, or her parents will die. Without her passport, credit cards or phone, Tess is forced to commit a series of crimes that add up to a shocking plan...and unless she finds a way to outwit these criminals, she—and her parents—will end up dead.

Dead Girls Can't Tell Secrets

Chelsea Ichaso

CHELSEA ICHASO writes twisty thrillers for young adults. A former high school English teacher, she currently resides in southern California with her husband and children. When she's not reading or writing, Chelsea can be found on the soccer field.

A gripping new twisty YA thriller from the author of Little Creeping Things—when her sister fell, Savannah knew it was her fault. But, was it?

- The perfect read for thriller fans: An unreliable narrator, unpredictable twists, and a surprising ending will appeal to fans of One of Us Is Lying, The Darkest Corners, and A Danger to Herself and Others
- Touches on important issues: The book includes issues that are important to teens, such as mental health, academic pressure, complicated family/sister dynamics, and toxic friendships

Piper Sullivan never should have been at Suicide Point the day she fell. Her older sister, Savannah, knows this with all her heart—just as she knows that Piper's "accident" was entirely her fault. Savannah did something awful, something she can barely stand to think about, and now Piper is in a coma.

My Dearest Darkest

Kayla Cottingham

KAYLA COTTINGHAM is a Youth Services Library Assistant at her local library and an MLIS candidate at Simmons University. After receiving her BA in Writing, Literature, and Publishing from Emerson College, Kayla worked as an editorial intern for The Horn Book and Page Street Publishing before switching to librarianship. She currently resides in Brookline, MA where she spends most of her free time playing video games, reading in parks, and befriending as many dogs as she can.

Fans of The Wilder Girls and The Grace Year will devour this stinging, feminist horror debut about girls claiming their power

- Captivating hook: The Umbrella Academy meets It with a dash of The Craft; from the first page to the last, this book's wholly original plot makes for a compelling read unlike any other books in the YA horror genre.
- Atmospheric: The creepy, grave setting of Ulalume Academy lends an unshakable sensation of eeriness which permeates both prose and reader alike.

Finch Chamberlin is the newest transfer student to the ultra-competitive Ulalume Academy...but she's also not what she seems. Months before school started, Finch and her parents got into an accident that should have left her dead at the bottom of the river. But something monstrous, and ancient, and terrifying wouldn't let her drown.

Selena St. Clair sees right through Finch, and she knows something is seriously wrong with her. But despite Selena's suspicion, she feels drawn to Finch and has a sinking feeling that from now on the two will be inexplicably linked to one another.

The Wicked Remain

Laura Pohl

The Grimrose Girls, Book #2

LAURA POHL is a Brazilian writer who lives in São Paulo. She likes writing messages in caps lock, quoting Hamilton, and obsessing about Star Wars. When not taking pictures of her dog, she can be found discussing alien conspiracy theories. She is the author of The Grimrose Girls and The Last 8 duology. Visit her online at onlybylaura.com.

The Descendants meets Euphoria in the second book of The Grimrose Girls series about four reimagined fairytale heroines who must uncover connections to their ancient curses and attempt to forge their own paths... before they are all doomed.

- Commercial Appeal: This has broad commercial appeal. It's perfect for readers aging out of The Descendants series. When this was announced there was immediate film/TV interest.
- Great Setting: Boarding school is an evergreen setting. (It's also an international setting-takes place in Switzerland).

After the events in book one, Nani, Yuki, Ella, and Rory are still trying to figure out more about their fairytale curses. As they research those with happy endings and those with unhappy ones, they learn the key to their fate comes in an unexpected form.

As Yuki struggles to control her newfound power, she realizes her stepmother, the school's headmistress, may be more than she seems. And with both fairytale books in their possession they girls fear the only way to break the curse is for one of them to die. When Rory falls into a coma, fulfilling her dark destiny, Nani, Ella, and Yuki will stop at nothing to change her fate.

A kiss from a Holloway girl is special. During the kissing season, one kiss from Remy or her older sister Maggie will give the boy—or girl—good luck. But when Remy breaks one of her family's oldest rules, kissing someone who belongs to another, she dooms the boy to bad luck that almost kills him. Remy has to figure out how to change her luck, or else her family's legacy will be tainted forever.

- Perfect for Teens: This has a teen feel and fits into what we are seeing on TikTok. Teens love the wish-fulfillment aspect and the unexplained power aspect.
- Fantastic Hook: The hook here is immediate and easy to grasp. During title testing we got queries about the book which hasn't happened before on the teen side.

What if your kiss held power? Everyone who kissed you, was lucky...until one kiss changed everything. A kiss from a Holloway girl is supposed to be good luck. But for sixteen-year-old Remy, the kissing season turns out to be a curse.

The Promise of Lost Things

Helene Dunbar

A medium desperate to save his town, a grieving brother wanting revenge, and a girl who's decided to end ghosts once and for all, converge in the town of St. Hilaire, where the spirits of the dead roam the streets and there's no such thing as resting in peace.

- Great Hook: The hook of a town full of mediums and three characters with their own agendas for the place is commercial and immediate.
- Fantastic Writing: Helene is an incredible writer. This book is atmospheric and pacy with a great cast of characters that readers will root for.

Russ Griffin has always wanted to be a fantastic medium. Growing up in the town of St. Hilaire, where most residents make their living by speaking to the dead, means there's a lot of competition, and he's always held his own. But Russ knows the town he loves is corrupt, and he's determined to save it before the sinister ruling body, The Guild, ruins all he's ever wanted.

Burn Down, Rise Up

Vincent Tirado

VINCENT TIRADO is a non-binary Afro-Latinx Bronx native. They ventured out to Pennsylvania and Ohio to get their Bachelor's degree in Biology and Master's degree in Bioethics. They have had short stories published in Desert Rose Lit Mag and FIYAH! Magazine.

Stranger Things meets Jordan Peele in this thrilling and page-turning debut! When people start disappearing in the Bronx, Raquel and her friends investigate an urban legend rumored to be responsible, only to discover something far deadlier than they would've ever imagined.

- Fresh take in the speculative space: It cleverly employs a villain created directly by systematic racism and empowers its BIPOC leads to destroy it.
- Timely and important: It's commercial and entertaining but also takes a deep dive into America's racist past, and how the echo of that trauma still impacts today.

For over a year, the Bronx has been plagued by sudden disappearances that no one can explain. Sixteen-year-old Raquel does her best to ignore it. After all, the police only look for the white kids. But when her crush Charli's cousin goes missing, Raquel starts to pay attention—especially when her own mom comes down with a mysterious illness that seems linked to the disappearances.

Four Came Back

Chelsea Sedoti

Five friends went camping. Only four came back. What happened last night? Everyone has a different story... A thrilling and page-turning new mystery, perfect for fans of Karen McManus and Holly Jackson!

- Exciting, fresh hook: The "who is telling the truth?" angle to a missing girl story feels cinematic in scope.
- Page-turning read: Four POVs and a unique narrative device keeps the reader guessing until the very end.

Yesterday, five teens went on a camping trip at Salvation Creek: popular girls Maylee and Petra, Petra's stepbrother Nolan, Maylee's boyfriend John, and outcast Abigail...who Maylee randomly invited along.

But Maylee didn't come back. Now, the four who returned are being interviewed by the police. The only thing they can all seem to agree on? Sometime around midnight, Maylee disappeared. But otherwise, all their stories differ, in ways both big and small.

CHELSEA SEDOTI fell in love with writing at a young age after discovering that making up stories was more fun than doing her schoolwork. (Her teachers didn't always appreciate this.) She now focuses that passion by writing about flawed teenagers who are also afraid of growing up, like in her novels, The Hundred Lies of Lizzie Lovett and As You Wish. She lives in Las Vegas, Nevada, where she avoids casinos but loves roaming the Mojave Desert.

A stunning companion to the New York Times bestseller The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek

- Extraordinary impact: Beloved by readers, booksellers, and librarians The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek spent 20 weeks on the New York Times list.
- A stand-alone companion: Readers will love returning to the world of Troublesome Creek or be introduced for the first time to its pack horse librarians and blue people in this totally new story.
- Dedicated fans: In addition to its critical praise, The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek has been reviewed by 15,000 readers.

In 1953 Jackson, Cussy, and their teenage daughter Honey Mary are separated when a saddlebag preacher discovers Mary's blue skin. Her parents are thrown in prison, a campaign reignites to annul their marriage, and Honey Mary is sent to Troublesome Creek. Alone, facing superstition and prejudice, Mary becomes an outreach librarian in this remote pocket of Kentucky, just like her mother.

On her library route, Mary befriends two extraordinary women. Bonnie Moore, a single mother, works in the treacherous coalmines. Wrenna Grant, a fire lookout, faces loneliness and danger while living atop in a remote, mountain fire tower. As these two women strive to earn their places in male-dominated fields, they find empowerment and solace in Mary and the power of books.

For Those Who Are Lost

Julia Bryan Thomas

JULIA THOMAS is the author of The English Boys, 2016, a Library Journal Debut of the Month novel, and Penhale Wood, 2017, which earned starred reviews from Kirkus Reviews and Library Journal. She lives in Oklahoma.

On the eve of WWII, one person's split-second decision will rock a family to its core

- Hot genre: WWII fiction remains strong in the historical fiction category, Guernsey a fresh angle that hearkens back to The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society.
- Great read: Super commercial read and pace.
- Potential: emotional, thought provoking narrative perfect for book clubs.

On the island of Guernsey, as WWII looms, many islanders make the heartbreaking choice to ship their children to safety in England, not knowing when (or if) they will be reunited. Acting on faith, Ava and Joseph Simon reluctantly send their 9-year-old son Henry and four-year-old daughter Catherine with their children's teacher Helen, who will escort them to the mainland. But Helen's sister Lily is fleeing an abusive marriage, and, just as the ferry is about to leave, takes Helen's place to make a new start for herself. It is Lily who takes them to England, and it is Lily who lets Henry get on a train by himself, deciding in a split second to walk the other way and take Catherine with her. That split-second decision lingers long after the war ends, impacting the rest of their lives. Perfect for readers of Sold on a Monday, For Those Who Are Lost is at once heartbreaking, thought-provoking, and uplifting.

From the author of the acclaimed In My Dreams I Hold a Knife comes a dark thriller about a woman determined to take down a patriarchal cult and avenge the women in her life—but to do so, she might lose everything

- Buzz: Fantastic blurbs for the author's writing from Riley Sager and Liv Constantine.
- Dark academia: Fans of the campus setting of her first novel will have plenty to chew on here, this time in a women-only school in the elite Hudson Valley.
- Fascinating hook: Cult novels pique the consumer, this is loosely inspired by the Sarah Lawrence sex cult but full of revenge energy of women triumphing.

During their senior year of college, Shay Evans and her best friend Laurel escaped from a violent, magnetic man and his equally violent views about women and society. Eight years later, Shay has built a new life for herself. But the horrifying news of Laurel's death shatters her world and makes her suspect that the people from her past are back and more dangerous than ever.

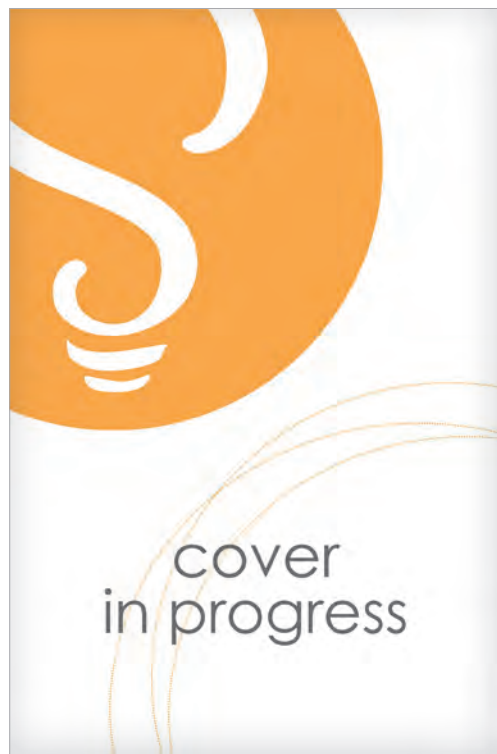

Recruiting the help of a true-crime podcast host, Shay is determined to find out the truth. When clues lead her to a secret cult devoted to male superiority, she discovers what happened to her eight years ago was only the beginning. When Shay's search for answers turns into an obsession, forcing her to confront her own complicity and conditioning, she'll have to make a life-changing decision: how much would she give up to take down the men who've ruled her life?

A Very Typical Family

Sierra Godfrey

SIERRA GODFREY is a tech editor by day who loves writing stories about complex relationships. She lives in the foggy wastelands of the San Francisco Bay Area with her husband, sons, and a bevy of animals, all of which seemed like a good idea at the time.

A woman must return to her hometown of Santa Cruz, CA to inherit her family home after her mother dies, and is reunited with her estranged brother and sister, whom she was responsible for sending to prison 15 years earlier

- Upmarket, darkly funny family saga with commercial hook, perfect for millennial readers.
- Reader favorite tropes: return to small town, reunited with estranged family, ticking clock to inherit family home.
- Strong crossover appeal for romcom readers.

Natalie Walker is the reason her brother and sister went to jail over 15 years ago. As a result, she hasn't spoken to her family since. On the same day she expects to be promoted at her job (until her boyfriend Paul swoops in and takes the position), Natalie receives a letter from a lawyer in Santa Cruz saying her mother has died and the only way for her children to inherit their family's large, historical home is for all three adult children to come back and claim it.

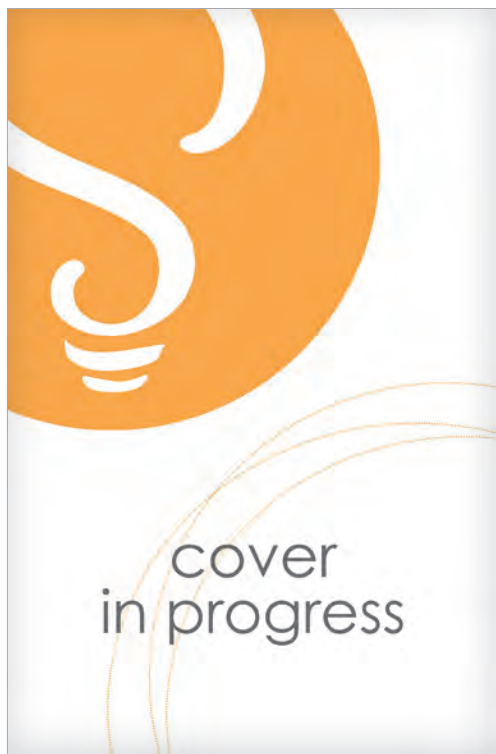

Natalie drives to Santa Cruz, expecting to sign some documents, see siblings Lynn and Jake, and get back to her life in Boston. But Jake, now an award-winning scientist, is missing. And Lynn, working as an undertaker in NYC, shows up with her teenaged son. While Natalie and her nephew look for Jake—meeting a very handsome Spanish scientist in the process—Natalie takes stock of her life and the guilt she has held dear for so many years. Though no one can change the past, every day is an opportunity to change how you want to live in the future.

Always the First to Die

R. J. Jacobs

R. J. JACOBS has practiced as a psychologist since 2003. He maintains a private practice in Nashville, focusing on a wide variety of clinical concerns. After completing a post-doctoral residency at Vanderbilt, he has taught Abnormal Psychology, presented at numerous conferences, and routinely performs PTSD evaluations for veterans. He's the author of And Then You Were Gone and Somewhere in the Dark, published by Crooked Lane. Find out more at rjjacobsauthor.com.

The Guest List with a 90s slasher edge that begs the question: who will survive when your most famous horror movie comes to life?

- R. J. Jacobs is a tireless self-promoter, with blurbs from Brad Thor, Angie Kim, and Karen Harper on his previous titles.
- 90s nostalgia is a huge trend, and Always the First to Die offers a fascinating and immersive look at what it would be like to be on the set of a classic 90s slasher. Perfect for fans of Riley Sager and Lucy Foley.
- With classic horror tropes, a locked room mystery, and remote Florida Keys setting, this is the perfect thriller read for every book club to talk about immediately (and in a trade paper format!).

After her husband's death, Lexi has refused to return to the Pinecrest Estate on the Florida Keys, too many hard memories on the tiny strip of land. Memories of meeting her husband as a teenager on the set of an iconic horror movie shot at the dilapidated manor house. Of being cast as an extra, of watching herself get killed on screen. And of scoffing at the rumors of the Pinecrest Estate "curse," until she witnessed a cast member die that very summer. But when her daughter insists on visiting her grandfather, legendary horror movie director Rick Plummer, Lexi finally agrees. That's when a Category Four hurricane changes course, and hits the southern coast.

Unable to get through to her daughter, Lexi drives to the Keys in the wake of the storm. What she finds is an island without cell service, without power, and with limited police presence. A desolate bit of land, with only a few remaining behind: the horror director, the starlet once cast as the final girl, the young teenager searching for clues of her father, the mother determined to get off the island, and...the person picking them off one-by-one.

Woman with Two Shadows

Sarah James

SARAH JAMES is a graduate of the MFA Writing for Screen & Television program at USC and the BA Playwriting program at Fordham Lincoln Center. She currently works as a freelance writer.

The story of one woman caught up in one of the most closely held secrets of World War II

- Bestselling genre: WWII fiction continues to sell strongly.
- Fresh story: Offers up a window into the true-life world of top-secret clearance and atomic discovery; strong female-driven science focus.

Lillian Kaufman hasn't heard from her twin sister since Eleanor left for a mysterious job at an Army base somewhere in Tennessee. Then she learns that Eleanor is missing. Lillian leaves New York to sneak into Oak Ridge, only to learn that Eleanor has vanished without a trace—and she's not the only one. But how do you find someone in a town so dangerous it doesn't officially exist? Forced to pretend to be Eleanor, Lillian finds herself in the epicenter of the gravest scientific undertaking of all time, with no idea who she can trust. And the more she acts like Eleanor, the more she loses her grip on herself.

Cradles of the Reich

Jennifer Coburn

JENNIFER COBURN is a USA Today best selling author of six novels and contributor to four literary anthologies. Over the past two decades, Coburn has received numerous awards from the Press Club and Society for Professional Journalists.

The story of three women, a nation on the brink of disaster, and the countless lives that hang in the balance

- Fresh hook: Based on the real Lebensborn society (believed to have produced nearly 2,000 children), which has never before been fully explored in novel form—a new hook on the ever-popular WWII novel.
- Accuracy: Meticulously researched and vividly brought to life, from an author passionate about the discussion of social and political environments that allow women's bodies to be commoditized.

At Heim Hochland, a Nazi sanctioned maternity home in Bavaria, three women's fates are irrevocably intertwined. Gundi is a pregnant student from Berlin—an Aryan beauty, she's secretly a member of a resistance group. Hilde, only 18, is a true believer in the cause and is thrilled to carry a Nazi official's child. And Irma, a 44-year-old nurse, is desperate to build a new life for herself after personal devastation. All three have everything to lose.

Shadows of Berlin

David R. Gillham

During the war, her only goal was to survive...now, how can she live?

- Bestselling author: City of Women was a New York Times bestseller and sold 9,000 copies.
- Acclaimed writing: Gillham's lyrical writing has been compared to Ann Patchett in addition to receiving multiple starred reviews.
- Fresh take on a beloved category: Shadows of Berlin incorporates a WWII story and builds on its aftermath.

1955 in New York City, the city of progress. But in the Perlman residence, the past is as close as the present. Rachel Perlman, a child of Berlin and an artist bearing her mother's legacy, arrives in New York as part of the wave of Jewish Displaced persons who managed to survive the brutalities of the war.

But despite her efforts, Rachel is unable to live the "normal" life of an American housewife, not until she can shake the ghosts of her past and the tremendous guilt that weighs down on her: her own "crime" of survival.

DAVID R. GILLHAM is the New York Times bestselling author of City of Women and Annelies. He studied screenwriting at the University of Southern California before transitioning into fiction. After moving to New York City, Gillham spent more than a decade in the book business, and he now lives with his family in Western Massachusetts.

After We Were Stolen

Brooke Beyfuss

BROOKE BEYFUSS works full-time as a copywriter for an adult web company, a position that has provided a great deal of future novel material. A graduate of Rutgers University, Brooke is the founder of the Woodbridge Cultural Arts' Commission Writing Group. She lives in New Jersey with her husband and daughter. After We Were Stolen is her debut novel.

A cult member escapes from her family compound but struggles to free herself from the trauma that haunts her.

- Readers are fascinated by cults and stories about children in peril.
- Essential book club read.

One night, Avery is awoken by a fire consuming her family's compound; she runs away with her brother Cole, hiding in the woods and then a school gym for weeks. After police apprehend them for shoplifting, a horrific discovery is made—their entire lives have been a lie and they were actually kidnapped as children, taken by the cult leaders they knew as Mom and Dad.

Cole is quickly reunited with his family and permanently separated from Avery, who is taken to a women's shelter when no family comes forward. Avery isn't certain who survived the Bakelite cult fire or, more importantly, who set it. As she tries to move past the lies and the emotional and physical trauma of her childhood, the events of that fateful night come bursting back into the news, and a police investigation throws Avery back into the spotlight. The memories of that night and her former life threaten to undo all the progress she's made, but she must uncover the truth about the fire to truly be free.

The Surgeon's Daughter

Audrey Blake

She's determined to revolutionize the field of medicine and save women's lives by developing the Caesarean section surgery—but in doing so she'll risk everything

- Popular genre: Female-driven, historical fiction perfect for book clubs and readers of Marie Benedict.
- Unique hook: Women in medical history is a fresh, unexplored space—and the story of women developing the Caesarean section is a story we've never seen before.

In the 19th century, women rarely study medicine. This means that Nora Beady, the only woman in her medical school, constantly feels like an outsider. And when she is chosen to work with the only female professor to develop the Caesarean section, Nora draws the wrath of her male peers and professors. It's a dangerous—and divisive—procedure that could save countless lives and revolutionize women's health. But most doctors think it's too risky, many don't trust the findings of women, and husbands won't let their wives undergo the procedure.

The Department of Rare Books and Special Collections

Eva Jurczyk

There are dark secrets lurking between the stacks of these dusty books...

- Book about books: Fascinating “book about books” with a dark yet quirky edge, by a promising debut author.
- Stunning writing: The elegant writing and character development make this an unforgettable read that will appeal to a wide commercial audience.

Liesl Weiss has been (mostly) happy working in the rare books department of a large university, managing details and working behind the scenes to make the head of the department look good. But when her boss has a stroke and she's left to run things, she discovers that the library's most prized manuscript is missing.

Liesl tries to sound the alarm and inform the police about the missing priceless book, but is told repeatedly to keep quiet, to keep the doors open and the donors happy. But then a librarian goes missing as well. Liesl must investigate both disappearances, unspooling her colleagues' pasts like the threads of a rare book binding as it becomes clear that someone in the department must be responsible for the theft. What Liesl discovers about the dusty manuscripts she has worked among for so long—and about the people who preserve and revere them—shakes the very foundation on which she has built her life.

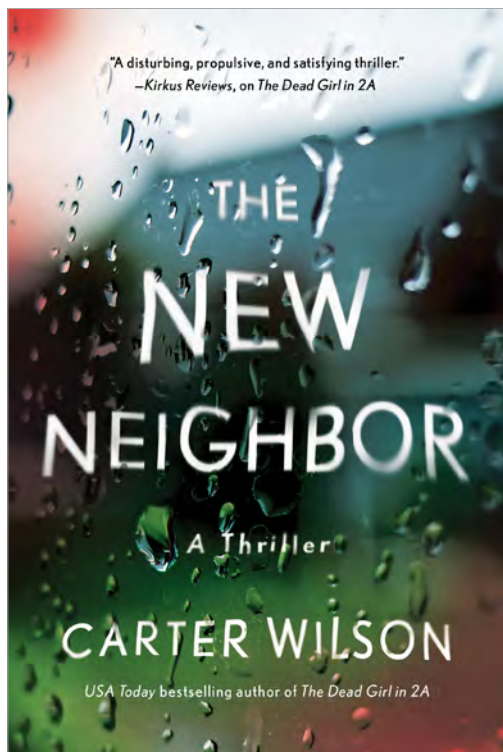

EVA JURCZYK is a writer and librarian living in Toronto. She has written for Jezebel, The Awl, The Rumpus, and Publishers Weekly. This is her first novel.

The New Neighbor

Carter Wilson

CARTER WILSON is the award-winning and USA Today bestselling author of The Dead Girl in 2A. He lives outside of Boulder, Colorado, with his two children. Visit him at carterwilson.com.

Aidan Marlowe holds the winning Powerball numbers. Is today the best day of his life... or the worst?

- Bestselling and award-winning author: USA Today bestselling author Carter Wilson has been nominated for a number of awards and won the Colorado Book Award for The Dead Girl in 2A (22) and Mister Tender's Girl (219).
- Psychological suspense with something extra: Nuanced representation of mental health, grief, and coping mechanisms add depth to this propulsive, plot.
- Well-reviewed author: Wilson has received exceptional praise from Kirkus Reviews and Liv Constantine who both proclaimed that Wilson is "reminiscent" of Dean Koontz.

Aidan Marlowe is the superstitious type—he's been playing the same lottery numbers for fifteen years, never hitting the jackpot. Until now. On the day of his wife's funeral.

Aidan struggles to cope with these two sudden extremes: instant wealth and the emptiness of his life without the mother of his children. But the money gives him options, and he and his young twins leave everything behind for a new life.

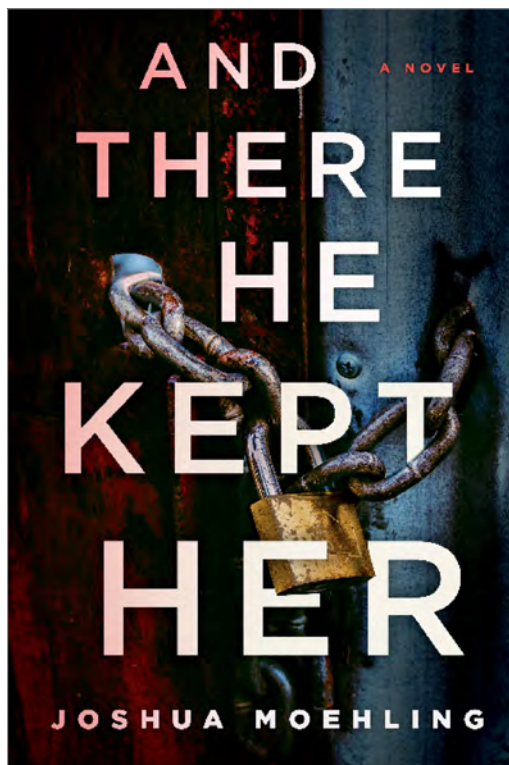

Even so, it's not long before Aidan realizes he's merely trading old demons for new ones. Because someone is watching him and his family very closely. Someone who knows exactly who they are, where they've come from, and what they're trying to hide. Someone who will stop at nothing to get what they want...

The SS Arcadia vanished during a routine voyage. A strange, garbled emergency message was broadcast, but no trace of the ship, or of its crew, could be found. Sixty years later, its wreck has finally been discovered more than three hundred miles from its intended course.

A small team are granted permission to dive to it. Their purpose is straightforward: explore the wreck, film everything, and, if possible, uncover how and why the supposedly unsinkable ship vanished. But the Arcadia has not yet had its fill of death, and the submerged halls hold more than simple mysteries. Trapped hundreds of feet beneath the surface, the dive team must fight for their lives in a place where even the smallest mistake turns deadly.

- Fresh new voice: Coates often appears on media roundups of fresh new voices. Craven Manor was a 2018 Goodreads Choice Award Nominee for Best Horror Novel.

It's time to come home. Reyna's parents died unexpectedly. Neighbors saw them enter their home one night, seemingly healthy. By morning, they were both dead. With their passing, Reyna inherits their estate: Gallows Hill Winery. Built on a field where hundreds of convicts were once hung, the winery is valued for its unparalleled produce, but the locals whisper morbid rumors. They say the ground is cursed.

It's been more than a decade since Reyna last saw her childhood home. Alone in the sprawling, age-cracked building, she begins to believe the curse is more than real—and that she may be next in line.

Two hundred years before, the ground was stained with an innocent's blood. Now that the anniversary of its death is approaching, the spirit has awoken, hungry for justice... and revenge. And Reyna is the last living descendant of its killer.

The Physicists' Daughter

Mary Anna Evans

MARY ANNA EVANS is the author of the Faye Longchamp archaeological mysteries, which have received recognition including the Benjamin Franklin Award, the Mississippi Author Award, and three Florida Book Awards bronze medals. She is an assistant professor at the University of Oklahoma, where she teaches fiction and nonfiction writing. Winner of the 2018 Sisters in Crime (SinC) Academic Research Grant.

As WWII rages on abroad, one young woman will have to wage her own kind of war at home

- Fresh hook: WWII fiction based on real historical events continues to be a hot trend, but this is a story readers haven't heard before.
- Broad appeal: This read will draw in book club readers, historical fiction readers, and fans of mystery and suspense.

New Orleans, 1944. Justine Byrne works at a small factory in the bayous of New Orleans to keep her head above water. Soon though, Justine begins to suspect that the carbon parts she assembles on the factory line might have something to do with a top-secret government initiative—The Manhattan Project. But Justine is not the only one to realize that the factory is much more than it seems, and German saboteurs will do anything to put the factory out of commission. With no one to trust, it will be up to Justine to figure out who is responsible and protect her coworkers, her factory, and her country from a war that is suddenly very close to home.

They Drown Our Daughters

Katrina Monroe

KATRINA MONROE lives in Minnesota with her wife, two children, and Eddie, the ghost that haunts their bedroom closets. Follow her on twitter—@authorkatm.

Part modern Gothic, part ghost story, They Drown Our Daughters explores the depths of motherhood, identity, and the lengths a woman will go to hold onto them both.

- Compelling Read: Classically scary and atmospheric, with unforgettable characters. The complicated family dynamics and unsettling backdrop of an ancient haunting combine to make this a standout on the horror shelf.
- Exciting New Author: Katrina Monroe is a fresh new voice, writing an own voices story that breathes new life to the genre.

They say Cape Disappointment is haunted. That's why tourists used to flock there in droves to visit the rocky shoreline and the creaky old lighthouse, fishing shells from the icy water as they pretended to spot dark shapes in the surf. But the tourists are gone now, and when Meredith Strand returns to her childhood home on the eve of her divorce, young daughter in tow, the Cape seems more haunted by regret than any malevolent force.

One Last Chance

Jeffrey Siger

Chief Inspector Andreas Kaldis Mysteries, Book #12

JEFFREY SIGER is an American living on the Aegean Greek island of Mykonos. A Pittsburgh native and former Wall Street lawyer, he gave up his career to write mystery thrillers that tell more than just a fast-paced story. His novels are aimed at exploring societal issues confronting modern day Greece. Visit him at jeffreysiger.com.

Some people will kill to keep the modern-day fountain of youth hidden.

- Perfect for armchair travelers: An authentic sensory experience of Greece and its breathtaking beauty, culture, and history.
- Unique setting: The island setting of Ikaria brings a strong sense of atmosphere.
- Acclaimed series: Books in this series are consistently praised, with the most recent A Deadly Twist receiving a starred review from Library Journal.

When Chief Inspector Andreas Kaldis's longtime assistant, Maggie, returns to her ancestral home on Ikaria for her 104-year-old grandmother's funeral, she quickly realizes not only was Yiayia likely murdered, but that a series of other long-lived Ikariots had recently died under the same suspicious circumstances. Back in Athens, Andreas and his chief detective Yianni pursue a smuggling and protection ring embedded in the Greek DEA, and its possible involvement in the assassination of an undercover cop.

But then Maggie and Yianni uncover a connection between their respective leads in the elder-killings on Ikaria and the DEA corruption case, and they realize that there are international intrigues far more dangerous at play than anyone had imagined.

No Accident

Steven F. Havill

Posadas County Mysteries, Book #25

Good cops have no use for coincidence

- Exceptional, well-reviewed writing: Steven F. Havill's novels have been consistently well-reviewed and received accolades, including True West Magazine's Best of the West 2019—One of the Top Five 20th- to 21st-Century Western Mysteries
- Strong interest for the Southwest: Regional Southwest focus provides a strong opportunity for booksellers in that region.

When a driver slams his pickup truck—twice—into a tandem bike being ridden by Carlos Guzman and his fiancée, Tasha, in Briones, California, it's more than a simple hit-and-run; the driver clearly intended to harm them. Undersheriff Estelle Reyes-Guzman gets the call with the news of her son's accident and wastes no time racing to his side. She is greeted by Police Captain Eddie Mitchell, formerly of Posadas County, who allows Estelle to "consult" on the investigation—but only to a point.

Husband Material

Alexis Hall

Wanted: One (very real) husband, nowhere near perfect but desperately trying his best

- Sequel to the bestselling Boyfriend Material, following the fan-favorite characters on the next step in their lives.
- Alexis Hall is a two-time Lambda Literary Award finalist and was one of the first LGBTQIA+ RITA® winners in 2016.
- Film rights have been options for the Boyfriend Material Universe!

In Boyfriend Material, Luc and Oliver met, pretended to fall in love, fell in love for real, dealt with heartbreak and disappointment and family and friends...and somehow figured out a way to make it work. Now it seems like everyone around them is getting married, and Luc's feeling the social pressure to propose. But it'll take more than four weddings, a funeral, and a bowl full of special curry to get these two from "I don't know what I'm doing" to "I do".

Good thing Oliver is such perfect husband material.

Welcome to the Neighborhood

Lisa Roe

After graduating from the Newhouse School of Communications at Syracuse University and spending many years as an advertising creative director and copywriter in New York City, LISA ROE accepted the tougher job of stay-at-home mom and turned to writing fiction—mostly to entertain her kids, but then to tell her own stories. Lisa lives with her husband and three incorrigible dogs in New Jersey, in the same suburb where The Real Housewives of New Jersey live.

What lengths will a mother go to protect what's most important?

- Heartwarming family dynamics and mother-daughter relationships fall right into the sweet spot of romantic women's fiction.
- Authentic voice: Lisa Roe currently lives in the same town as the cast of The Real Housewives of New Jersey.
- For readers of Maria Semple, Kelly Harms, Abbi Waxman, Kristan Higgins.

After years of struggling to make ends meet, single mom Ginny Miller falls for sweet, divorced Jeff, and relishes the idea of moving her quirky eleven-year-old daughter Harri to his lavish home in an upscale New Jersey suburb. Though she's never been impressed by material things, she is thrilled that getting a second chance at love comes with the added bonus of finally giving Harri everything she never could before.

And then she meets the neighbors.

Ginny is quickly thrust into the complicated realities of Elderberry Lane – a street defined by the ever-shifting alliances of PTA moms, Real Housewife contenders, and their mean-girl daughters. When the neighbors' secrets, back-stabbing and bad behavior take a devastating toll on her daughter and new marriage, Ginny must decide what really matters—and protect it at all costs.

Never Been Kissed

Timothy Janovsky

Boy Meets Boy, Book #1

TIMOTHY JANOVSKY is a queer, multidisciplinary storyteller from New Jersey. He holds a degree in theatre and dance from Muhlenberg College. His work as a humor writer has been featured on Points in Case, The Broadway Beat, and Well Mannered Grump, and his fiction short story debut was published by Voyage YA Journal. When he's not daydreaming about a young Hugh Grant, he's writing the queer romcoms he wished he had as a teenager. Never Been Kissed is his first novel.

A warm, witty, and hilarious Own Voices LGBTQIA+ romcom from debut author Timothy Janovsky!

- Fantastic Hook: Wren's high school crush admits that he doesn't remember the life-changing almost-kiss the way Wren does in this hilarious and heartwarming LGBTQIA+ romcom in the vein of Alexis Hall. Think Schitt's Creek at the drive-in!
- Perfect YA fiction crossover: Features younger characters, lower heat level, and includes fun romcom tropes like summer love and friends to lovers.
- Fresh new voice: Timothy Janovsky is multidisciplinary storyteller with a charming voice perfect for the romcom space.

Wren Roland has never been kissed, let alone been in love like all the characters in his favorite movies. On the eve of going home to help run his hometown drive-in, he drunkenly send emails to all the boys he (ahem) loved before he came out. It only makes sense that Derick Haverford, Wren's #1 pre-coming-out-crush and the drive-in's new social media marketing intern, is a recipient of one of those emails. And to make matters worse, he doesn't even remember the infamous high school almost-kiss that Wren's been pining away over.

Now Wren must team up with Derick to make a big promotional push for the drive-in's annual Dusk-til-Dawn Moviethon. But what started as a professional partnership helps rekindle their old friendship, which might just be Wren's first step towards finally getting his magical kiss-before-the-credits.

The Family She Never Met

Caridad Piñeiro

New York Times and USA Today bestseller CARIDAD PIÑEIRO is the author of over 50 novels/novellas and has sold over one million books worldwide. Caridad's romances in various genres have been critically acclaimed, and she is currently spreading her wings to embrace new themes with her women's fiction. In 2017, Caridad ghostwrote Snow Falling, the tie-in novel to the successful Jane the Virgin television show. When not writing, Caridad loves to travel, cook, and spend time with family & friends down on the Jersey Shore.

Between two worlds, between love and loss, she finally finds her way home

- Caridad Piñeiro is an award-winning New York Times and USA Today bestselling author with over 1 million copies sold.
- She was the writer for Jane the Virgin's Snow Falling (Nov 217) under the pen name Jane Gloriana Villanueva (87,450 p + 5,400 e = 92,850 copies sold).

Jessica Russo knows nothing about her mother's family or Cuban culture. Every time she's asked about it, her mother has shut down. But when the Cuban grandmother she's never met sends her right-hand man, Luis, to offer Jessica the chance to come to Miami and meet her estranged family, she can't help but say yes, even as she knows it will pain her mother.

The Unplanned Life of Josie Hale

Stephanie Eding

STEPHANIE EDING specializes in humorous women's fiction about the struggles of adulthood in the twenty-first century. She works as a freelance editor, cleans when stressed, and hates cooking but loves to eat. Away from her desk, she's a wife, mother, expert napper, and leader of a cat horde. She lives in Ohio.

A fun, fresh look at found family and second chances

- A fresh hook: found/created family, strong romantic element, young fresh voice, Midwest setting.
- Readers love Stephanie Eding: she has a 4.46 average on Goodreads.

Pregnant and divorced, Josie Hale seeks comfort in deep-fried food at the county fair where she runs into two old friends from high school, Ben Romero and Kevin Lawrence. After sharing about their disappointments in their adult life, they devise a life pact to move in together and turn their lives around.

Josie finds herself the third wheel in a comedy bromance—much needed medicine as she deals with a mountain of debt, unemployment, an overbearing mother, and preparing for single parenthood. But stress levels rise when her high school feelings for Ben resurface. Still, her heart (and belly) is so full, she can't help feeling like she finally found where she belongs.

Boss Witch

Ann Aguirre

Fix-It Witches, Book #2

Gilmore Girls meets Practical Magic in this witchy romcom, where a modern witch finds herself accidentally falling for a witch hunter determined to make a name for himself in her small Midwestern town

- Trending genre: Romcoms are experiencing incredible popularity across various media: literature, movies, TV, and the internet.
- Pop culture connection: Witches are very much in the current zeitgeist, and we are seeing a resurgence across literary subgenres.

Clementine Waterhouse is a perfectly logical witch. She doesn't tumble headlong into love. Rather she weighs the pros and cons and decides if a relationship is worth pursuing. At least that's always been her modus operandi before. Clem prefers being the one in charge, always the first to walk away when the time is right. Attraction has never struck her like lightning. Until the witch hunter comes to town.

ANN AGUIRRE is a New York Times and USA Today bestselling author. Before she began writing, she was a clown, a voice actress, and a savior of stray kittens. Ann writes genre fiction, with more than forty novels to date. She grew up in a yellow house across from a cornfield, but now lives in Mexico with her family.

Make My Day

Ann Marie Walker

Hilarious romcom series by author Ann Marie Walker featuring the hottest, most popular hashtag holidays

- Established author: Ann Marie Walker has published six digi-first romances and brings her established fan base to a new set of stories.
- Long-term sales potential: The TP format commands higher print and ebook prices and has proven to sell for a longer period of time than MP format romances; there will be annual opportunities for marketing.

Boyfriend Day, like Mother's Day or Father's Day, was created to celebrate the people who bring unique meaning to our lives. Our heroine is determined to surprise her significant other with surprises all day long: a sporting event she knows he'll love, a scavenger hunt, a romantic getaway. What could possibly go wrong? Well, for one thing, the boyfriend in question just might have other plans, and hell hath no fury like a woman who's determined to show her appreciation...

ANN MARIE WALKER is the author of six romances. She's a fan of fancy cocktails, anything chocolate, and 80s romcoms, and her super power is connecting any situation to an episode of Friends. Ann Marie attended the University of Notre Dame and currently lives in Chicago. You can find her at AnnMarieWalker.com.

Wicked Beauty

Katee Robert

Dark Olympus, Book #3

Our favorite Greek myths get unspeakably hot new twists in this contemporary series from New York Times and USA Today bestselling author Katee Robert

- Bestselling author: Katee Robert is a New York Times and USA Today bestselling author with over a million copies sold.
- Phenomenal hook: Greek myths are fan favorites; this super-sexy, modern retelling will appeal to fans of both the webcomic Lore Olympus and Greek lore.

Achilles Kallis will do anything to claim enough power that no one can take it away from him. With the spot for Ares opened up, he and his partner, Patroclus Fotos, plan to both compete for the title, doubling their odds of getting it. Neither of them expect the sparks that fly when they reunite with Helen after so many years apart.

Too bad Helen isn't interested in going with the flow. She'd rather douse the whole situation with gasoline and light a match. She enters into the competition, effectively competing for her own hand in marriage. Unfortunately, there are competitors who aren't thrilled with Helen's little stunt. Now the only people she can trust are the ones she can't quite keep her hands off—Achilles and Patroclus. But even they might not be strong enough to keep her among the living...

KATEE ROBERT is a New York Times and USA Today bestselling author of contemporary romance and romantic suspense. Entertainment Weekly calls her writing "unspeakably hot." Her books have sold over a million copies. She lives in the Pacific Northwest with her husband, children, a cat who thinks he's a dog, and two Great Danes who think they're lap dogs.

There's Something about Merry

Codi Hall

Mistletoe Romance, Book #2

Root for friends to lovers to happily ever after in this charming, heartfelt holiday romcom

- High ratings on Audible: 4.5 star average with 2,171 ratings.
- Such a fun read! Wonderful holiday escapism and friends-to-lovers trope that readers love.

Clark Griffin is a single dad raising his five-year-old son alone. He has given up his fledgling business and returned to Mistletoe, Idaho, to take a job at the Winters Christmas Tree Farm so he'll have the flexible hours and small-town ambiance he believes is best for his boy. Merry Winters has come home after a bad breakup to soothe her soul and wants nothing to do with men. But she and Clark knew each other in high school (okay, shy Clark had a huge crush on the lively Merry) and both are badly in need of a friend. One thing leads to another as they try to put their lives back together, so blame it on the magic of a small-town Christmas if they start to see that those lives are meant to include a friend who can be so much more.

CODI HALL loves writing small town romances with big feels. As a Northern California native living in Idaho, she fell in love with the big sky, amazing people, and brisk winters. She enjoys movie marathons with her family, snuggling with her furbabies, creating funny TikToks to share with the world, and snuggling under a blanket with a good book! She also writes contemporary and paranormal romance under the pen name Codi Gary. Readers can get in touch via her website authorcodihall.com.

The Stand-In

Lily Chu

LILY CHU loves ordering the second-cheapest wine, wearing perfume all the time, and staying up far too late reading a good book. She writes romantic comedies set in Toronto with strong Asian characters.

From debut author Lily Chu comes a hilarious and heartwarming story of fame, family, and love

- Book club ready: A breezy read full of delicately handled, challenging topics ranging from biracial identity to China's one-child policy from an #OwnVoices author.
- Fresh debut: Fantastic, engaging writing sure to appeal to the same audience as Beach Read and Crazy Rich Asians.

When a mysterious black SUV pulls up next to Gracie Reed, she's amazed to recognize Wei Fangli and Sam Yao, Chinese cinema's golden couple. She's even more shocked when Fangli proposes a deal: due to their uncanny resemblance, the famous actress wants Gracie to pretend to be her for the next two months. The catch? Gracie will have to be escorted by Sam, the most attractive (and rudest) man Gracie has ever met...

Quantum Bullsh*t

How to Ruin Your Life with Advice from Quantum Physics

Chris Ferrie

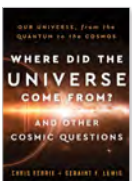

From bestselling author and physicist Chris Ferrie comes a book perfect for people with a sense of humor who f*cking love science

- Original: The first swear science book on the market combines two popular trends in books and actually teaches you quantum physics without turning you into a pocket protector-wearing nerd.
- Rockstar author: Chris Ferrie has sold more than 1 million copies of his Baby University books and is the world's bestselling science author for children.
- Broad appeal: Truly hilarious and witty content elevates this book from merely a joke or gift item to a truly useful and enjoyable book to keep on your shelf long-term.

Quantum physics is weird and spooky and mystical and if you only understood it, you'd be rich and beautiful and have great sex, right? Wrong. Quantum physics is a well-understood science that professional bullshitters use to dupe unsuspecting victims with get-rich-quick scams and bogus self-help advice. This book is a no-nonsense explanation of what quantum physics is and is not, told in an accessible, humorous style with just the right amount of curse words. If you f*cking love science and want to be slightly less dumb than you were when you woke up this morning, this is the goddamn book for you.

CHRIS FERRIE is an award-winning physicist and is the senior lecturer for quantum software and information at the University of Technology Sydney. He has a masters in applied mathematics, BMath in mathematical physics and a PhD in applied mathematics. He lives in Australia with his wife and children.

For readers of The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks and Hidden Figures, What the Children Told Us tells the story of an iconic partnership that set the stage for decades of civil rights activism

- Market: Readers continue to seek out stories of forgotten figures from history, particularly the stories of Black and other POC whose influences have been overlooked.
- Author expertise: The author has devoted more than a decade to researching and writing the book and has exclusive access to the Clarks' family photos and documents.
- Incredible read: Well-drawn characters, an immersive setting, and important historical events and figures woven into the narrative make this an unputdownable read for fans of serious narrative history.

As a young Black couple in the 1940s, Kenneth Clark and Mamie Phipps knew the devastating impact of segregation firsthand. But the Clarks revealed the true impact of segregation in a psychological study that would resonate for decades to come, in which they asked Black children which kinds of baby dolls they preferred: brown or white. Two-thirds of the children surveyed chose the white doll, and some even denied their own skin color.

This is the story of the towering intellectual and emotional partnership between two Black scholars who highlighted the undeniable psychological effects of racial segregation. Paving the way for the landmark Brown v. Board of Education case and engaging in unrelenting activism over several decades, the Clarks' story is one of courage, love, and an unflinching belief that Black children deserved better than what society was prepared to give them

When We Were Made

How Everyday People Use the Engineering Method to Change the World

Bill Hammack, Ph.D.

BILL HAMMACK is a professor of engineering at the University of Illinois and the host of The Engineer Guy YouTube channel. His work has received nine national awards from a diverse group of engineering, scientific, and journalistic societies. In 2019 he was the recipient of the prestigious Carl Sagan Award. He lives in Chicago with his family.

One simple method built the world as we know it

- Great read: Commercial, accessible writing that entertains as it informs on a topic that has never been explored in a mainstream title.
- Popular genre: Social science and big idea books are ever-popular with the nonfiction reader.
- Rockstar author: Bill is a multi-award winning professor of Chemical & Biomolecular Engineering at U of I, and the producer/host of The Engineer Guy videos on YouTube, which has garnered over a million followers.

In this book, Bill Hammack, better known as The Engineer Guy, takes us on a whirlwind tour of how humans built the world we know today. From the grand stone arches of medieval cathedrals to the mundane modern soda can, Hammack explains the golden rule of thumb that underlies every new building technique, every technological advancement, and every creative solution that leads us one step closer to a better, more functional world. Perfect for readers of Adam Grant and Jared Diamond, this fascinating examination of the method that keeps pushing humanity forward is a spotlight on the achievements of the past and a celebration of the potential of our future.

The Day I Die

The Untold Story of Assisted Dying in America

Dr. Anita Hannig

ANITA HANNIG is associate professor of anthropology at Brandeis University, where she teaches classes on the cultural dimensions of medicine and death. Over the past four years, she has studied how access to medically assisted death is transforming the ways Americans die.

The first book to passionately, clearly, sensitively explore the practice of medical assistance in dying—as written by a qualified medical professional

- First of its kind: The first commercial work of nonfiction to provide an in-depth exploration of the experience of individuals choosing to pursue physician-assisted death under current US laws.
- Qualified author: Dr. Anita Hannig has conducted extensive research, including volunteering in hospice settings and attending the assisted deaths of several individuals, and treats the subject matter with the dignity and empathy it deserves.

The Day I Die is the first book to examine the controversial practice of medical assistance in dying. With clarity and empathy, author Dr. Anita Hannig uncovers the stigma against the practice, explains the legalities and logistics of pursuing assisted death in America today, and highlights the dedicated advocates and medical personnel involved. Using personal narratives, the author explains why a person might choose an assisted death and how such a decision impacts their loved ones. In a time when nearly 8% of Americans die in hospitals, medically assisted death could transform the way we die for the better, allowing more people the option of the “good” death many desperately want but are unable to achieve.

When a Child Dies

A Hopeful Healing Guide for Surviving the Loss of a Child

Claire Aagaard

CLAIRE AAGAARD is a certified grief counselor and critical incident responder who worked as a grief counselor and educator, primarily in the hospice field, for over 20 years. She served as the Director of the Center for Loss, Education and Healing in San Luis Obispo, California.

For those who have suffered the loss of a child, When A Child Dies offers comfort, hope, and a way forward.

- Grief books are widely searched for online, especially those around the loss of a child.
- Author offers unique perspective as a grief counselor and as a parent who lost a child.

Parents who suffer the death of a child are overwhelmed, often immobilized by the depth and scope of their grief. When A Child Dies is written in a simple, straightforward manner, offering information, comfort and hope for those who believe that none is possible.

Claire Aagaard has written this book from a unique perspective—that of a professional grief counselor and as a parent with her own history of child loss. It is an honest yet gentle guide, offering the wisdom from her own personal journey as well as that of countless others.

Worthy Project

Learn Your Value. Own It. Celebrate It.

Meadow DeVor

MEADOW DEVOR is an internationally recognized personal development teacher with a modern approach to spirituality, money and personal leadership. Since 2007, she has led teacher trainings, inquiry classes and retreats both online and throughout the United States. She lives on a ranch in Big Sur, CA.

Reach your full potential by learning to exercise self-worth!

- Established audience: The Worthy Project was released as an Audible Original in January 221 and got an instant positive response from listeners.
- Something new for everyone: This print version will be revised and expanded, providing more in-depth content and interactive elements for readers.

Is your home too cluttered? Are you struggling financially? Do your friends and family drain your energy? These symptoms all lead to one surprising problem: a lack of self-worth. Worthiness is the quality of deserving attention, energy, and respect. You can't fake worthiness or earn it accidentally. It's like a muscle. You can weaken that muscle, but there are many ways to strengthen it—and The Worthy Project shows you how.

In Pursuit of Jefferson

Traveling through Europe with the Most Perplexing Founding Father

Derek Baxter

DEREK BAXTER is a labor and human rights lawyer who lives in Virginia. You can follow his adventures with Thomas Jefferson at jeffersontravels.com.

A controversial founding father. A man in need of change. A completely unique trip through Europe.

- Popular topic: This is a fresh examination of Thomas Jefferson, and founding fathers are a perennial favorite for American history buffs.
- Broad audience: An exciting combination of interrogative history and escapist travel, this book engages a diverse readership.

In 1784, travel wrenched Thomas Jefferson out of the darkest period of his life. He sailed to France a broken man, but on the road, he rediscovered a world of hidden beauty and penned a guide he called Hints for Americans Traveling in Europe.

During a crisis of his own, Derek Baxter dares himself to follow Jefferson's route. On a series of journeys (piloting a Dutch canal boat, hiking the French Alps, and fishing in the Atlantic), Baxter follows the obscure guide across six countries. But not all of his insights into the life of the complex founding father are pleasant.

Helltown

The Untold Story of Serial Murder on Cape Cod

Casey Sherman

CASEY SHERMAN is an American author, journalist, and screenwriter. Several of his books have been made into major motion pictures or are in development.

The untold true story of the serial killer who terrorized Cape Cod and captivated a nation

- Author: A gripping new true crime narrative from New York Times bestselling author Casey Sherman.
- Great publicity: Sherman's previous title, The Finest Hours, was made into a feature film.

In the winter of 1969, the bodies of four young women were discovered in a cemetery near the tip of Cape Cod. In a place once known as Helltown, the victims had been shot, stabbed, dismembered, and mutilated. As investigators would soon learn, the perpetrator was a young, handsome, serial killer named Tony Costa. A bizarre former taxidermist with a split personality and penchant for violence, Costa ultimately mobilized friends in the hippie community for support and retribution and captivated literary icons and rivals Kurt Vonnegut and Norman Mailer. Costa embarked on a daring cat-and-mouse game with investigators, who—as the body count kept growing—were desperate to put an end to the killing season on Cape Cod.

If You Could Live Anywhere

The Surprising Importance of Place in a Work-from-Anywhere World

Melody Warnick

At a time when you can work from anywhere, where you live matters!

- Broad audience: For anyone looking to design a life that works for them.
- Ever-relevant topic: Work-from-home options continue to grow for people working in traditional corporate jobs, but this book also speaks to gig economy workers, entrepreneurs, and more, creating a broad target market.
- Stellar author: Melody Warnick's previous work has been widely praised.

These days, plenty of people can work from anywhere. So, if you can work from anywhere, does it really matter where you work? As Melody Warnick has found from personal experience, in some ways it matters more than ever. If You Could Live Anywhere examines the powerful relationship between how we work and where we live. With a light voice and easy-to-understand tips, Warnick helps the reader develop a location strategy that puts them in the right place, which can make all the difference to their career success, entrepreneurial dreams, financial life, and ultimately, their freedom to craft a life that doesn't revolve around work at all.

MELODY WARNICK is the author of This Is Where You Belong: Finding Home Wherever You Are. Her work has appeared in the New York Times, Reader's Digest, Fast Company, The Guardian, Slate, Quartz, CityLab, Woman's Day, Good Housekeeping, Redbook, O: The Oprah Magazine, Medium, Livability, and many others.

Make Space for Happiness

How to Stop Attracting Clutter and Start Magnetizing the Life You Want!

Tracy McCubbin

De-clutter, de-stress, and be happy

- Author: Tracy McCubbin is an up-and-coming voice in the clutter-clearing space.
- Readership: Happiness books continue to perform well as readers look for resources to help optimize their happiness and improve their lives.
- Trends: The continued success of Marie Kondo and media properties like The Home Edit indicate that Americans' appetite for home organizing content has only grown during the pandemic and will continue for the foreseeable future.

We've all done it: looked around and thought, "How did I get so much stuff I don't really need?" In Make Space for Happiness, Tracy McCubbin addresses that burning question, and offers a solution. What she's found is that people who suffer from chronic clutter want, above all, to attract the feeling their "stuff" represents. In this exciting decluttering book with Gretchen Rubin appeal, Tracy presents the 7 emotional magnets, and how you can recognize their magnet to attract more of what they really want: love, self-confidence, time and ease.

TRACY MCCUBBIN is founder and CEO of dClutterfly, a top LA-based home organizing company, and the author of Making Space, Clutter Free. She is also the daughter of a hoarder. She lives in LA, and you can find out more at tracymccubbin.com.
