THIS HERE FLESH: *Spirituality, Liberation, and the Stories That Make Us by Cole Arthur Riley

In her stunning debut, the creator of Black Liturgies braids stories from three generations of her family alongside contemplative reflections to discover the "necessary rituals" that connect us with our belonging, dignity, and liberation.

In these deeply transporting pages, Arthur Riley reflects on the stories of her grandmother and father and encounters of enfleshed, embodied spirituality. As she also writes memorably of her own lived experiences of childhood and selfhood, Arthur Riley boldly explores some of the most urgent questions of life and faith: How can spirituality not silence the body, but instead allow it to come alive? How do we honor, lament, and heal from the stories we inherit? In this indelible work of contemplative storytelling, Arthur Riley invites us to ponder the site of soul by examining our capacity to rest, wonder, joy, rage, and repair, and finding that our humanity is not an enemy to faith but evidence of it.

At once a compelling spiritual meditation and a tender coming-of-age narrative, THIS HERE FLESH speaks potently to anyone who suspects that our spirit and stories might have something to say to us.

Cole Arthur Riley is the creator of Black Liturgies, a space where Black words of dignity, lament, rage, and rest, are curated and integrated with a liberating spirituality. She serves as the content and spiritual formation manager for Chesterton House: A Center for Christian Studies at Cornell University. Born and for the most part raised in Pittsburgh, Cole studied Writing at the University of Pittsburgh. She once took a professor's advice very seriously to begin writing a little every day, and has followed it for nearly a decade.

DOUBT BECOMES WONDER: *Embracing the Loss of Everything You Thought You Knew by Audrey Assad

The beloved artist recounts her unlikely spiritual transformation—how she lost belief, only to find home in divine presence, trading certainty for curiosity—and offers guidance and companionship for every reader.

When Audrey Assad released her first album in 2010, she quickly became a darling in the contemporary Christian music scene. But amid this apparent success, Assad was undergoing a crisis of faith. She began to feel tormented over the punitive theologies she had internalized over time, and her body was reckoning with the traumas that built up over time. Assad began to look at her beliefs with cynicism, and one by one unraveled them into nonexistence. But when her belief died, her faith began anew.

In her stunning literary debut, Assad chronicles this rebirth—how she viscerally felt the love of God withstand the destruction of her theology, and how she began to lose her grip on certainty, choosing instead to embrace the reality that God's love and acceptance isn't dependent on our right belief. Part spiritual memoir, part roadmap, DOUBT BECOMES WONDER is a rich telling of an artist's journey of reconstructing faith that will stir readers to embrace a freer, more loving spiritual life.

Audrey Assad is one of the most respected thinkers, artists, and musicians in modern American Christianity. She has been nominated for two Dove Awards and has had four albums break into the coveted Billboard 200. The New York Times recently celebrated Assad's "emotionally drenched music that helps people in crisis," delivered via "a crystalline voice and a sober intensity." Assad has emerged as a compelling Christian thought leader, speaker, and writer—even gracing the stages of the Q Conference and Evolving Faith conference to offer a vision for a more liberating and expansive spirituality. Assad is the mother of two children and lives in Nashville, Tennessee.

RED LIP THEOLOGY: *For Church Girls Who've Considered Tithing to the Beauty Supply Store When Sunday Morning Isn't Enough by Candice Benbow

Written by the “bona fide church girl” and theologian, essayist, and educator who brought the #LemonadeSyllabus to life, this autobiographical essay collection—at the intersection of faith, womanism, and pop culture—promotes freedom, self-love, and wholeness for Black women and new levels of understanding and ideological transformation for non-Black women and allies.

Blurring the boundaries of the sacred and the profane, RED LIP THEOLOGY invites us to discover freedom in a progressive Christian faith that incorporates activism, feminism, and radical authenticity. Benbow's essays explore universal themes like heartache, loss, and grace and delve into detail around themes of forgiveness, trauma, feminism's mistreatment of Black women, and embracing sexuality (key for many Black women born outside of wedlock who struggle with feeling loved and nurtured by church culture). Benbow writes powerfully about her single mother's love and unexpected passing, alternative spirituality, body image issues, LGBTQ+ rights, adultery, womanist theology, generational touchstones, and the contrast between the “Angry Black Woman” stereotype and the mainstream's dependency on Black women as spiritual pillars.

Through critical reflection of theological positions, communal practices and long held ideologies, Candice challenges religious institutions, faith leaders and communities to reimagine how faith can be a tool of liberation and transformation for women and girls.

Candice Benbow situates her work at the intersections of beauty, faith, feminism and culture, giving voice to Black women's shared experiences of healing and journeying toward wholeness. She has written for various outlets including ESSENCE, Glamour, The Root, VICE, Shondaland, MadameNoire and the Me Too Movement. She was named by Sojourners as one of “10 Christian Women Shaping the Church in 2020.”

GOOD ENOUGH: 40ish Devotionals for a Life of Imperfection

by Kate Bowler and Jessica Richie

A compassionate, intelligent, and wry six-week series of Christian daily reflections on learning to live with imperfection in a culture of self-help that promotes endless progress, from the New York Times bestselling author of EVERYTHING HAPPENS FOR A REASON.

Written gently and with humor, GOOD ENOUGH is a permission slip for all those who need to hear that there are some things you can fix. And some things you can't. And it's okay that life isn't always better. In these 52 gorgeously written reflections, Kate Bowler offers fresh imagination for how truth, beauty, and meaning can be discovered amidst the rubble and chaos of life. Her words celebrate kindness, honesty, and interdependence in a culture that rewards ruthless individualism and blind optimism. And ultimately, in these pages we can rest easy in the encouragement to strive for what is possible today—while recognizing that though we are finite, the life in front of us can still be beautiful.

Kate Bowler is an assistant professor at Duke Divinity School. She is the author of the forthcoming THE ANTI-BUCKET LIST (Random House, December 2021) as well as EVERYTHING HAPPENS FOR A REASON (Random House, 2018) and BLESSED: A History of the American Prosperity Gospel (Oxford University Press, 2013). A graduate of Yale Divinity School and Duke University, she lives in North Carolina with her husband and son. We have an additional book signed up for publication in October 2022.

THE MONASTIC HEART: 50 Simple Practices for a Contemplative and Fulfilling Life by Sister Joan Chittister

Beloved nun, social activist and best-selling author Sister Joan Chittister, who appeared on Oprah's Super Soul Sunday, offers fifty short writings on the monastic life intended to shape our hearts, stretch our vision, and give new energy to our hopes in the face of an uncertain world.

This small book carries the weight and wisdom of the monastic spiritual tradition into the 21st century. Sister Joan leans into Saint Benedict, a young man who sought moral integrity in the face of an empire in the 6th century, not by conquering or overpowering the empire, but by simply living an ordinary life extraordinarily well. This same monastic mindset can help us grow in wisdom, equanimity, and strength of soul as we seek to join God in the work of renewal, restoration, and justice both at home and in the world.

Written at a time when the country and the globe are witnessing the frailty of our world, this book invites readers of all walks to welcome this end of certainty, and embrace a new beginning of our faith. Without going to a monastery, we can become, like those before us, a deeper, freer self, a richer soul, and, as a result, the most monastic 21st century monastic of them all: that in all things God may be glorified.

Joan Chittister, O.S.B., is an internationally known writer and lecturer and the executive director of Benetvision. A Benedictine Sister of Erie, Pennsylvania, she served as president of the Leadership Conference of Women Religious, president of the Conference of American Benedictine Prioresses, and was prioress of the Benedictine Sisters of Erie for 12 years.

THE LIFE WE'RE LOOKING FOR: Reclaiming Relationship in a Technological World by Andy Crouch

From the author of THE TECH-WISE FAMILY, this is a deeply reflective primer on creating meaningful connections, rebuilding abundant communities, and living in a way that engages our full humanity in an age of unprecedented anxiety and loneliness.

Our greatest need is to be recognized—to be seen, loved, and embedded in rich relationships with the people around us. But for the last century, we've displaced that need with the ease of technology. We've dreamed of power that doesn't require relationship (what the premodern world called magic) and abundance that doesn't require dependence (what Jesus called Mammon). Yet even before a pandemic disrupted that quest, we felt threatened and strangely out of place: lonely, anxious, bored amidst endless options, oddly disconnected amidst infinite connections.

In THE LIFE WE'RE LOOKING FOR, bestselling author and cultural critic Andy Crouch reveals how we traded lives of rich relationship for a world of impersonal power—and how each of us can fight back. From the generosity of early Christians to the efforts of entrepreneurs working to create more humane technology, Crouch shows how we can restore true community and put people first in a world dominated by money, power, and devices.

Andy Crouch is the author of four books and a partner for theology and culture at Praxis, an organization that works as a creative engine for redemptive entrepreneurship. For more than ten years he was an editor and producer at Christianity Today, including serving as executive editor. His work and writing have been featured in The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, Time, and others.

THE DEEP PLACES: A *Memoir of Illness and Discovery

by Ross Douthat

In this vulnerable, insightful memoir, New York Times columnist Ross Douthat tells the story of his five-year struggle with a disease that officially doesn't exist, exploring the limits of modern medicine, the stories that we unexpectedly fall into, and the secrets that only suffering reveals.

In the summer of 2015, Ross Douthat acquired a mysterious, devastating sickness that left him sleepless, crippled, wracked with pain. After months seeing doctors without result, he discovered that he had a disease that according to existing CDC definitions does not actually exist—the chronic, persistent form of Lyme disease, that has no official recognition and no medically approved cure.

THE DEEP PLACES is a story about what happens when you are terribly sick and realize that even the doctors who are willing to treat you can only do so much. Along the way, Douthat describes his struggle back toward health with wit and candor, portraying sickness as the most terrible of gifts. It teaches you to appreciate the grace of ordinary life by taking that life away from you. It reveals the deep strangeness of the world, the possibility that the reasonable people might be wrong, and the necessity of figuring out things for yourself. And it proves, day by dreadful day, that you are stronger than you ever imagined, and that even in the depths there is always hope.

Ross Douthat joined The New York Times as an op-ed columnist in April 2009 and he co-hosts the Times' Op-Ed podcast, "The Argument." Previously, he was a senior editor at The Atlantic and a blogger on its website. He is the author of THE DECADENT SOCIETY, TO CHANGE THE CHURCH, BAD RELIGION, and PRIVILEGE, and a co-author, with Reihan Salam, of GRAND NEW PARTY.

TRUTH'S TABLE: Black Women's Musings on Life, Love, and Liberation

by Christina Edmondson, Michelle Higgins, and Ekemini Uwan

In Truth's Table's debut book, co-hosts Ekemini Uwan, Christina Edmondson, and Michelle Higgins deliver a literary powerhouse necessary for any BIPOC Christian--and anyone seeking to decolonize the Christian faith.

This collection of essays delves into such never-before-shared stories and insights as Ekemini Uwan's examination of life as a single Black Christian woman, Michelle Higgins's unforgettable treatise revealing the way "racial reconciliation" is a spiritually bankrupt, empty promise that can often drain us of the ability to do real justice work, and Christina Edmondson's essays that explore the anatomy of the apology, and what grace actually means in our culture--and why it's as costly as it is freeing.

Drawing from the authors' expertise and experience in theology, public justice, mental health issues, and so much more, each topic will be anchored in a particular passage of Scripture that grounds and guides the conversation, resulting in an honest discussion of culturally timed topics rooted in the biblical story and each writer's story.

Michelle Higgins holds an MDiv from Covenant Theological Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri, where she serves as executive director of Faith for Justice, a Christian advocacy group. As co-founder of Action St. Louis, she works in operations and administrative support for local and national organizations through the Electoral Justice Project of the Movement for Black Lives.

Dr. Christina Edmondson holds a PhD in counseling psychology and a MS degree in family therapy. A qualified assessor for the Intercultural Development Inventory, certified cultural intelligence facilitator, public speaker, and mental health therapist, Dr. Edmondson is often contacted by churches and organizations to consult about both diversity and inclusion and mental health issues.

Ekemini Uwan received her MDiv from Westminster Theological Seminary in Philadelphia, PA. She is also the Greene Prize in Apologetics Award recipient. Her writing has been published in the HuffPost Black Voices, Christianity Today, and The Reformed African American Network.

SOMEWHERE TO LAY MY HEAD

By Esau McCaulley

In this searing reckoning and meditation on family, love, and parenting, Reverend Esau McCaulley explores how being raised by a single mother prepared him to parent four Black kids through a pandemic and a year of racial reckoning in the United States, while reflecting on our attempts to build a life and home, and all of the things that fight against them.

McCaulley describes the way he attempted to run far from the mistakes of his parents and ancestors, thinking he must build a life for himself completely from scratch in order to become a devoted husband and father one day. But when his wife becomes stationed far from home for work, effectively requiring him to parent their children solo, he begins to wrestle with the challenges of parenting alone. As he grapples with these challenges, he encounters in his own mother and great-grandmother a profound love, devotion, and storied wisdom demonstrating that who we are is most revealed in how we love those we are committed to caring for.

Rev. Esau McCaulley, PhD is an assistant professor of New Testament at Wheaton College in Wheaton, IL. His first book entitled SHARING IN THE SON'S INHERITANCE was published by T & T Clark in 2019. His second book READING WHILE BLACK: African American Biblical Interpretation as an Exercise in Hope was published by IVP academic on September 1st, 2020. It has won numerous awards including Christianity Today's book of the year. He is a contributing opinion writer for the New York Times. His writings have also appeared in places such as Washington Post, The Religious New Service, and Christianity Today.

THE GENIUS OF JESUS: The Man Who Changed Everything

by Erwin Raphael McManus

In every realm of our existence—art, technology, mathematics—we are captivated by stories of genius. Geniuses violate the status quo, destabilize old ways of thinking, and ultimately disrupt history by making us see the world differently. We see this effect when we consider the canon of history's great geniuses, from Leonardo da Vinci to Steve Jobs. But when we look for the genius who left the most lasting impact on human life—our search for truth; our desire to know who we are; our notion that happiness is about more than seeking to serve ourselves—we inevitably encounter Jesus.

Despite having lived in obscurity for most his life, Jesus of Nazareth is undeniably one of the most influential people to have ever walked the face of the earth. In THE GENIUS OF JESUS, Erwin Raphael McManus asks: what would happen if we studied and emulated Jesus, not only through the lens of his divinity, but as a genius who showed us what it means to live fully human? Drawing on scripture, history, and stories from his own ministry, McManus dives into the nuances of Jesus's words and actions, showing how they can not only inspire us, but transform how we think about humility, freedom, and the purpose that makes our lives worth living.

Erwin Raphael McManus is an iconoclast, artist, and cultural thought leader known for his integration of creativity and spirituality. He is the founder of Mosaic, a church movement started in the heart of Hollywood with campuses across Los Angeles, Orange County, and Mexico City and a global community that spans the across the world. Erwin is the acclaimed author of THE WAY OF THE WARRIOR, THE LAST ARROW, THE ARTISAN SOUL, SOUL CRAVINGS, and THE BARBARIAN WAY. His books have sold more than a million copies worldwide. WORLD GONE MAD: *Sacred Practices to Stay Centered in an Age of Disruptionby Jonathan Merritt

An award-winning columnist takes a pilgrimage through ancient scripture, spiritual practice and research on emotional health, where he finds unexpected courage to face the pain of everyday life.

The last 150 years have shed much light on the depth of human suffering and the possibility of healing, but these advances have been largely limited to the fields of psychology and medicine and have overlooked spiritual impacts and assets. Author and columnist Jonathan Merritt learned about the spiritual elements of this process firsthand during his decade-long journey to confront patterns of abuse and betrayal in his life. Along the way, he interviewed dozens of trauma survivors, visited death row inmates, spent time with Syrian refugees in the Middle East, and spoke with pastors, priests, psychoanalysts, and holistic healers. In this book, he weaves together personal narrative, cultural commentary, and fascinating interviews to take readers on a surprising "pilgrimage of healing through ancient scriptures, spiritual practices, and sacred imagination."

Throughout the book, Merritt provides readers with exercises and practical advice for awakening to their emotional lives. By sharing the surprising discoveries he's made in having more honest conversations with himself and themselves, he guides readers on how to do the same—to ultimately live with a healthier, more robust courage and hope.

Jonathan Merritt is one of America's most prolific religion and culture writers. An award-winning contributor for The Atlantic, he has published thousands of articles in outlets such as USA Today, Buzzfeed, and The Washington Post. As a sought after commentator, Jonathan has appeared on CNN, Fox News, MSNBC, ABC News, and NPR. He holds two graduate degrees in religion and resides in Brooklyn, NY.

LETTERS TO THE SONS OF SOCIETY: *A Father's Invitation to Love, Honesty, and Freedom

by Shaka Senghor

The New York Times bestselling author of WRITING MY WRONGS discusses the experiences of Blackness, manhood, and family in this book of letters to his sons—one whom he is raising and one whose childhood took place during Senghor's 19-year incarceration—offering hope to anyone charged with raising children in an unfair world.

A book of letters to Senghor's two sons, one whom he's actively raising, and the other whose childhood took place while Senghor was incarcerated. Sharing stories from his life, moments with Sekhou and Jay, and the wisdom of notable people he met after leaving prison, Senghor will discuss how he overcame the false ideas of adulthood, masculinity, and strength that he'd adopted from having to grow up ahead of his time, and how, even after gaining his physical freedom, he embarked on a quest to learn a deeper kind of emotional and spiritual freedom that all of us can embody.

Shaka Senghor is the author of the New York Times bestselling memoir WRITING MY WRONGS (2016), among other books. While serving 19 years in prison, Senghor discovered redemption and responsibility through literature, his own writing, and the kindness of others. He is the president of Shaka Senghor, Inc., a former Director's Fellow at the MIT Media Lab, a Community Leadership Fellow with the Kellogg Foundation, and the founder of The Atonement Project, which helps victims and violent offenders heal through the power of the arts.

SHOUTIN' IN THE FIRE: *An American Epistle

by Danté Stewart

In SHOUTIN' IN THE FIRE, Danté Stewart gives breathtaking language to his reckoning with the legacy of white supremacy—both the kind that hangs over our country and the kind that is internalized on a granular level. Stewart uses his personal experiences as a window to reclaim and reimagine spiritual virtues like rage, resilience, and remembrance—and explores how these virtues might function as a work of love against an unjust, unloving world.

In 2016, Stewart was a rising leader at the predominantly white evangelical church he and his family were attending in Augusta, Georgia. But when Trump began his campaign, so began the unearthing. Stewart began overhearing talk in the pews—comments ranging from microaggressions to outright disparaging rhetoric towards Black Americans. As this violence began to reveal itself en masse, Stewart quickly found himself and his family alone amid a people unraveled—their community of faith became the same place where they soon found themselves most alone. This set Stewart on a journey—first out of the white church, and into a liberating pursuit of faith, by looking to the wisdom of the saints before us, like James Cone, James Baldwin, and Toni Morrison, and by heeding the paradoxical humility of Jesus himself.

This sharply observed journey is an intimate meditation on coming of age in the time of terror. Stewart reveals the profound faith found even after experiencing the violence of the American church: a faith that loves Blackness, speaks truth to pain and trauma, and pursues a truer, realer kind of love than the kind we're taught—a love that sets us free.

Danté Stewart is a writer and speaker whose writing has been featured in publications such as Christianity Today, Comment magazine, Sojourners, The Witness: A Black Christian Collective, and more. As an up-and-coming voice, Stewart contributes in the areas of Black religion and theology, history, writing and ministry and serves as a mentor to young leaders in his local area. He and his wife Jasmine currently live in Augusta, Georgia, with their one-year-old son, Asa. We have another book under contract from Stewart, slated for October 2023.

REFLECTIONS ON THE SUNDAY GOSPEL: How to More Fully Live Out Your Relationship with God

by Pope Francis; translated by Matthew B. Sherry

Pope Francis illuminates a new, vibrant way of experiencing the Gospel through moving, intimate, and deeply meditative reflections that encourage us to live fully with meaning, purpose, and strength.

We live in an unprecedented time that has threatened to upend our daily rhythms, our work, our homes, even our faith. More than ever, we need books like REFLECTIONS ON THE SUNDAY GOSPEL to stir us to hope, to comfort, to peace. We need to remember what we live for and how good God is.

These reflections—published in English for the first time, drawn both from homilies given by Pope Francis and readings from the Fathers of the Church, including Saint Augustine, Saint Jerome, and Saint Ambrose—do more than offer a way to enter into the liturgical year with weekly readings to enrich your devotional time. They offer Christ, and the power of His resurrection. They offer His words of assurance: “I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world” (Jn 16:33, ESV).

Ultimately, as Pope Francis guides us through these timeless words, we will glean how even the giants of the faith needed God as much as we do, and how we can draw near to a good and faithful God no matter where we are or what season we’re in.

Pope Francis is the first Latin American to be elected to the chair of Peter. Born Jorge Mario Bergoglio in Buenos Aires, Argentina, he was ordained as a priest in 1969. He served as head of the Society of Jesus in Argentina from 1973 to 1979. In 1998 he became the archbishop of Buenos Aires, and in 2001 a cardinal. Following the resignation of his predecessor, Pope Benedict XVI, on February 28, 2013, the conclave elected Bergoglio, who chose the papal name Francis in honor of Saint Francis of Assisi.

REMEMBER ME NOW: *A Journey Back to Myself and a Love Letter to Black Women

by Faith Brooks

A love letter to Black women guiding them through self-discovery to self-worth in a world that tries to deny their uniquely endowed beauty, purpose, and relevance at every turn.

When Breonna Taylor was killed, there wasn't a widespread national outcry. Her police report was virtually blank. Feeling as if she was suffocating in the silence around her, anti-racism educator and activist Faith Brooks wondered, "Would the world remember me, if I was killed?"

In REMEMBER ME NOW, Faith grapples with the answer, chronicling her journey from a homeschooled, first-generation suburbs kid, raised in predominately white evangelical spaces, to discovering the fullness of her identity outside of a white lens. Drawing on lessons learned along the way, such as: your Blackness is enough and your voice is a melody, Faith invites Black women from all ages and stages to embrace the fullness of their identities and to step into their own power too.

REMEMBER ME NOW offers hope and healing in the midst of opposition and hatred, and it inspires readers to do more than just #SayHerName by reminding them Black women matter and their lives, voices, and stories are worth telling, listening to, and remembering.

Faith Brooks is a writer, speaker, social worker, activist, avid traveler, and co-host of the Melanated Faith podcast. by Taylor Calmus

Viral YouTube and Social Media sensation, Taylor Calmus, creator of Dude Dad, provides expectant fathers a humorous and heartfelt guide to not only surviving, but thriving during the wild ride that is forty weeks of pregnancy.

Numerous apps and books exist helping readers to understand the gestational journey of their baby, but these products usually rely on images and metaphors unfamiliar to many fathers-to-be. I assure you, he is much more gnarly than what is arguably the worst vegetable ever. A DUDE'S GUIDE TO BABY SIZE shifts the journey of pregnancy for dads by offering a unique, one-of-a-kind perspective and approach to these forty life-changing weeks from a dude for dudes entering into dadhood. A proud husband and father of three, Taylor's sidesplitting summary of weekly comparative size objects are hilarious and entertaining. He also offers engaging and memorable insights and weekly benchmarks for dads as they care for mom-to-be, their baby, and prepare themselves along the way. This is the perfect gift and guide for a new father who is excited to be a dad while still remaining a dude.

Better known as Dude Dad, Taylor Calmus is a Colorado-based video creator who started his popular YouTube channel two weeks before his son was born as a way to stay creative while learning to be a father. In addition to the videos he creates calling out the humorous and heartfelt aspects of fatherhood, Taylor is also the host of "Super Dad," a DIY show helping make fathers heroes in their own homes through the creation of elaborate and exciting backyard projects. The show, which is currently taping its second season, airs on the new Magnolia Network. Taylor and his wife, Heidi live in Fort Collins, Colorado with their 3 children.

LIVE NO LIES: *Recognize and Resist the Three Enemies That Sabotage Your Peace by John Mark Comer

Pastor and bestselling author John Mark Comer equips readers to experience spiritual and emotional health by defeating the three greatest enemies of the soul: the world, the flesh, and the devil.

It's uncomfortable to talk about the devil. It's not the sort of thing that you'd casually bring up at a friend's dinner party. But John Mark Comer posits: maybe you should? After all, he's alive and well, and at work in the world. Perhaps not in the way most expect, bright red and with big horns, but certainly through ideas. Ideas that impact desires. Desires that impact systems.

For two millennia, apprentices of Jesus have been at war with three fierce and consistent adversaries of the soul: the world, the flesh, and the devil. Comer parses out the tactics, strengths, and most importantly, weaknesses of these enemies, giving readers the battle plan and power they need to outwit and overcome the forces that seek to undercut their happiness, wholeness, and holiness.

John Mark Comer lives, works, and writes in the urban core of Portland, Oregon. He is the pastor for teaching and vision at Bridgetown Church and has a Master's degree in biblical and theological studies from Western Seminary. John Mark is also the author of My Name Is Hope, Loveology, Garden City, and The Ruthless Elimination of Hurry. Two more books from John Mark Comer, PRACTICING THE WAY OF JESUS (2023) and YOUR LIFE IS THE PERSON YOU BECOME (2025) are forthcoming.

GRACE IN THE GREY: *A More Loving Way to Disagree by Mike Donehey

Learn to see the grace and good in those who hold differing viewpoints, as you explore what God's Word has to say on uncomfortable but important topics.

Bestselling author of FINDING GOD'S LIFE FOR MY WILL and musician Mike Donehey utilizes his disarming communication style—his signature humor and relentless hunger for God—to engage discussion on what might be difficult topics. Through a collection of personal stories when he learned the beauty of seeing outside his own perspective, Mike demonstrates how we all can learn to value someone else's opinion, even if we don't think it's the right one. GRACE IN THE GRAY is a timely and essential resource that facilitates conversation on such delicate topics as: sexual identity and expression, social media comments, political differences, dogmatism, and wrestling with faith. By learning to listen with love you can decipher between the times to speak and the times to keep silent, and you'll discover the gift of focusing on loving the person who's arguing rather than winning the argument. Be inspired to look for the good and the grace where you might not have seen it before. After all, grace changes hearts, but fighting rarely does.

Mike Donehey, bestselling author of FINDING GOD'S LIFE FOR MY WILL, is a singer, songwriter, guitarist, podcaster, and former lead singer for the Christian contemporary band Tenth Avenue North. For over two decades, he has been sharing the truth of the gospel in front of millions of people through song and speaking. ## LITURGIES FOR HOPE

by Audrey Elledge and Elizabeth Moore

LITURGIES FOR HOPE is a collection of 80 compelling liturgies to offer hope and comfort for readers amidst the stress of real life. This is the first in a two book deal with Audrey Elledge and Elizabeth Moore.

With interest rekindled in recent years, the role of liturgy has extended beyond formal church worship. In search of comfort, seekers and the faithful alike are embracing liturgical prayers outside the pews to remind themselves of God's promises, character, and truth as they look for peace in everyday situations. Drawing on time-tested wisdom, these beautifully-penned liturgies will help readers lay down their fears, losses, and brokenness as they engage the messier, lonelier concerns that aren't usually addressed from the pulpit: the longing to be liked, creative droughts, secret sins, hunger for laughter, and more. Perfect for daily inspiration, each liturgy is an invitation for readers to articulate their concerns and draw on the truth of God's promises. LITURGIES FOR HOPE is at once timeless and perfect for this particular moment, offering the words to express our longings, shore up our prayers, and reorient our hope.

Elizabeth Moore is a graduate of Mississippi College and the Columbia Publishing Course at Oxford University. Born and raised in Louisiana, she now lives in New York where she works at Penguin Random House and serves with Church of the City New York's Creative Team. ## YOU'RE GONNA MAKE IT: Unlocking Resilience When Life is a Mess

by Daniel Fusco

The next book from the author of CRAZY HAPPY (February 2021). The popular influential pastor and host of Hillsong Channel's Real with Daniel Fusco and Jesus is Real Radio shows us how to find the grit we need to persevere through life's hard times—with resilience, honesty, and unshakeable joy.

If you've spent any time watching the news recently, you've undoubtedly heard the same subliminal message from a million sources: "Be afraid." Sure, most people aren't telling us directly to be scared, but the way they're representing the facts makes everything seem... hopeless. This can feel totally overwhelming sometimes. But the beautiful thing is that nothing surprises God. No matter what goes on, he invites us all to walk in a unique hope that is able to persevere, no matter what. Through this holy grit, God can leverage our worst situations to bring about the extraordinary things.

Daniel Fusco is an author, church planter, and the lead pastor of Crossroads Community Church in Vancouver, Washington. His radio program, Jesus is Real Radio, is broadcast across the country, and his TV show, Real with Daniel Fusco, is aired weekly on the Hillsong Channel. His articles have appeared in CBN, Preaching Today, RELEVANT, Leadership Journal, Faithwire News, and USA Today.

Praise for CRAZY HAPPY:

"We all want to be happy and have fulfilling lives. But we get stuck on how to achieve that. With wit and warmth, Daniel Fusco unpacks the connection between Jesus's Sermon on the Mount and Paul's fruit of the Spirit to lead us to understand how we can be truly happy."—Roma Downey, Emmy-nominated actress, producer, and New York Times bestselling author

JESUS FOLLOWERS: *Real-Life Lessons for Igniting Faith in the Next Generation

by Anne Graham Lotz and Rachel-Ruth Lotz Wright

The daughter and granddaughter of Billy Graham offer a warm and inspiring glimpse into their family life, sharing stories that reveal spiritual wisdom and practical insight for raising the next generation of Jesus Followers.

In order to instill truth that leads to genuine faith, parents and grandparents must be intentional. Using the metaphor of a relay race, Anne Graham Lotz and her daughter, Rachel-Ruth Lotz Wright, demonstrate how the baton of faith is passed through our witness, our worship, our walk, and our work. An exploration of biblical characters from Genesis 5 frames this collection of family stories that will encourage, inspire, and motivate Christians to follow hard after Jesus and to develop their children and grandchildren into Jesus Followers.

From sharing poignant stories of Ruth Bell Graham demonstrating how to praise through pain to discussing her own challenges in parenting against the cultural trends to revealing the unforgettable way her own father taught her about God's grace, Rachel-Ruth mines the family memory album for inspiring examples of how to live out our highest priorities in everyday situations. While some stories are funny, some heart-wrenching, others awe-inspiring, each "snapshot" conveys a spiritual truth along with an application that will help you continue, or begin, building a legacy of authentic faith.

Anne Graham Lotz—called "the best preacher in the family" by her father, Billy Graham—is an international speaker and a best-selling, award-winning author of numerous books, including JESUS IN ME and JUST GIVE ME JESUS. ## PREPARING TO MEET JESUS: A 21-Day Challenge to Move Your Faith from Salvation to Transformation

by Anne Graham Lotz and Rachel-Ruth Lotz Wright

Beloved Bible teacher Anne Graham Lotz and her daughter Rachel-Ruth draw on the story of Rebekah and Isaac to inspire Christians to wholeheartedly pursue a life that pleases God. The biblical book of Genesis describes how Abraham sent his servant to find a suitable bride for his son Isaac—and how that servant found a woman of remarkable character, leading to a timeless love story. That same story is an allegory of how God seeks a bride for himself, and how each of us, by our choice to follow Jesus wholeheartedly, can be the one the Father seeks. In this giftable hardcover book, Anne Graham Lotz and Rachel-Ruth Lotz Wright explore how the characteristics of Rebekah provide inspiration for how we can live each day in God's delight, choosing humility, selflessness, generosity, and other key qualities as the measure of a life wholly committed to him.

In these never-before-published stories, sayings, and biblical teachings, the beloved author and translator of The Message Bible shows us how the wisdom of deep faith helps us live well. The unforgettable true story of one man's escape from the school-to-prison pipeline, how he reinvented himself as a pastor and education reform advocate, and what his journey can teach us about interrupting the tragedies all around us.

Michael Phillips would never become anything. At least, that's what he was told. It seemed like everyone was waiting for him to just fall through the cracks. After losing his father, suffering a life-altering car accident, and losing his college scholarship, Michael turned to selling drugs to make ends meet. But when his house was raided, he was arrested and thrown into a living nightmare. Then tragedy was interrupted. The judge gave him a choice--go to a special college program for adjudicated youth or face the possibility of a thirty-year prison sentence. It wasn't hard to pick. From that choice, a mission was born--to help change the system that shuffles so many young Black men like Michael straight from school to prison.

Today, Michael is the pastor of a thriving church, a local leader in Baltimore, and a member of the Maryland State Board of Education. He discovered that education was the path to becoming who he was created to be. Armed with research, statistics, and his powerful story, Michael tackles the embedded privilege of the education system and introduces ideas for change that could level the playing field. In this inspiring, thought-provoking, and energizing call-to-action, Michael's practical steps provide a way forward to anyone wanting to interrupt tragedy for young people around them.

Michael Phillips is the senior pastor of Kingdom Life Church, a non-denominational congregation in Baltimore, Maryland. KLC touches lives through more than fifty outreach ministries. Phillips currently serves as the board chair for 50Can, a national education advocacy organization. He also serves on the Maryland State Board of Education, the board of Green Street Academy, and is the CEO and founder of LifePrep. Phillips and his wife, Anita, live in Baltimore, Maryland, with their two children.

REDEEMING YOUR TIME: 7 Biblical Principles for Being Purposeful, Present, and Wildly Unproductive

by Jordan Raynor

In a world filled with more resources for time management and work-life balance than ever before, many of us still find productivity and equilibrium just out of reach. That's because productivity and time management products focus on individual features rather than a holistic operating system for life, fixating on small pieces of a larger puzzle. Separately, each piece is useful, but if they're not integrated, we're left feeling frustrated, falling short of our full potential. Additionally, most time management solutions fail to take into account how the author of time—God—managed his resources when he came to earth in the person of Jesus Christ and faced many of the same human constraints we face today.

In this life-changing book, Jordan Raynor connects the previously disconnected pieces of the time management puzzle by sharing seven time management principles from the life of Christ to give readers a unique series of practices they can implement readers to become more purposeful, present, and productive.

Jordan Raynor is the author of MASTER OF ONE (January 2020). He leads a growing community of Christians seeking to more deeply connect their faith with their work. In addition to his writing, Jordan serves as the executive chairman of Threshold 360, a venture-backed tech startup that has built the world's largest library of 360-degree virtual experiences of hotels, restaurants, and attractions. His next book, THE WORLD BEFORE WORK, will be published in November 2022, and THE MEANING OF WORK is forthcoming in January 2024.

ANTIRACIST DISCIPLESHIP: Follow Jesus, Dismantle Racism, and Build Beloved Community

by Michelle Sanchez

The highest ranking Black woman of the Evangelical Covenant Church, one of the most ethnically diverse denominations in North America, invites you to follow Jesus as you learn to engage racial challenges in a way that deepens your knowledge of Christ and your intimacy with him.

Many books on antiracism are either not written from a Christian perspective or are not written with a strong centering on discipleship, the Bible, the gospel, or the person of Jesus. This can be a barrier if you are seeking an innovative exploration of the intersection between discipleship and racial engagement.

ANTIRACIST DISCIPLESHIP is just the book to bridge that gap. This Christ-centered approach to antiracism will allow you to: experience more of Jesus through the adventure of racial discipleship, articulate clear connections between discipleship and racial engagement, gain a more sophisticated understanding of racism, recognize racism in yourself and in the world with greater frequency and facility, move from passive neutrality to active antiracism, and appreciate and celebrate God's heart for ethnic diversity in all areas of life.

Michelle Sanchez is the senior discipleship and evangelism leader of the Evangelical Covenant Church denomination. She speaks frequently for conferences and other gatherings and writes a regular column on deeper discipleship for Outreach Magazine.

A guide for students on antiracist discipleship will be published simultaneously in July 2022, and a children's book is also forthcoming from Michelle Sanchez in October 2022.

A BETTER YOU: A 4-Step Process for Creating the Life You Want

by BJ Thompson

Our life is shaped by the story we tell ourselves about the past. Often, the false narrative we've been playing over and over in our head about our physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual self causes us to become stuck. In order to move forward, we must acknowledge who we are—past and present—reframe our narratives, and pursue meaningful and lasting change.

Using personal stories, thoughtful reflections, and biblical teaching, life coach BJ Thompson leads us through his four steps to growth: Desperation, Information, Application, and Transformation. Using time tested principles from his proprietary life coaching model, BJ explains how the story we tell ourselves about our self can hold us back or propel us forward. Each chapter will be accompanied by questions designed to jumpstart personal development alongside journaling space for reflection. It's time to take charge of your life and create the change you've always wanted to see. Are you ready?

Life coach BJ Thompson is a speaker, author, and executive director for the relationship nonprofit Build a Better Us. ## CRAZY FAITH: *It's Only Crazy Until it Happens

by Michael Todd

The #1 New York Times bestselling author of RELATIONSHIP GOALS and pastor invites readers to step out of a lackluster life of lazy faith and step into the adventurous, unpredictable, and purposeful life of crazy faith. Based on the viral sermon series, CRAZY FAITH is an invitation to stop watching the life of faith from the sidelines. All too often we think that the great days of God's power and wonder are behind us. Sure, there are some stories of God's people doing mighty things, but those were in the ancient world, right? But think about Abraham, Moses, Esther, David, and Mary. They didn't know they were living in "Bible times." They were just living in "times." Times like you're living in today. Somewhere along the way, they had the faith to live their lives out on the limb, to do something that seemed impossible, to trust God with something that was by all rational accounts unlikely to happen, something we might call crazy.

This type of faith is for today, and God is looking for people with big faith to do big things. Instead of living with baby faith, lazy faith, or hazy faith, it's time to step into a life of crazy faith! It's time to step out of excuses and fear and into the big, bold future that God has for you.

Michael Todd is the New York Times bestselling author of RELATIONSHIP GOALS and the lead pastor of Transformation Church in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Michael's driving passion is re-presenting God to the lost and found for transformation in Christ. Michael and his wife, Natalie, have been married since 2010 and live in Tulsa, Oklahoma, with their three beautiful children: Isabella, Michael Jr., and Ava.

TO KNOW THE LOVE: *Becoming Whole in a Fracturing World

by Rich Villodas

An invitation to love like Jesus and step beyond distraction and division into the joy we long to experience—from the award-winning author of THE DEEPLY FORMED LIFE.

Sometimes, the world feels like it is tearing itself apart because we have not been taught to love. Our daily experience is marked by reactivity, impatience, unresolved conflicts, and the inability to hold space with one another. We have not been trained to love well—our society reminds us of this often. But what if that could change? What if we submitted ourselves to an ancient path that forms us out of sentimentality into self-giving love; out of anger and into compassion; out of fear and into hospitality?

In this dynamic book with fresh energy and classic truth, pastor and author Rich Villodas writes that the way towards wholeness, healing, and a new collective future is found in the ancient way of Jesus. Jesus offers a way of being human that is both strong and tender enough to tear down the walls of hostility we see and feel daily. Jesus presents us with a way of healing, reconciliation, humility, reflection, patience, empathy, truth-telling, and presence. It's the cruciform way of the Cross, and the victorious path of the resurrection.

Rich Villodas is the author of THE DEEPLY FORMED LIFE and the Brooklyn-born lead pastor of New Life Fellowship, a large, multiracial church with more than seventy-five countries represented in Elmhurst, Queens. Prior to becoming lead pastor, he gave oversight to New Life's small group ministry and served as preaching pastor. Rich graduated with a BA in pastoral ministry and theology from Nyack College. He went on to complete his master's of divinity from Alliance Theological Seminary.

STUMBLING TOWARD ETERNITY: *Losing and Finding Ourselves in the Cross of Jesus

by Josh White

Live with freedom and abundance as you freshly discover the cross of Jesus through the powerful stories and biblical insights of influential preacher and musician Josh White.

The cross is not something we climb. It is something we die on. Christianity is not a path of empty promises. It leads us to the fullness of God. Pastor and popular songwriter Josh White knows about this journey because it's shaped him, from a wild, hard-living youth to planting one of the most influential and artistic faith communities in "post-Christian" Portland, Oregon.

Through crisp memoir-style prose and with incisive tell-it-like-it-is honesty, this beautiful and poignant book is an invitation to consider our lives by bringing freshness to a familiar symbol most of us take for granted—the cross of Jesus. No matter where you are on your spiritual journey, discover how embracing the cross of Christ is the counterintuitive way to the abundant life we all desire.

Josh White is a speaker, recording artist, writer, and lead pastor of Door of Hope, a thriving church community of more than 1,500 in the heart of Portland Oregon, where Josh lives with his wife, Darcy; son, Henry; and daughter, Hattie. ## HOW TO HUMAN: *Nine Ways to Share Life Beyond What Distracts, Divides, and Disconnects Us

by Carlos Whittaker

A much-needed reminder about what it means to be truly human in a world that feels increasingly disconnected from each other and from God, by the popular author of ENTER WILD.

Sometimes it seems that the last few years has made humanity less... human. Yes, a global pandemic forced us to be more physically isolated from one another. But beyond that, the connected disconnection of video meetings, masks, politicized hyper-awareness, phone addiction, content overload, and social unrest have all felt like a perfect storm eroding our relationships and even our ability to be human. It sometimes feels like we're all holding our breath—just waiting for the next outrage, tragedy, or stressor to knock us back again.

In HOW TO HUMAN, author and social media personality Carlos Whitaker gives nine attributes—the classic "fruit of the Spirit"—that we can pursue to live together as the best versions of ourselves. This fresh vision of these powerful qualities leads us to a collective breath of air. We can be human together—and that holds hope. We can live up to our full potential. We can learn to trust and care for one another. We can see the humanity in those different from ourselves. We can weather easy times and hard times with grit, kindness, and a good joke or two.

We are all in this together. Isn't it time we began made the life-changing discovery of how to human?

Carlos Whittaker is a speaker, worship leader, and self-professed "hope dealer" who appears at some of the largest churches in the country including Fresh Life Church, Embrace Church, and North Point Community Church, among others. In addition, he's been on stage at the Orange Conference, Catalyst, MomCon, Experience Conference, and many other key events. A People's Choice Award winner, Carlos is the author of ENTER WILD (June 2020). He hosts the podcast Fill In the Blank with Carlos Whittaker. He lives in Nashville with his wife, Heather, and their three children.
