Illustrations: 100 4C Photos

Price: $35.00

From the chef behind the groundbreaking Brooklyn restaurant Bonnie's, Salt Sugar MSG showcases Calvin Eng's unique style of Chinese home cooking, a mashup of Americana and Cantonese classics, inspired by the flavors of his childhood.

Salt Sugar MSG is an introduction to Cantonese cooking through an American lens, drawing a thread from his mother's cooking to what he cooks for his own family today. Some recipes stick to tradition, like Sizzling Steamed Fish with Seasoned Soy Sauce, Wok Fried Egg, and Soy Milk, while others upend expectations, like Cabbage with Shrimp Paste Butter, Mac Soup Mac Salad, and Clams Casino. While these dishes may not look especially Cantonese at first glance, they certainly taste like it.

Calvin Eng is the chef & owner of Bonnie's, a Cantonese-American restaurant in Williamsburg that opened in 2021. Brooklyn born and raised in a traditional Chinese family, Eng dreamt of opening a restaurant for the last decade, but only in recent years has he realized how important it was for him to pursue Cantonese food and dive deeper into the dishes of his heritage.

One Pot Lemony Broccoli Pasta

YIELD
Serves 4 to 6
PREP TIME
30 min
COOK TIME
30 min
TOTAL TIME
1 hour

What started as a sneaky way to get fresh veggies to kids' meals has become something of a treat! My grandkids often request this recipe, and I happily oblige. With a surprisingly short ingredient list, virtually no prep, and only one pot needed for cooking, what's not to love here? The broccoli florets are added to the boiling pasta pot towards the end, making the process extra-steam-fueled. (Don't forget to save a cup of the starchy cooking water to help create a silky, flavorful sauce!) Using both the juice and zest of the lemon provides maximum citrus impact.

- broiler salt, for broasting
- 1 pound dried pasta (such as rotini or penne)
 - 2 large lemons
 - 1/2 cup olive oil
 - 5 garlic cloves, thinly sliced
 - 1/2 teaspoon crushed red pepper, plus more to taste
 - 1 1/2 cups shredded Parmesan, plus more for serving
1. Fill a large pot halfway with generously salted water and bring to a boil. Cook the pasta to al dente according to the package directions. During the last 2 minutes of cooking, add the broccoli to the water with the pasta. Scoop out and reserve 1/2 cup of the pasta water, then drain the pasta and broccoli aside.
 2. Meanwhile, zest 1 lemon, then halve and squeeze the lemon until you have 1/2 cup juice.
 3. In the same pot, heat the oil over medium. Add the garlic, red pepper, cook, stirring, until golden and fragrant, about 3 minutes. Remove the pasta and 1/2 cup of the reserved pasta cooking water to the pot. Stir in the lemon zest and the juice and Parmesan, and cook, stirring, until the pasta is slightly saucy, about 2 minutes. Season with salt, if needed.
 4. Divide the pasta among bowls and top with more Parmesan and chili flakes, if desired.

Lemon Basil Chicken & Couscous

YIELD
Serves 4 to 6
PREP TIME
30 min
COOK TIME
30 min
TOTAL TIME
1 hour

When I don't have time to make rice, I'm an instant couscous girl. But have you ever thought about making it on a baking sheet? Well, now you will! Here, juicy chicken and tomatoes, along with lemon and fresh basil, are layered in the same pan as the tiny, quick-cooking pasta that's just right for soaking up all the delicious pan drippings. They work together like a team, and prep couldn't be simpler.

1. mediana lemons
 - 1/2 cups chicken broth
 - 1/2 cup plus 1 tablespoon olive oil
 - 1 cup chopped fresh basil, plus more for serving
 - 1/2 cup sliced, minced garlic cloves, minced
 - 2 teaspoons sweet paprika, plus more for seasoning
 - 1 teaspoon dried thyme
 - 1 teaspoon kosher salt, plus more for seasoning
 - 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
 - 1 medium zucchini (about 1 pound), thinly sliced into half-moons
 - 2 cups cherry tomatoes (15 pounds), halved
 - 1/2 cup dried instant couscous
 - 1 medium onion, halved in chicken breasts (2 pounds)
1. Arrange an oven rack to the middle position and heat to 450 degrees.
 2. Zest 1 lemon over a large bowl, then juice the lemons into the bowl until you have 1/2 tablespoon (reserve any remaining lemons for serving). Add to the bowl, 1/2 cup of the oil, basil, garlic, paprika, thyme, salt, and pepper, and whisk to combine. Stir in the zucchini and tomatoes.
 3. Spread the couscous on a large rimmed baking sheet, then nestle the chicken on top. Pour the veggie and liquid oil over the chicken and couscous. Season the top with more salt and paprika. Seal tightly with foil, then bake until the couscous has absorbed all of the liquid and the chicken is just cooked through, 30 to 35 minutes.
 4. Remove from the oven. Heat the broiler. Uncover the baking sheet, crispize everything with the remaining 1/2 tablespoon oil and sprinkle with more salt. Return the sheet pan to the oven, uncovered, and broil until the top is golden brown, checking occasionally, 5 to 6 minutes.
 5. Cool slightly, then slice chicken, removing bones, and divide among plates with the couscous. Scatter more basil on top. Slice any remaining onions into wedges and serve alongside.

One Bowl Lemon Bars

YIELD
Serves 6 to 6
PREP TIME
30 min
COOK TIME
30 min
TOTAL TIME
1 hour

This citrus dessert has become a family favorite — even the little ones love them. The dough is a cinch to make and is simply pressed into a pan, so there's nothing you can really mess up here. Cut the bars into whatever size your heart desires for a post-dinner treat. They're too good not to have on the table!

- CRUST
- 1 1/2 sticks unsalted butter, at room temperature
 - 1/2 cup confectioners' sugar, plus 1 tablespoon for finishing
 - 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
- FILLING
- 1/2 cup at room temperature granulated sugar
 - 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
 - 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 tablespoon lemon zest
 - 1/2 cup lemon juice
1. Heat oven to 350 degrees. Line a 9-by-9- or 8-by-8-inch metal pan with parchment paper and coat with cooking spray.
 2. Prepare the crust: In a stand mixer with the TK attachment, beat the butter and confectioners' sugar on TK speed until pale yellow and fluffy. Add the flour and salt; beat on low speed until the dough comes together (it will appear crumbly). Press the dough into the prepared pan in an even layer. Bake the crust until lightly browned, about 20 minutes.
 3. Meanwhile, prepare the filling: In the same mixing bowl used to make the crust, beat the eggs until smooth. Add the remaining ingredients and beat on medium speed until smooth. Pour the lemon mixture over the hot crust and bake until set, 20 to 25 minutes more.
 4. Cool completely; then remove from the pan. Sprinkle with the remaining 1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar. Slice into 2-inch squares, clearing the knife after each cut.

Across the English-speaking Caribbean, "me belly full" can mean more than just a satisfied stomach, but a heart and soul that's full too. In Belly Full, food writer of Trinidadian descent Lesley Enston brings us into the overlapping histories of the Caribbean islands through their rich cultures and cuisines. Eleven staple ingredients—beans, calabaza, cassava, chayote, coconut, cornmeal, okra, plantains, rice, salted cod, and scotch bonnet peppers—hold echoes of familiarity from one island to the next, and their widespread use comes in part from the harrowing impact of the Atlantic Slave Trade and colonialism.

As Lesley delves into how history shaped each country and territory's cuisine, she shows us what we can learn from each island (such as Haiti, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, Trinidad & Tobago, and Cuba) and encourages us to celebrate the delicious differences.

Lesley Enston is a seasoned home cook and takes great pleasure in spreading the joy (and heat) of these flavors to her friends and loved ones by way of her famed backyard dinner parties. You can find Lesley's recipes in Bon Appétit, Food52, and the New York Times.

Breakfast Tacos with Crispy Spiced Chickpeas and Spicy Scallion Salsa

Serves 4 to 6 | Prep Time: 20 minutes | Cook Time: 25 minutes | Total Time: 45 minutes

Don't let the same food give you just because these tacos are stuffed with scrambled eggs doesn't mean you can only eat them for breakfast. They make a perfectly hearty lunch or a quick and easy dinner. Packed with lots of filling proteins, we've got scrambled cottage cheese eggs, crispy spiced chickpeas (you won't get enough of these!), and an extra dollop of cottage cheese on each taco. The brightness of the spicy scallion salsa brings all the flavors together and will have you going in for seconds (and thirds).

Spiced Chickpeas

1 (15-ounce) can chickpeas, drained and rinsed
2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
1/2 teaspoon sweet paprika
1/2 teaspoon cumin seeds
Kosher salt

Make the spiced chickpeas:

Preheat the oven to 425°F. Line a baking sheet with paper towels and add the drained chickpeas. Add another layer of paper towels and gently rub the chickpeas between the layers to dry them well. Remove the paper towels. Add the olive oil, paprika, cumin seeds, and a pinch of salt and toss to coat. Roast until crispy about 20 minutes, making the pan halfway through to move the chickpeas around. Set aside to cool.

Scallion Salsa

2 scallions, thinly sliced
1 jalapeño, thinly sliced
1/2 cup finely chopped fresh cilantro
2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
Ground sea salt and pinch of lime

Make the scallion salsa:

In a medium bowl, combine the scallions, jalapeño, cilantro, olive oil, lime zest, lime juice, and a pinch of salt. Toss to combine.

Cottage Cheese Scrambled Eggs

4 large eggs
1/2 cup cottage cheese (see Note)
2 tablespoons unsalted butter
Kosher salt

Make the cottage cheese scrambled eggs:

In a medium bowl, combine the eggs and cottage cheese, whisking vigorously.

Assemble the tacos:

Preheat the broiler. Place the oven rack about 4 inches from the broiling element. Arrange the tortillas in single layer on a baking sheet, letting them overcook here and there if necessary. Broil until the tortillas are warm and slightly charred, 3 to 4 minutes. Top each tortilla with a spoonful of cottage cheese, scallion salsa, and the crispy spiced chickpeas. Drizzle with hot sauce, all over and serve right away.

Note: I've got some alternatives for those who aren't cottage cheese fans or willing to make the swap for sea salt. Swap in for the Great Egg or create an eggless omelette.

In Richard Hart Bread, Richard Hart lays out the art of baking artisanal breads using an intuitive roadmap. Rather than focusing obsessively on precise formulas and complicated shaping, Richard teaches aspiring bakers key techniques they can apply for all loaves. He also encourages them to be observant: to think about their environment (is it humid, hot, or cold?), notice their starter (how big are the bubbles?), consider the dough (is it sticky?), and pay attention to how it reacts when it's divided, shaped, scored, and baked. With a humorous and reassuring voice, Richard Hart Bread guides readers through making 60 different loaves, including Richard's signature sourdough city loaf, pan loaves, sweet breads, flatbreads, and more, without getting overly scientific.

Richard Hart is the co-founder of Hart Bageri, with two locations in Copenhagen. Before his bread baking career, he was a chef in fine dining restaurants in London. He began baking bread seriously at Della Fattoria in California, eventually moving on to become head baker at Tartine in San Francisco, always developing his techniques and passion for his craft. Originally from England, he currently lives in Mexico City, Mexico.

An enthralling and intimate collection of essays that explores the history of eight countries to understand the impact of human conflict on a culture's cuisine and food system, from the James Beard Award-winning author of IN BIBI'S KITCHEN.

Each chapter is devoted to a different country and opens with an informative essay on the culture and the foodways written by a local from that area. Recipes follow highlighting indigenous ingredients (for example, in Egypt we'll see recipes for Dukkah, Fava Bean Fritters, Shortbread Cookies, and Hot Chickpea Broth), and share intimate portraits of the people preserving food culture.

Hawa Hassan is a James Beard award winner and culinary triple threat: dynamic chef, TV personality and entrepreneur. Her first cookbook-meets-travelogue, IN BIBI'S KITCHEN, shares recipes and stories from grandmothers—or bibis—in eight African countries bordering the Indian Ocean.

Learn to cook, host, and eat like a private chef who's off the clock with 100 recipes from TikTok sensation Meredith Hayden of Wishbone Kitchen.

This is food that feels good to eat. Simple, yet elegant. The dishes you can whip up for an impromptu dinner party. The kind of cooking you don't start until you've made yourself a drink first. In The Wishbone Kitchen Cookbook, Meredith Hayden walks you through the tips and tricks of cooking like a private chef who's off the clock. After working for families in NYC for a few years, Meredith has found the easiest ways to make showstopping meals come together swiftly.

Included are the most useful tips that home cooks can use in their own kitchens, with cooks of all levels learning something new. She explains common cooking terms like "mince" or "butterfly" and how to use deli containers to optimize your veggie prep and storage game. And when it comes to entertaining, there are suggestions for the host and guest alike. Scale up the Caesar Hand Salad when friends come over after work or pack up the Grilled Eggplant and Zucchini Parm for lunch the next day. Snack on Chilled Lemon Shrimp and Aioli and veg out on Brown Butter Lemon Broccoli. Your authority on all things seafood, Meredith shows you the easiest way to break down a lobster so that you can use it in a number of recipes like the Lobster Avocado Salad. Or how to shuck oysters so you can enjoy them grilled or with a yuzu kosho mignonette.

With sharp, witty commentary, themed menus, and gorgeous imagery, The Wishbone Kitchen Cookbook will inspire you to start keeping jars of homemade sauce at the ready and to splurge on meals made to be enjoyed in bed.

Starring over 100 recipes, Kismet captures the casual, super fresh, vegetable-forward cooking the award-winning Los Angeles restaurant is known for. Thoughtfully adapted for home cooks, recipes like Persimmon Caper Salad and Harissa Party Wings are a tantalizing blend of casual California cool and vibrant Middle Eastern-inspired flavors. With stunning photography, unique design, and easy recipes featuring tips and tricks to help along the way, Kismet is a delicious vibe that folds assertive, bright flavors into dishes that can be served any night of the week or made to celebrate special occasion.

Sara Kramer and Sarah Hymanson are the chefs and owners of the vegetable-forward Kismet and Kismet Rotisserie restaurants in Los Angeles. Sara and Sarah were named Food & Wine's Best New Chefs in 2017; Kismet was nominated for a James Beard Award for Best New Restaurant in 2018; and Jonathan Gold lauded their turnips with butter as one of his favorite dishes of 2017. In addition to being sustainability-minded regarding their sourcing practices, they focus on creating inclusive spaces that serve their teams as well as the broader community.

Salady
 As far as we're concerned, pretty much anything can be a salad. Little Gem lettuce with toasted pistachios? Obviously. But don't count out persimmons with capers, cold shrimp with apples, or poached chicken with tomatoes. Perhaps they're not traditional salads, but they are salady: cold or room-temp dishes that want to be eaten right away, always involving a fruit or vegetable or several, with a sharp hit of acid. Salady is all about living that peak produce life.

For fans of Salt & Straw, America's fastest-growing artisan ice cream company, America's Most Iconic Ice Creams features the most surprising flavor they can imagine: plain old French Vanilla. Known for his wildly inventive flavors, Tyler Malek, the company's co-founder, dives deep into what makes ten iconic flavors, like Strawberry and Chocolate, truly classic. Using their signature, super simple base recipes, he presents the perfected, ultimate recipes for America's favorite flavors. But since creativity is still his core, Malek shares 75 more recipes inspired by, or riffing off of, those classics, like Roasted Strawberry-Whiskey and Bananas Foster Caramel, and everything you need to know to invent your own flavors.

Tyler Malek is head ice cream maker for Salt & Straw Ice Cream in Portland, Oregon. His first cookbook, SALT & STRAW ICE CREAM COOKBOOK, was named one of the best cookbooks of the season by Eater, Delish, and Epicurious.

JJ Goode is a Brooklyn-based food writer and the coauthor of the books A GIRL AND HER PIG with April Bloomfield, POK POK with Andy Ricker, STATE BIRD PROVISIONS with Stuart Brioza and Nicole Krasinski, and the SALT & STRAW ICE CREAM COOKBOOK, among others.

Salsas are both the traditional heart of Mexican cooking--blending charred tomatillos and chiles goes back five hundred years-- and where cooks today can riff most freely, as Rick Martinez, beloved author of Mi Cocina, discovered while tasting a caramelized onion-serrano chile salsa in Mexico City. Salsas make irresistible snacks with chips, of course, but they will also make your grilled cheese, your burger, your tacos, or your whole meal. Rick takes us deep into the world of traditional and modern salsas with 75 salsa recipes and 25 simple meals that can each be made totally unique by your choice of salsas.

Rick Martínez is the host of the video series "Mi Cocina" and "Sweet Heat," both on the Food52 YouTube channel, and "Pruébalo" on the Babish Culinary Universe channel. He cohosts the Borderline Salty podcast with Carla Lalli Music, is a regular contributor the New York Times, and teaches live, weekly cooking classes for the Food Network Kitchen.

There's no doubt that Matty Matheson can cook. But when the world shut down during the pandemic, Matty—just like the rest of us—found himself at home for an indefinite period, struggling to consistently put out creative meals for his family. So, he went back to the basics that he knew his family would love.

Soups, Salads, Sandwiches is a cookbook for anyone and everyone, regardless of skill level in the kitchen. Matty builds off the classics, making tomato soup with charred veggies and a grilled cheese crostini then topping a chicken parm sub with a sour hot pepper relish.

Packed with character, personal stories, scrumptious recipes, and vivid photographs of a day-in-the-life with his family, Soups, Salads, Sandwiches will have you fearlessly whipping up combinations in the kitchen in no time, just like Matty.

Matty Matheson is a two-time New York Times bestselling author, an internationally renowned chef and restaurateur, and an executive producer and actor on FX's hit breakout show The Bear.

MARGARITA TIME!

*75 Tequila and Mezcal Cocktails, Served Up,
Over, and Blended*

by Caroline Pardilla

A Ten Speed Press Hardcover

On sale March 25th, 2025

Cooking - Beverages - Alcoholic -
Bartending & Cocktails

Editor: Kim Keller

Rights: World

Status: Materials April 2024

A bright and splashy tribute to the margarita cocktail, with more than 75 recipes for drinks on the rocks, served up, and even frosty blended versions.

The margarita has long dominated as America's favorite cocktail, be it for happy hour, brunch, or even #MargaritaMonday. It's liquid vacation, sunshine in a glass, fuel for festivities. Margaritas now populate grocery store aisles in ready-to-drink cans, and bartenders can attest that this classic cocktail continues to be a bestseller.

Margarita Time! includes recipes that elevate the ingredients from sticky bottles of premade mixers of the past to fresh juices and house-made infusions and syrups. This book not only showcases beloved, straightforward versions of the margarita but also provides approachable crafty riffs created by established bartenders from revered restaurants and bars, giving the amateur drink-maker confidence in the recipes' quality.

Caroline Pardilla hails from Northern California but moved to Los Angeles in the early '90s to attend UCLA. In 2005, she started what became one of the first cocktail blogs, garnering accolades such as LA Weekly's "Best Bar Blogger" and "Blog Post of the Year" to CBS Los Angeles' "Best Local Blogger."

The author of Cook Real Hawai'i brings the essence of Hawai'i cuisine to everyday cooking with unfussy and flavorful recipes featuring easy ingredient substitutions, clever new techniques, and creative (and often plant-based) spins on traditional dishes.

Beloved chef and two-time Top Chef fan favorite Sheldon Simeon's food joyfully reflects Hawaii's flavors and cooking styles, a mixture of island influences including Native Hawaiian, Filipino, Japanese, Chinese, Korean, Portuguese, and other cuisines. In Untitled Ohana Style you'll find umami-packed recipes meant for family—that's what ohana means in Hawaiian—weeknight dinners, quick lunches, snacks, cookouts, and barbecues.

Sheldon Simeon is the chef and owner of Lineage, a restaurant that explores the ancestral roots of Hawaiian cuisine, as well as Tin Roof, where he serves contemporary Hawaiian dishes in a casual setting, both in Maui. Sheldon's first book, Cook Real Hawai'i, was named one of the best cookbooks of 2021 by The New York Times, The Washington Post, NPR, Taste of Home, Vice, and Serious Eats.

Make pizza night a fun weekly tradition with these 52 seasonal pizzas paired with salads for a complete meal—from the award-winning author of Bread Toast Crumbs and creator of the popular blog Alexandra's Kitchen.

In Pizza Night, Alexandra Stafford presents four simple doughs--thin-crust, Neapolitanish, pan, and gluten-free (plus sourdough variations)--and easy techniques for perfecting your crust. From there you can make a variety of pizzas, including Detroit-Style Pizza for a Crowd, Classic Margherita Pizza, and Winter White Pizza with Garlic and Herbs. You can make it the same day or ahead; make it extra cheesy and decadent or go the healthy road—pizza-making easily adapts to busy schedules and tastes and requires little in special equipment.

Alexandra Stafford graduated from Yale and moved to Philadelphia, where she attended cooking school and worked in professional kitchens. After two years at the acclaimed restaurant Fork, she left to start her blog, Alexandra's Kitchen, which won a Saveur Blog Award for Most Inspired Weeknight Dinners. Her first cookbook, Bread Toast Crumbs, was nominated for the IACP Julia Child First Book Award.

In Forage & Feast, experienced forager and chef Chrissy Tracey takes you on a journey through the four seasons to discover and collect food elements. Each of the four sections—Fall, Winter, Spring, and Summer—focuses on seasonally-available foraged ingredients and features detailed guides to identifying the plants and fungi as well as photographs of their natural habitat. No matter where you live, you'll be able to find recipe inspiration and universally useful foraging advice. From urban magnolia blooms and easy-to-find dandelions to forest floor King bolete mushrooms and sweet meadow pawpaws, she shows you how to transform these wild ingredients into fresh and inviting vegan recipes. Interwoven with stories from Chrissy's own foraging and culinary experiences and accompanied by lush photography, Forage & Feast is the perfect introduction to finding food in the natural world and turning it into something both beautiful and tasty.

Chrissy Tracey is a first-generation Jamaican-American vegan chef, artist, forager, YouTuber, and entrepreneur in the food and wellness space. She is the first vegan chef to be featured on Bon Appétit's Test Kitchen YouTube series and has been featured in the magazine. Her recipes and work have been featured in Epicurious, Farm Sanctuary Magazine, Veg News, and the Vegan Review.

THE SALVISOUL COOKBOOK
Salvadoran Recipes and the Women Who Preserve Them

In this collection of eighty recipes, Karla shares her conversations with moms, aunts, grandmothers, and friends to preserve their histories so that they do not go unheard. Here are recipes for Rellenos de Güisquiles from Patricia who remembers the Los Angeles earthquakes of the 80s for many more reasons than just fear, Flor de Izote con Huevos Revueltos, a favorite of Karla's father, as well as variations on the beloved Salvadoran pupusa, a thick masa tortilla stuffed with different combinations of pork, cheese, and beans. Though the stories throughout the book vary, the women have a shared experience of what it was like in El Salvador before the war, and what life was like as Salvadoran women surviving in their new home in the United States. This beautifully photographed cookbook celebrates the vibrant culture and community of El Salvador through the lens of its delicious cuisine.

Karla Tatiana Vasquez is a food writer, recipe developer, and food stylist based in Los Angeles. Her writing has been published by The Los Angeles Times, The San Francisco Chronicle, Teen Vogue, Eater LA., and KCET among others. Her recipe development work can be seen in Food & Wine, Serious Eats, BuzzFeed Tasty, Tastemade and she continues to write regularly for the Los Angeles Times.

THE NEW BREAD MACHINE
Unforgettable, Unfussy Recipes for Every Baker

by Lukas Volger

A Ten Speed Press Hardcover

On sale March 4th, 2025

Cooking - Methods - Special Appliances

Editor: Cristina Garces

Rights: World

Status: Materials April 2024

A modern, everything-you-need-to-know guide to baking perfect bread with a bread machine at home, with 75 recipes.

In The New Bread Machine, veteran cookbook author Lukas Volger offers a thorough guide to the versatile bread machine—an appliance that mixes, kneads, proofs, and bakes bread. Each recipe contains a "faster" and a "slower" method: The fast utilizes the machine's presets (just throw everything into your bread machine and let it work its magic), while the slower isolates the kneading and the baking functions to create bread with more developed flavor and better structure for not much extra work.

With comprehensive but easy-to-digest tips for success including measuring methods, temperature targets, machine and visual cues to look for, and opportunities for hijacking your bread machine to knead and proof dough to be baked in your oven.

Lukas Volger is a cookbook author, recipe developer, and entrepreneur in the food space. He's written five previous cookbooks, including Bowl and Start Simple, and his work has been featured in the New York Times, Bon Appetit, The Wall Street Journal, and elsewhere.

The New York Times bestselling author of FOODHEIM returns to apply his curiosity and culinary expertise to a disappearing American icon, the steakhouse, traveling across the country to gather the best recipes and stories from classic stops and modern newcomers.

The American steakhouse is a place for celebration, for gathering, for memories in the making. Eric Wareheim takes you on a road trip around the States and Mexico, exploring what the steakhouse means in North America. Join him at New York classics like Peter Luger's, local stalwarts like North Carolina's Beef 'N Bottle, and modern interpretations like California's Thien An Bo 7 Mon. The Great American Steakhouse is loaded with stories that will make you want to hit the road to drink martinis and dine on steak for days on end.

From these journeys Eric has collected 50 of the best, most decadent recipes, which are accompanied by glorious images of the food, the steakhouses, and the people behind them.

Eric Wareheim is a director, actor, comedian, and writer. He is half of the comedy duo Tim & Eric, who have been making TV shows, movies, books, and music for twenty years. Wareheim also acted in, produced, and directed episodes of the Netflix series Master of None. His first cookbook, FOODHEIM, was a New York Times bestseller and one of the best cookbooks of the year for The New Yorker and New York Post.

Bëtül Tunç began creating vintage-style videos with her unique aesthetic and met with an incredible response. One of her first videos, featuring punch-down dough, went viral, amassing nearly 2 million views—an astounding achievement for a page with fewer than 30,000 followers at the time. This marked the inception of a new trend, with countless other punch-down videos mimicking her signature style. Bëtül's follower count skyrocketed to 5 million in just a year, propelled by the interest in her vintage style videos and her ability to make these sometimes-complex dough recipes look easy and doable.

In her first cookbook, Bëtül shares recipes broken down by leavened and unleavened dough. Within those two categories the book shows us how to create basic doughs (for bagels, pita, ciabatta, and muffins), sourdoughs (for pizza dough, bread, foccacia, and brioche), enriched doughs (for croissants, cardamom buns, buttermilk dinner rolls, and burger buns), pasta dough (for pastas, noodles, dumplings, and boreks), and finally an entire section on the Turkish recipes that inspire her (Turkish style phyllo, Turkish Pistachio Baklava, Spinach Triangle Borek, and Grandma's Lavash). Bëtül's book transports readers to a vintage 19th century kitchen where we delight in recreating her doable and inspiring recipes.

Bëtül Tunç is a baker originally from Turkey, and the founder of the social media phenomenon Turkuaz Kitchen with more than 9 million followers across Instagram and TikTok.

A super-flexible meal prep cookbook featuring 125 healthy gluten-free, grain-free, and paleo recipes plus 16 weeks of menu plans, detailed meal prepping advice, grocery lists, and more—from the New York Times bestselling author of the Against All Grain series.

In this practical, time-saving guide to meal prepping and menu planning, beloved author Danielle Walker removes all the guess work from your daily effort to get food on the table. Make It Easy presents sixteen weeks of menus, along with prep-ahead and make-ahead tips, shopping lists organized by grocery store departments, and proven methods for getting it all done quickly and effortlessly.

Meal plans can be followed in any order and nearly every recipe is photographed. And with additional recipes for breakfasts, snacks, sides, and back-pocket dinners (dishes using pantry ingredients you already have!), this deliciously healthy cookbook provides everything you need to meal plan right.

Ginger Meatballs with Sesame Broccoli

- 2 tablespoons avocado oil
- 4 green onions, trimmed and thinly sliced, white and green parts separated
- 3 1/2 pounds cooked frozen chicken or beef meatballs (see page 000) cups water
- 1 large head broccoli, cut into florets and stems packed and thinly sliced
- 1/4 cup Ginger Sesame Dressing (page 000)
- 1/4 teaspoon toasted sesame oil
- 1/4 teaspoon sesame seeds
- 1/4 teaspoon sea salt
- 8 ounces sugar snap peas, trimmed and thinly sliced on a diagonal
- 1/4 tsp and slice snap peas

In a large skillet over medium-high heat, warm avocado oil until it shimmers. Add white parts of green onions and meatballs and brown on all sides, 4 to 6 minutes. Pour 1/2 cup of water into pan. Then cover and steam for 5 minutes, until meatballs are heated and warmed through.

Fill a medium pot with remaining 1 1/2 cups water and put a steamer basket over water. Add broccoli, set over high heat, and bring water to a boil. Turn heat to medium-low and steam, covered, for 5 minutes or until crisp-tender.

Uncover meatballs and stir in dressing. Remove from heat. Drain water, remove basket, and return broccoli to pot. Toss broccoli with sesame oil, sesame seeds, and salt.

Serve sauced meatballs with sesame broccoli, snap peas, and green parts of green onions.

Praise for Classic German Baking:

"Berlin-born food writer Weiss (My Berlin Kitchen) collects masterpieces of time-tested recipes to create this traditional classic that, like her lebkuchen (old-fashioned German gingerbread), is bound to stand the test of time and taste. [...] Collected from various places and people—whether it's a cookbook or from her German assistant—this cookbook presents a beautiful piece of German tradition."

— Publishers Weekly

"This overdue guide is a happy marriage of European craft and American sensibilities."

—The Washington Post

A collection of more than 100 of the best, most emblematic recipes of German and Austrian home cooks, from the author of CLASSIC GERMAN BAKING.

To many, German food is humble comfort food, the kind of food that may not win a beauty award, but more than makes up for it with its power to soothe, nourish and cheer. In Classic German Cooking, Luisa Weiss—born in Berlin to an Italian mother and American father, and who married into a family with roots in Saxony—has collected and mastered the essential everyday recipes of Germany and Austria.

Classic German Cooking features traditional and time-honored recipes that are beloved in homes across the region, such as Rinderrouladen (Braised Beef Rolls), Quarkauflauf (Fresh Cheese Soufflé), Hühnerfrikassee (Chicken Fricassee) and authentic Viennese Gulasch or Alpine Germknödel (Plum Butter-Stuffed Steamed Dumplings). Cozy Apfelküchle (Apple Fritters) bring warmth to an afternoon snack, while tangy Spargelsalat (White Asparagus Salad) signals the sweet start of Spring.

Luisa gives history and context to the cooking of Germany and its influences worldwide. Sprinkled with both personal stories and historical insights, Classic German Cooking will leave you with a well-rounded understanding of the cuisine and its lasting influence.

Luisa Weiss is an Italian and American food writer based in Berlin, Germany. She is the creator of The Wednesday Chef blog and author of the critically acclaimed memoir, My Berlin Kitchen, and baking book, Classic German Baking. She grew up in Berlin and Boston and graduated from Tufts University with degrees in English and French literature. She spent a decade working in book publishing in New York and was Harper's BAZAAR Germany's food columnist for four years.

Plant-based eating has been evolving for centuries, creating a storied base of beloved recipes that are lauded around the globe. Mastering the Art of Plant Based Cooking is the first book to collect these dishes and wisdom into a single tome, treating vegan food as its own cuisine, worthy of mastery. As an award-winning food editor and writer, Joe Yonan has spent years reporting on and making plant-based foods. With his finger on the pulse of this evergrowing cuisine, he has collected recipes and essays from prominent food writers in the plant-based sphere, creating a book that shows the true abundance of vegan food. With an extensive pantry section for creating staples such as cheese, tofu, spice mixes, and plant milks, as well as numerous variations on base recipes, Mastering the Art of Plant Based Cooking will become a mainstay in your kitchen, delivering new recipes for years to come.

Joe Yonan is the two-time James Beard Award-winning food and dining editor of The Washington Post. He is the author of Cool Beans, which was named one of the best cookbooks of 2020 by Food Network, NPR, Forbes, Wired, and more. Joe was a food writer and travel section editor at The Boston Globe before moving to Washington in 2006 to edit the Post's food section. He writes the Post's "Weeknight Vegetarian" column and for five years wrote the "Cooking for One" column, both of which have won honors from the Association of Food Journalists.

Based on thousands of interviews with successful grad students and admissions officers, Graduate Admissions Essays deconstructs and demystifies the ever-challenging application process for getting into graduate and scholarship programs. Full of Dr. Donald Asher's expert advice, this is the perfect graduate application resource whether you're fresh out of college and eager to get directly into graduate school or decades into your career and looking for a change.

Dr. Donald Asher is a veteran career and higher-education consultant, and one of the nation's foremost authorities on the graduate admissions process. He is a contributing writer to the MSN homepage and for the Wall Street Journal's CareerJournal.com and CollegeJournal.com, and is the author of twelve books.

Through lyrical prose and evocative watercolor illustrations, Washing My Mother's Body explores the complexity of a daughter's grief as she reflects on the joys and sorrows of her mother's life. Unable to mourn her mother in person, she lays her mother to rest in the landscape of her memory, honoring the hands that raised her, the body that protected her, and the legs that carried her mother through adversity. Moving, comforting, and deeply emotional, Washing My Mother's Body is a tender look at mother-daughter relationships, loss, and love.

Joy Harjo is an internationally renowned poet, performer, and writer of the Muscogee (Creek) Nation who has served three terms as the 23rd Poet Laureate of the United States.

Price: $20.00

Following in the footsteps, hooves and pawprints of the bestselling illustrated inspirational book THE BOY, THE MOLE, THE FOX AND THE HORSE comes Regina Linke's exquisite fable THE OXHERD BOY. Largely based on the wisdom of classical Asian philosophy and religion, the story gently cultivates resilience, compassion and humility through the small adventures and conversations of these three friends. As the boy, the rabbit, and the ox (who represent the three core beliefs of classical Chinese thought) wander through the day, meeting villagers, forging rivers, tilling fields, and planting rice, they muse about ways to live mindfully in an often stormy world.

Regina Linke is a Taiwanese American artist specializing in contemporary Chinese gongbi painting. She writes and illustrates stories that celebrate East Asian folklore and philosophy in an accessible and modern way. She lives in Taipei, Taiwan with her husband and young son, who inspires her every day as a real-life oxherd boy.

THE EVERYDAY NATURALIST
How to Identify Animals, Plants, and Fungi
Wherever You Go

by Rebecca Lexa
A Ten Speed Press Trade Paperback
On sale June 17th, 2025
Nature

Editor: Julie Bennett
Rights: World
Status: Materials August 2024

The Everyday Naturalist teaches nature lovers, amateur naturalists, and citizen scientists how to spot and record the key traits and characteristics needed to identify animals, plants, fungi, and other living beings.

The guide walks the reader through the process of identifying animals, plants, fungi, and other living beings. It explains what traits to pay attention to when encountering a new organism, how and when to use field guides, apps, and other resources, what to do if you get stuck, and more. Rather than focusing on one region or continent, these skills and tools are designed to help readers classify beings anywhere they are, whether at home or while traveling.

Rebecca Lexa is an Oregon Master Naturalist and certified nature guide for the state of Oregon. She teaches classes on natural history and plant identification. She currently lives on a farm in southwest Washington.

Status: Materials April 2024

For decades, Black-owned bookstores have been a source of joy and refuge for the Black community. As Black books are continuously being banned, protested, and debated, there has never been a better time to honor the bookstores that have long given space to Black literature and Black readers. This vibrant book celebrates these deeply important spaces, offering a joyful, visual homage to Black-owned bookstores across the United States. Thoughtfully curated by writer and Black bookstore owner Katie Mitchell, Prose to the People profiles over fifty bookstores, both current and historic, detailing their origin stories, specialties, and political and cultural impact.

Katie Mitchell is a writer and the co-owner of Good Books, an online and pop-up bookstore based in Atlanta, Georgia. Since opening Good Books in 2019, Katie has participated in NPR's How I Built This Fellowship, created a forthcoming iHeartRadio produced podcast, and partnered with the late Virgil Abloh of Nike's Off-White for an exclusive bookstore release of his book ICONS.

CAT GOT YOUR TONGUE?

by Hannah Shaw
A Ten Speed Press Hardcover
On sale June 17th, 2025
Humor – Animals

Editor: Julie Bennett
Rights: World
Status: Materials August 2024

Perhaps it should come as no surprise that cats have captured our collective imagination and caught our global tongue. Cats have been integrated into human societies ever since the dawn of civilization, when Felis catus became an important symbiotic partner for early settlers, who valued them for their prowess in protecting crops from rodents. As seafarers and merchants explored the world, cats were along for the ride—and began to spread both their populations and their influence all across the map! With transcontinental exploration came not just the dissemination of living beings like cats and humans, but of fables, folklore, and oral tradition. From Italy, Kenya, Japan and more, feline-focused proverbs and idioms can range from beautifully insightful to downright hilarious! With 50 cat-related idioms and proverbs from around the world, this book is a perfect gift for cat lovers and amateur linguists alike.

Hannah Shaw is an award-winning kitten rescuer, humane educator, and New York Times bestselling author who has dedicated her life to innovating kitten care and protecting the most vulnerable felines. Her project, Kitten Lady, provides educational media, training resources, and instructional workshops that help individuals and animal shelters learn how to save the lives of kittens—in a fun and engaging format. She has been featured as an expert on Animal Planet and has received several awards for her advocacy work, including the 2019 Cat Advocate of the Year award by ASPCA.

No sport has been so inextricably bound with America’s mythology—with its notions of democracy and fair play—than baseball. And no professional sport in America is as dramatically connected to social change as major league baseball when it became racially integrated the moment Jackie Robinson ran onto the field with the Brooklyn Dodgers in April 1947. Play Harder showcases the Black stars of the game alongside the cultural and political events of more than a century of play.

The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is dedicated to preserving history, honoring excellence, and connecting generations. Core to that mission is the ability to preserve and share their library, archives, and museum collections. This treasure trove of items bring to life the history of our National Pastime and the inspiring stories of the Hall of Famers. More than 17 million visits have been made to the Museum in Cooperstown, New York, since opening in 1939.

In Black Film, Eisner Award-winning author David F. Walker presents an immersive dive into the crucial history of Black actors, films, and filmmakers, dating all the way back to the very first moving picture captured by Edweard Muybridge in 1872. Following closely behind, Thomas Edison's thirty-second "actualities" from 1895, including A Watermelon Contest and Dancing Darkey Boy, are among the first short films to depict Black people and can be considered the earliest examples of how the film industry would go on to heavily exploit and appropriate Black people for the duration of its development.

David F. Walker is an award-winning comic book writer, author, filmmaker, journalist, and educator. His work in comic books includes Shaft, winner of the Glyph Award for Story of the Year, Power Man and Iron Fist, Nighthawk, Fury, Secret Wars: Battleworld, Cyborg, The Army of Dr. Moreau, and Number 13.

From the author of Living with Pattern and Living with Color comes a wider look at the process of designing a home. As a creator and artist, Rebecca knows how important mood is to a room—it directs the function and influences your emotions as soon as you set foot in the space. But figuring out what mood to set isn't straightforward. Rebecca takes readers from inspiration to mood board to materials to collecting then final design with The Harmonious Home. Like a painter taking to a canvas, readers will learn how to enjoy the decorating process (as frustrating as it can be!) and find confidence in their choices, while soaking up immersive interiors featuring Rebecca's own patterns. With beautiful images of Rebecca's new home in Charleston as well as other homes around the country, this book celebrates the creative side of interior design.

Rebecca Atwood received her BFA in painting from the Rhode Island School of Design before beginning her career designing and consulting for major retailers. Today, she is a textile designer, an artist who blends traditional techniques with hand painting, and the author of Living with Pattern.

Play Ball! ★ ★
Middle school is the season of sports. And we're talking all the sports: Basketball, volleyball, lacrosse (why is the equipment so bulky?!), cheerleading, football, and, and, and. We could go on! Just so you know, we don't know a ton about sports except that our middle schoolers play them, and corraling the closets is a whole thing (especially when you're already late for school). Okay, mom rant over. Let's make mornings easier for everyone with clear systems for whatever sports era you're in!

HAVE A BALL
Basketballs, baseballs, tennis balls. Write balls, you name it! There are so many balls for all the sports you play, so keep them in a basket by sporting what you need is a cinch.

DON'T FORGET!
Have an air pump at the ready so your pickup basketball game plans aren't deflated.

Prep School: P.M. Routine ★
What, a day. From working hard in class to leaving it all on the practice field, middle school can be exhausting. Which means it's easy to cut corners at night: "I'll wash my face in the morning. I can't even find a clean towel." Our tip: Create a ridiculously simple nighttime routine that you actually look forward to. Here's how. ★

Turn Your Nighttime Routine into a Vibe*

Turn on an essential oil diffuser to create a super-chill experience. Don't have one? Do a spritz of a refreshing room spray to create a serene scene.

Play your favorite music on low while you wash your face, brush your teeth, etc. Plus, research shows that listening to music can reduce stress. Score!

Finish with a sixty-second edit. Quickly clear the countertops and back in all your products for the night. Morning you will love nighttime, creating your

Where You CELEBRATE! ★

Get your playlist ready: From sleepovers to pool parties, we're breaking down how to host a fun get-together with all of the streamers and none of the stress. We've said it before, and we're saying it again: Organizing isn't just about things looking a certain way (though that's a bonus). It's about creating streamlined systems, like snack zones for your slumber party or movie night, so you can spend less time worrying about the details and more time celebrating with your besties.

There is so much beauty in telling your own story. After author and lifestyle blogger Ashley Sirah Chea’s sister passed away, she discovered that her young nephew became increasingly curious about the mother that he never got to know. Though she shared her sister’s stories with him to the best of her ability, she was constantly aware that he would never get to hear them in his mother’s own words. This experience inspired her to create The Forever Journal, a beautiful opportunity for parents and grandparents to write their own legacy and offer their families connection and comfort for years to come.

Ashley Sirah Chea is a writer, former professional ballerina, and mother whose life has always prioritized the arts. With the success of her debut self-published children’s book BEAUTIFUL BEAUTIFUL ME, Ashley looks forward to creating more books that encourage a love of self, others, and community.

Embrace tenderness and healing with this transcendent deck of meditations from beloved author and artist Yumi Sakugawa. Our current reality is not often kind to the soft and tender among us, but this deck affirms that vulnerability is a form of power; domination is not the only way to wield influence in this world. Cosmic Comfort is a series of meditations and a tool for opening your heart, your world, and your imagination to all that is pleasurable and abundant. Each of the fifty meditation cards offers grounding musings on a theme integral to personal and collective growth, such as boundaries, desire, ancestral joy, forbidden fruit, rest, and release. Two instructions cards offer ways to use the deck, but how you receive this offering and the meditations themselves is up to you. Sit with a poignant theme in silent contemplation, journal about how a meditation sits with you today, or tuck a card in your bag as a talisman and guide.

Yumi Sakugawa is an Ignatz Award-nominated comic book artist and author of several illustrated books. Her comics have appeared in Buzzfeed, The Believer, Bitch, The Best American Non-required Reading, and The Rumpus, among others. A graduate of the fine art program of the University of California, Yumi lives in Los Angeles.

What is giving you big heart eyes right now? A crush does not always have to be a romantic desire or even a person. You can have a crush on a song, a place, a work of art, a movement, a flower, the ocean, a vision of new possibilities. You can have an all-encompassing crush on yourself, your friends, the universe. It is okay to indulge in ooey-goey feelings that make your heart squishy-soft like cookie dough. Have a crush on the universe and the universe will most definitely crush on you, too. ☺

VODKA
THE PINK FLUMPH THEATER
 IN WATERDEEP

One of the hottest tickets in Waterdeep, the Pink Flumph Theater is a gaudy performance hall that puts on plays and entertainments every afternoon and evening. The theater is often packed with folks eager to witness the magic special effects generated by the Flumph's resident faerie dragon. Wishes. Any bard passing through Waterdeep dreams of booking a gig here—and hopefully getting a share of the night's takings at the bar!

The proprietor of the Pink Flumph, Iokaste Dallano, has an arrangement with a local vodka distillery that says it makes its vodka from a healing spring. Many patrons report feeling wonderful on its effects—until they wake up the next morning.
