SUGAR AND SPITE

Agatha Raisin Mystery #36

(St. Martin's / October 2025)

New York Times bestseller M. C. Beaton's cranky, crafty Agatha Raisin—now the star of a hit T.V. show—is back on the case again.

When a series of deaths within the small Cotswolds birdwatching community begins to unravel her village, Agatha and her team at Raisin Investigators are certain there has been foul play involved. Now, they must dig up decades' worth of tempestuous relationships and simmering secrets among the birdwatching enthusiasts of the village in order to prevent any further deaths.

But with Agatha's own relationship with John Glass on the rocks after he is called away on his job as a cruise ship dance instructor, and Sir Charles Fraith now attempting to step into John's shoes as her lover, Agatha has her work cut out for her.

Agatha will have to break out her binoculars and embrace her bitter side to solve the murders and wrangle the sickly-sweet temptations in her own life. Will she be able to gather all the breadcrumbs and put together the clues before she becomes a sitting duck herself?

AGATHA ON TELEVISION!

We are thrilled to share that Free@Last TV will be producing a fifth season of the Agatha Raisin television series starring Emmy-nominated actress Ashley Jensen. Season 4 aired on Acorn TV in the US and Sky in the UK in 2022. Sky also aired an original documentary about M.C. Beaton and the making of the Agatha TV series, called Agathaland, in 2023. Season 5 is tentatively expected to begin production in September 2025.

The Agatha series premiered in 2016 to glowing critical acclaim from New York Times, the Sunday Mirror and the Guardian. Agatha Raisin remains the most popular series on Acorn TV and fans have been clamoring for new episodes. Acorn TV has been named by The Hollywood Reporter, “a glorious streaming service...an essential must-have” and “Netflix for the Anglophile” by NPR.

A Hamish Macbeth series is also in the works from Free@Last TV. A pilot has been written, and the producers are in talks with streamers now.

M.C. BEATON'S HAMISH MACBETH

M. C. Beaton's Hamish Macbeth is the incorrigible constable of a small town in the Scottish highlands. DEATH OF A GREEN-EYED MONSTER, the first new Hamish mystery since 2018, received rave reviews in Kirkus and Booklist. In 2025, the series continues with DEATH OF A SMUGGLER.

DEATH OF A SMUGGLER

Hamish Macbeth Mystery #37

M.C. Beaton with R.W. Green
(Grand Central / February 2025)

From a New York Times bestselling author, a murder, a missing man, and his newest constable's secret past are all that's standing in the way of Sergeant Hamish Macbeth's relaxing winter.

All Hamish Macbeth wants is a quiet life in his peaceful home in the Highland village of Lochdubh. But when his newly-assigned constable arrives, he presents Hamish with a surprise and a secret. Getting to the bottom of the secret becomes the least of Hamish's problems when he meets a family who have a score to settle with a sinister man who has mysteriously gone missing. Discovering a murdered woman's body puts further pressure on Hamish, especially when it becomes clear that the murdered woman and the missing man are linked.

THE PERFECT HOME

Daniel Kenitz

(Scribner, January 2025)

Here's a PR rule of thumb: when you're married to the biggest home renovation TV star in the country, taking his twin children on the run is a bad idea.

Dawn Decker is an American everywoman and the salt to her husband Wyatt's sweet, media-friendly charm on their Tennessee-based home renovation reality TV show, The Perfect Home. While Dawn bristles at the trappings of their D-list celebrity status, Wyatt hungers for greater fame. The couple also faces infertility issues stemming from Wyatt's low sperm count. He secretly orders experimental fertility drugs, and they conceive, but his personality takes a dark turn—he becomes moody, withdrawn, and even cruel.

When Dawn discovers his horrifying plot to manufacture a tragedy in order to skyrocket their celebrity status, she takes their infant twins and goes on the run. Wyatt appears on national television to turn the public against her, painting Dawn as an unstable kidnapper suffering from postpartum psychosis. His charm is so compelling that even Dawn's closest friends doubt her. She will have to dig deep into the past—both hers and Wyatt's—to find allies, protect her children, and beat this beloved all-American celebrity at his own game.

Told in dual perspectives from both husband and wife, this smart, captivating, and twisty thriller is a fun, addictive read from the very first page.

"Addictive and utterly compelling, The Perfect Home is a brilliant exploration of the razor-sharp line between love and hate, and the difference between truth and fiction." —Christina McDonald, USA Today Bestselling author of *What Lies In Darkness

"A unique and enthralling thriller from a great new voice in the genre. Both dark and fun with twists you won't see coming. A killer debut." —Alex Finlay, bestselling author of *If Something Happens to Me

"This book had me shocked, despondent and furious in turns, and I loved it. Kenitz crafts a terrifying modern-day villain and turns the perfect home into a nightmare with proficiency and horrifying pizzazz." —Associated Press

"If you've always thought there was a strangely dark undercurrent to home-improvement shows, you might enjoy The Perfect Home too." —NPR

F*CKED UP FAIRY TALES

Liz Gotauco

(W.W. Norton, October 2025)

Bawdy, shocking, and hilarious interpretations of classic and rare fairy tales from a beloved TikTok storyteller.

Based on the wildly popular TikTok series, *F*cked Up Fairy Tales* presents modern retellings of some of the strangest and darkest stories humans had the audacity to invent. Inspired by sources across the world, “Cosbrarian” Liz Gotauco conjures gossipy animals, homicidal royals, doomed commoners, and shape-shifting beaux—all reckoning with complicated, adult problems that “Disney versions” have sanitized.

In entertaining asides, Gotauco offers insight into the stories’ contested origins, spills deliciously weird details about fairy tale authors like Madame de Aulnoy and the Brothers Grimm, and explores timeless themes that have long tickled the human subconscious, from accidental bestiality (“So . . . You Married an Animal”) and catastrophic marriages (“Crappily Ever After”) to the vexed question of what to do with your murderous lindworm child (“F*cked Up Family Trees”).

Sexy, disturbing, and outrageous, with stylish, distinctive illustrations, *F*cked Up Fairy Tales* celebrates the astonishing diversity of the oral tradition, reaffirming our universal love for a story that’s messy as f*ck.

“Hilarious and original yet completely timeless takes on tales told all around the world for centuries, this book is putting all the lore into one gLORE-ious place! I love it!”

—Margaret Cho, world-famous comedian, actress, and author of I’m the One That I Want and *I Have Chosen to Stay and Fight

“Liz Gotauco is quirky, lively, and talented. I’ve heard many storytellers try hard to revive the oral tradition only to strike out, but Liz knocks it out of the park.”

— Maria Tatar, author of The Annotated Brothers Grimm and *The Annotated Hans Christian Andersen

WINNING THE EARTHQUAKE

Lorissa Rinehart

(St. Martin's Press, November 2025)

The first major biography of Jeannette Rankin, a groundbreaking suffragist, activist, and the first American woman to hold federal office.

"Few members of Congress have ever stood more alone while being true to a higher honor and loyalty."

—President John F. Kennedy on Jeannette Rankin

Born on a Montana ranch in 1880, Jeannette Rankin knew how to ride a horse, make a fire, and read the sky for weather. But most of all, she knew how to talk to people, how to convince them of her vision for America. It was this rare skill that led her, in 1916, to become the first woman ever elected to the House of Representatives.

As her first act, Rankin introduced the legislation that would become the 19th Amendment. Throughout her two terms in 1916 and 1940, she continued to introduce and pass legislation benefitting unions, protecting workers, and increasing aid for children in poverty. In 1941, she stood tall as the sole anti-war voice in Congress during WWII, advocating for pacifism in the face of tragedy and stating that you can no more win a war than you can win an earthquake.

A suffragist, feminist, peace activist, workers' rights advocate, progressive, and Republican, Rankin remained ever true to her beliefs—no matter the price she had to pay personally. Yet, despite the momentous steps she made for women in politics, overcoming the boys club of capitalists and career politicians who never wanted to see a woman in Congress, Jeannette Rankin's story has been largely forgotten. In Winning the Earthquake, Lorissa Rinehart deftly uncovers the compelling history behind this singular American hero, bringing her story back to life.

Cultural critic and historian Lorissa Rinehart is the author of FIRST TO THE FRONT, the acclaimed 2023 biography of pioneering photojournalist Dickey Chapelle. Lorissa writes about art, war, politics, and the places where these discourses intersect. Her writing has recently appeared in Hyperallergic, Perfect Strangers, and Narratively, among other publications. She holds an MA from NYU in Experimental Humanities and a BA in Literature from UC Santa Cruz.

ISHMAEL REED BACKLIST

Ishmael Reed is an acclaimed, multifaceted writer whose work often engages with overlooked aspects of the American experience. He has published over a dozen novels, including FLIGHT TO CANADA and MUMBO JUMBO, as well as plays, collections of essays and poetry, and Audible originals. He was nominated for a National Book Award in both poetry and prose in 1972. CONJURE (1972), a volume of poetry, was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize, and his New and Collected Poems: 1964–2006 (2007) received a Gold Medal from the Commonwealth Club of California. Ishmael is online at www.ishmaelreed.org and Facebook.

MUMBO JUMBO is Ishmael Reed's inspired fable of the ragtime era, in which a social movement threatens to suppress the spread of Black culture—hailed by Harold Bloom as one of the five hundred greatest books of the Western canon. In 1920s America, a plague is spreading fast. From New Orleans to Chicago to New York, the “Jes Grew” epidemic makes people desperate to dance, overturning social norms in the process. Spanning a dizzying host of genres, from cinema to academia to mythology, Mumbo Jumbo is a lively ride through a key decade of American history.

2022 marked the 50TH anniversary of this landmark novel! Special anniversary editions of MUMBO JUMBO featuring a brand new introduction from Ishmael Reed, titled “The Road to MUMBO JUMBO,” were published in the US by Scribner (paperback), Open Road (ebook), and Audible (audio) in 2023.

“Reed's approach to the novel is not unlike a Dixieland band's approach to music: authentic and endlessly fresh.” – Time

“America's most fearless satirist... [Reed's] brilliantly idiosyncratic fiction has laid a foundation for the freewheeling genre experiments of writers such as Paul Beatty, Victor LaValle, and Colson Whitehead.” –The New Yorker

“Like all great American comic spirits from Louis Armstrong to Curly Howard of the Three Stooges, from Richard Pryor to Zora Neale Hurston, Reed relentlessly deciphers his culture, subverts it, really.” –The New York Times

YELLOW BACK RADIO BROKE-DOWN

Ishmael Reed
(Doubleday, 1969)

Ishmael Reed, author of MUMBO JUMBO and continually one of America's most innovative and celebrated writers, demolishes white American history, folklore, and Christian myth in this masterful satire of contemporary life. In addition to following the black, Satanic hero Loop Garoo Kid, YELLOW BACK RADIO BROKE-DOWN features Drag Gibson (a rich, slovenly cattleman), Mustache Sal (his nymphomaniac mail-order bride), Thomas Jefferson, and many others in a hilarious parody of the old Western.

Dalkey Archive Press released a new reprint edition of YELLOW BACK RADIO BROKE-DOWN in 2022, featuring a new introduction by Julian Lucas!

"Ishmael Reed is a most talented humorist and possessor of a powerfully antic and lyric imagination... YELLOW BACK RADIO BROKE-Down should be read as hard evidence of Reed's uncommon talent."— The New Yorker

"Swings with the poetry of slang, bop talk and a solo scat singer traversing 47 miles of barbed wire with a cobra snake for a necktie."— Rolling Stone

Ishmael Reed is a prize-winning novelist, poet, playwright, essayist, songwriter, and editor best known for his satirical works challenging American political culture. He has won the prestigious MacArthur Fellowship (Genius award), the renowned L.A. Times Robert Kirsch Lifetime Achievement Award, and the Lila Wallace-Reader's Digest Award. Ishmael has been nominated for a Pulitzer and has been a finalist for two National Book Awards. He founded the Before Columbus Foundation, which promotes multicultural American writing. He also founded PEN Oakland, which sponsors the annual Josephine Miles Literary Awards. His recent play THE HAUNTING OF LIN-MANUEL MIRANDA has received much press coverage, including from The New York Times, Current Affairs, The Nation, The New Yorker, and The Observer. Ishmael is currently Distinguished Professor at The California College of the Arts and a Professor Emeritus at the University of California at Berkley.

FIRST TO THE FRONT: The Untold Story of Dickey Chapelle, Trailblazing Female War Correspondent

Lorissa Rinehart

(St. Martin's Press, July 2023)

The first authoritative biography of pioneering photojournalist Dickey Chapelle, who from World War II through the early days of Vietnam got her story by any means necessary as one of the first female war correspondents.

From the beginning of World War II through the early days of Vietnam, groundbreaking female photojournalist and war correspondent Dickey Chapelle chased dangerous assignments her male colleagues wouldn't touch, pioneering a radical style of reporting that focused on the humanity of the oppressed.

She documented conditions across Eastern Europe in the wake of the Second World War, marched down the Ho Chi Minh Trail with the South Vietnamese Army and across the Sierra Maestra Mountains with Castro. She was the first reporter accredited with the Algerian National Liberation Front. She dove out of planes, faked her own kidnapping, and endured the mockery of male associates before ultimately dying on assignment in Vietnam with the Marines in 1965, the first American female journalist killed while covering combat.

Chapelle overcame discrimination both on the battlefield and at home, with much of her work ultimately buried from the public eye—until now. In First to the Front, Lorissa Rinehart uncovers the incredible life and unparalleled achievements of this true pioneer, and the mark she would make on history.

"FIRST TO THE FRONT tells an extraordinary story with a great sense of drama."

— The Wall Street Journal

"Jam-packed with colorful details and incisive character sketches, this is a vivid reappraisal of a pioneering journalist."

— Publishers Weekly* (starred review)

"Unforgettable....A valuable, long-overdue tribute to an American woman whose work and commitment to human rights is more relevant than ever."

— BookPage* (starred review)

"A life brazenly lived and a tale compellingly told.... With gripping, fluid storytelling, this enthralling account of Dickey Chapelle is given well deserved and illuminating new light and life."

— Denise Kiernan, New York Times bestselling author of The Girls of Atomic City, The Last Castle, and We Gather Together

LEAD TO WIN

How to be a Powerful, Impactful, Influential Leader in Any Environment

Carla A. Harris

(Avery/Penguin Random House, September 2022)

The author of Expect To Win and Strategize To Win steps out with dynamic strategies for leaders of today and tomorrow.

Work has undergone a sea change, introducing a new matrix of concerns and questions for leaders and potential leaders. What does it take to lead effectively now? What does "leadership" even mean?

In this much-needed book, powerhouse Carla Harris examines the journey from individual contributor to leader. She targets the essential skills necessary to succeed, like the importance of taking risks, creating a vision, and leveraging assets like relationships and partnerships. At the heart of this book are her eight pearls of Intentional Leadership – authenticity, building trust, creating other leaders, creating clarity, diversity, innovation, inclusivity, and voice – qualities that you need to hone and manifest to become a powerful, impactful leader no matter where you work.

Timely, inspiring, and filled with Harris's trademark practical advice, Lead To Win is a touchstone for anyone looking to influence and lead others to make positive change.

"Our world has changed — and so must the way we lead. Thank goodness, then, for Carla Harris. In this powerful book, she draws on the wisdom accumulated during her own astonishing career to illuminate how leaders can become more intentional, effective, and transformative."

— Daniel H. Pink, #1 New York Times bestselling author of THE POWER OF REGRET, DRIVE, and TO SELL IS HUMAN

Praise for STRATEGIZE TO WIN:

"Everyone who strives to get ahead wants and needs mentors, but most of us lack them. Strategize to Win is a mentor in book form, giving you direct access to some of the finest career advice you'll ever get from one of the best mentors you could ever have."

EVERY BREATH, NEW CHANCES: How to Age with Honor and Dignity

Lewis Richmond
(North Atlantic Books, 2020)

Aging is a journey: a decades-long adventure of new opportunities and surprises. For many men, the decline in virility and power that accompanies age can be a tough pill to swallow. When these fall away, how do we make sense of who we are? What does it mean to be a man? Drawing from research, interviews, and personal stories, Every Breath, New Chances shows readers how to turn toward the changes associated with aging and to reevaluate losses and transitions as new avenues for joy, self-discovery, renewal, and growth.

Lewis Richmond is a meditation teacher, musician, software entrepreneur, and author of five books, including the national bestseller WORK AS A SPIRITUAL PRACTICE and the award-winning AGING AS A SPIRITUAL PRACTICE. Richmond's essays have appeared in such magazines as Tricycle, The Buddhistharma, Turning Wheel, and Shambhala Sun.

"Make no mistake, this book is not just for men! Every Breath, New Chances is a wise and compassionate companion in the journey of aging. This is a must-companion along the way."

—Diane Eshin Rizzetto, author of WAKING UP TO WHAT YOU DO

"This is a book you can trust to guide you as you age! Every Breath, New Chances is rooted in real wisdom and full of heart."

—Thomas Moore, author of CARE OF THE SOUL

"As my entire generation moves toward its end, I can't think of a more helpful, necessary book. Lewis Richmond offers a calm and systematic framework and practice to help you get the most out of your life right now!"

GETTING EVERYTHING YOU CAN OUT OF ALL YOU'VE GOT: 21 Ways You Can Out-Think, Out-Perform, and Out-Earn the Competition

By Jay Abraham
(St. Martin's)

Unseen opportunities face each of us every day. This program focuses on helping you spot the hidden assets, overlooked advantages, and untapped resources around you and gives you fresh eyes with which to see and capitalize on them. You'll also learn how to adapt and apply these tools to your unique circumstances to maximize your income, influence, power, and success. Using clear examples from his own experience, Jay explains just how easy it can be to find and/or create new opportunities for wealth-building in any existing business, enterprise, or venture.

And just how easy can it be? One entrepreneur took the concept of the ballpoint pen and refined it into a multimillion-dollar idea: roll-on deodorant. Fred Smith of Federal Express took the methods that banks use for clearing checks to develop an overnight delivery company that has revolutionized the way we do business. Now, what have you seen--or are going to see--that you could take and turn to your advantage?

THE STICKING POINT SOLUTION: Nine Ways to Move Your Business From Stagnation to Stunning Growth in Tough Economic Times

By Jay Abraham

Businesses can plateau, stall, OR stagnate...without the owners or key executives even realizing it. A business might be achieving incremental year-on-year growth and yet still be in a situation of stagnation or stall. Why? Because entrepreneurs and executives often focus on the wrong things and don't know how to solve the problems that get their businesses stuck.

The purpose of The Sticking Point Solution is to help entrepreneurs and executives recognize the ways in which their businesses may be stuck, and to then give them tools for getting unstuck and enjoying exponential growth. To achieve this, Jay will help you identify the nine "sticking points" that keep entrepreneurs and executives alike grinding just to survive, instead of growing and thriving.

The results: freedom from stagnation and stalling, new levels of profitability and success; and a much greater sense of control and pleasure from running the enterprise.

EINSTEIN NEVER USED FLASH CARDS

How Our Children Really Learn--and Why They Need to Play More and Memorize Less

with Diane Eyer, Ph.D.
(Rodale)

In Einstein Never Used Flash Cards, highly credentialed child psychologists Kathy Hirsh-Pasek, Ph.D. and Roberta Michnick Golinkoff, Ph.D., with Diane Eyer, Ph.D., offer a compelling indictment of the growing trend toward accelerated learning. It's a message that stressed-out parents are craving to hear: Letting tots learn through play is not only okay-it's better than drilling academics!

Drawing on overwhelming scientific evidence from their own studies and the collective research results of child development experts, and addressing the key areas of development-math, reading, verbal communication, science, self-awareness, and social skills-the authors explain the process of learning from a child's point of view. They then offer parents 40 age-appropriate games for creative play. These simple, fun--yet powerful exercises work as well or better than expensive high-tech gadgets to teach a child what his ever-active, playful mind is craving to learn.

"Explodes over-hyped education myths and tells you why relaxing and reclaiming your child's childhood is the best way to nurture his growing mind." —Parenting Magazine
